Telling a Secret.

An important secret is told in this week's paper, and being thus made public every man, woman and child in Newberry County will be in possession of it before to-morrow night. We advise each one to make good use of it, and in the first place to tell Dr. W. E. Pelham for information, as his alone can satisfy you. Read, too, his enumeration of some of the many articles he offers for sale.

The State Fair.

Opened Tuesday, 8th. The attendance is larger than usual, and the exhibits are numerous and of a superior quality, especially in the stock department. The Fair continues through to-day and to-morrow. To-night the grand parade and street parade comes off. The trains from the up-country have been crowded since Monday. The special train from Newberry yesterday carried down and brought back a goodly number, and many will go down this morning on the special train, which leaves at 8:31.

Miss Katie Parker, of Union, is in town, the guest of Miss Julia Hunter.

Mr. M. B. Kelly has been in Columbia some time assisting Secretary Holloway at the State Fair.

Rev. Leonidas K. Glasgow, of North Carolina, was in town Sunday and Monday.

Dr. Sampson Pope, who moved from Newberry to Texas four years ago, is on a visit to his old home and friends. He is looking well. He will remain in Newberry only a few days.

Law and Facts.

At the trial of Seaborn Suber for murder the testimony for the State showed that Seaborn beat his daughter unmercifully. Dr. Folk testified that there was not a space the width of a finger from her heels to her head that was not cut and bruised by the beating she gave her. He further testified that, after making the post-mortem examination he had not a particle of doubt that she died of the beating. The doctor's report put up Dr. Clark, who testified that from his examination at the post-mortem he was satisfied the girl died of pneumonia. As soon as Dr. Clark gave his testimony the presiding Judge ordered the jury to bring in a verdict of not guilty, saying that the testimony of Dr. Clark necessarily raised in the minds of the jury such a doubt as would compel them to acquit.

Suber would, very probably, but not certainly, have been acquitted by the jury had the question of his guilt or innocence been left to them; but it is impossible to say what effect the testimony had on their minds.

Week of Prayer.

The Young Men's Christian Association of Newberry, in common with the Associations throughout the world, will observe next week as a week of prayer. The meetings will be as follows:

Monday, 7:12 P. M., at Y. M. C. A. rooms. Subject—An impossible service. Leaders, W. W. Hodges, R. Y. Sewell.

No meeting Wednesday evening.

Thursday, 7:12 P. M. Subject—Opposite characters making opposite choices. Leaders, Rev. A. J. Stokes, James Paoker.

At the Sunday evening meeting a collection will be taken up.

Almost Young Again.

My mother was afflicted a long time with Neuralgia and a dull, heavy inactive condition of the whole system; headache, nervous prostration, and was almost helpless. No physicians or medicines did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters, with such good effect that she seems and feels young again, although over 70 years old. We think there is no other medicine fit to use in the family. A lady in Providence, R. I. [Journal.]

If you want a good Cigar, call on H. A. BURNS. 87-41.

The Thornwell Orphanage.

The Sixth Annual Report of the Thornwell Orphanage has been issued. The endowment fund has been increased during the past year $1,644.96—one lady, Mrs. McCormick, of Chicago, Ill., gave $1,000. The fund is now $4,425. Only the interest on this fund is used, the Orphanage being supported by voluntary contributions and the work of the children. There is no idleness in the institution; several of the boys are engaged in printing, others on the Orphanage farm of 100 acres; and the girls do the household work. The education and moral training of the children receive careful attention.

Faith Cottage, a building for the boys, and worth $2,000, has been completed, and the superintendent expects to complete another building, to be known as the Orphans' Seminary, the coming year at a cost of $2,500.

The Thornwell Orphanage is doing a good work, and deserves all the aid and encouragement that a Christian people can bestow upon it. The Orphanage is located on Clinton, Laurens County, and is under the direction and supervision of Rev. W. P. Jacobs.

New Restaurant.

I will open on Tuesday, Oct. 18th, at my store, in room used during the Summer as Green Salon, a first class Restaurant, where I will serve fresh Fish and Oysters in the most tempting style. Patronage from the public solicited and will be highly appreciated. A. C. JONES, Oct. 13, 1881. 41-42.

Frank Leslie's Sunday Magazine.

The December number of this favorite periodical appears with the popular divine, T. De Witt Talmage, D. D., as Editor, and extremely good as it has hitherto been, it has acquired increased brilliancy from his connection with it. In his characteristic initial address, "To the People," he says:

"We promise nothing, except to trust in God and do our best. Our religion is sunshine, and the difference between earth and heaven is that the sunshine of earth sometimes gets clouded, but heaven is everlasting sunshine. We mean to cultivate the largest catholicity. We want in our Magazine to help make Sunday the brightest day of the week. We believe in America, so the field is clear. We propose beginning in our next a series of articles on 'People We Have Met,' and will, before we get through, set forth some of our contemporaries of the pulpit and the press. They have often given their ideas of us. We will give the Christian the leading articles, the Statesman, James A. Garfield; the Editor, which is replete with interesting reminiscences, and is finely illustrated. Among other particularly noteworthy illustrated articles are 'Malia,' 'Reminiscences of an Old New Yorker,' 'Religious Dissent in Russia,' 'The Prince Imperial Memorial,' 'A Missionary Emancipator,' etc. The interesting story, 'May Cunningham's Trial,' is continued, and there are several short stories, sketches, essays, etc., by Eleanor Kirk, Augusta Browne Garrett, Rev. Mr. Deems, Rev. J. H. Waterbury, etc., etc. The poems possess great merit, and the miscellany is abundant, entertaining and instructive. The price of a single copy is 25 cents; the annual subscription, for twelve months, $1.50; for six months $1.00, sent post-paid. Address, Frank Leslie, Publisher, 53, 55 and 57 Park Place, New York.

WADLEY, EMANUEL CO., GA.

Gentlemen: While attending the General Assembly last summer, I received your Star of Gideon, and, being afflicted with an old sore caused by a wound received during the late war. After having thoroughly tested it I am compelled to say that it is a success, for I have had experience with different physicians and remedies, and found nothing to cure me, until I used your Star Curative, which has cured a remarkable bad case. Wishing you success, I am yours, respectfully,
JOHN BELL.

My little son had been a great sufferer from Spasmodic Croup during the night. Dr. Cheney, about two years ago, prescribed for him his Croup Preventive, which has most miraculously cured him. I find it equally beneficial in all cases of Coughs. I consider it a blessing in my family. Every one should keep it in their houses.
