SPECIAL NOTICE.—Business notices in this local column are inserted at the rate of 15 cents per line each insertion.

Obituaries, notices of meetings, communications relating to personal interests, tributes of respect, etc. are charged as regular advertisements at $1 per square.

Notices of administration, and other legal notices, obituaries, tributes of respect and notices of meetings, as well as communications of a personal character must be paid for in advance.

The subscription price of the Herald is $2.00 for twelve months, $1.00 for six months, 50 cents for three months and 25 cents for one month, in advance. Names in future will not be placed on the subscription books until the cash or its equivalent is paid.

All communications relating to personal interests will be inserted at regular advertising rates, one dollar per square, cash in advance.

This paper may be found on file at Geo. P. Rowell & Co's Newspaper Advertising Bureau, 100 Broadway, New York. Advertising contracts may be made for it in New York.

Mr. L. S. Bowles, post master at Prosperity is our authorized agent at that place.

Deaths. Mrs. N. J. Franklin, of this County, died Monday, 24th instant, in the fifty-second year of her age.

Robert Maffett, the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. C. Wilson, of Newberry, died Saturday morning, 22nd, aged fourteen months.

Mrs. Martha A. Gilder died suddenly at her home in Edgefield County Wednesday, 19th instant, and was buried Thursday in Rosemont Cemetery, Newberry.

Another Arm Broken. Master Foster Martin, son of Mr. J. N. Martin, fell while skating at home Tuesday afternoon and broke both bones of his left forearm near the wrist.

Wanted. 500 BUSHELS IRISH POTATOES. M. FOOT & SON. June 29, 26—4f.

A Colt Wound on the Run. We heard of a candidate whose mare had a colt the other day while in harness and attached to the buggy. This exemplifies the hairy-scary of the situation.—Edgefield Advertiser.

A Good Record. Adj.-Gen. Manigault, in writing to Capt. McFall, acknowledging receipt of the roll of Co. D, 13th Regiment, says: "Your roll of Co. D, 13th Regt., S. C. Infantry, has come to hand, and is a record of which it may well be proud."

A Vigorous Growth. Of the hair is often promoted by using Parker's Hair Balsam. It always restores the youthful color and lustre to gray hair, gives new life and removes all irritation and dandruff.

Grand Excursion to Tallulah Falls. There will be a grand excursion train to leave Newberry Monday, 31st, at 7 A. M. for Tallulah Falls, of North Georgia. Leave the Falls the next day at 10 A. M., giving ample time to view some of the grandest scenery in the world. Everybody should avail himself of this opportunity.

To Democratic Clubs. As we are publishing all the proceedings of Democratic Clubs in the various townships free of charge, we invite members who are not subscribers to the Herald to send us their names and thereby secure copies during the campaign. Price 20 cents for three months. 29—3f.

Poetry in Dry Goods. An intelligent man can be a poet and at the same time a successful Dry Goods dealer, and we take pleasure in directing public attention to his attractive card in this issue. Mr. Young handles a large stock of all lines of fancy and staple goods, and solicits a portion of the trade of Newberry. By all means give him either a call or an order, and you will find him and his clerks ready to give you gentlemanly attention.

Stories of the War. The Charleston Weekly News is publishing from week to week "stories of the war, illustrating and describing the valor and endurance of South Carolinians, in particular, in the late war, and forming intensely interesting chapters of hitherto unwritten history." The issue of the 15th contained an article written by Col. Joseph N. Brown, of Anderson, entitled "McGowan's Brigade at Gettysburg," which we shall copy into the Herald next week.

A Working Family. Mr. T. J. Oxner, who rents land from Mr. F. D. Graham, has twenty-one acres in cotton, seven in corn, one in sugar cane, beside potato and melon patches. All the work is done by himself and his wife, (who are both afflicted) and their little son nine years of age. The wife and son do the hoeing. Their crops are good. Mr. Oxner notifies us that we may look for a mess of potatoes soon; and, as an earnest of it, sends us two fine Queens of the South as large as a man's fist. This family deserve great credit for their energy and industry.

Two Crops of Corn in a Year. Mr. Thos. P. Abrams, of this County, has made two crops of corn a year for the past two years, and will do it again this year. Four years ago Mr. Bradley gave him seventy grains of corn, called the "Baden Prodigium." He planted this in his garden, and got two bushels from it.

He then began planting it in his fields. He pulled his fodder three weeks ago, and his corn is mature and ready for gathering. His second planting is about knee high.

He says the yield is as large as, if not larger than, the ordinary corn. The ears are small, having a cob a little larger than a man's finger, and only eight rows of grain to the ear. He often gets from seven to ten ears from one stalk.

His neighbor, Mr. Wicker, planted this corn last year on bottom land, and made fifty bushels to the acre.

Colbeck's Musical Instructor. We acknowledge receipt of a copy of the above named magazine. The number for July is highly instructive, treating of the general practical knowledge of the art of music. The beginner we apprehend will derive much benefit from it. It is only $1 per year, and is published by Robt. Goldbeck, St. Louis, Mo.

"Theatrical and Circus Life" Is the name of a new book just issued by that enterprising firm the Sun Publishing Co. of St. Louis. This interesting work will be welcomed by the thousands who nightly visit our places of amusement, but who are unacquainted with the mysteries of the "Profession," and will be doubly welcome by those who never visit such places, whose curiosity has often been excited by the flaming posters placed in many conspicuous places. It is a grand book for agents. We call attention to advertisement elsewhere.

New Crop Turnip Seed, just in at Pelham's. Eclectic Magazine. The August number of the Eclectic comes promptly to hand, and its ample pages are filled to overflow with the usual variety of good things. The editor manages to find something adapted to the tastes of all classes of readers, and there are few magazines that maintain so high a standard as the Eclectic amid such a variety of matter. The August number has a splendid table of contents.

Published by E. R. Pelton, 35 Bond Street, New York. Terms, $5 per year; single copy, 45 cents; Trial subscription for three months, $1.

Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly. The August number of this favorite magazine is, as usual, profusely and handsomely illustrated, and abounds with delightful, interesting and valuable reading. It is only a glance at its varied contents. The opening article is by N. Robinson, who graphically depicts "The Comforts and Discomforts of Travel"; there are fifteen illustrations. "Plymouth and its Religious Memorials," "Typical and their Friends and Acquaintances," "The Fruit Basket," and "The Letter 'N,'" are continued, and there are other stories by W. Edgar McCann, Fanny Belle Irving, Susan A. Weiss, etc. There are also sketches, adventures, etc., of absorbing interest; poems of great merit; and several beautiful illustrations. The serial, "The Letter 'N,'" is continued, and there are other stories by W. Edgar McCann, Fanny Belle Irving, Susan A. Weiss, etc. There are also sketches, adventures, etc., of absorbing interest; poems of great merit; and several beautiful illustrations. ALL ABOUT EMORY CHAPEL.

On the Road to Conference.

In company with Mr. Thos. V. Wicker, whose buggy we shared, last Wednesday we started for the District Conference, held at Emory Chapel, Edgefield County, twenty-four miles distant, the distance broken by a stop for the night at Dr. Cannon's. A coincidence resulted, in that there were four Thomases, two before, T. S. Moorman and T. F. Harmon, and two behind, T. V. Wicker and T. F. our humble writer, a jolly team, all believing, nothing doubting that the meeting would be a good one and that our temporary wants would be well cared for. Seven o'clock Thursday morning found us at Bonknight's Ferry, and strange to say the ferryman was found at his post.

OR RATHER IN HIS FLAT, an unusual occurrence, as this kind of individual has commonly to be shouted for till the welkin rings. Over the ferry with fourteen miles ahead, the morning air soft, balmy, delicious, a nice rain having fallen the night before, we jogged on pleasantly behind the Butler and Emory Chapel was reached at eleven o'clock for the morning sermon by Rev. R. L. Harper. This church is a neat, new, commodious and handsome building, with a seating capacity of about five hundred, and it was packed full of Conferenceites and other friends from all the surrounding country. This is not surprising, as we were in

A CHURCH-LOVING COMMUNITY, and were told that in a radius of twenty-five miles no less than twelve churches as large and some larger than Emory had been built. That a record, inside the church, thanks to Bros. Pritchard, Stokes and Pettus Boyd, were comfortably seated inside the altar railing, in view and sound of all going on.

What pleased us beyond expression was the hearty, earnest singing of the good, old Methodist hymns to familiar tunes, which recalled there was no organ to prevent the congregation joining their happy voices together in songs of praise. It was a pleasant sound, such as we were not accustomed to, and we felt that it was good to be there; every man and woman that could sing did so, and a few who could not did the best they could under the circumstances. "Children of the Heavenly King." "There is a fountain," have a deeper significance coming from a congregation

THAN FROM AN ORGAN and a few voices and unfamiliar tunes. At dinner acquaintance was made with many of these good people, who reminded us very much of those of our own New Chapel neighborhood, wholesome, generous, hospitable, and better than all, deeply pious. It was the fortune of the four handed team of Toms, together with Rev. R. D. Stewart, R. L. Harper, W. E. Boyd and his estimable lady—a Christian family—it was a pleasant location and good things abounded. The delegates, ninety in number, besides a host of visitors, were distributed among the different families at from one to eight miles. Rev. C. H. Pritchard presided, and Rev. A. J. Stokes, a

MOST LOYABLE MAN and an excellent Secretary, filled that important position. The first sermon, as before stated, was preached by Rev. R. L. Harper, that of the afternoon by Rev. W. H. Kinton, various reports being previously read and given. Friday morning reports were again in order, with discussions on sundry topics, followed by a sermon from Rev. J. W. Kelly. At three Conference resumed their labors, after which Rev. C. H. Pritchard, presiding, and Rev. A. J. Stokes, a

SEVEN HUNDRED PERSONS BEING PRESENT. There was much feeling, several coming to the altar. On Saturday the congregation was not so great, the clouds betokening rain, but the church was full, to listen with rapt attention to an impressive sermon by the Rev. W. C. Power. At its conclusion mourners were again called and the response was encouraging. In the meantime the clouds opened and rain fell and continued for dinner. Pastor Traylor said he did not know what to do, but thought the Conference had better resume business and finish up for adjournment, which was done; the rain ceasing, at half past two the hungry congregation dined. Rev. A. J. Stokes presided, an excellent sermon in the afternoon. The crowning exercise was an old-fashioned Love Feast, Sunday morning, it was good, happy and feeling, followed by a sermon from Rev. C. H. Pritchard. The afternoon was devoted to the Sunday School, and addresses were made by T. S. Moorman, Esq., Rev. R. L. Harper and others.

And now for THE RETURN HOME, which after hand shakings and regrets at parting with friends and home, and formed such warm attachment, the original four Toms with their Pastor, Smart, and A. J. Kilgore, left, taking a new route for Bro. Huiett's hospitable home eight miles from Emory and that much nearer home. The house was found, an honest, hearty welcome, a first rate supper, a good night rest, and a capital breakfast prepared for party for a four hours ride home. Home again. The next District Conference will be held at Ninety-Six, and we think strongly, so great was our enjoyment of this one at Emory, that we will be there. We hope that Ninety-Six will do as well.

Eighty-Five Dollars Lost. "You don't tell me that your husband is gone and entirely cured by so large a piece of oak, or some other strong timber, about twenty feet long and a foot thick; put an iron nail through one end of this, and attach a log-chain to this end; bore a large hole in the stump you wish to remove, and in the hole put an iron pin, and fasten to it the other end of the log-chain, and wrap the chain round the stump; hitch a pair of mules to the free end of the beam, and drive them around the stump until it is twisted out of the ground. The arrangement is on the principle of the lever, and the twenty-foot beam gives a very strong lever power.

Dr. Renwick says he has heard of another plan for removing stumps, that is said to be successful. That is: bore a hole vertically into the stump, and pour into the hole saltpetre in solution, and then plug up the hole. Let it stand that way for four months; then pour in kerosene oil, and set it on fire. It is said that stumps can be thus means burned up clear to the ends of the roots.

The leisure time of the year for farmers will be along in a little while; and we respectfully suggest, that they cannot employ this in removing stumps from their fields, preparatory to the sowing of their fall crops of grain. The above plans are given for what they are worth. Dr. Renwick promises to furnish us a report of his trial of the lever power as soon as he shall have fully tested it.

Come to See Me at W. T. Tarrant's.

I take pleasure in informing my friends and customers that I am now with W. T. Tarrant, where I will be pleased to welcome them; also, sell them anything they want in Dry Goods, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Clothing, Dress Goods, Fancy Goods, Crockery, Carpets, &c. Mr. Tarrant carries the largest stock in the place, and we will make it to your interest to give us your trade. Any orders entrusted to my care will receive prompt and careful attention. Come and see us. Yours very truly, A. C. JONES. 30—4f

July 24, 1882. A Proposed Narrow Gauge. Messrs. J. R. Minter and W. H. Norman, of Union County, were in Newberry last week sounding some of our leading citizens on the question of a narrow-gauge railroad from Newberry to Duncan, on the Air Line, twelve miles west of Spartanburg. The idea was stoutly by the place, and we will make it to your interest to give us your trade. Any orders entrusted to my care will receive prompt and careful attention. Come and see us. Yours very truly, A. C. JONES. 30—4f

Call at Pelham's and get your supply of fresh Turnip Seed. Don't forget the Excursion to Tallulah Falls, Monday, 31st. The County Commissioners want the roads worked. See notice. There will be preaching Sunday night at the Baptist Church.

Mr. Carlisle has a very fine field of corn on Scott's Creek in town. Newberry was visited by a regular trash-mover Friday afternoon. The crops in Edgefield are as good as can be. We never saw finer cotton or corn.

Mr. Clark Smith's neighbors say he has a magnificent crop of both corn and cotton. The HERALD office is under obligations to Mr. J. B. Werts for a fine watermelon. Watermelons are abundant; but, so far, very few good ones have been in the market.

The County Executive Committee meets to-morrow morning in Gen. Pope's office. The Newberry County Agricultural Society will meet at the Court House Saturday in August.

There are four teachers from this County attending the Colored Normal Institute in Columbia. The second wire over the C. & G. R. R. has been put up as far as Alston, starting from Newberry.

A protracted meeting will begin at Bush River Church Saturday before the second Sunday in August. Old corn is safe. Cotton needs about ten days of warm, clear weather. Young corn promises well.

Last week's Edgefield Advertiser contained the cards of four more candidates. The number is now forty-four. With continued good seasons the corn and cotton crops will be as abundant as the crop of candidates in Edgefield.

Charity Stockman, a colored woman who has been out of her right mind for some time, died Saturday night at Helena. Mr. Henry Isaacs is Section Master of the Silver Street Section, extending from Helena to Little River. He lives at Helena.

Mr. Joseph S. Reid will open a school in Newberry, near Mr. Wallace A. Cline's residence, about the middle of August. A little boy in town raised a row the other day because his sister, who is younger than he, had the whooping-cough first.

We have received catalogue of Due West Female College for 1881-2. The college is progressing, and is doing a good work. More than half the chickens and eggs, and a large proportion of the butter, sold in this market comes from Edgefield County.

New subscribers are coming in with commendable promptness and regularity. Come along gentlemen; the books are still open. The finest peaches we ever saw were sent to the HERALD office yesterday by Mrs. D. E. Graham. She will please accept thanks.

In countries where malaria is prevalent, or where the climate is subject to sudden changes—about to be found in every house Brown's Iron Bitters.

Catalogue of Erskine College for 1881-2 received. Number of students past year 73—50 in college classes, and 23 in the preparatory department. The excursion train from Prosperity to Greenville Saturday carried about three hundred colored people to Greenville, picked up all along the road.

We have received the catalogue of Furman University for 1881-2. The University has a full corps of teachers, and the past session had fifty-one students. The Town Council has extended the time for the collection of Town Taxes to, and inclusive of, the 5th day of August. No further extension need be expected.

The Opera House has been engaged by two companies already for next season—one of these companies being the Hazel Kirke Company that was here last season. By an oversight the name of Mr. J. M. Johnston was omitted last week from the list of those who were nominated for President of the County Convention and declined.

Mr. C. W. Bishop made three hundred and fifty-eight bushels of oats on five acres. And he says his was no guess-work, but genuine gill-edge measurement, with morocco binding. The Board of Health met Tuesday afternoon. Several localities were reported as being very offensive and dangerous to health; and measures were taken to have these localities cleansed and put in proper sanitary condition.

Comment us to the good people around and about Emory Chapel in Edgefield County, for an abundant supply of fried chicken, mutton and goat. For four days they fed the District Conference Delegates, and did not hold up one time. A gentleman who proposes to be a candidate for Coroner makes the following offer: That if we will publish his card free he will in case we be killed while he is in office hold our inquest free of charge. The offer is respectfully declined.

The Greenville County Delegates to the State Convention were elected Monday, 24th. The Greenville News says: "Nine of the delegates favor Y. J. Pope for Attorney General, the tenth being for Abney. The majority, however, will probably favor Col. Miles as second choice. The solid vote of Greenville will probably be cast for D. Frank Bradley, of Pickens, for Secretary of State."

Various and All About.

The rains seem to have been general. Who will send us the first open ball? Some of the young ladies skate gracefully. Quite a number of drummers on the road now.

The Barbecue at New Church comes off to-day. Picnics are 'all all the go' now among the young people. What has become of the County Teachers' Institute? Ebenezer Camp-meeting will begin next Thursday night.

Call at Pelham's and get your supply of fresh Turnip Seed. Don't forget the Excursion to Tallulah Falls, Monday, 31st. The County Commissioners want the roads worked. See notice. There will be preaching Sunday night at the Baptist Church.

The following are the delegates from

Newberry Baptist Church to the Union Meeting at Mt. Zion, beginning to-morrow: Simon Pratt, J. B. Werts, Jas. Packer, J. K. P. Goggans, Chas. D. Wright, Rev. L. Broadus and Col. Jno. R. Lovell are delegates ex officio, the latter being Moderator of the meeting.

In our trip to Emory Chapel last week, we had the pleasure of meeting our brothers of the quill, Bacon, of the Advertiser, and McLennan, of the Monitor. The former has a fair appetite for the good things of this life. The latter arrived only as the meeting closed, otherwise there might have been a famine.

Mr. Wallace Bruce, the popular young operator who was recently stationed in the C. & G. office in this city, but who was afterwards transferred to Laurens, was in this city yesterday on his way to New Mexico, for which point he leaves at five o'clock this morning. He expects to reside there permanently.—Greenville News, 26th.

There is some talk of cutting off a portion of Newberry County and tacking it on to portions of Abbeville, Edgefield and Laurens to make a new County, with the county seat at Greenwood. In the event that the Constitutional Amendment be adopted reducing the necessary area of Counties to 400 square miles. What do the people of the Chappell's Depot section think of it?

Tallulah Falls is on the North Eastern R. R. of Georgia, which is now being built from Rabun Gap, on the Air Line to Clayton. The road has been finished as far as Tallulah Falls. The distance from Newberry is 169 miles, divided as follows: From Newberry to Anderson (on the C. & G.) 80, from Anderson to Seneca (on the B. R.) 25, from Seneca to Rabun (on the Air Line), 43, from Rabun to Tallulah Falls (on the N. E.) 21.

Two young darkeys named Hampton Delaney and Aliferson King sold some chickens the other day to a lady, and she in paying them gave a ten dollar bill for a one. As soon as she found out the mistake she got Capt. Fellers to look out for the parties. He soon ran up on them, but they denied at first having received ten dollars; afterwards King said he did get it and had given it to his step-father, Henry King, at Helena. Then Henry denied it. But as soon as a warrant was taken out against him he brought a ten dollar bill, which he said was his own, but he would pay that much to settle the case. And the lady got her money back.

NEW SPRING AND SUMMER GOODS

Failing!

That is what a great many people are doing. They don't know just what is the matter, but they have a combination of pains and aches, and each month they grow worse.

The only sure remedy yet found is Brown's Iron Bitters, and this by rapid and thorough assimilation with the blood purifies and enriches it, and rich, strong blood flowing to every part of the system repairs the wasted tissues, drives out disease and gives health and strength.

This is why Brown's Iron Bitters will cure kidney and liver diseases, consumption, rheumatism, neuralgia, dyspepsia, malaria, intermittent fevers, &c.
