AULL'S MILL, EDGEFIELD CO., S. C.

Dr. L. T. Hill: Dear Sir—I take great pleasure in commending to the public Hill's HYPATIC PANACEA, or Liver Medicine, for all diseases for which it is recommended.

Knowing the medicinal virtues of the ingredients of which it is compounded, I was induced to give it a trial in my practice, and I unhesitatingly say that it did more in my hands than any "liver medicine" I ever used.

Yours truly, HENRY N. SLOAN, M. D. For sale to the trade by W. H. Barrett, Augusta, Ga., and by W. E. Pelham. 35-11m.

Will You Believe It?

WOMAN'S BEST FRIEND.—To relieve the aching heart of woman, and bring joy where sorrow reigned supreme, is a mission before which the smiles of kings dwindle into utter insignificance. This is the peculiar province of Bradfield's Female Regulator, which from its numberless cures, is appropriately styled "Woman's Best Friend." The distressing complaint known as "whites," and various irregularities of the womb, which woman is subject to disappear like magic before a single bottle of this wonderful compound. Physicians prescribe it.

The Benefits of Advertising.

Dr. Jno. M. Thompson advertised last week in the Herald for a lost Bank Check and when he got home he found it awaiting him there, right where he had left it—in his "other pants" pocket. And yet there are people who don't believe in advertising.

Infanticide.

Trial Justice Irwin, acting as Coroner, held an inquest over the dead body of a colored baby the 19th of August near Chappell's Depot. The child was found in a gully, where it had been left to die, and it died a few minutes after being found. The testimony showed that it was placed there by its mother, Usley Taylor, or Davis, and that she caused its death. She is now in jail awaiting trial on the charge of murder.

The Prosperity High School.

The Fall Session of this institution, under the direction of Prof. C. W. Welch, Principal, and Prof. D. C. Lake, Assistant, began Monday. Fifty-one pupils were in attendance the first day; the number will be much larger. The commodious new building, 60 by 30, is divided into two comfortable and well ventilated rooms. The people of Prosperity are taking steps to provide improved desks for the school-rooms; about $300 has been raised for that purpose since Saturday last. The people feel great pride in their school.

Almost a Vacancy.

A few days ago Associate Justice McGowan passed up the G. & C. R. R. At Newberry he got off to assist some ladies out of the coach, and attempted to get back after the train started. As he caught hold of the rods of the platform to pull himself in his foot slipped, and holding on to the rods, he was dragged about twenty feet on the depot platform, when his hold broke and he fell across the track. Fortunately the platform where he attempted to get on was the rear platform of the rear coach, or there would have been a vacancy on the Supreme Bench.

80.—How it Compares with Previous Years. The number of bales of cotton shipped from this point for the year beginning Sept. 1, 1879 and ending Sept. 1, 1880, is 18,868. We append below the shipments for several preceding years:

Table with 2 columns: Year, Shipments. 1878-9, 19,067; 1877-8, 17,380; 1876-7, 19,395; 1875-6, 21,855; 1874-5, 25,156; 1873-4, 25,520.

NUMBER OF BALES SHIPPED FROM PROSPERITY.

The number of bales shipped from Prosperity for the year ending Sept. 1, 1880 was 3,157; the number for the corresponding period of 1878-9 was 2,356—showing an increase of 801 bales.

Bad News from Newberry.

A correspondent publishes the following in the Charleston News and Courier: NEWBERRY, S. C., August 27.—Our crop prospects are poor. Corn on the uplands is a failure, and the freshest early in the month swept everything on the river bottoms. The corn was all young and is dead. The planters are preparing to put in largely of small grain. It is now realized that the cotton crop will be very short—from 20 to 30 per cent. behind last year. At that section, and the best in the county, from Laurens to Broad River, is very poor. A great deal is now growing rapidly under the August rains, and not a bloom to be seen. It will all be too late. On sandy lands it is dead with rust. The prospect is bad indeed. The crop north and east of Newberry Court House will be one-fourth, possibly one-third, less than last year. The planters are just realizing the situation.

TRAVELER.

The above piece gives a very erroneous impression of the crop prospects in this County. It is true that in one or two sections of the County crops are poor, occasioned by drought; but taking the County over the prospects are good for more than an average crop of cotton and corn too. The Commissioner of Agriculture in his last Monthly Report rates the cotton crop of Newberry at 125, the highest in the State with the exception of one or two Counties that are rated at the same figures. The Northern and North-eastern portions of the County have suffered from drought—some portions severely, and a short crop will be made there; but below Newberry Court House the crops are good, in some sections splendid—better than were ever known by the oldest inhabitants.

Base Music.

To be crossed from sweet and delicious slumber by a "cat serenade," is on a par with being annoyed in church by the steady hacking and coughing of individuals, who neglect to take Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Price 25 Cts.

The Boone Interview.

We print in another column what purports to be an interview with Post Master Boone by a reporter for the Wheeling Intelligencer, a Republican newspaper published at Wheeling, West Virginia. A representative of the Herald called on Mr. Boone in reference to the statements made by him in the interview. He said he had seen the article, and makes the following statement in regard to the same—the statement is given in his own language and over his own signature:

MR. BOONE'S STATEMENT.

While waiting in Wheeling for the 5 P. M. train for Washington I had a conversation with a gentleman, a stranger to me, who asked me, in a general way, where I was going. I replied that I was going to Washington. He then asked me if I lived in Washington, and I replied that I did not, but in the South. He asked what State; I told him, South Carolina, where I had lived for the past twelve years, but was a native of North Carolina. He then asked what kind of business I was engaged in; I replied, handling him my card, that I was Post Master at Newberry, S. C. He then asked me whether Post Masters in places of that size were generally Republicans; I answered, yes, and that I was a Republican. Being asked whether Newberry County was Democratic or Republican, I told him it was Democratic, but that prior to 1876 the County had given a Republican majority of about 1,600. He then asked whether, from my knowledge of the colored people, I thought any considerable number would vote the Democratic ticket; to which I replied that I thought not. I was asked how long I had held the position of Post Master; I replied, six years. He asked if there had been any opposition to my reappointment, and I stated that there had been; that a gentleman made application, which was endorsed by nearly all of the Democrats in the town of Newberry, and was presented by Congressman Aiken. I was then asked what treatment I had received at the hands of the people since my appointment. I replied that my relations with the people in a business way, as far as I knew, had been and were of the friendliest kind, and that I had no cause to complain. This is, positively, all that I said in the conversation alluded to, and the remainder of the reported interview is a pure work of fiction.

R. W. BOONE.

After the above statement from Mr. Boone there remains nothing to be said, except that the so-called interview in the Wheeling paper shows the length to which the Radical press will go in "firing the Northern heart" against the South. This Wheeling reporter is a right sharp fellow: with true yankee ingenuity, impudence and audacity he gathered from Mr. Boone, without revealing his object or identity, just enough of facts upon which to build a plausible story of Southern outrages. Knowing that a lie travels faster than the truth, and answers the purpose of the outrage-mill just as well, he adds a string of falsehoods from his own fertile imagination. The Radical press and politicians are constantly raving about negroes being "killed at the ballot-boxes," or "shot down at the polls," but we defy one of them to point out a single instance in the State of South Carolina where such a thing has happened.

Mr. Boone is badly mistaken if he thinks that no "considerable number" of the colored people vote the Democratic ticket. In 1876 over 15,000 voted for Hampton, and a large number voted the full Democratic ticket; and in 1878 nearly all the colored voters voted for Hampton, and a still larger number voted the full Democratic ticket. State and County, than in 1876. How many will vote the Democratic ticket at the coming election remains to be seen.

An interview is never altogether satisfactory; the interviewer can very easily put into the mouth of the person interviewed whatever he chooses, or he may honestly make mistakes and report language and ideas that the party interviewed never thought of. The interview in the Wheeling Intelligencer is what the reporter says that Mr. Boone says; the Herald gives what Mr. Boone says himself in his own way and over his own signature, so that there can be no doubt as to its correctness.

Peterson's Magazine.

Comes out in great force for October. Besides the principal steel-plate, "The Rescue," which illustrates a thrilling story by Mrs. Mary V. Spence, and the double-sized, colored steel-plate of fashions, there are two colored patterns, one a "Baby's Afghan," and the other a design for embroidering handkerchiefs, each alone worth the price of the number. There is also a charming love story, illustrated with numerous engravings, called "A Summer Episode." Among the other literary articles a powerful story, by Mrs. R. Sheffy Peters, "The Maid of Millen," introduces to us a new name in literature, and one destined to make a mark. Marietta Holley is also a beautiful story. We cannot too often refer to this magazine as altogether the cheapest and best of its kind. Where one only is taken, "Peterson" should be the one, for it fills more wants than any other. The terms are but two dollars a year. Great deductions are made to clubs, and handsome premiums are given to persons for getting up clubs; in short, the inducements of every kind are unparelleled. Specimens will be sent, gratis, to persons wishing to get up clubs. Address, for this purpose, or for subscribing, Chas. J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Valuable Facts from a Safe Source.

The affairs of this country have become so extended that it is only by a carefully prepared synopsis in the form of figures that one can hope to understand what is really going on. Hon. A. R. Spofford, the Librarian of Congress, is the only man who has the facilities at his command for collecting complete national statistics and he does it with the greatest care and accuracy. His latest issue, "The American Treasury of Facts," has been sent to by Messrs. H. H. Warner & Co., proprietors of the valuable Warner's Safe Remedies. This book is a miniature cyclopaedia in itself, containing, in addition to a vast amount of national matter, about all of value that has transpired in this country during the past year and reflects credit upon the compiler as well as upon the enterprise of Messrs. Warner & Co., in selecting it.

A Splendid Nomination.

Dr. Thomas C. Brown, of Newberry, was nominated last Saturday by the Democrats for Senator from that county. The nomination was made by the primary plan and this is a distinguished honor to a worthy man. Dr. Brown was a classmate of the editor of the Medium and graduated at Erskine College in 1859. He afterwards graduated in medicine and rose to the rank of Assistant Surgeon in the army. For a number of years after the war he practiced his profession with great success but lately he has devoted his time to farming. Dr. Brown is a man of fine intellect, sound judgment, quick perception, unswerving integrity, in the prime and vigor of manhood, strikingly handsome in personal appearance and in every respect qualified and suited for a Senator. He is an elder in the Presbyterian church and a christian in the full and true sense of the word. He is every inch a man and the people of Newberry have made a wise choice.

Advice to Travelers.—Buy a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup—the only thing to stop a Hack.

Rev. Mr. Hughes, Pastor of the Lutheran Church, will preach a sermon next Sabbath on the subject of Benevolence.

The radicals of this County will have a grand rally at the Court House Thursday, the 9th instant. The speakers will be Sam Lee, Elliott, Brayton, Chatfield and others.

Why will men allow themselves to suffer and their noble horse when "Kendall's Spavin Cure" applied properly will remove all suffering from man and beast. See Adv.

A Double Wedding in Which a Newberian Takes a Hand.

We clip the following extracts from the Charlottesville, (Va.) Chronicle of the 3d instant:

The society event of the week was the marriage of the Misses Pauline and Lena Oberdorfer, daughters of our esteemed fellow-citizen, B. Oberdorfer, Esq., which took place at "Oberdorfer's Hall" on Wednesday evening last. The first named young lady, Miss Pauline, was united to Mr. Moses Leterman, the well known and popular clothing merchant of this place, and the last named, Miss Lena, to Mr. Abe Foot, of Newberry, South Carolina. The ceremony was performed, according to the impressive Hebrew Ritual, by the Rev.

Abram Harris, of the German Synagogue, Richmond, Va.

The brides were handsomely arrayed in white satin, with veils extending to their feet, while the gentlemen wore black cloth dress suits and the sleekest sort of bow-ties.
