es, and the good work still progresses.—The Rev. Mr. Pickett is a powerful laborer in his Master's cause, and a devoted soldier of the cross Edgefield is fortunate in his appointment; and we but reiterate a common wish amongst us, when we express the hope that he will be continued by conference in his present post.—Edgefield Advertiser.

HARTFORD, Conn., October 29.—A letter received from Lieut. Tyler, of the United States army, at Oregon, to his father, dated September 15, states that the Spokan and Peluse Indians had been defeated, after two days fighting. The Spokan chief and nine hundred horses were captured, and all the plunder taken from Colonel Steptoe recovered. Steptoe's pistol was found on the body of a dead Indian. The army lost but one man. The Indians were begging for peace and complying with all demands. The war was considered ended. This letter was expressed to Fort Taylor by an Indian runner, and is probably the only news from the seat of war by the steamer.

YELLOV FEVER INCIDENT.—On Monday last, says a New Orleans paper, a gentleman coming into the city from Ozyks, found himself setting vis-a-vis with a company of strangers in whom he became interested. On inquiry, he found that the party consisted of four youths from Kentucky, going to New Orleans to seek their fortunes "Are you not afraid of the fever?" said our friend. "We did not know the danger when we started," was the reply. "I advise you," said our friend, "to take the return cars for Jackson, or you will doubtless soon be occupants of our graveyard." "We had rather die than go back," was the answer. They came. Our friend followed them to their boarding house, and watched their fate. Three of them have been buried; the fourth cannot survive.

NEW STYLE OF ADVERTISING.—Those Western folks are famous hands for new ideas; for instance, the columns of the St. Louis Republican contain the following:

"Engaged—Miss Anna Gould to John Candal, city marshal, both of Leavenworth, K. T."

Why not adopt the fashion here? How popular a newspaper would be among the young misses if it contained a column or so daily of like announcements! There is nothing near as fascinating in births, marriages, or deaths.—N. Y. Day Book.

GOOD NATURE.—Good nature is more agreeable in conversation than wit, and gives a certain air to the countenance which is more amiable than beauty. It shows virtue in its fairest ligh takes off, in some measure, from the deformity of vice, and makes our folly and impertinence supportable.

THE INDIAN WAR.—A dispatch having been received by the War Depart ment from General Twiggs, confirming the accounts of the hostilities of the Indian tribes north of Texas, and of the fight between them and Major Van Dorn's command, Secretary Floyd will take measures immediately for increasing the force in the Department of Texas. It is probable the troops now at Governor's Island, New York, comprising some 500 or 600 men, will be sent thither.

DYING FOR ECONOMY.—Not far from Bradford an old couple lived on their farm. The good man had been ill for some time, when the practitioner who attended him advised that a physician should be summoned from Bradford for a consultation. The doctor came looked into the case, gave his opinion, and, descending from the sick-room into the kitchen, was there accosted by the old woman with, "Well, doctor, what's your charge?" "My fee is a guinea." "A guinea, doctor! a guinea! And if ye come again, will it be another guinea?" "Yes; but I shall hardly have to come again. I have given my opinion, and leave the patient in very good hands." "A guinea, Dr. Hech?" The old woman rose, went up stairs to her husband's bedside, and the doctor, who waited below, heard her say, "He charges a guinea; and if he comes again it'll be another guinea. Now, what do you say? If I were ye, I'd say no, like a Britoner; and I'd die first."

ORIENTAL WIT.—A young man, going a journey, intrusted a hundred deenars to an old man: when he came back, the old man denied having had any money deposited with him, and he was had up before the Khazee. "Where were you, young man, when you delivered this money?" Under a tree." "Take my seal and summon that tree," said the judge. "Go, young man, and tell the tree to come hither, and the tree will obey when you show it my seal." The young man went in wonder. After he had been gone some time, the Khazee said to the old man, "He is long—do you think he has got there yet?" "No," said the old man; "it is at some distance; he has not got there yet." "How knowest thou, old man," cried the Khazee, "where that tree is?" The young man returned, and said the tree would not come.—"He has been here, young man, and given his evidence—the money is thine."

INNOCENT people have often been surprised at public meetings to see with what enthusiasm and unanimity persons scattered in all quarters of an audience shout for particular speakers. They regard such manifestations as unmistakable evidence of the popularity of the person called for. At a Republican meeting in Indiana, the other day, a speaker named Long, responded to a loud call and took the stand; but a big strapping fellow persisted in crying out, in stentorian voice, "Long! Long!" This caused a little confusion, but after some difficulty in making himself heard, the President succeeded in stating that Mr. Long, the gentleman honored by the call, was now addressing them. "Oh, he be d—d!" replied the fellow; "he's the little skeezicks that told me to call for Long!" This brought down the house.

G. RIECKE, JR.,

HAS just returned from Charleston with a fine selection of SPRING & SUMMER DRY GOODS, for Gentlemens' Wear, such as

Black and Blue Broadcloths,
DOE-SKIN CASSIMERE, CASHMERETTE, DRAP D'ETE,
&c., &c.,
ALSO, some articles for Ladies Dresses, such as Calicoes, Muslins, &c.

Gentlemen who wish a fine fit of CLOTHING will do well by giving him a call, look at the Fashions of Genio C. Scott, for 1858, and have their measure taken, as Mr. W. WALSEMANN is there yet, ready to execute any work in his line in the most fashionable and approved style.

G. RIECKE, Jr.

Has also received a fine stock of GROCERIES, such as Molasses, Sugars, Coffee, Tea, Tobacco, Soap, Starch, &c., &c.

—ALSO—

Hardware, Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes; all of which he offers to the public as cheap as the cheapest for CASH!
