PICKENS C. H., S. C. :

Saturday Morning, November 12, 1859.

The Editor will be absent next week.

Special

Attention is directed to the change made in the advertisement of the Administrators of the estate of J. T. FERGUSON.—To the sales of valuable property by Dr. COATES, and the Administrators of the estates of McDOW, HOLLINGSWORTH and CHAMBLIN.—To the sale of Negroes and Factory by the Assignees of SYMES.—To the sales by the Sheriff and Ordinary, and the numerous other new advertisements in our columns this week.

Saleday.

There were no sales made on this day; notwithstanding, the attendance of our citizens was large. Business, in the public offices, was brisk. There was less drinking than usual, although a fisticuff was the result of too frequent potations.

Walhalla.

A recent brief visit to this beautiful town has afforded us the pleasure of noting the improvements going on there. The outside of the Lutheran church, a finely proportioned building, is nearly completed. The church is to be finished throughout soon. Mr. BREMANN is adding largely to his already commodious and well kept hotel. Mr. PIEPER is building to his business house, and opening a large stock of new goods. Mr. R. H. LOWRY is erecting a suitable house, on Main street, for business purposes. The handsome residence commenced by Dr. HOLLAND is also being finished.

The merchants have received large stocks of goods, which they are disposing of fast on the most reasonable terms. See the advertisements of those who favor us in this line.

Killed.

It gives us pain to record another fatal accident. On the 31 instant, at Dr. COATES' Saw-mill, just in the edge of Anderson District, a worthy man, by the name of ALLEN BAILEY, was killed. It appears that, in adjusting a piece of Lumber near the Saw, (which was running) it was struck by the saw, hurling it with great force against deceased's temple, shattering his brains, and causing almost instant death.

The Legislature

Of Georgia convened at Milledgeville on the 21 instant. Hon. LE GRAND GERRY was elected President of the Senate, and Mr. F. WEST, Secretary. ISAIAH IRVIN, Esq., was elected Speaker of the House of Representatives, and Mr. DRAYMOND, Clerk. The message of Gov. Brown is lengthy and devoted almost entirely to State affairs.

Another Barbecue.

The friends of the Spartanburg and Union railroad have determined to have a barbecue, and other public demonstrations, at the former place, on the 25th instant, in honor of its completion. The Committee of Invitation have our thanks for a polite invitation to attend thereon. Should the pleasure be denied us of being present, we send a kindly greeting to the festive occasion.

Judges Douglas and Black.

Judge DOUGLAS, Senator from Illinois, has forwarded to us his reply to Judge BLACK, on the territorial question.

Declination.

We are requested by Mr. PARSONS to say for him that he is no longer a candidate for Ordinary of this District.

NEWS, DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN.—Brown, the Harper's Ferry conspirator, has been found guilty of murder, treason and insurrection. He was sentenced to be hung on the 21 December next. His case, by counsel, is to go to the Court of Appeals. Brown's accomplices are being tried.—The recent election in Baltimore for State officers, Congressmen and members of the Legislature was a bloody farce, and a disgrace to a free country. The Legislature is democratic, being a gain to that extent. The particulars of the riot, bloodshed and murder can be found in our columns.—Hon. Charles Macbeth has been elected Mayor of Charleston, over Col. John E. Carew, by a majority of 300 votes.—The Indians have massacred five persons near Fort Hall, Utah territory. Their bodies were terribly mangled.—A despatch from Chicago states that an excursion train on the Northwestern railroad ran off the track, killing eight persons and wounding seriously a number of others.—Judge Perkins, of Mississippi, has contributed the sum of $50,000 for the establishment of a new Professorship in the Theological Seminary, at Columbia, of Natural Science in its relations to Revealed Religion.—The Lutheran Synod met at Betheden church, Newberry district, on the 27th ult. Rev. D. B. Hort was elected President; Rev. J. H. Hawkins, Recording Secretary, and Rev. J. A. Brown, Corresponding Secretary. The next meeting will be held at Luther Chapel, in the town of Newberry, Oct. 25th, 1860.—Fires, by which heavy losses have been sustained, have occurred in New Orleans and Sunceok, N. H.—The foreign dates are up to the 22d ult. Cotton had advanced in Liverpool 1-8d. The Zurich conference has ended its labors, enlarging on the Villa Franca arrangement. Disquietude reigns in Italy.

CANDID.—Senator Wilson, of Massachusetts, in his speech at Syracuse on the 28th ult., said: "The Harper's Ferry outbreak was the consequence of the teachings of Republicanism." A candid admission.

DIVORCE.—The divorce docket of the Supreme Court of Providence, R. I., for the term now in session, contains eight-three petitions for release from matrimonial ties.

The State and Institute Fairs. The Fair of the State Agricultural Society opened, in Columbia, on Monday last. A very large number of persons were present, together with the longest list of competitors for premiums ever on the ground. Pickens was represented by fine stock, and articles of utility and fancy work. At our latest dates the fair was in full blast.

The Fair of the South Carolina Institute, in Charleston, commences on Tuesday next. The fare on the railroads has been reduced to one half for the week.

Exchanges.

THE SOUTH CAROLINIAN.—The proprietor of the Carolinian will furnish his daily paper, during the session of the Legislature, for $1.00, including postage. A Phonographic Reporter being attached to the office, will enable him to give accurate reports of the acts and doings of the Legislature.

THE FARMER AND PLANTER.—The November number of this interesting agricultural work has been received. It is worth more than twice the subscription price, which is $1. Address R. M. STOKES, Esq., Columbia.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE FOR OCTOBER.—Published by L. SCOTT & CO., 54 Gold street, New York. Price, $3 per annum.

It would not be an easy matter to put one's finger on a dull number of this famous periodical, and when we announce, as we do now, the publication of a new number, the reader may look for at least one paper the perusal of which will be well worth his while. We have no intention to canvass the different articles in the present issue, which offer the usual variety; but we cannot refrain from calling attention to, and soliciting a careful perusal of the abstract from Capt. SPEER'S Journal in this and the number for September, giving the details of a journey in Central Africa, made by him in conjunction with Lieut. BURTON. Traversing districts before untraveled by the white man, that officer, having entered Africa on the east coast, worked up to the northward and westward, to the Mountains of the Moon, and in their vicinity has discovered a vast lake or inland sea, to which he has given the name of Victoria Nyauza, and which there is every reason to believe is the long sought Fountain of the Nile. This lake is situated exactly on the Equator; and its position and the formation of the country and soil probably to the suggestion.

WE cannot reproduce in this brief notice Capt. Speer's argument on the subject, but we may refer to the details in the number itself. A continuation is promised, which will probably throw still further light on the solution of this most interesting problem. An age which has witnessed the discovery of the two other famous geographical origins, the mouth of the Niger and the North-West Passage, will certainly not much longer be baffled by the few miles yet remaining to connect the explorations of the Nile from the North with the recent discoveries of travellers pushing up from the South. Price of the four Reviews, $8 a year; "Blackwood" and the four Reviews, $10.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE.—We are in receipt of this popular Lady's Magazine for December.—It is a splendid number. "Peterson" has a circulation already of nearly 100,000, but will be greatly improved in 1860. It will contain about 1000 pages of double column reading matter; 14 steel plates; 12 colored steel fashion plates; 12 colored patterns in Berlin work, embroidery on cretonne; and 800 wood engravings.—Proportionately more than any other periodical gives. Its stories and novelets are by the best writers. Its fashions are always the latest and prettiest. Its price is but Two Dollars a year, or a dollar less than Magazines of its class. Subscribe for it and save a dollar. To clubs, it is cheaper still—viz: three copies for $5, or eight for $10. To every person getting up a club, the Publisher will send two splendid engravings of Niagara, of a size for framing.—Address CHARLES J. PETERSON, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia. Specimens sent gratis.

LIBERAL.—Mrs. Mary Stevens, who died in Savannah a few days ago, bequeathed a residence valued at $8,000, and seventeen slaves to the Methodist Church of Savannah, of which she was a member.

BLOODY RECORD.—Gilbert, the first member of Congress from California, was killed in a duel. Herbert, another member of Congress murdered a hotel waiter at Washington. Key, the District Attorney, who treacherously connived at his acquittal, was shot by Sickles, and now Senator Broderick is killed by a Judge of the Supreme Court. This is a bloody record for so young a State.

FEMALE COLLEGE.—A liberal subscription has been gotten up for the purpose of erecting and putting in operation a Female College at Due West, Abbeville. Success to the Institution.

PHARAOH DISENTOMBED.—A French antiquarian explorer has recently discovered at Thebes the tomb of Pharaoh Amosis. The King was found lying in a coffin covered with gold leaf, on which large wings were painted. Thirty jewels of great value were found by his side in the coffin; also, a hatchet of gold, ornamented with figures in lapis lazuli.

MARRIED IN RUSSIA.—John E. Bacon, Esq., of Edgefield, Secretary of the United States Legation at St. Petersburg, was married recently to Miss Rebecca Pickens, daughter of our Minister to Russia, Hon. F. W. Pickens. The bride and bridegroom are gone to Italy.

THE WOMEN AND SHARPE'S RIFLES.—Miss Lucy Meyers, 16 years of age, took the first prize for the best rifle shot at a target in Hartford, Conn., last week. Lucy does up Sharpe's rifle cartridges in the factory of Mr. Chadwick, as do many other girls, and all contended in the match.

DEAD.—Hon. James C. Jones, formerly Governor of Tennessee, died in Memphis, on the 30th ult.

THE GEORGIA STATE ROAD.—From the Comptroller's report to the Governor, we learn that the increased receipts of the State Railroad this year over the last amount to $220,000.

GEORGIA.—The result of the election in Georgia for Governor is as follows: For Brown, 64,083; Aiken, 42,506. Governor Brown's majority in the State, 21,577! Such men as Gov. Brown should always be allowed to run for office without opposition.

Fennings and Clippings.

COMMUNION MEETING.—A communion meeting will be held at Bethel church, commencing on Friday before the third Sabbath in November, instant.

DEDICATION.—The new Presbyterian church, at Bachelor's Retreat, will be dedicated on Saturday before the third Sabbath in Nov., inst. Preaching may also be expected on the Sabbath.

LARGE REWARD.—Gov. Wise (of Va.) has issued his proclamation offering $2000 reward for the apprehension of Owen Brown, Barclay Coppie, Francis J. Meriam and Charles P. Tidd, who were engaged in the Harper's Ferry invasion.

VIRGINIA MOVEMENTS.—In some parts of Virginia, meetings have been called to appoint Vigilance Committees and to petition the Legislature to give the border counties a corps of armed men officered and paid by the State, whose sole duty it shall be to guard the property of citizens, arrest suspected citizens, and exercise a rigid police surveillance.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3d.—Lewis Jones, a young man, Clerk in the Land Office, and son of the late George H. Jones, of (Petersburg) Virginia, committed suicide this morning by blowing his brains out with a pistol.

HORRIBLE MURDER.—A gunsmith in Texas murdered his wife by putting her head in a vice and crushing it to pieces.

COTTON.—In Charleston, on the 5th, 5,100 bales of cotton were sold at 10 1/2 to 11 1/4.

THE LADY'S SNOWY BROW.—The gentleman who kissed the lady's snowy brow, caught a severe cold, and has been laid up ever since. For kissing a lady's brow in preference to saluting her lips, he ought to be laid up, and laid out to boot. Such execrable taste is unpardonable.

DECIDED.—The House of Bishops have decided to allow Bishop Onderdonk to withdraw his memorial for restoration, which is considered equivalent to its rejection.

TO BE HANGED.—The Lancaster Ledger says that Dan, a slave, the property of Alvin Massey, condemned for murder will be hanged on Friday the 4th inst.

NOVEL CASE.—The Lancaster Ledger states that the Court of Ordinary, for that district, has been in session to prove the will of Daniel Steel, a minor, in "solemn form." The Ordinary has not decided the case, though an appeal will be taken, let his decision be what it may.

GIRLS IN DEMAND.—Of the 3,000 voters of Washington Territory, two thousand are desirous of entering the matrimonial state, but there are no marriageable girls there. The Pudget's Sound Herald plaintively calls for New England damsels to satisfy the demand for "a good article."

GOING WEST.—Thousands of wagons are now on the route from Missouri, destined for Grayson, Collin, and the adjoining counties of Texas.

DANGEROUS PLACE.—St. Louis is a dangerous place. The papers make mention of two attacks and robbery of ladies on the high street in broad daylight. The perpetrator's we boys.

WELL DONE FOR THE LADDER.—The Memphis Bulletin says that within a fortnight two ladies of that city have collected a sum of $1,000 in aid of the Mount Vernon Fund.

MORTALITY FROM SMALL-POX.—At the late meeting of the English Scientific Association, it was stated that about four thousand deaths occur annually in England from small-pox, and that the lives of 3000 might be saved by a proper attention to vaccination.

THE SLAVE TRADE.—The steamer Granada, from Havana, October 26th, reports that two cargoes of 900 Africans were recently landed near Havana.

MURDER.—Private letters to the New Orleans Picayune from Mexico confirm the cold-blooded murder of Mr. Chase, the American Consul, by Gen. Marquez.

FLOURISHING.—The Masonic Female Institution, at Cokesbury, has 125 pupils, and was never more flourishing.

DEAD.—Hon. E. Brownlee, State Senator from St. Georges Parish, died on the 30th ult. of typhoid fever.

The Baltimore Election.

We publish in another column further reports of the shameful election, held in Baltimore on Wednesday last. It can in no wise be called an election, and did the proper spirit prevail in the Federal House of Representatives, neither Davis nor Harris would be permitted to occupy seats to which they are in no respect more entitled than any other rowdies in that hopeful city.

The condition of distraction and rowdiness to which Baltimore has attained, should inspire the decent and respectable citizens throughout the United States, particularly in the towns and cities, to take an early stand against frauds and corruptions in elections. In this city and district, this may be earnestly considered. An evil, unless controlled, will always grow. We have the incipient cancer now among us; unless it be cauterized and annihilated by firmness, it may yet grow to be even so great a mistake and disgrace as that which now makes Baltimore a by-word of reproach among the cities of the land.

It seems that all the previous organizations and arrangements of the Reformers were unavailing. Unfortunately, Court, Mayoralty and police system are under the control of the rowdies, so that the bulwarks to which society looks for protection, have been converted into engines for the protection of crime and disorder. What remedy short either of vigilance committees or armed combination can restore order, we do not see. The orderly citizens have but the right of revolution left them. They have the right to reform by force, if necessary, a government which has been perverted from the purpose of all governments.

THE HOG MARKET.—We again advert to this subject, which is an important item to many of our people. One of our most reliable citizens, who has recently returned from East Tennessee, where he has spent the last several months, requests us to state that at no time within the past five years, has the hog crop been so abundant in that section. Large numbers are being collected, and are intended, he believes, for this market. He thinks that our friends, who gave us information several weeks since quite to the contrary, was deceived by persons whose interest it is to create the impression that hogs are scarce; and further, that our citizens should place no reliance on what drovers may affirm about the scarcity, as there are hundreds and thousands of the genus hog to make their appearance here during the winter.

MELANCHOLY SPECTACLE.—Yesterday, says the Albany Knickerbocker, the daughter of a well known citizen, a prominent merchant and wealthy man, was found in the street, by some friend of her father, in a beastly state of intoxication, and taken home. A crowd of idle boys were about her, who were throwing piles of leaves upon her that had dropped from the trees. She was tastefully and richly dressed, and wore a large amount of jewelry. From some cause or other, she has become addicted to strong drink, and her parents are obliged to keep a continual watch upon her movements. Yesterday, however, she managed to get loose, and what is described above was the result. She is a beautiful girl, about 19 years old, and is to be pitied.

THE FATAL RENCONTRE.—The jury of inquest who were summoned by Coroner Kingman, on Thursday night, to investigate the case of the fatal rencontre of which we made brief notice yesterday, convened according to postponement, at ten o'clock yesterday morning. The testimony of Dr. Leiby, who held a post mortem examination on the body, was to the effect that death was caused by hemorrhage from the internal bleeding of a wound, inflicted apparently with a knife, in the lumbar region, on the left side. The verdict of the jury was, that Martin Roddy came to his death in consequence of wounds inflicted by a knife in the hands of Charles Boag, at the French Coffee-House, on the evening of the 2d inst.

While the Coroner's investigation was pending, and some hours before the verdict was returned, Mr. Boag called on the Sheriff, and voluntarily surrendered himself to that officer.—Charleston Mercury.

BAD NEWS FOR THE ABOLITIONISTS.—A despatch from Richmond to the New York Herald, states that it has been decided on by the Virginia authorities to hand over Cook—John Brown's lieutenant—to be tried by the Federal Court in the Harper's Ferry district. The object of this is to have Seward, Greeley, Sanborn, Wilson, Hale, Forbes, Gerrit Smith, and all others who were implicated in the conspiracy, or who are known to have been in the secrets of the conspirators, subpoenaed as witnesses and placed on the stand to tell all they know in the matter. They are outside the jurisdiction of the Virginia State Courts, but not of the Federal Courts.

SENATOR HALE EXCULPATES HIMSELF.—We make the following extract from the letter of Senator Hale, to which allusion was made in our columns a day or two since: "I shall not undertake the task of vindicating either of the gentlemen named in connection with myself from any charges which may be brought against them, collectively or individually, by a newspaper or in any other mode, but leave that to their own hands, not doubting their entire ability to do it far more ably and satisfactorily than I could. So far as relates to myself, I can only reply by denying every word and syllable, and pronouncing the whole, from beginning to end, in general and in detail, false, and challenging the world for a particle of testimony, written or verbal, sustaining one of the charges thus recklessly brought against me, or for a single circumstance calculated to cast a suspicion upon me in an unprejudiced mind.

"I never had any knowledge or intimation from any one that an insurrection, or outbreak, or anything of the sort, was contemplated by John Brown, or any one else, in Virginia or elsewhere, nor had I the remotest suspicion of the fact; and when the knowledge of the late occurrences in Virginia were first made public through the newspapers of the land, I am sure that to no human being were they more unexpected and surprising than they were to myself, or heard by any one with more regret. I do not know how to make this denial more broadly than I have; but when the jaundiced eye of some political opponent in the free States, who is now exulting and rejoicing over this sad history, in the hope that it may be made of some account politically by which the Democratic party may reap some benefit, and the Republican party be injured, shall have pointed out some possible omission, behind which I may be supposed to have sheltered myself, I am ready to meet that. But I will go further, and say, that if there be any such evidence against me as is charged, let it be laid before the Grand Jury of Virginia or Maryland, and let them find a true bill against me for any violation of the laws of either of those States, and I pledge myself to go at any day into any State of the Union and meet the charge, in person, before any judicial tribunal."

GOV. WILLARD AND COOK.—A correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, writing from Charlestown, on Saturday, says: Gov. Willard, of Indiana, visited his brother-in-law, Cook, yesterday, in jail, in company with Senator Mason. Mr. Mason proposed to the Governor to retire when the latter entered, suggesting that he would probably prefer that his interview should be private, and also for the reason that anything Cook might say he should feel bound to testify to if called upon as a witness. Gov. Willard very promptly replied that he himself would be a witness in court to any facts Cook might communicate, and insisted that Mr. Mason should be present.—Gov. Willard urged Cook to make a full confession of all he knew connected with the affair at Harper's Ferry, in order to exonerate those who were innocent, and to punish those who were implicated, as the only atonement he could now make.—Cook, signified his willingness to do so, and he will probably make a written confession. He told Cook that he had nothing to hope for but death. Gov. Willard states that his family had lost sight of Cook for several years, and supposed he was dead, until upon reading his name in the papers, he determined to visit Charlestown to ascertain if he was his relative.—Mrs. Willard, he states, is in great distress at the conduct of her brother.

PHILADELPHIA WORK-WOMEN.—According to the Enquirer, Lowell female operatives would be swallowed up and unnoticed here, so great is the number of females engaged in this manufacturing metropolis. The following probable estimate is given of the numbers employed in various branches: "textile fabrics," 12,000; shoe-binding or sewing "uppers," 2,000; sewing for clothing establishments, 4,800; book-binding, 2,000; feeding power-presses in printing offices, 150; map coloring, 175; making shirts and shirt collars, 2,500; hat trimmers, 1,000; cap-makers, 1,000; cigar-makers, 1,000; paper-box makers, 300; making false teeth, 1, 62; sewing at umbrellas and parasols, 1,200; artificial flower makers, 200; in large straw goods and millinery establishments, 400; and individual milliners and dress-makers, and saleswomen, beyond all computation. The Enquirer truthfully adds: "What a mass of femininity to be earning its bread and butter. Ah! if we could only be assured that all these gentle tailors succeed in getting a fair remuneration for their labor. But there are weary frames, sunken cheeks and racking coughs in many households, as we write, that tell us of the midnight lamp, the despairing heart, and the untimely grave.—There are mere children at the needle, with stiffening fingers, and aching eyes, to whom the joys of childhood are forbidden, lest their parents lack food. There are aged, dim-eyed, tremulous widows, who dare not take the rest they need, and yet they can barely keep the flickering flame of life in the body."

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY AND JOHN BROWN.—The Republican party denies any knowledge of Brown's conspiracy, or having aided it in any way. A trumpeter says, Boag, being taken prisoner in a battle, begged hard for quarter. "Spare me, good sirs, I beseech you," said he, "and put me not to death without cause, for I have killed no one, nor have I arms save only this poor trumpet." "For this very reason," said his captors, "shall you the sooner die, for without the spirit to fight yourself, you stir up others to bloodshed!"

CURE FOR DIVORCE.—Michelet, in his remarkable book, L'Amour, mentions the following novel method of curing the disposition, in married couples, to become separated: "In Zurich, in the olden time, when a quarrelsome couple applied for divorce, the magistrate never listened to them. Before deciding upon the case he locked them up for three days in the same room, with one bed, one table, one plate and tumbler. Their food was passed in to them by attendants, who never saw nor spoke to them. When they came out, at the end of three days, neither of them wanted to be divorced."

LITTLE drops of rain brighten the meadows; and little acts of kindness brighten the world.

SORROW comes soon enough without despondency; it does a man no good to carry around a lightning-rod to attract trouble.

A GALLON of strong lye put in a barrel of hard water, will make it as soft as rain-water.

MUTUAL gratifications advance the pleasures of friendship.

OBITUARY.

DEPARTED this life at my residence, in Cherokee county, Ga., on the 20th of October, of ELLIOTT PRITCHARD, Mrs. MARY C. GERRY, in the 25th year of her age. She was seized very ill and painful for eleven days. The deceased leaves a large circle of relatives and friends, and a little infant boy, one year old, and a bereaved husband, to mourn her sacred loss. She was very industrious and economizing, and an obedient child to her parents, and a charitable neighbor, and beloved by all who knew her.—She was an affectionate wife, and a loving mother. She was not a member of any Christian church, though she took the Bible for her guide, and tried to live in accordance with it. For the last several years past her prayers were often to God, who hath said in His word, "Let the wicked forsake his way and the unrighteous man his thoughts, and let him return unto the Lord, and He will have mercy upon him; and He will pardon the God, for he will abundantly pardon." Yes, He pardoned the thief upon the Cross, and we hope that he heard and answered her prayers, though I mourn not for her as those who have no hope in the future. I often talked with her about her interest in His mercy, and when she was first taken ill I asked her how she felt, and her prospect of rest in the future, and she told me she believed she would go to rest. I asked her several times during her painful illness, and she manifested the same. She remained in her proper mind until her death. She bore her sufferings with great patience. She requested to be buried at Schemedon Camp-ground, by the side of her little babe, who was buried just two years ago. The Lord gave and the Lord taketh away, and blessed be the name of the Lord."

Why should we mourn departed friends, Or shake at death's alarm; 'Tis but the voice that Jesus sends To call them to his arms?

Why should we tremble to convey Their bodies to the tomb, Where once the flesh of Jesus lay, And left a rich perfume?

'Ere sin could blight or sorrow fade, Death came with timely care, The op'ning bud to Heaven conveyed, And bade it blossom there.

Through the valley of death my feet have And I reign in glory now, To my head a crown of gold is given, And a harp is in my hand.

Dearest friend, thou hast left us, Here thy loss we deeply feel, But 'tis God who hath bereft us, He can all our sorrows heal.

Thou no more will join our number, Thou no more our songs shall know, Yet again we hope to meet thee, When the day of life is fled.
