Mr. Jno. Lewis, who lived three miles from Newberry, died at Glenn Springs Thursday, the 22nd, aged about fifty years. He had been in health for some time, and went to Glenn's in the hope of being benefited, but waited too long before going, as many others do. Mr. Lewis was a good farmer and a useful citizen. Three Score Years and Ten. It will surprise many persons to learn that in Newberry County, with a population of 26,550, there are only forty-seven white men who are seventy years old. Yet, such is the fact from actual count from the census enumerators' books.

The "Southern Star Troupe." We learn, will pay Spartanburg a visit in a few days, due notice of which will hereafter be given. From the strong endorsement given this Troupe by our young friend B. H. Grenker, Jr., of the Newberry News, their entertainment will doubtless be a most enjoyable affair. —Spartanburg Herald.

A Modern David. Some negroes on Mr. Mike Kinard's place, five miles from town, got into a row Saturday. Jane Stevens, who was trying to quell the trouble, was struck on the head behind the ear with a stone by a boy named Nathan Brown, alias Neal. Dr. J. K. Applicants for Cadetship. A competitive examination was held at Cokesbury the 22nd of applicants for appointment to West Point from the Third Congressional District. The examiners were W. C. We are pleased to say that Mrs. F. O. Bailey, the accomplished teacher in the Music Department, is still retained. The next Session will begin on the 8th of September.

ANNOUNCEMENT. LIFE OF GENERAL WINFIELD SCOTT HANCOCK.

We are glad to know that the well known publishing house of Hubbard Bros., of Atlanta, Ga., have in preparation and will soon issue the Life of Gen. Hancock, written by Gen. John W. Forney. The career of the brilliant soldier who is soon to be transferred to the White House furnished material for a volume which is deep and thrilling in interest, has rarely been equaled in the annals of American biography. It is fortunate that its preparation has been entrusted to Col. Forney, who is not only an able and successful writer, but also a man whose name is known to all the ablest editors and most brilliant writers in America. His known ability and his personal intimacy with Gen. Hancock, are a sufficient guarantee that the book will be full, complete and authoritative—a volume of permanent value, and in this respect widely different from ordinary campaign literature. It will be sold only by subscription, and must meet with a very large sale.

A neat and handsome table service is the first consideration in a well ordered family, and the good housewife is always pleased when she can make a nice display of handsome ware. There is no reason at all why this should not be so, for the facilities afforded by Messrs. Kingsland & Heath, of Columbia, together with their low prices, are such as enable any one to supply their wants. Their establishment is filled with an elegant stock of house-furnishing goods in china, glass and all other kinds of ware.

Will you believe it. WOMEN'S BEST FRIEND.—To relieve the aching heart of woman, and bring joy where sorrow reigned supreme, is a mission before which the smiles of kings dwindle into utter insignificance. This is the peculiar privilege of Bradfield's Female Regulator, which, from its numberless cures, is appropriately styled "Woman's Best Friend." The distressing complaint known as "white" or "blue" discharge, which is the most common to which woman is subject, disappears like magic before a single bottle of this wonderful compound. Physicians prescribe it.

Prepared by Dr. J. Bradfield, Atlanta, Ga., and sold at $1.50 per bottle by Dr. S. F. Fant.

NOW IN PERFECT HEALTH. Near MARIETTA, GA., March 21, 1880. Some months ago I bought a bottle of Bradfield's Female Regulator, and used it in my family with the most successful results. It has recommended it to three other families, and they have found it just what it is recommended. The females who have used the Regulator are now in perfect health, and able to attend to their household duties. We cordially recommend it to the public. REV. H. B. JOHNSON.
