WALHALLA, S. C.: WEDNESDAY, OCT. 10, 1900.

THE NEWS FROM SENECA.

Sad Death of a Little Boy—Lieutenant Jordan in the Philippines—Locals.

SENECA, S. C., October 8.—The Misses Thompson entertained a number of their friends last Tuesday evening in honor of their guest, Miss Lillie Thompson, of Walhalla.

Miss Olivia Bacon entertained the younger set last Friday evening. Regardless of the rain quite a number were present and spent a very enjoyable evening.

Miss Ella Reid, of Walhalla, is visiting her brother, Mr. C. S. Reid.

Mrs. L. H. Tibbelle, after spending the month of September in Anderson, has returned home.

Miss Hattie Wilson has returned home from Westminister.

Rev. Holland conducted the services in the Presbyterian church Sunday night.

Miss Inez Dickson was sent by the Ladies Aid and Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church as a delegate to the convention held at Clemson last week.

Cadet Pickett and Watson spent Saturday here.

The interest in our free library is growing rapidly, and our people are very appreciative of the fine list of books that are now upon the shelves.

Miss Helen Swann has been charged for the coming month. Miss Inez Dickson is the retiring librarian, having faithfully filled the position for ten months.

The influence of this work is very desirable, both in a social and cultural way. The ladies of Seneca will make an earnest effort to increase the funds for purchasing books.

The prospects of a very fine exhibit of flowers at the flower show encourage our florists to think that the coming fair, to be held about the tenth of November, will be the best they have ever had.

Latest news from Lieutenant Jordan tells of a delightful sojourn of ten days in San Francisco, and of ten days on the Pacific to Honolulu, where the transports remained for three days, giving the troops opportunity to take in the delights of the Hawaiian scenery.
