Mr. L. S. Bowers, post master at Prosperity is our authorized agent at that place.

Newberry College.

We have received a catalogue of the above named institution for the scholastic year of 1880-81. The number of pupils in attendance is 112.

WHAT TO WEAR.

FRANK LESLIE'S POPULAR MONTHLY.

Just received at

HERALD OFFICE.

Newberry County Medical Society.

At a meeting of this Society the 9th inst., the following officers were chosen for the ensuing year: President, Dr. R. C. Carlisle; Vice-President, Dr. J. K. Gilder; Secretary and Treasurer, Dr. J. Wm. Foix; Delegates to the State Medical Association, Drs. J. K. Gilder and W. M. McCauley.

The Greatest Blessing.

A simple, pure, harmless remedy, that cures every time, and prevents disease by keeping the blood pure, stomach regular, kidneys and liver active, is the greatest blessing ever conferred upon man. Hop Bitters, that remedy, and its proprietors are being blessed by thousands who have been saved and cured by it. Will you try it?—Eagle.

A Narrow Escape.

Tuesday, the 12th instant, a freight car of the Laurens train jumped the track on Little River Bridge at Laurens. The car ran some distance after jumping the track, piling up the cross ties in front of it till it broke loose and stopped about the middle of the bridge, which is forty feet high. The car that ran off was immediately in front of the baggage car.

The K. of H.

The Grand Lodge of Knights of Honor of the State meets in Yorkville to-day (Tuesday). The following gentlemen left Newberry yesterday to attend the meeting: Mr. E. P. Chalmers, delegate from the Newberry Lodge; Rev. G. W. Holland, Grand Reporter; M. A. Carlisle, Esq., Grand Dictator, and Thos. S. Moorman, Esq., on the Committee on Laws.

Religious.

Bishop Howe officiated Sunday and Sunday night at St. Luke's (Episcopal) Church. He was prevented from coming to Newberry Thursday, as he had expected, on account of sickness.

The Lutheran Church was handsomely decorated for Sunday.

Rev. Manning Brown preached at the Methodist Church Sunday, morning and evening.

Drummers at the Newberry Hotel.

Since the 1st of January there have been five hundred arrivals of drummers at the Newberry Hotel; one hundred and forty from Baltimore, seventy-six from New York, fifty-five from Atlanta, fifty-three from Charleston, twenty from Philadelphia, seven from Boston and Cincinnati each, the rest scattering.

This does not mean five hundred drummers, but that number of arrivals—the same drummers have come at different times.

Two Years Lost.

M. Foot & Son had a large lot of handsome circulars printed last week—executed at the HERALD office—and they are continually doing that thing. By a mistake of the scribe—not the printer—the circular stated that their business was established in 1850 instead of 1857, thus taking off two years of honorable business relations with the public. The writer of the 9 must have been thinking of the nine lives which cats are said to possess, in contradistinction to Shakespeare's seven ages of man, or seven or something else of that sort.

Mr. C. C. Chase.

So well and favorably known to the traveling public, is no longer connected with the Grand Central Hotel of Columbia, having retired from the position of head clerk some weeks since. His objective point now is the mountains, and he is making arrangements for the opening of his famous Hostelry at Hendersonville. Thus it will be seen that his engagement with the Grand Central was only temporary, and to fill up a small interregnum. It is, perhaps, a little too early to call attention to the advantages and pleasures which his popular mountain resort affords, but we can say that we are pleased to know that it will be under the same efficient management.

National Surgical Institute.

One of the Surgeons of this old and notable Institute will visit Newberry, S. C., May 5th, 1881, stopping at the Simmons House.

The object of this visit is to give the afflicted an opportunity for examination at or near their homes, thus saving hopeless cases the expense of a trip to Atlanta. A careful examination will be made, and patients can learn if their cases are curable or can be benefited, and whether it will be necessary for them to visit the Institute. In such cases as can be cured, or treatment begun at home, arrangements can be made with our visiting Surgeon, and treatment commenced at once.

Cases of Deformities and Chronic Diseases will be examined, such as Club Feet, Diseases of the Hip, Spine and Joints, Paralysis, Piles, Fistula, Catarrh, Female and Private Diseases and Diseases of the Eye, Ear, etc.

Come early, as the visit is limited to the time stated. For full and full particulars, address

AGUSTA, GA., Aug. 11, 1880.

Mr. SAM'L H. SHEPARD.

Dear Sir—Permit me to thank you for advising me to take HILL'S HEPATIC PANACEA. I took it as you directed, and was entirely relieved from a severe headache and general depression, that caused me to fear a spell of sickness. It is a good medicine.

Respectfully,
FRANK ARNOLD,

WADLEY, EMANUEL CO., GA.

Oct. 10, 1879.

Gentlemen: While attending the General Assembly this summer, I tried your Star Curine on my leg, it being affected with an old sore caused by a wound received during the late war. After having thoroughly tested it I am compelled to say that it is a success, for I have had experience with different physicians and remedies, and found nothing to cure me, until I used your Star Curine, which has cured a remarkable bad case. Wishing you success, I am yours, respectfully,
JOHN BELL.

I'm So Glad.

This is what the charming Mrs. Smith said to the no less charming Mrs. Jones, who just dropped in the other morning. "I'm so glad now that spring is once more on hand. What do you think! I am going down on a visit to my dear mother in Columbia to spend a few weeks. Now, don't you envy me?" "Yes, indeed, I do, for you will have the opportunity of going through the stock of Messrs. Kingsland & Heath, a privilege which I would give a month's pin money to enjoy."

In the conversation which followed, the various articles in china and crockery which Mrs. S. would like to purchase were discussed with an animation only known to the ladies. 12-1/2

When You Make Your Purchases

Try some of Crampton's Palm Soap, the best in the market. It can be had, recollect, of all grocers. Read the following:

"This certifies that about two years I have used in my family the celebrated Palm Soap, made by Crampton Brothers, New York, and consider it the very best in the market for general use. I think if bought in quantities and allowed to dry for a while, it will last much longer. Altogether I think it the cheapest in the market. Rev. F. C. KIMBALL, Enosburgh Falls, March 30th, 1880."

Nov. 24, 48-6m.

Club Rates.

The Columbia Register will be clubbed with the HERALD as follows: Weekly Register and HERALD $8.50, Tri-weekly Register and HERALD $5, Daily Register and HERALD $8.75.

The Weekly Freeman and HERALD at $8.50.

Personal.

Dr. D. S. Pope, of Columbia, spent Sunday in Newberry.

J. K. P. Goggans, Esq., went up to Laurens last week on professional business.

Dr. R. P. Clark and Mr. W. C. Sligh, prominent citizens of Jalapa, finding things dull in their city, went down to Columbia last Tuesday for the purpose of spreading themselves. They had a good time.

A Big Institution.

The McSmith Music House, of Greenville, has grown into an institution which may well be looked upon with pride. The adage that slender streams at length to rivers flow has been shown in this case, and the perseverance and ability put into the business is meeting with its reward. We call attention to card in this issue. Recollect that this house is the nearest point to which you can send orders, therefore freight will be lighter.

A Negro Killed at the Newberry Depot.

Hampton Saunders, a colored employee on the Columbia & Greenville R. R., while coupling cars at the depot at Newberry Monday morning about 1 o'clock had his arm crushed from the elbow to the shoulder. His account was, that he fell and the wheels of a car passed over his arm. He died from the injury at 8.30 o'clock Monday morning. He was from Belton. The Coroner held an inquest Monday.

The S. C. Medical Association

Jones, Abbeville.

Others will arrive to-day.

Thanks.

We acknowledge with pleasure receiving from Mr. and Mrs. M. Foot several cakes of Passover Bread.

Also to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brown for a like kind remembrance.

Like John Alexander, proprietor of the Columbia Congroee Iron Works, a very genial gentleman and good friend of the HERALD, has sent us this week a copy of the Paisley and Renfrewshire Gazette, for which courtesy we thank him.

Thanks to the Committee of Arrangements for invitation to attend the Centennial Celebration of the Battle of Cowpens at Spartanburg the 11th of May. The ceremonies will consist in the unveiling of the Gen. Morgan statue, orations by representatives from the Northern, Middle and Southern States, military parade, fireworks, &c.

Cesar had his Brutus, Charles the First his Cromwell, and every cough and cold in this country will find a conqueror in Coussens' Honey of Tar, the unrivaled cough medicine. Price 50c. For sale by Dr. W. E. Pelham. e.o.w.

Our Goat.

Very few things escape the attention of Sniffles, and from long and attentive observation he has become an authority. He was on the street Thursday when the Express wagon rattled up with a huge box, inside of which was a magnificent goat. Sniffles joined the crowd which surged on behind and before the wagon, and but for the absence of a band one might have thought Forepaugh's great circus with its $10,000 prize beauty was the occasion which had produced such a ripple. It was only a goat, however, but such a splendid fellow, with a beard a foot in length and an odoriferous aroma which settled the question that there was no nannycat about it. Sniffles said he was convinced with the first gaze which swept down a Charleston uncle on Cooper River to his dearly beloved country cousin Eugene. We were sick in bed on its arrival and Sniffles consented to let it into his disposal. Without reflection he led him out of his box, and the next moment he made a dash at the party, which sent them flying into the house. Armed with ropes and hastily prepared halters the party came out to capture the animal, but he was gone, had jumped a five-foot paling-fence and fled. After some difficulty, and not until one-half the business men of Newberry and all the boys had joined in pursuit, was he captured and led back in triumph. He now looks out of the chinks of an old wood house.

As before stated, we were sick, and still feel indisposed to express an opinion on this goat question. We are satisfied that he is here, on the premises; we have an olfactory knowledge which penetrates keyholes and cracks. Goat on the whole we don't hanker after; in fact, we don't want to see him at a time, will do, if tender, and particularly before arriving at that stage when the animal reminds one of a Fertilizer Factory. This goat has arrived at that stage, and Sniffles says he won't have to walk over to the depot where the Guano warehouses are located, a visit to the neighborhood of the HERALD office will answer all purposes. He thinks it the handsomest goat, however, he has ever seen, and that he need not see him to know when he is about.

Ex-President Davis' New Book.

The Town and County are being canvassed for Jefferson Davis' new book, "The Rise and Fall of the Southern Confederacy." This book has been looked for eagerly since it was first known that the ex-President was at work upon it; and the rapidity with which the book is selling shows the public interest felt in the author and the subject. It is a book that should be in the library of every Southerner.

The general scope of the book may be gathered from the following extract from the preface:

"A duty to my countrymen; the memory of those who died in defense of a cause consecrated by inheritance, as well as sustained by conviction; and to those who, perhaps less fortunate, staked all and lost all in its behalf, has impelled me to attempt the vindication of their conduct. For this purpose I have decided to present an historical sketch of the events which preceded and attended the struggle of the Southern States to maintain their existence and their rights as sovereign communities—the creators, not the creatures, of the general government."

"To the parents, the widows and the orphans of the Confederate dead, I offer the consolation that those for whom they mourn died for the right—a willing sacrifice on the altar of their country, where their memories, enshrined in the breasts of their people, will go down in tradition to posterity, immortalized by valor in defense of honor, and martyrdom for liberty."

Sallie Spriggins, one of our rural sisters, had her picture taken the other day, and the likeness was wonderful to behold, but no remedy like Portoline, or Tabler's Vegetable Liver Powder has ever been prepared. It will cure you. Price 50c. For sale by Dr. W. E. Pelham. e.o.w.

The "Duane Mower" Scholarship.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of Erskine College, held on Saturday, the 9th inst., the following Resolutions were submitted by the President of the College and unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, certain liberal-minded persons have expressed their willingness to contribute to the Endowment of a Beneficiary Scholarship in Erskine College; and, WHEREAS, the Board of Trustees regard such a benefaction most timely and desirable: Therefore,

Resolved, 1. That a beneficiary Scholarship be and the same is hereby established.

Resolved, 2. That, in consideration of the gift of One Thousand Dollars ($1000) by Mrs. C. Mower, of Newberry, said Scholarship be named, in memory of her deceased husband, "The Duane Mower Scholarship."

Resolved, 3. That the amount of the endowment to this Scholarship shall not be less than Two Thousand Dollars ($2000).

Resolved, 4. That the Fund shall be invested as a separate fund and annually reported on as such.

Resolved, 5. That the interest only of this fund is to be used, and that the Faculty of Erskine College shall determine and indicate the persons who are to receive the benefit of said Scholarship.

Blind Tom.

This wonderful negro gave a performance at the Prytanean Thursday night to one of the best houses we have ever seen assembled in the hall. Every seat was filled, and all the standing room was occupied. The audience was delighted with the performance. Blind Tom is a musical prodigy. Uncouth in appearance, and almost idiotic in intellect, he has musical powers that are the wonder of the world and that seem to border on the supernatural. Without education, and totally ignorant of the science of music, he plays with the perfection of ease and accuracy the most difficult and complicated pieces: the only instruction he needs is to hear the piece played once or twice. Some of his peculiar faculties were illustrated Thursday night on the stage. Mrs. Clark played a long and difficult piece that she composed herself; Tom took his seat at the piano and played it through without the slightest hesitation, as if he had played it a hundred times. He gave an exact imitation on the piano of the drum and fife, of the hand organ and of the music box. He played the "Fisher's Hornpipe" with his right hand, "Yankee Doodle" with his left, and sang "Trump, Trump, Trump, the boys are marching," all at the same time. He also played several pieces of his own composition; one, a wonderful melody, called the Battle of Manassas, in which he imitated the advance of the two armies, the Confederates to the tune of "The Girl I Left Behind Me" on drum and fife, the Federals to the tune of "Dixie," the martial strains being heard first faintly in the distance, growing gradually louder till the field was reached; then came the bugle's call to arms, the rattle of musketry and the roar of cannon, with all the other accompaniments of the great battle.

Tom never fails at the conclusion of a piece to jump up and applaud himself vigorously.

Tom also gave a matinee performance Friday that was well attended.

Smith's Scrofula Syrup and Star Curine are purely vegetable. Why will you suffer with Cancer, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Kidney and Liver Diseases, when a few bottles of these two great remedies will cure you?

From C. D. McCurry, Newman Co., Georgia: "I take great pleasure in recommending to the public Dr. Cheney's Expecto-rant and Croup Preventive. My little son had been a great sufferer from Spasmodic Croup during the night. Dr. Cheney, about two years ago, prescribed for him his Croup Preventive, which has since remained one of a Fertilizer Factory. This goat has arrived at that stage, and Sniffles says he won't have to walk over to the depot where the Guano warehouses are located, a visit to the neighborhood of the HERALD office will answer all purposes. He thinks it the handsomest goat, however, he has ever seen, and that he need not see him to know when he is about.

The Town Election

Came off the 12th instant, and passed off quietly. The municipal campaign was short; but long enough to engender some bad feeling, which we hope will not last. The injection of the question of negro representation was unfortunate. The result showed that it was a big mistake, whether done as a matter of policy or of justice. The negroes went into the first convention and clamored for representation on the Pool ticket; they didn't get it, and bolted in high dudgeon. They went to the second convention, and were allowed a representative on the Carlisle ticket. The presumption was that this act would secure the negro vote for the Carlisle ticket. But it didn't. The negroes went squarely back on the ticket. They took off the negro on the Carlisle ticket, scratched Mr. Langford from the Pool ticket, substituted the negro in his place, and voted the Pool ticket straight with the exception of this change. This is apparent from a reference to the votes cast.

There were 450 votes cast; 130 straight for the Carlisle ticket; 174 for the Pool ticket; 146 scratched tickets.

The votes stood:

The Martin's Depot Lincing.

The following additional particulars concerning the lynching near Martin's Depot the night of the 9th instant have been obtained since our last issue. Sunday night, 8d instant, a barn or cow house, or something of the kind, belonging to Mr. J. S. Blalock, of Martin's Depot, was burned by an incendiary. The proximity of the barn to the dwelling-house, and other circumstances, led to the belief that the purpose of the incendiary was to burn the dwelling-house and its occupants, Mr. Blalock's family. Mr. Blalock set about to discover the perpetrator of the crime; and became convinced that the incendiary was a negro woman living on his plantation named Judy Metts. Saturday, the 9th, he went to Trial Justice N. S. Harris, at Clinton, six miles distant; and procured a warrant of arrest on the charge of arson. The Trial Justice put the warrant in the hands of Constable Sam'l Gary to be executed. He went to Mr. Blalock's plantation and arrested the woman; and started with her to Clinton about 8 o'clock that night. About two miles above Martin's Depot, and nearly opposite Mr. Henry M. Hunter's residence, he and his prisoner were overtaken by a crowd of men on horseback and in disguise. Some of the party carried the woman off in one direction, and others carried the constable in another direction. His statement is, that he was kept in charge by the party for about an hour and then released with the command to "git!" which he lost no time in obeying. He proceeded to Clinton. The woman was found the next morning about two hundred yards from the road hanging to a tree dead. The Coroner's inquest revealed nothing; the verdict of the jury being that the deceased came to her death by hanging at the hands of persons to the jury unknown—or words to that effect. She was buried Monday by the colored people. At what time of the day Saturday the warrant was given to the Constable, and whether he made haste to communicate the fact of the lynching, are matters about which we have no information.

The woman was about thirty-five years of age, and leaves a husband and children.

So far as we are informed, no steps have been taken looking to the discovery of the lynchers. This is the business of the Executive and of the officers and people of Laurens County. But the people of the whole State are interested in knowing whether crimes of this kind are to be passed over in silence and unconcern. We shall see.

The Sunday Magazine.

The May number of this excellent periodical contains, as usual, an abundance of interesting and edifying reading-matter. Among the articles of particular excellence are a seasonal one entitled "May-day Observances," by Josephine Pollard, with nine illustrations; "Ancient and Modern Church Music," by Alfred Hervey; "Egyptian Houses and Homes," by Sara Keables Hunt; "Medicine and the Missionaries," by I. A. Ballard, M. D.; "The British and the Boers," etc.; each article is admirably illustrated. "Out of the World," Mrs. O'Reilly's interesting serial, is continued, and there are several short stories and sketches by George J. Hagar, Hans Christian Andersen and other popular writers. The essays are by Parsonson, Rev. Alexander McLeod, Rev. James M. M. Whitton, D. D., Hattie N. Morris, Thomas L. Chase, L. D. D., etc., etc. The poems are numerous, and generally of great merit. Besides a large amount of entertaining and instructive material are the following exceedingly interesting features: "The Home Pulpit," sermon by Rev. Joseph Parker, D. D.; "Hard Places in the Bible," by Rev. Dr. Deems; "Temperance Talk," "The Invalid's Portion and Thoughts for the Afflicted," "Glimpses at the Religious World," "International Sunday-school Lessons," etc., etc. There are 128 quarto pages in each number, and nearly 100 illustrations. Price of single copy, 25 cents; annual subscription $3 postpaid. Address, Frank Leslie's Publishing House, 53, 55 and 57 Park Place, New York.

Change.

Dr. Homer P. Tarrant has bought the interest of Dr. Theodore Johnstone in the drug store known as that of Johnstone & Maybin, and left to-day for Charleston for the purpose of replenishing stock. We are pleased at this and wish the new firm all the success imaginable. There is no better druggist in the State than Dr. Tarrant.

The Burning of Mr. Atchison's House—Preliminary Examination of Wiley Henderson.

Last week we mentioned the fact that Wiley Henderson, colored, had been arrested the 11th instant charged with the burning of Mr. Robt. W. Atchison's new dwelling-house the night of the 31st of October last. It was for this same crime that Jno. P. Satterwhite, white, and Isom Workman, colored, were tried, convicted at the February Court of Sessions, and sentenced—the former to five, the latter to three, years in the Penitentiary—they are now in jail awaiting the result of an appeal to the Supreme Court.

Wiley Henderson had a preliminary examination before Trial Justice Parker Saturday, the 16th instant. He was represented by Geo. Johnstone, Esq., the State by Messrs. Schumpert, Culbreath and Mower. The State introduced three witnesses, all colored. Nelson Floyd and Jim Henderson testified that a League meeting was held at Mr. Atchison's new house the night it was burned—it was then in complete and unoccupied—and that they saw Wiley Henderson, among others, at the meeting; that the meeting was held by the colored people for the purpose of providing for the distribution of tickets and to decide how they were to vote—this was two days prior to the general election; that those attending the meeting had a fire in the yard, very near the house. Nerva Cannon testified that about a week after the conviction of Satterwhite and Workman she met the defendant, Wiley Henderson, in the road about opposite the place where the house had stood; that she had a conversation with him; that in the conversation he said to her, pointing to the standing chimneys, "I separated the wood from those chimneys;" that she asked him, "How?" and he replied, "It's none of your business."

The Trial Justice bound Wiley Henderson over to the Court of Sessions on a bond of $500; he gave bond.

After the preliminary examination Wiley Henderson went before Trial Justice Fair and swore out warrants against the three witnesses above named, charging them with perjury. The Trial Justice is holding a preliminary examination to-day (Tuesday) into the charge of perjury.
