NEWBERRY, S. C. THURSDAY, MAY 10, 1883.

The Herald is in the highest respect a Family Newspaper, devoted to the material interests of the people of this County and the State. It circulates extensively, and as an Advertising medium offers unrivalled advantages. For Terms, see first page.

THE NEWBERRY COTTON MILLS.

When the Newberry Cotton Mills were incorporated in 1882, many persons believed that the charter, like that of 1872, would never be of greater practical value than the paper on which it was printed. Our capital was timid, our people were not accustomed to manufactures, and, as a rule, they knew little about any other than real estate investments. Even the most sanwould be required to raise the monappointed a committee to receive mittee reported that the subscrip- protest which they may make. tions reached the sum of $157,000seven thousand above the limit at effected. These are money subscriptions; they are perfectly sound, and represent the very best business men of our county.

The company is now organized, and the character of the men who compose the Board of Directors, gives assurance of an economical and successful management of the concern. By experience they know look upon the enterprise as an inso as to yield a fair per cent. Frank Leslie's Sunday Magazine.

For delightful, edifying and instructive reading this magazine is not excelled by any of its contemporaries, and the June number, in these respects, could scarcely be surpassed. The following admirable articles are profusely illustrated: "What is the Baptist Church?" by Rev. Dr. Chambliss, being a continuation of "Religious Denominations in the United States"; "Among the Natives of the North," (No. 11.) by Lieutenant Schwat-ka; "The Other Side of Greek History, Ancient and Modern," by Rev. There are articles by the editor, Dr. Talmage, on the late Alexander H. Stephens, and Peter Cooper, and a sermon in the Home Pulpit, "The Cloudless Morning." There are also articles, essays, stories and poems by Adelaide Stout, Ida Hervey, Olive M. Birrell, Rev. W. W. DeHart, S. T. B., Mrs. W. Fawcett, Rev. E. Payson Hammond etc., etc., and a most interesting miscellany. Price 25 cents, or $3 a year, postpaid. Address, Mrs. Fri.nk Leslie, Publisher, 53, 55, and 57 Park Place, New York.

Brown's Iron Bitters is guaranteed to be a nonintoxicating stimulant, and it will, in nearly every case, take the place of all liquor, and at the same time absolutely kill the desire for whiskey and other intoxicating beverages.

Rev. G. W. RICE, editor of the American Christian Review, says of Brown's Iron Bitters:

Cin., O., Nov. 16, 1881. Gents: - The foolish wasting of vital force in business, pleasure, and vicious indulgence of our people, makes your preparation a necessity; and if applied, will save hundreds who resort to saloons for temporary recuperation.

Brown's Iron Bitters has been thoroughly tested for dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, weakness, debility, overwork, rheumatism, neuralgia, consumption, liver complaints, kidney troubles, &c., and it never fails to render speedy and permanent relief.

Something New About the Sun.

Although Solomon told us, nearly 3000 years ago, that "There is no new thing under the sun," it is a well established fact that some startling discoveries have recently been made in the sun.

Men have always had some vague idea of its heating power, but of its other mighty agencies and influences they were largely ignorant.

It is a subject as fascinating as it is instructive, and it is worthy of our earnest attention, especially when so earnest attention, especially when so admirable a work as "The Celestial Symbol Interpreted," (advertised in another column, published by J. C. McCurdy & Co., Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis,) is within the reach of every one.

The learned author not only acquaints us with, and makes plain the newest scientific discoveries, but he also teaches, at every step, some great moral
