Job Work.

Job Work.

Job Work.

Latest Styles in Type and Stationery. _____ Skilled and Experienced Printers.

Something About a Character Whom

Lowell Satirized.

John P. Robinson, the subject of one of James Russell Lowell's "Hosen Biglow's" satires, was a brilliant lawyer of the town of Lowell, a scholarly gen-district in congress.

slavery advocates.

And the second:

A few years later, after General Caieb Cushing had been in the Mexican war, he was nominated by the Demo-

So John P.

Robinson, he Says he shan't vote for Governor B.

So John P. Robinson, he Says he shall vote for General C.

STAGE KISSES ARE GENUINE.

In Stage Lovemaking.

For the satisfaction of natural curiosi-

Where Tigers Fear Men.

season as it is in New York state in a and with due enjoyment.

kisses."

"Embracos and kisses are rehearsed

Public Demands Realism Even

-Boston Herald

tleman and a wit. It is said of him

_WE STUDY TO PLEASE,___

THE SEVEN AGES OF WOMAN. At first the infant's cap, soft, warm and white,

The giddy schoolgirl's hat, a waif and stray, Any old thing that hinders not her play. The budding maiden's hat, pert, smart or trim, According to "sweet sixteen's" mood or whim. Bravest of all, the bridal wreath and veil, Which marks life's great event and turns the

The new fledged matron's "dream," by Worth designed, Which hubby pays for, sighs and looks resigned. The well planned bonnet of the chaperon, Which hides time's ravages from her alone

Last scene of all, the widow's ruche and weeds Sans feathers, flowers, ribbons, lace or beads, —P. R. Oliver in New York Sun.

"A KISS, A WORD."

A Story of a Woman Who Could Not Keep a Secret and How She Paid the Penalty,

By MAURUS JOKAL

āinomannuminininininininininininininini When the Princess Alexandra Serbatoff was presented at the luxurious court of Catherine II, two men had the most influence in the empire. One was mighty minister, the other Prince Monezarina.

The gossiping world said that the pretty eyes of the favorite had just as much share in governing the land of all Russians as the great brain of the famous statesman.

Both men fell in love with the young princess, and in the ensuing ardent but secret struggle for her love the czarina's favorite, Monomoff, was finally the more successful. He became the devoted admirer of the princess, and the wise Potemkin, knowing that he was "not in it" any more, withdrew, of Prince Monomoff known to the czarina, who, to avoid a the door. scandal, ordered her favorite to marry at once the girl.

The "punishment" was taken by the beautiful, but also enormously rich.

presents, among which the most valuable was that of the ezarina. It was a large solltaire diamond. Its wondrous fire had a beautiful color. Nothing marred the happiness of the young couple, and their honeymoon passed in loy and pleasure. Once in a happy hour the young wife approached her loving husband with this inquisitive question: "Tell me, dear, what is the value of your finger?"

present and did not answer for awhile. signed wholly for the leading of the "Tell me honestly, sweetheart," continued the princess, "how much was jeets such explication, and science, given for that stone?"

"A kiss," thoughtlessly replied Monomoff. They both laughed at the joke. you double that much for it." And the charming young woman demonstrated right away her generosity by allowing her husband to "help himself," and the price, two kisses, was willingly pald-in fact, overpaid-but of course that is none of our business.

you must not tell of this bargain to any one. You know the exarina." soul shall learn from me the price of diligently what time the star appearthe diamond."

"I have also promised to Catharina and told you just the same."

"Yes, but I won't." caped her lips. During the evening her most Intimate friend, the Princess Orloff, had admired the sparkling gem and (we must remember that all this happened in Russia) inquired about its value.

Princess Monomoff smilingly whispered into her rosy ears: "It was given to my husband for a kiss. I gave him double the amount for it. But I said ment how they would manage It. At this only for you and to no one else. Don't let it go farther, or it may bring put it right, and, stepping out on the us into danger."

Of course Princess Orloff did not In fact, did not tell it to a soul except to the wife of General Romanoff, but she was such an intimate friend of fear. And she knew also perfectly how to guard an intrusted secret. Nofriend the Princess Kerchikoff. The he did so: Princess Kerchikoff told it to no one except to the Princess Daskoff. So the well kept secret reached Princess Potemkin shortly after midnight, whise you manage it?" pered confidentially by an unrecorded lady's rosy lips under the promise of Strict secreey.

Princess Potemkin hated Princess Monomoff, and, being the wife of a great diplomat, she was herself a great intriguer. She had maneuvered so skillfully that she approached the em-Innocently:

"Oh, how beautiful is that diamond vate."-Cieveland Plain Dealer, the Princess Monomoff wears! Splen-

The czarina recognized at once he gift to her former lover, but nevertheless nonchalantly said: "Yes; it is a fine stone. It must be very valuable." The princess tells everybody that it was given to her husband for a kiss, but she gave two for it. After the court ball, in the early morning, Prince and Princess Monomoff retired, giving orders to their attendants not to disturb them until 2 o'clock in the afternoon. It happened, however, that hardly ened by somebody who executed a lively tattoo on their bedroom door. "Who is that? Who dares?" called pear startlingly cruel in the light of out indignantly from their bedchamber | the present day, the sleepy prince. wishes to pay his respects."

In Russia every door must open bethe half opened door.

The chief of police was polite.

"I must beg your pardon a thousand Gregory Alexandrovitch Potemkin, the sleeping apartment of a lady, and I he separates them into four parts, disomoff, the handsome favorite of the to help me in executing it. I must beg ties-namely, blood, phiegm, choler and ladies to enter." tendants," who were lined up nicely in culiar motion or tide. Therefore, the the ball. They were all six feet high, blood flows from the ninth hour of the very well built "ladies." They were night to the third hour of the day; The quick eye of Prince Monomoff all richly, although a little negligently, noticed at once the extraordinary beau- dressed. They were very large French melancholy the blood flows from the it was only natural that so wide awake faces were thickly veiled. On their detailion of phlegm." hats with large feathers, and their a statesman as Potemkin, whose less large hands the fine suede gloves nearpretty but nevertheless watchful eyes by bursted. But the most extraordinary thing was that instead of a fan every "lady" had a rod of birch in her

> The chief of police delivered his order to the prince. It was a sweet little perfumed, rose colored billet doux containing these words: "One kiss-one word, then women-hundred rods." Monomoff paled. The chief of police burying his malice in his diplomatic politely withdrew, and the "ladies" advanced in orderly steps. Two of them by the nose in breathing. The vital are to express the ardent love which dinner party with a big appetite the

What kind of a ceremony they performed we don't know positively, but one thing is certain, that when they prince with resignation, which was emerged again from the sanctum of up to a great degree.

The chief of police took polite leave The wedding took place with great of the prince, and the "ladies" arpomp and ceremony. The young pair ranged themselves in line again and was overwhelmed with the costlest filed away in a nice, soldierly manner. filed away in a nice, soldierly manner. Before leaving the chief of police assured the prince that all those "ladies" were selected especially for one merit, their knowledge how to keep a secret. But, in spite of his assurance, the story soon became known all over the

The Star of Bethlehem.

It was a cloister fancy of the dark that large diamond which you have on ages that the star of Bethlehem was some especially created starlike body, Monomoff looked upon the czarina's probably within our atmosphere, dewise men. The law of parsimony rewith silent scorn, turns its back upon the bauble star, for in the glorious depths of heaven are matchless orbs "Won't you sell it to me? I will pay which, swinging on their way into mortal ken for awhile, meet all the de mands of poet and of prophet for the "Star of the King."

History affords us data for determining this wondrous star.

When the magi arrived in Jerusalem Herod was within a few weeks of his "Alexandra, if you value our lives death. The massacre of the babes of Bethlehem was one of the last of his tragic deeds. Herod died in the year "I do promise to you, dear, that no of Rome 750. When "Herod inquired ed," the reply was evidently such that he thought it safe to exterminate all baby sons of Bethlehem from 2 years old and under, showing that "the star" And she didn't-until the next court | had been known to the wise men for reception. Of course she didn't mean at least two years before their arrival to tell it to a soul, and it was only in Jerusalem, and whether its appearby mere chance that the secret esting had marked the conception or the birth of "the king" Herod could not decide.—New Lippincott's.

Not long ago two commercial travelers started from Birmingham on a night train to Holyhead. Wishing to have the compartment to themselves, however, they sat thinking for a mo- the place besides the patient and his last one of them said that he would footboard, told his companion to sit still and stare in front of him. As the the lower end of the ligature, which want to tell the secret to any one and, | people came to the carriage door to get In the traveler on the footboard whispered something to them, and the passengers, after taking a look into the hers that she could be trusted without carriage, passed on. When all the passengers were seated, the train started, and the traveler stepped into the carbody learned it from her but her bosom | ringe to join his companion, saying as

> "Done it, haven't 1?" His companion replied: "Yes, I see you have, but how did "Oh, I told them that you were a lu-

"How did you happen to give that footpad such an unmerciful drubbing?" "I felt sorry for him. You know that they are talking of giving footpads press unnoticed, and when the Princess public floggings, and I thought I'd Monomoff paraded by she remarked save the poor fellow the open disgrace natic, and I had you in charge."

HORRIBLE REMEDIES

THOSE USED BY DOCTORS IN THE SIXTEENTH CENTURY.

Patients Cast Into Wells to Cure Convulsions-A Ludder Used In Setting a Dislocated Shoulder-Dead

Bodles Made Into Medicine. A fragment of a curious volume has fallen into the hands of a local physi-cian which graphically describes the methods of surgery of several centuries ago. When it is considered that anæsone hour after they were rudely awak- thetics were unknown in those ancient days, the modus operandi of the surgeon of the sixteenth century must ap-

The work is that of Ambrose Parey, "His excellency the chief of police who in 1579, being then the much famous "chirurgion" of his day, published a bulky volume which became such fore this "sesame," and in the next an established authority and held its minute Prince Monomoff appeared in place for so long a time that 70 years afterward it was translated into English and published in London.

In his first book he considers the gentimes, your excellency, but I must dis- eral phenomenon of the body in health turb you at this unseemly hour. I regret it very much, but duty compels ing to temperaments and humors he me to do it. My most gracious czarina writes, "An humor is called by physihas bid me to deliver to you this order | sians what thing soever is liquid and and also to carry it out personally and flowing in the body of living creatures without delay. Knowing good man Inclosed with blood." Proceeding to ners, I do not wish to intrude into the the "manifold divisions of humors," have brought with me lady attendants | tinct in color, taste, effects and qualiyour kind indulgence to allow these melancholy. Exact in his subdivisions, he says: "All men ought to think that Prince Monomoff threw a troubled such humors are wont to move at set look in the direction of the "lady at- hours of the day as by a certain penight to the third hour of the day; choler to the ninth of the day. Then ninth hour of the night is under the spirits, which he divides into "animall," "vitall" and "naturall:" "The animal spirit hath taken his seat in the brain. It is called animal because it is the life, but the chief and prime instrument thereof. Wherefore it hath a most subtle and acry substance. This animal spirit is made lin Fyles of "The Rehearsal of a Play" the new account receives its first adand harbored in the windings and fold- in The Ladies' Home Journal. "They dition. ings of the veins and arteries of the must have an impulsive manner. They brain, brought thither sometimes of must look sufficiently fervid. It is a but never by any really large charge, Thanks to his intrigue, the new love of Prince Monomoff now became of Prince Monomoff now became treed into the bedchamber and closed cellency, which bath its chief mansion the control of the control o in the left ventricle of the heart. The in modern clothes and no accessories of would be poor policy to turn it down.

Equally curious is the following on celtful ways of healing of cures by ment. There must be no hesitation or tip, and without telling the man in so only natural, knowing that the young the princely pair their rods were used such means as fear, surprise and even clumsiness. Romeo is not permitted to many words he is given to understand by music for spider bite, the music decide whether to throw both arms that cash would be preferred to an causing the patient to dance so justily around his sweetheart or only one or autograph. Sometimes the man takes that he shakes all the poison out of his which, nor may Juliet be shy or for the hint and makes a payment or asks system," he sums up some of those ward, yielding or resisting, as she for more time and tells us that he will heroic remedies thus: "I would not chooses. The director will place their pay as he goes, and he remains a cuscast the patient headlong out of a window, but would rather cast them sodainly, and thinking of no such tenderness. thing, into a great cistern filled with cold water, with their heads foremost. Neither would I take them out until or on the brow or cheek? That ques- cause he can't have what he wants to world.—Narrated From the Hungarian they had drunk a good quantity of tion is considered and settled. Are eat and drink for nothing. His account water, that by that sodain fall and kisses on the stage genuine? Well, not remains open, and when it becomes strong fear the matter causing the at rehearsals, except, maybe, once or outlawed we put it on the list which frenzy might be carried from above twice, in order to show the effect fully. bears many good names, but we never downward from the noble parts to the An actress would resent a real kiss at dun the man."

ignoble." A medicine upon which he dilates at great length is "mummie," referred to ty on that point it may be told right well acquainted in the fashionable as the usual remedy for contusions.

and he describes it as follows: "Mummie is a liquor flowing from the aromatick embalmens of dead bodies, which becomes dry and hard' and being ground into medicine was "administered either in whole or portion to such as have fallen from high places, the first and last medicine of almost all our practitioners at this day in such a case." He also gives some grewsome facts connected with the preparation of "mummle" when he says: "Certain of our French apothecaries, men wondrous audacious and covetous to steal by night the bodies of such as were hanged and embalming them with salt and drugs they dried them in an oven so as to sell them thus adulterated instead of true mummie, whereupon we are thus compelled, both foolishly and cruelly, to devour the mangled and outrid particles of the carcasses of the basest people of Egypt, or of such as are hanged, as though there were no other way to help or recover one bruised with a fall from a high place. "I have not thought it fit in this place," he says, "to omit the industry of Nicholas Picart, the Duke of Guise. his surgeon, who, being called to a certain countryman to set his shoulder. being out of joint, and finding none in wife, who might assist him in this work, he put the patient, bound after the forementioned manner, to a ladder, then immediately he tyed a staffe at was fastened about the patient's arm above his elbow, then put it so tyed under one of the steps of the ladder as low as he could and got astride thereupon and sate thereon with his whole weight and at the same instant made his wife pluck the stool from under his feet, which, being done, the bone presently came into its place." He also gravely discusses witches and witchcraft, the birth of monsters with horns, hoofs and wings, ascribing their birth to the master of evil, and closes with a lofty panegyric upon Hfppocrates and Galen, the princes of physicians.-Cincinnati Enquirer.

A Better Name. Miss Summit-He is one of the most generous men I ever met. Why, he took me out to luncheon yesterday and let me order it all myself Miss Pallsade I don't call that genby licking the hide off of him in pri- erosity. That's pure recklessness.-

A woman's silk frock is spun by Brooklyn Life. ord.

"JOHN P. ROBINSON, HE." LIVE HIGH ON CREDIT

DAINTY DINERS WHO GET COSTLY MEALS FOR NOTHING.

How Some Big Accounts That Are Never Paid Are Run Up at the Fashionable Restaurants That Flourish In New York City.

that he had read Homer's "Iliad" so much that he could recite nearly the Legal proceedings recently taken to whole of it from memory. Mr. Robinrecover from a well known citizen who son was a favorite stump speaker about belongs to the "fashlonable" class the the period of 1840. He was a Whig amount of a tailor's bill revealed the and had the ambition to represent his fact that the man was poor, had no money and no means of support and In 1842 he received the Whig nomination for this position. It was a bad owed many bills. Besides tailors, shoemakers and hatters, he owed money to year for Whig candidates, as the Libflorists, jewelers, livery stable keepers, erty party had then begun to present nominees against it. A majority was at that time required to elect, and dealers in theater tickets, shirtmakers, stationers and restaurateurs. One of the largest bills against the man was there was no choice at the regular eleccontracted in the course of several tion. The Whig party, always timid, years at a prominent up town restaufeared Mr. Robinson could not be elected on further trial and induced him to rant.

"You must have been hung up for a withdraw from the contest that it great spread," sald a patron of the might present a candidate more acceptable to the antislavery men. This place to the manager, pointing to the was a severe disappointment to Mr. Item. "Not at all," he answered. "That bill Robinson. He became disgusted with represents hundreds of charges and has the Whigs and bitter toward the antigrown slowly to its present magnificent proportions.' "But how is it done-how do people run big bills in a restaurant?"

"Vell, in the first place, because w crats as their candidate for governor look upon men who come here as genof Massachusetts, upon which Mr. Robtlemen and treat them accordingly. I inson wrote a letter declaring he should leave the Whig party and support Gendon't remember just how the accoun in question was opened, but usually it eral Cushing. This Induced Lowell's is done in this way: Some day, after a poem. Governor Briggs was then the man receives his check, he scrawls his Whig candidate for governor, and Lowell had two refrains to his verses. The name across its face and ells the walt er, 'I'll pay this tomorrow; it's all right,' and then if the person in charge at the desk marks it 'O. K.' the check is 'hung up,' and an account is opened with the man.

"In most instances the man comes back, as he said he would, the next day and settles his little bill and thanks us for accommodating him. If, nowever, the man intends to work the house, he does not come back the next day and settle, but waits three or four days. Then he drops in and orders a modest luncheon or a not elaborate dinner and scribbles his name across with the extremest care," writes Frank- the check, gives the waiter a tip, and

"Little by little the account grows, natural spirit, if such there be any, hath its station in the liver and veins." Iglamour, practice a kiss as mechanically and unfeelingly as though it were, large that we think it should have at Describing "certain juggling and deas it is then, utterly devoid of senti-"And the kiss? Shall it be delivered about poor service here and in other to some other place and complains by the wooer on the lips of the won ways tries to injure our business be> a rehearsal except when necessary. To show how anxious some people are to have it known that they are here that most of the kisses in the pub- restaurants the following story was > lic performances of plays are actual told: "Some months ago a man came here early in the day and said that he would A cheerful place is Soraponjee, in Inhave a little party of friends to supper with him after the theater that even dia. The rainfall there often is as ing and ordered what he wanted. His great in one afternoon in the rainy order showed that he was unaccustomed to the part, but it is our business to whole year, and tigers and leopards fill orders, and we said that his supper are as plentiful as dogs are on New York's east side. On account of the would be served all right. Then he laid down a sum of money, more than tremendous dampness the cattle have enough to pay the bill, and said, 'This to be driven to the top of the hills, so that they shall not get their feet too | will save me the trouble this evening,' wet, and the tigers and leopards climb and went away. The supper passed off nicely, the man's friends from the to these high altitudes also, because country or the country part of the city they are imbued with the kindly desire to save those cattle from pneumonla seemed to enjoy their spree, and finally the host asked for his check, looked at and other ills by eating them carefully it and then said grandly and loud enough for all to hear, 'Charge it.' The supper was a 'grand' affair in the eyes of the guests, but the climax-the order to 'charge it'-overwhelmed them, and I dare say the man accomplished his

> As there are no forests on the hills the tigers prowl about all night in the open, lying concealed during the day in the limestone caves, the coal pits and between the crevices of the rocks. The residents come upon them in all object, which was evidently to make himself solid with his guests."-New manner of odd nooks and corners so York Tribune. unexpectedly that the beasts are as much alarmed as themselves and usu-A One Sided One. ally scamper off in one direction, their There are times, even in the best regdisturbers flying in the opposite one. ulated families, when it becomes nec-No one stirs out at nighttime without a essary to discipline some young and powerful lantern or torch, for, as a stirring member of the household. The rule, wild beasts will not come near a other evening an indulgent father con-

Health the Mainspring of Success. The chief essential of success for a young man is what the vast majority of young men think about the leastthat is, good health and a sound constitution. That is the first thing; nothing precedes it. In the battle for success that should be a young man's first thought-not his abilities nor his work, but his health. That is the basis, the cornerstone, of all. Abilities cannot bring health, but health may and generally does develop ability.--Ladies' Home Journal.

light, though this rule does not hold good in all cases,-New York Herald.

Friend-I suppose there are a great many people who owe you their lives. Doctor-They say they do, but the relatives always kick like thunder when I accidentally collect a bill of that kind.-San Francisco Examiner.

is familiar is the formation of dust at sea. Those who are familiar with salling ships know that, no matter how carefully the decks may be washed down in the morning and how little work of any kind may be done during the day, nevertheless if the decks are swept at nightfall an enormous quantity of dust will be collected.

When a girl says that some other cluded that such a time had arrived, as his 8-year-old son had committed an act of insubordination and threatened to repeat it. Rebukes and warnings were in vain, and at last the youngster was given a sound spanking. Half an hour later, after friendly relations had been resumed, an older son came home

A Mystery of the Sen.

A mystery with which every sailo ele-Telegraph.

worm, but if the worm tries to crawl girl is pretty, the men present can alon it the woman shricks.—Chicago Rec-ord. | ways make a ten strike by disagreeing with her.—Atchison Globe. 'TIS USELESS TO REGRET.

There's many a plan that comes naught, There's many a light gone out, And disappointments, griofs and cares
Have hedged us round about,
And many a sad mistake we've made Throughout our lives, and yet We've done the very best we could,
'Tis useless to regret,

For out of evil good has come,
And out of darkness light,
And all wrongdoings in this world
Some day will be set right.
And though we have not reached the height Attained by others, yet

We've done the best we could, my dear;

We've tried to live like honest folks, To do our duty well, 'Gainst evil things to take our stand, the sallva dripped from the corners of his mouth.

CHEWED REDHOT CHARCOAL

reason for any anxlety; that the operation was quite a simple one and could be learned in a few weeks by any nov-ice. Despite his placidity, I suspected that his tongue and lips were burned. I was therefore surprised to see him swallow a few minutes afterward a

Roberts of Utah In the House.

venience.-Gentleman's Magazine.

"How neat and clean he looks," whispered a woman in the gallery. "He ought to," replied her companion, "with three wives to keep hin tidy."—Chicago Times-Herald.

ORDINANCES OF THE TOWN OF WALHALLA

An Ordinance Respecting the Streets, Pavements and Ways of the Town of street, and any person or persons so doing shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Section 2. That it shall be a misde-

SECTION 8. That it shall be unlawful o shoot guns, pistols or other firearms, the limits of his authority. fire-crackers or slingshots, or to throw fire-balls, within the incorporate limits fire-balls, within the incorporate limits of the town, and any person or persons so doing shall be guilty of a misdest between 10 o'clock p. m. and 5 o'clock a. m. who cannot give a satisso doing shall be guilty of a misde-meanor: Provided, a person may shoot firearms on his own premises for the bona fide purpose of protecting his property from damage by animals or birds wild by nature: Provided, further, that the discharge of balls or shot from any firearms bles and restaurants, and the violator by any person for the purpose aforesaid, of this Section shall be subject to a charge of balls or shot from any firearms within the incorporate limits, shall be confined to the premises owned or occu-ride or drive upon the sidewalks, or to lead a horse thereon, except to cross the same at a regular crossing, or to place any obstruction which may impede a free any obstruction which may impede a free passage on or along any sidewalk, and any person or persons so doing shall be guilty of a misdemeanor: Provided, that a drayman may drive or back his wagon on the sidewalks for the purpose of loading or unloading heavy trunks, boxes, &c., at once, but must drive off immediately after so doing.

Section 10. That it shall be unlawful to ride a bievele on the sidewalks of square and the cross street at J. W. Holleman's residence. Any person so doing shall be guilty of a misdemeanor: Preleman's residence. Any person so doing shall be guilty of a misdemeanor: Previded, that any person riding a bicycle who shall collide with a person walking on the sidewalks shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Section 11. That the game of cock or invariant statements are supported by the Intendant, and upon conviction be punished by fine of not less than $25.00.

and was somewhat surprised when the or persons taking part in or witnessing 8-year-old said to him: "You ought to such game, as either participant or spec-tator, shall be subject to fine or impris-onment, at the discretion of the Intendant have been here awhile ago. Me and papa had a fight."-Pittsburg Chronitrains and arrest all persons getting on the arryan and arrest all persons getting on boisterous or disorderly conduct occurs the cars, or attempting to get on, other than employees or passengers as aforediscretion of the Intendant within discretion of the Intendant within discretion of the Intendant within the limits of his authority.

Section 14. That this ordinance shall be deemed general and perpetual, shall go into effect upon its publication, and go into effect upon its publication, and continue of force until repealed or amended.

Done in Council and ratified under the corporate seal of the Town of Walhalla on [L. 8.] the 7th day of February, 1900, and in the 124th year of the sovereignty and independence of the United States of America. F. S. HOLLEMAN, Intendant.

JAS. THOMPSON, Clerk and Treasurer.

Au Ordinance to Preserve the Health and Cleanliness of the Town of Walballa. BE IT ORDAINED by the Intendent and Wardens of the Town of Walhalla in council assembled, and by authority of the same: Section 1. That all residents, whether owners of property or tenants occupying the same, within the incorpo-rate limits, are expected to keep their promises in a clean and healthy condi-tion, and any person or persons failing or wner or occupant.

SECTION 2. That it shall be unlawful to SECTION 2. That it shall be unlawful to establish any slaughter house or butcher pen within the corporate limits of the town, and any person or persons so doing shall be liable to fine or imprisonment at the discretion of the Intendant within the limits of his authority.

SECTION 3. That no building or building or dimensions, shall be built or erected within 200 feet of either side of Main street within said fire limits.

SECTION 3. That no building or build the limits of his authority.

SECTION3. That any dog running at large within the incorporate limits of the town, between the list of June and the list of October, without a nuzzle, is liable to be seized and retained by the Marshal for a period of twenty-four hours, during which time his owner can redeem him by paying the sum of two dollars, and, if not so redeemed, the dog is then to be sold. That any owner of a dog or dogs who shall let such dog or dogs run at large on the streets of the town without being muzzled shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished at the discretion of the Intendant within the limits of his authority.

sutherity.

SECTION 4. That this ordinance shall be deemed general and percetual, shall go into effect upon its publication, and continue of force until repealed or amounted.

Done in Council and ratified under the corporate seal of the Town of Walhalla on [L. S.] the 7th day of February, 1900, and in the 12th year of the sovereignty and independence of the United States of America.

F. S. HOLLEMAN, Intendant.

JAS, THOMPSON, Clerk and Treasurer. An Ordinance to Regulate Traffic by manner that it should not scorch his flesh.

When the Arab had crushed some five or six pleces we begged him to stop. He rose and scated himself on the divan, remarking that there was no reason for any auxiety; that the operations and the same is a state of the same is section in the council assembled, and by authority of the same: Section 1. That itinerant traders, auctioneers, or transient merchants, selling, or in any manner offering for sale, any goods, wares, or merchandise, within the Town of Walhalla, at auction or private sale, shall pay in

Done in Council and ratified under the corporate scal of the Town of Walhalla on [L. S.] the 7th day of February, 1900, and in the 124th year of the sovereignty and independence of the United States of America. F. S. HOLLEMAN, Intendant. Jas. Thompson, Clerk and Treasurer.

BE IT ORDAINED by the Intendant and Wardens of the Town of Walhalla, in council assembled, and by authority of the same: Section 1. That any person found drunk in the Town of Walhalla,

SECTION 3. That any person convicted of keeping a disorderly house within the limits of the Town of Walhalla shall, upon con-ing shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Section 2. That it shall be a misdemeanor for any person or persons to cut trees on any streets of the town.

Section 3. That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to injure any shade trees by hitching horses, mules or other live stock thereto, or otherwise committing any act which is calculated to injure said trees.

Section 4. That it shall be unlawful to leave melon rinds or other such trash on the streets and any person or persons so doing, who shall refuse to remove the same on request of the Mayor or Marshal, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Section 5. That it shall be unlawful to leave any piles or accumulations of lumber, firewood, rocks or other material on the streets, except South Broad street, along the line of railroad or lumber yard, and any person or persons so doing shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Section 6. That it shall be unlawful for any merchant, clerk or other person to allow to accumulate on Main street, in front of their premises, any sweepings St. 10N 6. That it shall be the duty of the Marshal or Policeman, after the arrest of any person, whose violation of any ordinance interferes with the peace and good order of the town, or the conduct of the person arrested after the arrest is made is such as to impair the peace and good order of the town, to closely confine such person and produce him as required by law for examination or proper administration of criminal justice as the case may require.

Secretary 7. That we present the such person and produce the such person and produce him as required by law for examination or proper administration of criminal justice as the case may require.

amusements on Main street are prohibited, and it shall be the duty of the Marshal to arrest all persons so engaged and bring them before the Mayor to be dealt with according to law. The Marshal to layer any erowd or in larger quantities, and any person of the town, either by drinks or in larger quantities. dealt with according to law. The Marshal shall also disperse any crowd or crowds assembled on the sidewalks of the town.

Secretary S. That it shall be underful. at the discretion of the Intendant within SECTION 8. That the Marshal is author-> factory reason for such presence on the streets during these hours.

>
> Section 9. That all places of business or amusement must be closed on the Sab-bath day, except drug stores, livery sta-> penalty of $25. Section 10. That any person found loafing on the streets of Walhalla, hav-ing no visible means of earning an honest livelihood, shall be deemed a vagrant. Section 11. That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to carry concealed upon their person any weapon mentioned in the laws of the State of South Carolina as unlawful to carry concealed, besides, such weapons shall be forfeited to the town.

>
> Section 12. That it shall be the duty of the Marshal to arrest all persons found gambling within the incorporate limits of the town of Walhalla.

limits of the town of Walhalla Section 13. That it shall be unlawful to ride a bicycle on the sidewalks of Main street between the Court House any way interfere with the Marshals in the discharge of their duties.

SECTION 11. That the game of cock fighting is prohibited within the incorporate limits of the town, and any person days. ays. Section 15. That any person or persons wilfully striking, breaking or other-wise injuring any street lamp, the prop-erty of the Town of Walhalla, shall be within the limits of his authority. deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on Secretox 12. That it shall be unlawful conviction of such striking, breaking or for any person or persons, other than injuring of any lamp shall be subject to employees, or passengers coming in or fine or imprisonment for each lamp, at going off, to assemble at the depot in the discretion of the Intendant, within Walhalla and get on the trains. It shall be the duty of the Marshal to be at the depot on the arrival and departure of the depot on the depot of the depot o than employees or passengers as aforesaid, and bring them before the Intendant to be dealt with according to law.

Section 13. That any person or persons violating any of the foregoing provisions of this ordinance shall be liable to fine or imprisonment at the discretion of the Intendant within the limits of his authority.

Section 17. That any person or persons violating any of the foregoing Sections of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished at the discretion of the Intendant within the limits of his authority.

the same:
Section 1. That fire limits be established in the Town of Walhalla on Maia street on both the North and South sides thereof between Ann street and Tugaloo street; that within said limits no new house shall hereafter be built of wooden material, and no additional room or rooms shall be built of wood to any house now standing within said fire refusing to remove a nuisance, when requested so to do by the Board of Health, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and may be punished at the discretion of the Intendant within the limits of his authority, and such nuisance may be abated by the Marshal at the expense of the owner or occupant. slate, tin, or zine.

SECTION 3. That no building or buildcontinue of force until repealed amended.

Done in Council and ratified under the corporate seal of the Town of Walhalla on [L. S.] the 7th day of February, 1900, and in the 124th year of the sovereignty and independence of the United States of America. F. S. HOLLEMAN, Intendant.

Jas. Thompson, Clerk and Treasurer.

An Ordinance to Establish Fire Limits in the

BE IT ORDAINED by the Intendant and Wardens of the Town of Walhalla in council assembled, and by authority of

Town of Walhalla.

Walhalla for the Year 1900.

Be IT Ordained by the Intendant and Wardens of the Town of Walhalla, in council assembled, and by authority of the same: Section 1. That a tax of 30 cents on each one hundred dollars of the assessed value of all real and personal property, be levied for ordinary town purposes to defray current expenses during the fiscal year commencing January 6th, 1900.

SECTION 2. That a tax of 30 cents on each one hundred dollars of the assessed value of all real and personal property, be levied for the purpose of paying the interest on and retirement of the railroad

SECTION 3. That the tax on real and SECTION 7, That the Intendant shall be paid a salary of one hundred dollars for the fiscal year 1900, to be paid quarterly out of any funds in the treasury available for ordinary town purposes.

Boarding house, permanent, except for stu-lents and operatives exclusively, $2.50. Boot or shoe shop, making or repairing, $1. Broker, dealer in horses, cattle or other live stock, not paying license for sale stable or stock Butcher, dealer in meats, &c., $10. Dentists, $5. Dealer in cotton seed, cotton seed hulls and neat, other than a regular merchant, $5. Druggist, $5. Furniture dealer, $3. Hotel, $10.

Lawyers doing business within the town, 85 r each lawyer. Public Hearse, 83. Contractor doing a business of not over $500.

treet wagon or dray, four horses, twenty dol-wo dollars.

Wheel wright, for repairing wagons and bug-who shall fail to pay such taxes on or by the first day of June, 1900, shall be liable to a penalty of twenty per cent on such tax, and the tax, with the penalty and cost, shall be collected by execution or otherwise, ng any false or fraudulent return, where a return is by this ordinance required than $25, nor more than $50, or be imprisoned not less than 20 days or more than 20 days, or either or both, at the discretion of the Intendant or Acting Intendant.

DINANCES. Resolved, That all laws enacted by the Council heretofore, not in conflict with these Ordinances, are considered in full force, and that each and every one of these Ordinances this day enacted shall be in full force after the publication of the same. Done in Council and ratifled under the corpo

'Tis uscless to regret.

In goodness to excel.

So judge yourself not harshly, dear,
Nor at mistortune fret,
We've done the best we could, and so
'Tis useless to regret.
—London Tit-Bits.

An Arab Accomplished This Feat Without Burning His Mouth. A small brazier, full of redhot charcoal, was brought. Scating himself on the floor in front of this, the Arabpicked out with a pair of iron pinchers a big lump, which he broke into small fragments, one of which he put into his mouth. Swaying his body to and fro. uttering a series of semisuppressed groans, he munched the hot charcoal between his teeth. When he had retained it nearly a minute, he spat it out and took up another piece. The operation appeared to cause him great pain. He rolled his eyes wildly, and at times

Persians are said to be utterly callous to human suffering, but Mahmoud Bey was so much upset that he got up and went out of the room. The prince, too, was visibly affected. To me the performance appeared a mere piece of vulgar trickery. By practice a man might easily retain a small piece of hot cup of hot coffee and smoke a cigarette, apparently without any incon-

"Utah-Brigham H. Roberts!" sang out the clerk. Roberts, pale but self possessed, walked down the alsle toward the speaker's chair. At the end of the aisle Roberts stood with his hands resting upon the two desks at his right and left.

Walhalla.

BE IT ORDAINED by the Intendant and Wardens of the Town of Walhalla in council assembled and by authority of the same: SECTION 1. That it shall be unlawful to run a horse or mule on Main street, and any person or persons so dosessed, and any person or persons so dosessed.

in front of their premises, any sweepings or collections of papers, paper boxes, tin cans, broken glass or crockery, or other such trash; and it shall be a misdemeanor for any person or persons so to do.

Section 7. That ball playing or other pied by the person shooting.

SECTION 9. That it shall be unlawful to Itinerant Traders, Auctioneers and Transient Merchants.

bonds. council assembled, and by authority of the same: Section 1. That itinerant traders, auctioneers, or transient merchants, selling, or in any manner offering for sale, any goods, wares, or merchandise, within the Town of Walhalla, at auction or private sale, shall pay in a davance a license tax of twenty-five dollars per month, fifteen dollars per week, or five dollars per day: Provided, the provisions of this ordinance shall not apply to ordinary dealers in products of the farm, garden or dairy.

Section 2. That any person selling or offering for sale any goods, wares or merchandise, as itinerant trader, auctioneer or transient merchant, within the Town of Walhalla, without having first paid the license tax required by this ordinance for so doing, shall be subject to fine or imprisonment at the discretion of the Intendant within the limits of this authority.

Section 3. That this ordinance shall be deemed general and perpetual, shall go into effect upon its publication and continue of force until repealed or amended.

Done in Council and ratified under the corporate for the Town of Walhalla on rate seal of the Town of Walhalla on the office of Treasurer of the paid into the Town after June 31st shall be permitted to pay 83. Any person coming into the Town after June 31st shall per pour of the fall working: Provided, he has not worked elsewhere.

Section 3. That the tax on real and person shall be paid into the office of Treasurer of the Done in the office of Town between the 18th of the Ount of the County Additor, shall be listed and assessed by the Town Board of Assessors for

An Ordinance to Preserve the Peace and Good Order of the Town of Wal-

SECTION 8. No person, firm or corporation shall be engaged in, prosecute or carry on any business or profession hereinafter mentioned without having first paid a special license tax therefor, as follows, to wit:

Agents for or dealers in fertilizers "other than regular merchants," 25.

Banker, $2.

Bank with $25,000 capital or less, $25.

Bank for every $1,000 capital, in excess of $25,000, $1.

Brokers, dealers in merchandise, produce on margin or commission, $3.

Barber, for one chair, $2.

Barber, for each clair over one, 18.

Billard, pool or bagatelle tables, $5.

Blacksmith for each additional forge, 50e.

Boarding house, permanent, except for students and operatives exclusively, $2,500.

ard, per year, $5. Butcher, dealer in meats, &c., $10.

lars.
Street wagon or dray, two horses, twenty dollars.
Street wagon or dray, one horse, $2.50.
Stable, keeping vehicles and horses for hire, feed and sale, twenty-five dollars.
Stable, reed and sales, five dollars.
Tailor, baking and repairing, one dollar.
Tin shop, making or repairing, one dollar.
Watch maker and jeweler for repairing, &e., two dollars.

gies, 81.

Undertaker, three dollars.
SECTION 9. That the owner shall pay a tax of one dollar for each dog kept in town.
SECTION 10. That this Ordinance shall be in effect on the 15th day of February, 1900, and until that day, said licenses may be issued without any penalty, to persons now engaged in any of the above named occupations or business. From and after the said 15th day of February, 1900, it shall be the duty of the Marshal to visit each and every person, firm or corporation, doing business in the Town of Walhalla and inspect their license and report all who are doing business without license to the Intendant at once.
Any person or persons carrying on or prosecuting any business or occupation, or running any establishment named in this or preceding sections, without first having taken out a license therefor, shall be fined, except in cases where special penalties are imposed, the sam of five dollars per day or be imprisoned for a term not exceeding five days, for each and every day such business is carried on without such license. No license shall be issued for a less period than one year, dated from the first day of the month in which the same is issued.

For any business, occupation or profession, not emmerated in the foregoing Sections, the license shall be regulated by the Intendant.

SECTION 11. The Town Council hereby reserves the right to revoke any license for a way cause which may seem to it insterior and the same in the foregoing for any cause which may seem to it insterior and the same in the foregoing for any cause which may seem to it insterior and the same in the foregoing for any cause which may seem to it insterior and the same in the foregoing for any cause which may seem to it insterior and the same in the foregoing for any cause which may seem to it insterior and the same in the sam ties, $1. Undertaker, three dollars. reserves the right to revoke any license for any cause which may seem to it just. SECTION 12. The tax on real or peronal property provided for in this ordi nance shall be collected during the month of May, 1900, and any person or persons

Done in Council and ratified under the corporate scal of the Town of Walhalla on [L. S.] the 7th day of February, 1900, and in the 12th year of the sovereignty and independence of the United States of America.
F. S. HOLLEMAN, Intendant.

JAS. TROMPSON, Clerk and Treasurer.

in Ordinance to Raise Supplies and Make Appropriations for the Town of Walhalla for the Year 1900.

SECTION 6. That any person or persons having claims against the town must present them within sixty days or the same will be barred from payment, unless a satisfactory excuse is rendered.

SPECIAL TAXES.

Each Insurance Company, life, fire, or accident,

2.50; over $500, $5; over $1,000, $10. Merehants shall pay a license according to the blowing schedule of gross sales for the year and prices upon sworn returns:

Intendant.

Done in Council and ratified under the corporate seal of the Town of Walhalla on [L. S.] the 7th day of February, 1900, and in the 12th year of the sovereignty and independence of the United States of America.

F. S. HOLLEMAN, Intendant, Jas. FROMPSON, Clerk and Treasurer. RESOLUTION RESPECTING FORMER OR-

Done in Council and ratified under the corporate seal of the Town of Walhalla on [L. S.] the 7th day of February, 1900, and in the 12th year of the sovereignty and independence of the United States of America. F. S. HOLLEMAN, Intendant, JAS. THOMPSON, Clerk and Treasurer.