Our school boys and our town boys crossed bats again last Friday. Another victory was won by the former. The score was something like 28 to 19. Stephens and Traylor were the battery for the town club. The school boys played the same battery as before.

A small party of vanue records were the same battery as before. A small party of young people went lown on Tugaloo river to-day to a pienic, Miss Bertie Gilmer, of Fort Madison,

He was said to be in a drunken condition, and, perhaps, a heavy head caused him to leave the street and test the firm ness of a rock wall in the well. chum, who was near by, procured a lad-der, which enabled Cearley to get out. Last Sunday was communion day at the Baptist church. Rev. D. W. Hiott delivered a forcible sormon from Isaiah 28:20: "For the bed is shorter than a man can stretch himself on it, and the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself in it." His discourse in the shot and killed Grundy Sullivan, colored, on the Southern Railway, between the residence of the slayer and the shuttle and bobbin factory. Holiday had hired the negro to do some farm work. He worked a portion of a day and left the work unfinished. That was on Tuesday. He did not return till Friday afternoor when he demanded his pay. Holiday refused to pay until he had put in a full day's labor. Sullivan got angry and cursed him. He went off, and returned Saturday morning, when the difficulty was renewed. Sullivan drew a pistol on Holiday and threatened to kill him before Saturday's Saturday's sun went down. He also insulted Mrs. Holiday. While Sullivan was gone away Holiday procured a Prus-sian army rifle, 40 calibre. As soon as the negro reached the railroad, about seventy-five yards from where Holiday was standing, he (Holiday) fired. At least one-third of the negro's head was blown off by the bullet, and he died as quick as blood, brains and breath could T. I native of Greenville county.

Suffered 20 Years.

RS. MABY I.EWIS, wife of a prominent farmer, and well known by all old residents near Belmont, N. Y., writes: "For twenty-seven years I had bee a constant sufferer from nervous prostra-tion, and paid large sums of money for doctors and advertised remedies without bene tors and advertised remedies without benefit. Three years ago my condition was alarming; the least noise would startle and unnerve me. I was unable to sleep, had a number of sinking spells and slowly grew, worse. I began using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and Nerve and Liver Pills. At first the medicine seemed to have no effect, but after taking a few bottles I began to notice a change; I rested better at night, my appetito began to improve and I rapidly grow better, until how I am as nearly res to health as one of my age may expect. God bless Dr. Miles' Nervine. Dr.
