latter figure representing the impeachment element in the Senate. Adjourned. In the House, the Assassination Committee was allowed to take evidence by subpoena and administer oaths. The Special Committee of Five, appointed to investigate the Paymaster's Department, in their preamble to the resolution, alleges fraud. The veto message was received. It covers three columns, and argues elaborately the inconsistencies, unconstitutionality and tyranny of the Act.

first Monday in December -22 to 15-the Immediately after the reading of the message, the impeachers made a strong effort-Boutwell, Butler and others characterizing the message as defiant. Stevens said they were urging that matter in vain; there are unseen agencies at work-there are invisible powers at work in this country, which will prevent impeachment. I repeat, any attempt to impeach the President will be vain and futile. Mr. Wilson, Chairman of the Judiciary Committee, denounced Stevens, with insinuations asserting that no amount of political pressure should turn him aside from the discharge of his duty according to law and fact. (Applause from the Democratic side.) Stevens, without replying, demanded a vote, and the bill passed-109 to 24.

The veto of the reconstruction bill was read. and the bill passed-100 to 22

A resolution was passed forbidding the President to remove district commanders, without the consent of the Senate, unless the General commanding the armies recommended it. Adjourned.

WASHINGTON, July 20 .- The excitement in the House is very great, and the impeachers taking advantage of this in the House carried their point of ordering the evidence reported and printed; but Mr. Wilson, Chairman of the Judiciary Committee, who has strongly opposed the movement, trifled over the matter, until the Speaker's ham. Ir fell. for adjournment, thus again defeating them.

In the Senate, there was an irregular discussion regarding adjournment, in which the President was denounced as contumacious, and Mr. Chandler said there was a sort of hy brid concern in the Senate called conservative republicanism. Mr. Foster took the further remarks of Mr. Chandler as personal, and said he had but one thing to say, and that was that what the Senator from Michigan says is not true. The Senate adopted the report of the Committee of Conference, and adjourned to the 21st of November.
WASHINGTON, July 20.—A Surratt juror was taken violently ill with cholera morbus, and the court took a recess.

Gen. John A McClernand, of Illinois, has been nominated for the Mexican mission. Otterburg, Secretary of Legation, states that the men.bers of the Cabinet, except Stanton, approved the message. Some passages were stricken out during its consideration in Cabinet. John L. Goddard, Grand Master of the Pennsylvania Masons, is dead.

The Post Office Department has ordered contracts for mail transportation from Brashear, La., by Sabine Pass., Texas, Beaumonte and Liberty, to Houston and back, six times a week, by steamboat and railroad, on a sched ule of twenty four hours. The route is $05

The President nominated Horace Greeley for the Austrian mission, but objection being made, under the rule of the Senate, that nominations cannot be considered the same day the nomination goes over.

John Netherland, of Texas, has been confirmed as Minister to Bolivia.

Internal revenue receipts to-day $693,000; for the four weeks, $1,230,000. Gen. Howard has issued orders to his subordinates, regarding employees; preference must be given to such as have been loyal; all must take the iron-clad oath.

The Judiciary Committee was authorized to send for persons and papers, on the question whether Kentucky, Maryland and Delaware have Republican Constitutions.

A resolution ordering the Judiciary Committee to report evidence taken in the impeachment case, passed by a vote of 57 to 43. This result was applieded by the impeachers. The Conference Committee reported on adournment from 4 o'clock to day to the 21st November; agreed to by year 61, mays 46.

NEW OTHERNS, July 19.—The revenue cutter Wilderness errived last night from Vera Cruz, where she arrived on the 14th. A deputation of Mexican officials boarded the vessel, and warmly welcomed Madame Juarez. On the 15th, she disembarked, and met an enthu estic public reception -- civil and military; the city was illuminated, and fire-works displayed. The party were to leave for the City of Mexico on the 16th.

Juarez arrived at the capital on the 14th He emphatically declines a re-election, and has ordered a new election. He will retire to his hacienda in the mountains.

It is officially reported that Vidauri was shot on the 8th. Marquez is believed to be hiding in the City of Mexico. He will be shot as soon as enptured.

Everything was quiet in Vera Cruz, and the city was perfectly healthy. The Austrian sloop of war Elizabeth is receiving Austrian refugees on board. She has no communication with the Mexican officials, except through the United States gun boat Tacony and Consul Sauluier.

The Wilderness brings despatches to the British, French and Austrian Governments. The Mexican Government is preparing an address to the world, in which it expects to justify themselves for the execution of Maximilian. It will treat of the killing of 63,000 Mexicans for defending their native soil; oites precedents which they think will prove
