A. M. Hanson, a peddler, from Petersburg, Va., died at Bleasie's Hotel in town Sunday morning from excessive drinking. Dying far away from friends and relatives, and under such circumstances, his end was a sad one.

All kinds of Cotton Blanks printed at this office with neatness and despatch and at moderate prices. Leave your orders here.

Court.

Judge Kershaw discharged the petit jury Saturday night, after four weeks attendance. The Court is now engaged in the trial of causes not requiring a jury.

Our Little Ones.

Is an exceedingly pretty little illustrated monthly issued by the Russell Publishing Co., Tremont St., Boston. Such a paper will please the little people hugely, and we commend it to parents who would place something good in their hands. Only $1.50 a year.

Pretty Good.

Charley Croft, colored, reports that he has killed thirteen hundred and eighty-four squirrels in the past four years, and caught three hundred and eighty-one opossums in the same time. If Charley's count is correct, he must be classed as one of the mighty hunters.

Dress Making.

We take pleasure in calling attention to the work of Mrs. Jennie Brannan, which appears this week. She is prepared to do Dress Making, make up gentlemen's and youth's clothes, and all kinds of undergarments. We commend her to the ladies, and ask for her a share of patronage.

Excursion to Charleston.

The up country have had frequent cheap opportunities of visiting Charleston the past Summer and Fall, and now another and the last for this year is afforded them. The present will commence on the 6th and ten days will be allowed to see the sights. The fare from Newberry for the round trip is $8. Read the advertisement for other particulars.

Pleasant.

On Saturday last our office was enlivened by a visit from Mrs. J. A. Long. It was her first insight into a printing office, and the sound of the types as they "rattled in the sticks" was novel; her impressions as she gazed on the press and its ample "bed" which at that time was bare of "sheets", and witnessed a "chase" which did not move, and got a glimpse of the "devil", were beyond expression. She was much pleased.

Our Advertising Patrons.

Are kindly asked to bring in their advertisements on Monday when convenient, and those who cannot on that day are requested to have them in as early Tuesday morning as is practicable. To save our up mail we have to go to press by twelve o'clock on the day last mentioned, and lose the mail when this is not done. Besides we have not time to notice editorially the late advertisements.

Thanksgiving Day.

Was not very generally observed among our people. It is impossible to tell the amount of thankfulness that pervaded the inner consciousness of each citizen; but there was little in the outward appearance of things that distinguished the day from any other. There were religious services at the Lutheran Church, and J. N. Martin & Co. closed their store. Well, all have much to be thankful for, and many things are for which we would have been much worse.

OPEN YOUR EYES WIDE before you send North for instruments. Spread eagle advertisements do not always tell the exact truth. BETTER instruments at train passed he was knocked off. For a time there must have been a desperate struggle for life; for he managed to keep himself above ground between two box cars for some time; he was run over about a hundred yards below the bridge, and was hurled into the water. The deceased was from Williamson, was about 25 years of age, and had been on the road a year, but only conductor for a short time.

A colored man named Butler Lanax was knocked off the top of the down night freight train Sunday night, 28th, by the overhead bridge at Burton's Tank, five miles above Newberry. His skull was broken by the blow, and he died Monday.

Hymenial.

On Thursday night last at the Methodist Church were united in wedlock by the Rev. J. B. Campbell, Mr. Robert Moorman and Miss Addie V. Davis. The church was filled with spectators and was besides handsomely decorated with evergreen garlands, presenting an attractive and appropriate appearance. The youthful couple knelt beneath an arch representing the horseshoe. The ceremony concluded, the bride and groom received the congratulations of their friends at the residence of the Rev. J. B. Campbell, and then proceeded to that of Mr. Thos. S. Moorman and enjoyed a wedding supper. The waiters in attendance were: Dr. D. S. Pope, of Columbia, and Miss Addie Moorman, of Orangeburg, Mr. W. W. Hodges and Miss Annie Wardlaw, Mr. L. W. Jones and Miss Lela Nolan, Mr. J. L. Ramage and Miss Katie Mayer, Mr. T. Mayes and Miss Elvira Ramage. Mrs. Jno. S. Fair rendered the march at the organ, and Messrs. W. F. Ewart and Jno. S. Curville acted as ushers.

We tender our congratulations to the happy pair.

A Big Cotton Sale.

Messrs. C. F. Waters & Son bought two hundred and sixty (260) bales of cotton Saturday, 27th, in one lot from Mr. F. H. Dominick, one of our largest and most successful farmers. The cotton averaged "strict middling", and the price paid was 10 7/8. The weights averaged about 450 pounds, and the lot brought $12,448.75. The cotton was shipped to Charleston. Messrs. Waters & Son have bought a large quantity of cotton this season, and pay the highest market price.

A First Rate Picture.

Messrs. Clark Bros., photographers, are entitled to rank with the best artists of the country as the work executed by them will testify. We cheerfully add our testimony. Having occasion for a small photograph from which to make a copy, and the result far exceeded our anticipation. The copy is splendid and we will take pleasure in showing it to any who desire to see what they can do. We have no hesitation in saying that they are able to satisfy the most exacting taste.

The Place to Go.

Now is the time to visit the store of Messrs. Kingsland & Heath, of Columbia, for it is full of goods to circulate with goods suitable for this season and all other seasons. We know of no other establishment in which are kept such a variety in China, Glass, Crochery and other goods, besides the assortment of goods suitable for presents are endless and bewildering in beauty. If you have not the time to go down to the city an order may be sent which will be filled to your satisfaction or money returned. 49—1t.

A Valuable Hint to Music Buyers.

Music is sometimes an expensive luxury, but not if you buy it at the right place and in the right way. Send $1.25 to Ludden & Bates' Southern Music House, Savannah, Ga., as a yearly subscription to the Southern Musical Journal, and you will get in return $12 worth of choice music, which is published in the Journal during the year, and as a premium, $1 worth of any sheet music you may desire; $13 worth of music for only $1.25. A splendid return for a small investment. Try it. November just out, containing $1 worth of music, will be mailed on receipt of ten cents.

Killed on the Rail Road.

Mr. J. W. Johnson, a young freight Conductor on the C. & G. R. Ry., was run over by the cars and killed Thursday, the 25th, at Newberry. He was standing on top of a car, and when the train passed under the bridge on Boundary Street he was knocked off. For a time there must have been a desperate struggle for life; for he managed to keep himself above ground between two box cars for some time; he was run over about a hundred yards below the bridge, and was hurled into the water. The deceased was from Williamson, was about 25 years of age, and had been on the road a year, but only conductor for a short time.

A colored man named Butler Lanax was knocked off the top of the down night freight train Sunday night, 28th, by the overhead bridge at Burton's Tank, five miles above Newberry. His skull was broken by the blow, and he died Monday.
