Ordinance of Citizenship. The following Ordinance was adopted by Convention : We, the People of the State of South Carand ordain, and it is hereby declared and ordained, as follows:

1. Every person, who, at the date of the Ordinance of Secession, was residing in this State, and was then, by birth, residence or naturalization, a citizen of this State, shall emtinue a citizen of this State, unless a foreign residence shall be established by such person with the intention of expatriation.

2. So, also, shall continue every free white person, who, after the date aforesaid, may be orn within the territory of this State, or may be born outside of that territory, of a father who was then a citizen of this State.

3. So, also, every person, a citizen of any one of the States now confederated under the name of the United States of America, who, within twelve months after the date of the Ordinance of Secession, shall come to reside in this State, with the intention of remaining, upon such person's taking the oath of allegiance to this State, below provided.

4. So, also, every free white person who shall be engaged in the actual service, military or naval, of the State, and s: 'I take an onth of his intention to continue in such service for at least three months, unless sooner discharged honorably, and also the oath of allegiance below prescribed. In this case the oaths shall be administered by some commissioned officer of the service, in which the applicant for citizenship may be engaged, superior in rank to the applicant, and thereupon a certificate of citizenship of the applicant shall be signed by the officer and delivered to the applicant.

5. So, also, every free white person not a citizen of any of the States above mentioned, who at the date of the Ordinance of Secession was residing in this State, or, who, within one year from that date, shall come to reside in this State, with the intention of remaining, of Common Pleas for any of the Districts of tion below prescribed.

this State, with the intention of remaining, and may be naturalized according to the nat-uralization laws of this State. Until they may be altered or repealed, the naturalization laws of the United States, accommodated to the special condition of the State, are hereby made the laws of this State, except that instead of the oaths required by those laws in the final Act, the oath of allegiance to this State, and of abjuration below provided, shall

7. In all cases, the citizenship of a man shall extend to his wife, present or future, whenever she shall have a residence in the State, and shall extend also to each of his children, that under the age of eighteen years, may have a residence in the State. In like manner, the citizouship of a woman shall extend to each of her children, that under the age of eighteen years, may have a residence in the State; Provided, That in no case shall citizenship extend to any person who is

8. The oath of allegiance to this State shall be in the following form, to wit: "I do swear (or affirm) that I will be faithful and true allegiance bear to the State of South Carolina, as long as I may continue a citizen thereof.'

9. The outh of abjuration shall be in the following form, to wit: "I do swear (or af firm) that I do renounce, and forever abjure, all allegiance and fidelity to every Prince, Potentate, State or Sovereignty whatsoever, except the State of South Carolina."

HYMENEAL MARRIED, on the 10th instant, by R. A. Gilmer,

Esq., Mr. Jefferson Davis to Miss Safonsba Nimmons, all of Pickens. On the 19th ult, by the Rev. C. H. Spears, Mr. A. Girson to Miss Margabet Capehart, all of Pickens.

A CARD.

Mr. Elitor: In justice to myself, and at the request of some of my friends composing the 2d Regiment-a Regiment with which I was connected for thirty years, filling every office during that time, from first Sergeant to Brigadier General—and I will leave it to the Thursday 21st February, at John Gossett's; was connected for thirty years, filling every Regiment to decide, whether I discharge my duty or not. I was at the muster ground on the 5th instant, a day set apart by the Governor for the | Wednesday 27 purpose of raising volunteers. There were a Thursday 28 purpose of raising volunteers. There were a Friday 1st March effort was made to raise several companies, and I was trying to raise one myself, but determined not to do so, at that place, until those who intended to volunteer according to the Governor's call, had turned out-then I was desirous of forming a company for home-protection, in case it should be needed. I returned to Walhalla, and was informed by some of my friends; that some persons had circulated reports upon me, injurious both to my private and military character.

I take this method of contradicting it.-The report was, that I was trying to raise a company in favor of the North, and against my own State. The author of such a statement is a tattler, and I fear that there is not one drop of patriotic blood circulating through his veins.

For the satisfaction of all whom it may concern, I herewith present the preamble to which I was getting signers on that occasion, that the people of the Regiment may condemn me or the report, as they may think proper:

"WALHALLA, Jan. 5th, 1861.
"We, the undersigned, do hereby organize ourselves into a Volunteer Company, to be paraded in Walhalla, and to be called the Mountain Rifle Company; and we further pledge ourselves to each other as a company. to guard our homes, our families, and our country, and meet together any time the offieers may think necessary—the officers to be elected by the company, and the company to remain organized until peace is made between the Federal Government and our State." This instrument was signed by myself and others. I also read the pressable to my informant, and said to him: "If the day of triol should come to try noo's souls, and we are weighed in the ballances, we will then see who will come out wanting he who brags and boasts on his bravery, or he who acts with prompt and cool deliberation." A. BRYCE, SEN.
