December 26.—We are glad to say that the family of Mr. E. W. Corbin, who have had the scarlet fever, are improving. Rev. Samuel Bird and family, of Plokers, have been visiting Mr. D. E. Nicholson recently. Mr. W. J. Owen, of Montvale, N. C., visited friends and relatives in this community this week. Mr. Carson Nicholson has been spending a few days with the family of Mr. Elias Alexander near Pleasant Hill.

Messrs. C. D. Corbin, Frank Golden and Duffie Golden visited friends and relatives in North Carolina Christmas eve. Mrs. W. F. Carson is spending Christmas with her daughter, Mrs. W. K. Henkle, of Bohany, N. C. Messrs. S. M. Wilson and Jacob Alexander had the good luck to get a nice deer for Christmas.

Mr. L. B. Abernethy visited Mr. B. F. Coward and family this week. Wake up you Little River writer and let us hear from you. Old Buck-Skin Joe. The Ordination of L. E. Campbell.

A number of brethren met at the hospitable home of Brother L. E. Campbell for the purpose of ordaining him to the work of the ministry. The presbytery was composed of the following brethren: R. W. Barts, J. D. Chapman, Wm. Brown and W. B. Hawkins. The presbytery was organized by electing Brother R. W. Barts moderator and W. B. Hawkins secretary. Brother I. D. Chapman led in a fervent prayer for divine guidance.

After a careful and thorough examination of his experience of grace and Christian doctrine, the presbytery voted unanimously to set Brother Campbell apart to the full work of the gospel ministry. Rev. R. W. Barts preached an excellent sermon from Jonah 3:2. The sermon was both doctrinal and practical. Dr. J. D. Chapman presented the Bible in a solemn and impressive manner. The writer delivered the charge. Rev. Wm. Brown led the ordaining prayer. Rev. L. E. Campbell pronounced the benediction.

We predict for Brother Campbell a useful life in the ministry.—W. B. Hawkins, Secretary, in Baptist Courier, January 2, 1902. Divorced Pastor Dropped. Kansas City, Mo., January 1.—The Rev. James A. Heath, who is alleged to have illegally secured a divorce from his wife in New York in order to marry a Kansas City woman, was deposed from the ministry and expelled from the Calvary Baptist church at a meeting of the congregation.

Mr. Heath was formerly pastor of the Baptist church at Castile, N. Y., where his wife and children now reside. The Rev. Charles A. Merrill, the present pastor of the church at Castile, came here and assisted in collecting evidences against this predecessor. The Georgia Populists. Atlanta, Ga., January 2.—At a conference of the executive committee of the Populist party of Georgia and other Populists of the State, held here today, it was decided to nominate a State ticket in 1902. Also to name a delegation of fifteen to represent the Populist party of Georgia at the Louisville Convention in April, 1902, which has been called by the "allied parties." A resolution was adopted by the committee calling for an address to be drafted along the lines of party reform and to be issued to the people of Georgia.

A Good Selection by the President. The State, January 2: President Roosevelt could not have made a better nor more suitable selection than he has done in appointing Dr. J. L. M. Curry to represent the United States at Madrid on the celebration of the king's "coming of age," which occurs May 17. Not only is Dr. Curry in every way fully qualified for such a mission, but his selection is peculiarly appropriate because he was the United States Minister to Spain when King Alfonso XIII was born, May 17, 1886, and was present in his official capacity at the palace when the heir to the Spanish throne entered the world. Dr. Curry has written a book on "Constitutional Government in Spain," and is familiar with the history and traditions of that country. To the Spanish he represents the era of good feeling between the two countries which preceded the war concerning Cuba, while the President typifies the recent antipathies.

$3,500 CASH PRIZE CONTEST. The Atlanta Constitution's Great Offer for 1902—Clubbing Proposition. The Cotton Receipts at Savannah, Ga., from September 1 to April 30, 1902—Cash Prizes to Agents for the First Quarter of 1902—Full Statistics Given for Your Guidance—An Unparalleled Offer for the Atlanta Constitution.

The Atlanta Constitution offers two cash prize contests from January 1st to April 15th, 1902. $1,500 in cash prizes for agents. These prizes range from $20 for the highest to $5 for the lowest list from any agent during the period, in addition $250 will be divided pro rata among all agents who send twenty or more subscriptions and fall to get any other prize. This is a liberal offer and the details of it will be sent you by applying to the Atlanta Constitution, Atlanta.

The $2,000 upon the Savannah, Ga., cotton receipts will be given as follows: To the person sending a yearly subscription to the Atlanta Constitution (weekly) together with the correct estimate on the cotton receipts of Savannah, Ga., from September 1st, 1901, to April 15th, 1902. $1,000 if the estimate is received during February. $500 if the estimate is received during March or up to April 10th.

The above are for the exact estimates. There are besides these the highest prizes that will be paid out for the nearest estimates to the Savannah cotton receipts received at any time during the contest all estimates are $25, receive the next nearest estimates in their order. There is also a great consolation offer, $500 will be distributed among those who fail to secure one of the larger prizes, and whose estimates come within 500 bales either way of the exact figure. This allows a margin of 1,000 bales within which all estimates are given. A part of the prize money offered. The point is to strike the estimate exactly during January. This is a possibility. In a contest similar to this the Constitution has had the number hit exactly and paid out $1,000 for the estimate. In another similar contest the estimate has come within one of the exact figure, and all the prizes offered have been paid out upon estimates that were not fully reprieved from the exact estimate.

STATISTICS OF LAST SIX YEARS: To aid the contestants in making intelligent estimates here we give the following statistics of six former years:

SEASON	Savannah Cotton Receipts, Sept. 1 to April 30, 1902	Savannah Cotton Receipts, Sept. 1 to April 30, 1901	Total Cotton Receipts for Year
1896-1898	711,297	4,872	716,169

A Prince and Great Man.

Rev. A. W. McGuffin, whose death occurred at his home near Westminster, December 26, 1901, was in his 91st year when the summons came. Brother McGuffin was born July 28, 1811. When he was about 10 years old he united with the Baptist church—I believe at Conners—and was baptized by Rev. Mr. Ballard. Bro. McGuffin began at once to exercise in public and was soon ordained to the ministry at Perkin's Creek church, now called Return.

He had been preaching at the time of his death between 71 and 74 years, and preached his last sermon on first Sunday in October last, at Conners, where he was baptized and where he was buried. His education was very limited. He entered Mercer University at one time, but remained there but a little while. God had endowed him with wonderful brain power, and surely no better voice has ever been given to man, and he used it for God's glory. His ability as a preacher was recognized by all who heard him preach. The influence of his life and power of his preaching will never die. He preached nearly all his life to the churches of Oconee county, and it was stated at his funeral that he had baptized perhaps three thousand people. One of them he baptized 27 years ago.

He had been under appointment of the State Board in the Beaverton Association for the past ten or eleven years, and Bro. Sanders has been instrumental in leading many to Christ. So Bro. McGuffin's work is still going on through others. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord, their works do follow them." Bro. McGuffin was very popular among his brethren. He was frequently chosen to preside over his association as moderator. He, with Rev. H. M. Barton, of blessed memory, were without doubt the leading preachers of their day in the section where they lived and labored.

Some six or seven years ago Bro. C. O. Brown began to help the dear old brother, and he certainly needed and deserved help before he received it. The year that Brown began to help him he received as rent from his little farm six bushels of corn. In addition to that the old soldier of the cross had made what living he had with his hoe. May God's richest blessings be upon Brown and his helpers for what they have already done for the Lord's poor.

Bro. McGuffin was thrown from his ox wagon because the animal made some awkward move. He was fatally injured. He lingered about eight weeks and died from the effects of injuries received in the fall. His funeral was held on December 26th by the writer and Rev. J. M. Sanders. Although it was a cold, windy day a large congregation was present. Many were the tears shed as they bade old Father McGuffin good bye. It is the general opinion that no greater man ever lived or died in Oconee county. D. W. Hiott.

It is said that contrary to custom Mr. Roosevelt has determined to appoint no colored man to a position where a white man will have to serve as his subordinate. The great literary and newspaper editor of the United States, who has taken $50,000 additional by private subscription, and by popular vote at a special election October 22d, the charter amendment, will be the first colored man to be appointed to the Louisiana territory, will be commemorated by an International Exposition to be held in St. Louis in 1903.

Frank also gave a shooting match the same day, but we have not heard how it resulted. There was an enjoyable dance at the home of Mr. James Alexander on the evening of the 26th.

SECOND BATTLE OF MANASSAS.

At the South Carolina Inter-State and West-Indian Exposition.

Charleston, December 30.—The cyclorama of the Second Battle of Manassas was opened to the public at the Charleston Exposition December 21. Several hundred distinguished people were invited, including the city officials and the management of the Exposition. None were prepared for the great treat awaiting them. The guests were conducted through a long tunnel to the center of the enormous building, and from an elevated platform a spectacle was presented that was stirring in the extreme. Fifty thousand veterans of the illustrious Lee and Jackson's armies were seen rushing into a deadly combat with Pope's infantry. The illusion in this cyclorama is surprisingly perfect. The foreground blends into the scenic part of the cyclorama so perfectly that it tries the skill of an artist to detect it. Looking out over the beautiful landscape, you have views for miles into the country around Manassas and Bull Run. You are pleased with the artistic beauty, and your interest is augmented by this great battle scene, so realistic that you can see the smoke of battle and find yourself listening for the boom of cannon.
