

THE NEWBERRY HERALD.

Special and Local.

THURSDAY, JAN. 25, 1883.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Business notices in this local column are inserted at the rate of 15 cents per line each insertion.

Religious Notice.—The preacher in charge of Newberry Circuit will preach at New Chapel next Sunday at 10-1-2 A. M., and at Trinity at 3-1-2 P. M.

Burglary and Larceny.—Last Thursday night Col. Thos. W. Holloway's meat-house was broken into, and about 200 pounds of home raised meat, and about 50 pounds of lard stolen. The rain was in favor of the guilty party, and he left no clue.

After the Fire.—Dr. Pelham's safe was found in the ice-house which is about eight feet deep from the cellar. The safe was opened, on Thursday afternoon, and the day after the fire. The binding of the books was ruined and some of the papers were scorched but with this exception, the contents were almost unimpaired.

Deaths.—Mrs. Eliza Satterfield died on the night of the 23rd instant.

Died Monday, the 22nd, Mrs. Eliza Garrett, of Newberry.

On Saturday the 20th, Mr. William Riser, a highly respected citizen of Township 4, died at the home of his son, Capt. W. W. Riser, he had been very feeble for several years.

Very Good.—The Yorkville Enquirer says that a negro man, living near that place, raised last year with one horse, 15 bales of cotton averaging 500 pounds, 200 bushels of corn, 85 bushels of wheat, 14 bushels of oats, 40 bushels of sweet potatoes and 5 wagon loads of watermelons.

Can Newberry beat that?

The Master.—Has opened an office over Cline's Store. His most important books were in the bank on the night of the fire, and he will be able to duplicate most of the books and papers that were destroyed. The original papers, including testimony, in some very important and troublesome cases, were burned. This will necessitate a rehearing of the cases, and will cause considerable delay and annoyance.

Adjusted.—Mr. Thos. C. Whitner of the Merchant's Insurance Co., of Newark New Jersey, was the adjuster on the hotel. The loss of Wheeler Bros. on stock, covered by insurance in this company, was adjusted at $227.34. The appraisal was made by Junius E. Chapman and Thos. Cook, and is satisfactory to Messrs. Wheeler. Upon the same appraisal they will probably receive from the Home Co., $106.04, on damage of stock. Loss on fixtures has not yet been adjusted.

Personal.—We were pleased to shake by the hand a few days ago, our old friend and companion of the 13th Reg't. S. C. V., Mr. B. P. Neel. He has been living at Anderson, and it is likely that he will settle in Newberry.

Hon. Geo. Johnston went to Columbia Monday to attend a meeting of the Sinking Fund Commission.

Mr. B. Oberdorfer, of Charlottesville, Va., is on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Abe Foot.

Mr. A. C. Jones has been appointed one of the clerks in the Sinking Fund Commission. He has our best wishes.

Mr. Robt Stoudermeir and family have moved back to Prosperity.

Weather Predictions, not Vendors.—Jan. 26, will be clear and cold, if there is no change before that time; 27, more weather; 28, weather along the coast and in the Northern States; 29, falling weather, if it rains; 30, a very marked stiffening of the mud, if there was no rain; 31, not so much weather as was shown in the first 30 days of the month. Our calculations for February have not been accurately made, and we can only say at present that the jurors will be prepared to receive their excuses and physicians certificates by the 5th.

Jolly Street Dots.—"Ons," writing from Jolly Street, on the 18th, says: The roads are in a fearful condition. The farmers of this section are badly behind; a good deal of cotton in the fields, and very little grain sown.

Mr. J. Quattlebaum's wagon upset, the 15th inst., and dislocated his little son's arm at the elbow.

Mr. John T. Long, while attempting to cross Elizee creek, on the 17th, came very near being drowned, his horse being carried down the stream some distance, and received a decent washing and ducking a decent one.

What Newberry Has.—25 lawyers; 6 physicians; 10 churches; about 100 barrooms; 1 college; 1 Female Academy; 3 common schools; a national bank; 4 blacksmith shops; 4 carpenter and carriage shops; 6 shoe shops; 1 grist mill; 1 marble yard; 3 barber shops; 4 hotels; 13 livery stables; 11 colored eating-houses; 2 drugstores; 1 opera house; 2 bakeries; 2 dentists; 3 newspapers; 5 collieries; and about 90 stores of general merchandise, as well as other things of less importance, and a Hook and Ladder Company!

What Newberry Has Not.—A cotton factory and a fire department. These she expects to have very soon.

Delinquent Land Sales.—The County Treasurer advertises that he will sell on the 5th of February, more than 5000 acres of land, for the payment of taxes. Of this land, there are 14 acres and 11 lots in Township 1; 34 acres in No. 2; 361 acres in No. 3; 211 acres in No. 4; 243 acres in No. 5; 629 acres in No. 6; 1219 acres in No. 7; 331 acres in No. 8; 299 acres and 2 lots in No. 9; 221 acres in No. 10; and 633 acres in No. 11. Some of this land is in litigation, and some of it belongs to involved estates; but why the taxes have not been paid on this land, is a matter to be determined by the courts. We presume, however, that very little of it will go to the block, on sales-day.

A Fire Department.—The one which Newberry feels more sorely than that of a cotton factory, is a well organized fire department. Why sagacious and practical business men should year after year leave their property to the flames, is unaccountable. The recent severe lesson, as well as the ones that went before, show most clearly that something should be done in this matter, and done at once. Bought insurance may be the best; but Newberry has invested extensively enough, and should now profit by her experience. One or two tanks on the public square, filled from the Court House gutters, or from the railroad tank, would supply enough water to protect the business part of town; and the cost of organizing and equipping a fire department would be insignificant when compared with our losses by fires that could have been controlled by proper organization.

A Venerable Couple.—Mr. Abraham Moore, a Prosperity veteran, aged 87, paid a visit on Tuesday. He has been living on his old homestead all his life, and though now in the "wax and yellow leaf," sowed his own wheat and oats last fall himself. His wife with whom he has lived for 60 years, is 83 years of age, and though she has had nine children and womanhood, were raised to man and womanhood, four of them are still living. Mr. Moore is a well known subscriber to the HERALD, and will continue. Rarely do we call to make such a record.

POST OFFICE, NEWBERRY C. H. S. C., Jan. 20, 1883

List of advertised letters for week ending Jan. 20, 1883.

Change of Schedule. The up passenger now arrives at Newberry at 2:10 o'clock; the down passenger, at 4:32. Don't forget this.

Crooked Transactions. The County Treasurer and Auditor in adjusting their books, have discovered that there are some 1,000 acres of land in the County, the names of which are not on the books. The fact that they called, and are considerably more than 21 years of age, is very good evidence that they have paid the poll-tax before.

The taxes on the land and their polls have not been accounted for, and it is supposed that former Treasurers had a soft thing of it.

Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly. The number for February is already on our table, and it is impossible in a brief notice to do justice to its abundant and varied contents. The articles by popular writers, replete with interest and information; bright stories, sketches, etc.; several meritorious poems; a comprehensive miscellany, and a splendid and instructive "Amis and Their Ways of Life," Robinson's "The Loves of Catherine de Bourbon," etc. are noteworthy and finely illustrated articles. The number contains 128 quarto pages, and over 100 engravings, and the price for a copy is $1.00. Write for it, and get it. Sent by Frank Leslie, Publisher, 35, 55 and 57 Park Place, New York.

Calvin Caldwell, Asa M. Oxner.

Newberry Journalism. With the new year considerable changes have been made in the press of Newberry. To begin with, Mr. Wallace who, for some time past, has assisted with much force and ability in the editorial conduct of the HERALD, has started the Observer, a new paper, which he will hereafter conduct at Newberry. In this new venture we wish him abundant success.

The HERALD, which is the oldest and most widely circulated of the Newberry papers, will be edited by Messrs. Grenier and George B. Cromer, and will doubtless fully maintain its reputation and position in South Carolina journalism. Mr. Cromer is a young lawyer of fine abilities, and is destined to occupy a prominent place in the direction of public affairs. The HERALD is fortunate in securing his services in the conduct of its editorial columns.

The journalistic contest in Newberry is, it will be seen from the number and the strength of the gentlemen engaged in it, destined to be vigorous. We hope the rivalry will be a healthy one, and that all our friends there may be so far victorious as to reap a good reward financially for their labor.—Anderson Intelligencer.

France is threatened with a revolution.

A YOUNG SOUTH CAROLINA APPOINTED TO COMMAND AN EXPEDITION.—St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 15.—The men who were to be chosen from the Department of Dakota to take part in the Greeley Arctic expedition were finally appointed by Gen. Terry yesterday. First Lieutenant Ernest A. Garlington, of the 7th Cavalry, is to be the officer in charge. He is a native of South Carolina and was appointed to the Military Academy at West Point from the State of Georgia. He entered the regular army in 1876, and the same year received his commission as First Lieutenant. The four men who are to accompany him from this department were picked from one hundred applicants. These men and Lieutenant Garlington will immediately go into training for the expedition at Washington.
