WALHALLA, S. C.: Friday Morning, April, 2, 1869.

In New York, on the 29th April, Cotton was quoted at 23 1/2 @ 29 Gold, 3 1/4. Attention is directed to the Advertiser of Messrs. KERSE & McCULLY, Brokers and Real Estate Agents, Anderson C. H., S. C. Those having lands to sell would do well to confer with these gentlemen.

The Legislature, To the great relief of the people, adjourned sine die on the 24th instant. The regular session continued for a period of over eighty days. A good many Acts were passed but generally of little public interest.

Auction Sale. Attention is called to the advertisement of J. J. LEE Auction and Commission Merchant. He proposes to sell at auction with out reserve, on Saturday the 10th of April staple articles in the Grocery, dry goods and hardware line. All persons desiring bargains will find it to their interest to attend as the goods will be sold. Auction room first door below PIERER'S store.

Congress Is quarreling over the tenure of office Act. This Act, it will be remembered was intended to checkmate President Johnson in his raid on incompetent, dishonest radical office holders. Now that the radicals have a president of their own ilk, they desire to give him full sway. Grant thinks he can run the machine properly unless he is armed with full power to appoint and remove officials ad libitum. The House is favorable to a repeal of the obnoxious law but the Senate is unwilling to forego all power in the disposal of the fat offices of the Government and propose a substitute, which while it gives the President a wider discretion yet still retains in the Senate considerable power in the matter of appointment and removal.

Freshet. On the night of the 25th instant a heavy fall of rain occurred in this section. The clouds seemed to empty themselves on the earth. Our water courses were higher than they have been known to be for several years past. All the low-grounds on the branches, creeks and rivers were overflowed, and in many instances badly washed. Fences were swept away, and a great deal of injury and delay to our farmers effected. We have not heard how many or whether any bridges were destroyed, but hope none have been washed away. The weather is now clear and warm.

Free Schools. The Bill to provide a system of public schools for the State failed to pass the Legislature. A joint resolution was adopted authorizing the Treasurer to pay over to the treasurers of the various Counties of the State their pro rata share of $25,000 appropriated by General CANBY for the support of free schools, to be distributed by them among the various teachers of their respective counties.

The South Carolina University. The Legislature elected the following motley crew as Trustees of the South Carolina University: Bozeman and Cardozo, colored; Tomlinson and Jilison, carpet-baggers; Neagle, a North Carolina fugitive; and Roberson and Moses, of South Carolina.

Pickens. The town of Pickens is located on a ridge, running east and west. The eastern extremity spreads out like a fan, affording beautiful sites for building. The town is now in the swaddling clothes of infancy, but the number of houses, which have been erected in the short space of six months, bespeak for it a future of growth and prosperity. Already it boasts of two flourishing stores, two temples to Bacchus, and two houses for the entertainment of the inner man, besides a number of private dwelling houses. The citizens of the surrounding country are generally good farmers, experienced farmers, and out of debt. There are, in its vicinity, several mills and a wool factory in full operation, and water-power without limit for manufacturing purposes. The public buildings are nearly completed, and the officers are now occupying their rooms in the Court House. The Court House is built of brick, and the Court room arranged as nearly as possible after the style of the Court room of old Pickens District, though of smaller dimensions. We were treated with the utmost kindness by the citizens of the town and vicinity, and though our business in Court prevented our accepting the many hospitable invitations to visit them, we are nevertheless under obligations. We wish for

Among the bills introduced in the House of Representatives, Monday, was one to elect a delegate to Congress from the District of Columbia, and another to the effect that any person elected to Congress who is unable to take the "iron-clad oath" shall not be entitled to his seat, but the party receiving the next highest number of votes, if able to take such oath, shall be admitted. Mr. Borie is the first Secretary of the Navy the country has had for many years who practically understands the rigging and build-

Court. At Pickens, adjourned on Thursday evening, the fourth day of its sitting. This closes the courts of the Eight Circuit. Judge Orr has won golden opinions every where, both from the Bar and the people. The Criminal docket was unusually small, furnishing but four true Bills, only one of which was tried. This was a case of a young man charged with stealing a ten dollar Bill on the Lancaster National Bank of Pennsylvania. The accused was found guilty and sentenced to five months imprisonment in the County jail. Before passing sentence, his Honor stated that the prisoner was the first white man, who had been brought before him for sentence for larceny during a period of seven weeks spent on his circuit. This speaks volumes for the virtue and morality of our people, and demonstrates their law abiding character. It must be borne in mind, that these four cases are the accumulation of twelve months, during which we had no law or courts. The Civil Docket comprised a good many cases, which were soon disposed of under the mutual benefit system of our juries. They committed themselves in the outset to the system of sealing, and in no instance gave a verdict for more than fifty per cent on debts contracted prior to and during the revolution. Ex-Gov. PERRY made a powerful effort to stem the current, painting to the minds of the jury, perjury, agrarianism and general demoralization as the terminus of such a course, but all to no effect. After a few verdicts from each Jury, the question resolved itself into a mere mathematical calculation of counting the interest and dividing by two to find the true verdict.

The adoption of a Constitutional Amendment to the Constitution of Georgia by the casting vote of the Republican President of the Senate. The Democrats in both Houses voted for the Amendment and the Republicans against it. When we consider that the Amendment is a Republican measure, proposed by a Republican Congress and endorsed by a Republican President it appears to be a strange consistency that it should be rejected by the Republican members of the Georgia Legislature.

Explanatory. The Editor takes this occasion to express his thanks to the subscribers to the COURIER for their liberal patronage during his long absence and promises in the future to give a personal supervision to the paper. He trusts our readers will pardon the numerous typographical errors which have occurred from time to time and hopes in the future to prevent their recurrence. He desires to make the paper worthy of its patronage and a welcome visitor in every household.

The Little Corporal. For the month of April has been laid on our table. It contains the usual amount of interesting reading matter. Published at Chicago Illinois at the low price of one dollar a year.

Arrest. JOHN CAMERON, an Irishman, was arrested near Walhalla, on the 29th ult., under a charge of Burglary. The prisoner has been sent to the Anderson Jail for safe keeping.

Agriculture. Is the first and greatest of the three primitive sources of national wealth and prosperity and is preeminently the occupation of the people of South Carolina. Prior to the war great interest was manifested in the improvement of our crops and the growth of stock and to encourage farmers in their laudable efforts, annual State and county fairs were held and prizes awarded for all extra productions. We notice from our exchanges that there is a prospect of reviving this laudable system of encouragement and mutual improvement. At a meeting of the farmers and planters of Abbeville at the Court House of that County the following preamble and resolutions were adopted. "Whereas, we regard agriculture as the great interest of the State and the basis of all prosperity; therefore, "Resolved, That we do invite the several Counties of the State to meet us in convention in Columbia, on the fourth Wednesday (the 28th) of April next, at 7 P. M., for the purpose of forming a State Agricultural Society."

Other Counties are advocating the same course and doubtless the organization of a State Agricultural Society will soon be effected. We trust the citizens of Oconee County will take occasion to hold a meeting at an early day preparatory to uniting with the other Counties of the State. There is nothing like the attrition of minds on any subject and it would result in mutual advantage to the farmers if they would meet monthly and exchange their views on the various methods of improving our lands and stock. The wisest would learn something and thereby save enough of labor or expense to amply repay them for the time.

Among the bills introduced in the House of Representatives, Monday, was one to elect a delegate to Congress from the District of Columbia, and another to the effect that any person elected to Congress who is unable to take the "iron-clad oath" shall not be entitled to his seat, but the party receiving the next highest number of votes, if able to take such oath, shall be admitted. News Items. WASHINGTON, March 27.—In an audience with a mixed delegation of Republicans and Conservatives, Grant, yesterday, reiterated his opposition to the pending Mississippi bill. It is said Grant favors a policy, regarding Mississippi, similar to that proposed by the Committee of Nine for Virginia. Masterly inactivity, regarding Cuban affairs, is the present policy here.

The indications are that the House will adhere to the absolute repeal of the tenure of office Act. Neither House is in session today. The revolutionary envoy, Lemus, represents that the Cuban patriots have 25,000 men under arms, and would have many more if they were able to provide arms.

General Ames has been appointed Commissioner of the Bureau for Mississippi, and Reynolds for Texas. CHARLESTON, March 27.—Arrived—schr. Magdalen, Stockton, Me. Sailed—steamer Champion, New York; schooner Myrover, New York; brig Marion, Barcelona. A New Orleans paper says that United States troops are being rapidly concentrated in Texas, on the Rio Grande border, and additional barracks are being built. It is thought that a movement on Mexico is contemplated.

RICHMOND, March 27.—Gen. Stoneman to-day issued an order removing Governor Wells, and assuming the duties of the office himself. Mayor Burgess, of Petersburg, was also removed.

BOSTON, March 27.—James D. Martin, the defaulting Cashier of the Hide and Leather Bank, pardoned by Mr. Johnson, has been re-arrested on new charges, and held in $30,000 bail.

HAVANA, March 27.—The regular steamer Comandancia, between Havana and Cardenas, which left here on Tuesday, was captured by passengers who left the lady passengers, the captain, and part of the crew, at Regnes. The whereabouts of the steamer is unknown.

The report of a heavy battle on the road between Remedios and Moron is untrue; it was only a slight skirmish. The Controcock, with Hoff aboard, arrived to-day from Key West.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The Reconstruction Committee did nothing Saturday regarding Georgia, on account of there being no quorum. It is stated in extreme circles, that the Committee stands 7 in favor of Butler's bill.

Mrs. Dr. Mary Walker, after several applications, received an answer from Grant, that she might have an interview, when dressing in becoming her sex.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—During the session of the Senate, the tenure of office bill, introduced by Mr. Trumbull moved non-concurrence, and asked a Conference Committee. Crimes moved to amend from the Senate amendment. Days moved its repeal entirely.

In the Senate, a bill passed continuing enlisted men until 1870; also, a bill dropping the officers absent without leave. Senator Sumner introduced a bill for office holders, relating to the rebellion, but not to be reported. The fourteenth amendment. A bill conferring a charter and granting the right of way to the Orleans and Ship Island Canal, was referred to the Judiciary Committee. Several bills removing political disabilities were introduced. The tenure of office bill was resumed, and a resolution persisting in the amendments and asking a conference committee passed—37 to 20.

In the House, under the regular call, was introduced bills incorporating the National Land Company, to provide homesteads for immigrants and freedmen in the Southern States; selling the Government property at Plymouth, North Carolina; punishing unconstitutional office-holders; forfeiting certain lands granted in Louisiana for railroad purposes; suspending the oyster tonnage tax of Virginia; appropriating $20,000 to the Charleston Sisters of Mercy, for services rendered Union prisoners. A resolution exempting salt, tea, coffee, sugar and tobacco, and taxing bonds, was tabled—104 to 40. A substitute to the Senate bill re-organizing the Supreme Court, passed. Adjourned. The President has nominated George Earle, First Assistant Postmaster-General; Wm. R. Orlentenan, Collector of Revenue for the Second South Carolina District.

EUROPE.—The cable telegrams are dated March 24. It was reported in London yesterday that the government intended to release the Fenian prisoner Halpin, under certain restrictions. At the last council of French Ministers the Emperor introduced the project of a law abolishing the whole system of workmen's registers. The project was approved and it will be submitted to the Corps Legislatif shortly.

The proposed new Spanish constitution was submitted to the Cortes yesterday. The draft proposes that the future form of government shall be monarchical and will consist of a Senate and Congress. The reign of the King is limited to eighteen years. The sessions of Congress are to be triennial. Universal suffrage is to be the rule of voting. Liberty of the press and the right of public meeting will be secured. The Cortes yesterday adopted the new Military Conscription law—New York Herald.

The cotton crop of South Carolina for 1868 is now ascertained to be about 250,000 bales, which, at $100 per bale, will be $25,000,000. It has more money value than any other produced, although falling short about 50,000 bales.

THE GRAND JURY OF OCONEE.—We have read, with a great deal of interest, the presentation of the Grand Jury of Oconee county, at the recent term of Court, and without pretending to judge the merits of local questions discussed, cannot refrain from expressing a decided approbation for their thorough, bold and vigorous style in presenting to the notice of his Honor such matters as they deemed expedient. There is no effort to lavish praise simply because the opportunity is offered, and their condemnation of others is expressed tersely and forcibly, without giving way to unseemly language. In a word, they discharged the duties imposed upon them by law, "without fear, favor or affection." The example is worthy of emulation, and as we are beginning a new era in the history of our State, amid many difficulties and trials, we trust there will always be found a disposition to thoroughly vindicate the law and the people, and that these grand inquests will not merely seek to discover whom they may praise, but administer blame wherever deserved.

In concluding their presentation, the grand jury congratulates "the people of Oconee in having for their judicial officer the distinguished statesman and jurist who presides in the Eight Judicial Circuit, and who has shown by his prompt dispatch of business, and his strict but courteous enforcement of the rules of the Court, that he is the right man in the right place; that the mantle so honorably worn by Harper, O'Neill, and the other great Judges of South Carolina, has fallen upon worthy shoulders." They also take occasion to express their opinion "that the people of this county will have no room to regret the choice which they have made for the office of Solicitor, and that the State will suffer no detriment while the enforcement of her laws is entrusted to his care." [Anderson Intelligencer.]

The conference between the envoys of the South Carolina Railroad and the Columbia and Augusta Railroad Company, held in Charleston during the present week, is reported to have been a failure; it was found impossible to effect any compromise, and the affair stands now just where it did before the envoys went on their mission. In a short time, says the "Augusta Chronicle and Sentinel," the track of the Columbia and Augusta Road will be laid to the Savannah River, and we may then expect to see all the devices known to the law put in operation by two companies—one that it may enter the city, the other to prevent it.

Messrs. Reed and Simpson returned from Washington, yesterday. They are not very sanguine that justice will be rendered in their cases. The next few days will decide the matter, however.—Phenix, 27th.

The following is the Committee of Investigation of the Third Congressional District: Representatives Joseph Crews, George F. McIntyre, R. B. Elliot, Robert Smallis, J. H. Bryan, and Senators J. H. Buck and J. J. Wright.
