Obituaries, notices of meetings, communications relating to personal interests, tributes of respect, etc. are charged as regular advertisements at $1 per square.

Notices of administration, and other legal notices, obituaries, tributes of respect and notices of meetings, as well as communications of a personal character must be paid for in advance.

The subscription price of the Herald is $2.00 for twelve months, $1.00 for six months, 50 cents for three months and 25 cents for one month, in advance. Names in future will not be placed on the subscription books until the cash or the equivalent is paid.

All communications relating to personal interests will be inserted at regular advertising rates, one dollar per square, cash in advance. This paper may be found on file at Geo. P. Rowell & Co's Newspaper Advertising Bureau (10 Spruce St.), where advertising contracts may be made or taken in New York.

Mr. L. S. Bowers, post master at Prosperity is our authorized agent at that place.

Wanted. At the Newberry Hotel, three or four Shouts or Hogs, for which the market price will be paid.

Was adjourned from Friday to Thursday to enable voters to do their duty. The Session will be resumed to-day.

Fant's Female Regulator cures all diseases peculiar to females.

Messrs. Selchow & Righter, Publishers of Games and Home Amusements, No. 41 John Street, New York, have our thanks for a Sectional Checker Board Puzzle. It has proved quite a puzzle to us.

Removal. The Insurance Office of Glenn & Pool has been removed to the rear of the store of Mr. S. S. Langford, where all business will be hereafter transacted.

The Preacher's Box. Mrs. T. F. Grenaker returns thanks to the ladies of the Methodist Church for their aid in getting up the box of delicacies sent to Presiding Elder Pritchard. He will appreciate their kind remembrance.

If you will use a bottle of Dr. Fant's Chill Cure you will shake no more.

Another Fire. Mr. Ass Workman, near Martin's Depot, lost on Friday night last by fire, his barn, containing twenty-five hundred bushels of oats. A serious loss to Mr. Workman. The fire is supposed to be incendiary.

An Explanation. The delicate, flowery and lasting fragrance of Florestan Cologne explains why it is such a favorite with the ladies.

Attention Debtors. All persons indebted to the HERALD office for subscriptions and advertising are requested to settle at once. We cannot wait always, and will have to place some of these accounts in the hands of a collector. Pay up, gentlemen.

Fire. An alarm of fire was sounded about twelve o'clock Tuesday morning, and was discovered to proceed from a negro house belonging to Mr. Wm. Langford. Having no appliances with which to fight fire, the building was of course consumed.

We Welcome. Among our list of exchanges the Weekly News, published at Gilbert Hollow, by Messrs. Wade Leaphart & Bro., and take pleasure in pronouncing it a wide awake and sturdy bantling which gives promise soon of a large growth. Success to the News.

The Electric. For November is already received, and the present number is fully in keeping with its predecessors. The thrill-novelle, "The Lady Maud" is interesting and readable. Address E. R. Pelton, 25 Bond Street, New York.

Rail Road Accident. About one o'clock Saturday night freight conductor Taggart, of Greenwood, was caught between two cars while in the act of coupling them, and had his arm badly mashed. The wound, though painful, is not of a serious character. Mr. Taggart had just been promoted.

Personal. Miss Dora Meets, of Charleston, came home with the Senior last week.

Rev. J. Marion Boyd, of the Chester Circuit, paid a visit last Friday. He had just been down to the paternal mansion. We are pleased to add that his health is good.

Job Office for Sale. The attention of the craft is invited to the card in our advertising columns. An opportunity is here offered for one of the best investments in Job Presses. Type and all other material necessary for a first class office, and which will not soon present itself again. The material was selected by a master workman and has been but little used.

Winter. The winter has commenced at last, and we have now a prospect of seasonable weather. Should the weather prophets prove correct in their predictions, the winter will be intensely cold; we trust, however, that they may prove false prophets. So far we have had but little frost. It would be a wise precaution though it is plentiful provision in wood and coal be laid up to guard against contingencies which may arise, and not wait until bitter cold sets in.

Boiler Burst. The engine of Mr. Fred. Dominick, on his Anderson place, exploded her boiler on Tuesday morning at 1 p. m., instantly killing Mr. Jas. Britz, and severely wounding Mr. Alcock McIntosh. As the entire party were engaged in Agricultural Engines too much attention cannot be given to their running; we cannot but believe that carelessness was the cause of this fearful accident.

Why Should They. No man or woman can do satisfactory work when the brain is dull, the nerves unsteady, the system relaxed and they feel generally wretched. Why should anybody drag through their work in this condition when a bottle of Parker's Ginger Tonic will at moderate cost give them the strength and will to perform their duties satisfactorily.—Ed.

The County Fair. Are the people of Newberry taking steps for the successful working of our County Fair, the 22nd of November? We trust they are. The seasons and the crops are all propitious, and though the Fair will be late, it can be made a creditable one. Let us people only determine that it will be, and it will. Coming immediately after the State Fair, there will be this advantage, that the exhibits need only be transferred from one Fair to the other. Let us have a successful Fair.

The New Store. Of Mr. D. C. Flynn, No. 1 Molobon Row, and next door to Wright & Coppock, but lately opened is already the centre of attraction, not only because of its variety, but because of the remarkable cheapness of its goods. His goods have been bought under the Auctioneer's hammer, and will be found not to exceed 50 on the dollar of what the same goods can be bought for elsewhere. It is a first rate store, and the prices suit the hard times. If you want bargains call at once on D. C. Flynn. Next week I expect to have in the Herald an advertisement enumerating the character and prices of goods. C. J. Purcell, Manager.

Dr. Moffet's Teethina (Teething Powders) will cure your child. For sale by all Druggists and Country Merchants. 50-ly.

Frank Leslie's Sunday Magazine. The December number is full of delightful, entertaining and edifying reading; instead of the heart breaking and groupied within two covers more varied, interesting and generally instructive matter. The editor, the Rev. Dr. Tallmadge, has some peculiarly interesting "Essays on Timely Topics," and a sermon in the Home Pulpit, "Forward." There are some studies in the Acts of the Apostles, grouped under the heading "International Lessons for 1883," which every one may profitably study. There are stories, sketches, essays, poems, etc., by Marion Harland, Harriet Irving, George McDonald, L.L.D., Michael Monksay, Professor Derry, Myrtle Lockett, M. V. Moore, and other writers of celebrity. Among the other prominent features of the number are "International Sunday School Lessons for 1883," "Rhymes and Rhythms of Childhood," "Rhymes and Rhythms of the Little Folks," "Drift of Religious Comment," "Editorial Comments," etc., etc., together with beautiful illustrations, mottoes, etc. The price of a number is 25 cents, or $3 a year. Post free. Mrs. Frank Leslie, Publisher, 53, 55 & 57 Park Place, New York City.

Peterson's Magazine. For December is on our table; as usual, ahead of all others. It is one of the most elegant, and at the same time the cheapest and best of the lady's books. There are two beautiful steel-engravings, of which one, "Zeyre," is alone worth the price of the number, a superb steel, double size, colored fashion plate, and two colored patterns, both exquisite. In a new style of work, "Arden's Embroidery," a bright, witty story, "True as the Professor," admirably illustrated, leads off the stories. The number contains a supplement, with a full size dress pattern, and numerous patterns in embroidery. Then there are some fifty other engravings of fashions, work-table patterns, etc. The very best stories are always to be found in "Peterson." Its regular contributors are Ann S. Stephens, Jane G. Austin, Frank Lee Benedict, Rebecca Harding Davis, and that unrivaled humorist, the author of "Josiah Allen's Wife," besides those of others. The price of the Magazine is but Two Dollars a year. To clubs, it is astonishingly low, viz: six copies for nine dollars, with an extra copy to the person getting up the club; or seven copies for ten dollars and a half, with an extra copy and the largest premium steel-engraving, "Christ Before Pilate," and a Photograph or Illustrated Album, gift to the person getting up the club. Subscriber to no magazine till you have seen a copy of this. Specimens are sent, gratis, to persons wishing to get up clubs. Address, Charles J. Peterson, 308 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 1, 1883.

Malaria, Chills and Fever, and Billions attacks positively cured with Emory's Standard Cure Pills—an infallible remedy: never fails to cure the most obstinate cases, standing cases where Quinine and all other remedies had failed. They are prepared expressly for malarious sections, in double lozenges, two kinds of Pills, containing a strong cathartic and a cholera breaker, sugar-coated; contain no Opium, Mercury, or anything causing griping or purging; they are mild and efficient, certain in their action, and harmless in all cases. They effectually cleanse the system, and give new life and tone to the exhausted and debilitated. They are unequalled. For Liver Complaint they equal in all respects to the best that is known; one box will cure a wonderful effect on the worst case. They are used and prescribed by Physicians, and sold by Druggists everywhere, 75 cents per box, in advance. Emory's Standard Cure Pills, best ever made, only 15 Cents. Standard Cure Co., 114 Nassau Street, New York, Jan. 1, 1883.

In all ages discoveries have been made which at the time were not appreciated. This is eminently true of the great vegetable Specific S. S. S., which has never been known to fail to cure the worst case of Scrofula. The action of the remedy is simple and perfect. Eradicates the disease by renewing and purifying the blood. Price, $1.00 and $1.75 per bottle.

Club Rates. The Columbia Register will be clubbed with the HERALD as follows: Weekly Register and HERALD $3.50, Tri-weekly Register and HERALD $5, Daily Register and HERALD $8.75. The Weekly Freeman and HERALD at $3.50. 47-ly.

Religious. There will be preaching (D. V.) next Sabbath at Smyrna Church.

Rev. A. S. Stokes will preach next Sunday at Trinity Church at 10-12 A. M., and at New Chapel at 8 P. M.

There will be no service in the Lutheran Church next Sabbath, Dr. Steek being in attendance on Synod. There will be preaching the following Sabbath.

Worthy of Notice. Isaac Williams, colored, on the place of Mr. J. S. Renwick, notwithstanding the horrendous circumstance that his daughter lay a corpse in his house, while another child died at the same time, took his registration ticket to the polls, and voted for law, order, and an honest government. A noble act, and worthy to be handed down.

The Harvest. In all kinds of grain, potatoes and vegetables has been large. Truly the God of the harvest has smiled upon us graciously. The cotton crop and corn is also very large, more of the former having been sold up to this time than during any previous whole season in many years past. It behooves the farmer, therefore, to pay up his debts and start with a clean balance sheet.

Select Readings. We had the pleasure of a brief interview with Miss Louise Clay Bigbie, the accomplished daughter of the late Col. Bigbie of the Confederate Army on Tuesday last, and are pleased to say that she will afford the public an entertaining programme of pathetic, humorous and dramatic readings on this Thursday evening, at the Opera House. Miss Bigbie is the bearer of several warm testimonial letters by distinguished gentlemen, and the press notices borne in her scrap book give full evidence of her talent and accomplishments. Without all the young and handsome. We bespeak for her a good house on Thursday evening.

GLENN ALPINE STATION, BURKE CO., N. C., Jan 12, 1882. Capt. James F. Johnston, Charlotte, N. C. DEAR SIR—The 20 horse power Bays Stationary Engine and 20 horse power rubber tubular Boiler bought of you one year ago has been in constant use ever since, and is now in good working order. We do not think it can be surpassed for the purpose we are using it, viz: sawing lumber. We have out from five to seven thousand feet per day. An old experienced saw mill man came and watched us sawing, and told us it was the best machine he had ever seen, and that we were then sawing more lumber per day than some other parties that he knew of were with a 25 horse power engine and boiler of another make. The saw mill you sold us has given perfect satisfaction. The Simultaneous Ratchet Head Blocks are a great aid to the saw mill man, and work with perfect accuracy. We say without hesitation that the whole outfit is a complete success. Yours truly, BOWDON & SMITH, American Agriculturist. For 50 years the American Agriculturist, now in its 48th year, has been recognized as the leading Agricultural Journal of the world. Notwithstanding its past wonderful career, it now enters upon a new era, and proposes to excel in its past accomplishments—moving forward to fresh conquests. The October number appears in a New Cover, New Dress, New Type, New Engravings, with New Artists, and additional Editorial Writers, making altogether the most superb periodical of the kind ever issued. From this time forward the American Agriculturist is determined to give the best articles in the country. The proprietor has but to point to its past record as a guarantee of our promises for the future. Never before in its career was the Journal so prosperous as now, and at no time since the first year immediately following the war have subscriptions come in so numerous as they are now coming. We confidently believe that the American Agriculturist is the best paper in the United States for local journals to Club with its character, as it is, and thus competing with no local Journal. Price $1.50 a year. Single copies, 15 cents. Orange Judd Company, Evidly, Ind., Vice-President, Samuel Barnham, Secretary. Clubbed with the HERALD at $3.

A Popular Journal. We are in receipt of the "Mechanical News" for November 1st, published by James Leffel & Co., No. 110 Liberty Street, New York, and take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the same.

With the present number the publishers send out a supplement in the shape of an illustrated Premium List, that reflects credit in the selection of the articles offered and the typographical appearance of the List. Upon application to the publishers, this Premium List will be sent free to any address, and from its pages useful articles can be ordered with or without the paper, at a reasonable price, and with the certainty of fair treatment, as the subscriber or purchaser will be dealing with an old and reliable business firm. The List will be found very useful to those who live remote from the large cities, for the selection of holiday presents.

The "News" is among the best papers that come to our editorial table, filled as it is with original and choice illustrations of the important and novel inventions of the times. Its editorial pages are replete with well considered articles on practical subjects, readily understood by any reader; while its comprehensive news-narrative makes it attractive to those interested in the general prosperity of our country; the whole forming a rich store of useful reading. The "News" is furnished at One Dollar per year, including a useful premium.

Cotton continues rolling in. Mr. Gardner, Dr. Fant's prescription clerk is perfect in his business. A true friend to the weak and convalescent is Brown's Iron Bitters. Notwithstanding the large cotton crop, subscribers are slow in paying up. Remember that the 10th of November is the limit for the payment of taxes. Pay up at once. Subscribers living near the town are requested to haul us in a load of good, straight, green oak wood. The Senior is back again from Charleston, and has done the harness, but has only taken up one or two buckles. Bargains in Stationery at the HERALD Book Store. Don't overlook the place, opposite E. A. Scott's clothing store.

Money is needed at this office. Printers and editors are subject to the same wants as the rest of mankind. So come along, friends.

The Sligh boys, Albert and Edgar, are among the fortunate tillers of the soil. Their corn cribs swell with the golden grain. The weather prophets predict an unusually cold winter for both Europe and America. Lay in a plentiful supply of wood, ye people.

A Well Managed Case. On the night of the 18th of February last a freight car standing on the track of the Columbia and Greenville Rail Road in our town was broken open, and about 700 lbs of bacon stolen therefrom. The R. R. authorities set a detective to work up the case, and convict the guilty parties. The detective spent several weeks in fruitless efforts, and was at last called away. Then it was that the R. R. authorities notified Mr. H. T. Fellers, our efficient Chief of Police, that he might investigate the case himself.

An old offender, Austin Weaver, had been arrested on the charge of burglary committed on the premises of Dr. J. G. Glider, and while awaiting trial managed to make his escape from the County Jail, and left the country. About two months ago Mr. Fellers disappeared from Newberry, no one knowing where he had gone except that he had boarded the train going in the direction of Columbia. A few days afterwards he returned to Newberry with Austin Weaver as a prisoner. "Where has he been?" "Why did he bring Austin back to Newberry?" were some of the inquiries which were made. All thought that Newberry had gained by Austin's absence. They little knew that Austin was implicated in the R. R. robbery; that the suspicions of Mr. Fellers were fastened upon him even before he made his escape from jail, and that in arresting him, Mr. Fellers had secured reliable information. Our sheriff, Chief, by means best known to himself, had discovered the fact that Austin was in Atlanta. He obtained a requisition from Gov. Hagood and visited Austin in his new quarters with Messrs. Massa & Canonetti, fashionable restaurateurs in Atlanta. The arrest was made, and a search-warrant obtained by which some mysterious letters from parties in Newberry were found. After bringing Austin back to Newberry our "Chief" pursued his investigations still further, and succeeded in a short while in returning to Messrs. Massa & Canonetti a quantity of silver spoons, towels, &c., which Austin had stolen during his short stay with them, and had shipped to his mistress in Newberry. Then our "Chief" was mysteriously absent a second time, at Spartanburg now, for a consultation with Sallidier Duncan, and returned, not with a prisoner as before, but to make an arrest. Again Newberry was surprised. Has the Chief gone mad? He arrests Harry B. Scott, his subordinate Policeman, and charges him with being principal in the R. R. robbery. What are the proofs? The confession of Austin Weaver, and those tell-tale letters written to Austin Weaver in the well identified hand of Harry B. Scott himself.

Last week Weaver and Scott were both tried, and the trial developed the fact that Scott was the greater criminal of the two. They were both convicted and sentenced each to three years in the Penitentiary.

It has been thought by numbers of persons that Mr. Geo. M. Skinner, a detective who was present at the trial, was entitled to the credit of bringing these two offenders to justice; but such is not the case. Mr. Fellers, while on his way to Spartanburg, as above stated, saw Mr. Fry, R. R. Superintendent, and suggested that Skinner might possibly be of service; but at the same time told him that he had the evidence to convict Scott and Weaver. Mr. Skinner came, but had nothing to do with the matter except to assist in the arrest of Scott.

The Town Council of Newberry may congratulate themselves on having the services of so efficient a Chief of Police. A. I. C. P.

Various and all About. Charming weather. Cotton continues rolling in.

Mr. Gardner, Dr. Fant's prescription clerk is perfect in his business. A true friend to the weak and convalescent is Brown's Iron Bitters.

Notwithstanding the large cotton crop, subscribers are slow in paying up. Remember that the 10th of November is the limit for the payment of taxes. Pay up at once. Subscribers living near the town are requested to haul us in a load of good, straight, green oak wood.

The Senior is back again from Charleston, and has done the harness, but has only taken up one or two buckles. Bargains in Stationery at the HERALD Book Store. Don't overlook the place, opposite E. A. Scott's clothing store.

Money is needed at this office. Printers and editors are subject to the same wants as the rest of mankind. So come along, friends.

The Sligh boys, Albert and Edgar, are among the fortunate tillers of the soil. Their corn cribs swell with the golden grain. The weather prophets predict an unusually cold winter for both Europe and America. Lay in a plentiful supply of wood, ye people.

Albert Sligh, we are told, has made one hundred and fifty gallons of Sorghum Syrup. He is as full of energy as his barrels are of syrup.

W. H. Wallace, Esq., junior editor of the Herald, has been confined to his bed over one week. We are pleased to say that he is now convalescent.

Fred Brooks, colored, whose name appeared as a delegate to the Republican Convention, denies the soft impeachment. He says he was not there.

The editor of the HERALD, unlike the Treasurer, does not attach a penalty to delinquent subscribers, but earnestly asks them to settle up at once. Money is needed.

"Shriffs" begs us to say in answer to the enquiry of a friend, that he has been for some time under the weather. He hopes soon to be restored to his wonted health and spirits.

There will be a big crowd going to the State Fair next week. Great attractions are offered, and of course all of Newberry desires to see everything, even to the display of pyrotechnics.

No free advertisements are inserted in the HERALD, but only such for which the established price has been agreed upon. Do not expect us to work for nothing and find ourselves, it cannot be done.

A splendid assortment of Stationery is to be found at the HERALD Book Store. The variety is large and handsome and prices cheap. The ladies are particularly invited to call and examine the stock.

An old fashioned corn-shucking came off at Capt. McFall's on Friday night, and so great was the amount of corn that the darkies kept it up until toward the wee small hours. There will be many such frolics this fall.

Take little annoyances out of the way. If you are suffering with a Cough or Cold, use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. This old and reliable remedy will never disappoint you. All Druggists sell it for 25 cents a bottle.

Mr. D. S. Satterwhite begs to state that the party said to have taken place on his plantation in which a woman was killed, occurred on the plantation of Mr. Frank Miller. Mr. S. does not allow such things to occur with him.

Without boasting we say that our subscription list has increased 25 per cent. in the last six months. It is an evidence that the HERALD is popular. Advertisers will find it to their advantage to put their business before the public in this paper.

The Edgefield Monitor says that Dr. Zack Smith of that section has caught this fall thirty-nine possums of the baking size; smaller ones being marked and turned loose. We have yet to see the first Newberry possum this fall, nor have we heard of a single buck.

The Senior editor acknowledges in a great lump his obligations to his many friends in the City by the Sea for the large kindness shown him in his stay of three weeks. The delightful rides, the sumptuous dinners, the elegant suppers, the uniform and pleasant courtesies, will long be remembered.

Best ever made, Emory's Little Cathartic Pills, pleasant to take, sugar-coated; no gripping; only 15 cents a box. Druggists or Standard Cure Co., 114 Nassau Street, New York. Jan. 1, 1883.

I would also call the attention of the medical profession and public to my Prescription Department, which is under the supervision of Mr. J. G. WOODER, a thorough Pharmacist. We make a specialty of dispensing Physicians' Prescriptions at reasonable prices.
