NEWBERRY, S. C. WEDNESDAY, OCT. 13, 1880.

A PAPER FOR THE PEOPLE. The Herald is in the highest respect a Family Newspaper, devoted to the material interests of the people of this County and the State.

THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

- For President: W. S. HANCOCK. For Vice-President: W. H. ENGLISH. For Governor: JOHNSON HAGOOD. For Lieutenant-Governor: J. D. KENNEDY.

COUNTY TICKET.

- For the Senate: THOMAS C. BROWN. For the House of Representatives: GEORGE JOHNSTONE, JOHN C. WILSON, JEFFERSON A. SLIGH.

The Georgia State election came off the 6th. Colquhitt beat Norwood by forty thousand majority.

Martin Chapin, of Lexington, the nominee for State Treasurer on the Greenback ticket, declines to be a candidate.

In the second primary election in Lexington the 2nd instant, Dr. Gerhard Muller beat Maj. Henry A. Meetez by forty-two votes.

The South Carolina College of Agriculture and Mechanics was opened the 5th instant. There are about fifty students in attendance.

A new paper has been started at Union, called the Democrat—published by Mr. P. W. B. Freeman, and edited by David Johnson, Jr., Esq.

The primary election in Oconee County was held the 7th. The following are the Legislative nominees: For the Senate, J. L. Shanklin; for the House, S. P. Denny, Jno. S. Vermer.

Capt. Thos. P. Benson, proprietor of the Palmetto House, Spartanburg, was found dead in his bed Saturday afternoon. He had gone to the room only an hour or two before he was found dead. In his pocket was a letter, dated in June last, in which he declared his intention to commit suicide.

What Shall Be Done with the Convicts?

This is a serious and a troublesome question. It is a question that is agitating the public mind, not noisily, but deeply. It is an important question, and it cannot be ignored. There are hundreds of men in this State asking this question and demanding an answer with an earnestness that is terrible; an earnestness that is heightened and deepened by the strongest feelings that can move a man's heart.

Every mechanic is asking the question. It is a troublesome question. A few years ago, when large appropriations were made annually to support the Penitentiary, a great hue and cry was raised: "Make the Penitentiary self-supporting."

The Democratic party of this State must not shirk this question; if it do it will surely suffer for it. Convicts can be made to work on railroads, public roads and in other ways; but it is not right that they should be taught trades and put in competition with honest men.

The decision of Judge Hudson, some time ago ordered the Master to advertise to receive bids for the Greenville & Columbia Railroad till the 1st of October; if any bid put in under this order exceeded $2,393,600, it was to take the road; otherwise the Clyde Company, who bid that sum at the sale in April, should take it.

The celebration of the King's Mountain Centennial the 5th, 6th and 7th was a grand affair. The Governors of several States were present and many other distinguished men of the country. The military companies, of which many were present, were reviewed the 5th by Gen. Hunt of the U. S. Army. The oration was delivered the 6th by John Danaher, of Virginia, to over twenty thousand people.

Jno. F. Hobbs, Esq., of Lexington, who was candidate for Solicitor before the Judicial Convention of the 5th Circuit, has risen to a point of order. He says the Edgefield delegates were not elected but were only suggested as delegates in their County Convention.

The Cash-Shannon Duel.

The trial of Col. E. B. C. Cash for killing Col. Shannon in a duel the 5th of July last, and of others for violation of the dueling acts, did not come off last week, as was anticipated. Col. Cash was in Court ready and anxious for trial.

This must be a sore disappointment to those who were so eager for Col. Cash's conviction; it seemed to regard it such a plain case that the trial would be only a matter of form and the conviction would follow as a matter of course. They seemed to forget a very important fact, viz. that men are tried according to the forms of law in this State and not by newspapers and anti-dueling societies.

It was this state of facts that met the Attorney General and Solicitor at the very threshold of the prosecution, and it is difficult to see how the State can be any better prepared in February than it was in October.

Gen. Grant has done some good things, and many very mean things; but the meanest thing of all is his attack recently made on the character and record of Gen. Hancock. The Radical papers are just now jubilant over an interview between Grant and the Rev. Dr. Fowler, a Northern Methodist preacher, in which Grant is reported to have said many very ugly things about the Democratic candidate for the Presidency.

The Secretary and Treasurer then submitted his annual report covering the whole period of the Society's existence. His report shows that his receipts were $4,689.25 up to the night of Oct. 7, 1880; that his payments to same date were $4,587.05; that there were some outstanding amounts due to the Society; that the Society was indebted in the sum of about $1,700 exclusive of expenses of the present Fair; and that the property of the Society was estimated as worth $4,500.

Of course the whole thing was arranged for a purpose: it was a "put up job." Grant is made to say, in the reported interview, that down to 1864 Hancock seemed anxious to do his duty as an officer; that in that year he received one vote for the Presidency, and it greatly excited him—it crazed him! He says that Hancock is ambitious, vain and weak. He says that ever since 1864 Hancock has shaped his course to secure Southern favor and Democratic support; that his conduct in Louisiana was a deliberate attempt to undo the Reconstruction Acts of Congress.

The Greenville News says that ex-Judge Cooke will run as an Independent candidate for the State Senate against Col. W. H. Perry, the regular Democratic nominee; but whether as an Independent Democrat or a miscellaneous Independent is still a matter of doubt.

The State election in Indiana and Ohio comes off to-day, Tuesday. It is no vile drugged stuff, pretending to be made of wonderful foreign roots, barks, &c., and pulled up by long legs certificates of pretended miraculous cures, but a simple, pure, effective medicine, made of well known valuable remedies, that furnishes its own certificates by its cures. We refer to Hop Bitters, the purest and best of medicines.—Exchange. See another column.

FOR THE HERALD. Minutes of Annual Meeting of the N. A. & M. S.

Newberry, S. C., Oct. 7, 1880. Pursuant to notice the meeting of the Newberry Agricultural and Mechanical Society was called to order at 4 P. M. to day at the Fair Grounds of the Society, by the President, John C. Wilson, Esq.—a quorum being present. The Minutes of Oct. 24, 1879, were then read and approved as read.

Dr. James McIntosh moved that Section 3 of the Constitution of the Society be so amended that the annual meeting of the Society for the election of officers be fixed for the second day of each Annual Fair at 3 P. M. The amendment was adopted.

On motion of O. L. Schuppert, Esq., it was resolved that each Annual Fair of the Society commence on the first Wednesday after the third Monday in October of each year.

The following resolutions upon the death of Vice President John McCarley were then adopted:

WHEREAS, it has pleased Almighty God in His all-wise providence, to remove from our midst our highly respected Vice President, John McCarley; and, whereas, in his loss we recognize the fact that the community has lost a valuable member, who was earnest and true in his undertakings, high-toned and honorable in his dealings with his fellow-men; and, whereas, society has lost a strong upholder of law and order, both in his teachings and example, one who was self-sacrificing and public-spirited, willing to spend and be spent for the good of others; and, whereas, this Society has lost a valuable officer, who was ever solicitous of its prosperity, prompted only by a laudable ambition to perform well the duties assigned to him; full of that spirit which says whosoever would be greatest among you let him be the servant of all.

Now, therefore, be it resolved as members of one community we mourn his loss with becoming appreciation of his worth.

2d. Resolved, That as citizens of one country we strongly trust a memory of his teachings and example may live to stimulate others in imitation of his character.

3rd. Resolved, That as officers of this Society, we humbly bow to the will of the Great Creator and Ruler, trusting that He who has caused the vacuum in our ranks, may in His own good time and way fill up our number, and guide us in the way we should go towards the agricultural and mechanical prosperity of our Country. Hoping that the loss we now mourn may have given us juster views of the dignity and value of human existence, and of the entire compatibility of deep religious sentiments with earthly duties, successes and honors. Light will then break through the dark dispensation and our sorrow be chastened with gratitude, and we may be enabled truly to say the Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away, blessed be the name of the Lord.

4th. Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Newberry Agricultural and Mechanical Society.

5th. Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

The Secretary and Treasurer then submitted his annual report covering the whole period of the Society's existence. His report shows that his receipts were $4,689.25 up to the night of Oct. 7, 1880; that his payments to same date were $4,587.05; that there were some outstanding amounts due to the Society; that the Society was indebted in the sum of about $1,700 exclusive of expenses of the present Fair; and that the property of the Society was estimated as worth $4,500.

On motion of Col. Jno. R. Leavell the Executive Committee was directed to appoint suitable committees to file written reports by the next Fair upon the different crops and mechanical improvements of the day as were of general interest.

On motion of M. A. Carlisle, Esq., the Executive Committee was authorized to procure a suitable person to deliver an address at the next Fair. On motion it was referred to the Executive Committee to devise means to reduce the debt of the Society. A resolution of thanks to the officers of the Society was then adopted upon motion of Jas. M. Baxter, Esq., Adjourned.

FOR THE HERALD. Our Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 6, 1880.

In this city, where both Grant and Hancock are well known, the recent alleged statements to the latter by the former create equal amazement and amusement. Even the qualifications put up by the President upon the statements first published hardly save them from being classed, as at first, among the most ridiculous expressions of opinion, and the worst perversions of fact even put before the people.

The act of the General Assembly of the State incorporating the Society was then read by the Secretary. It was then resolved by the Society to accept the said Charter or Act incorporating the Society.

The following resolutions upon the death of Vice President John McCarley were then adopted:

WHEREAS, it has pleased Almighty God in His all-wise providence, to remove from our midst our highly respected Vice President, John McCarley; and, whereas, in his loss we recognize the fact that the community has lost a valuable member, who was earnest and true in his undertakings, high-toned and honorable in his dealings with his fellow-men; and, whereas, society has lost a strong upholder of law and order, both in his teachings and example, one who was self-sacrificing and public-spirited, willing to spend and be spent for the good of others; and, whereas, this Society has lost a valuable officer, who was ever solicitous of its prosperity, prompted only by a laudable ambition to perform well the duties assigned to him; full of that spirit which says whosoever would be greatest among you let him be the servant of all.
