Engineer Fatally Injured.

Peru, Ind., January 15 .- As the result of a strange hallucination J E. Sible, an old and trusted engineer of the Wabash railroad, was fatally injured last night. Sible was at the throttle of the locomotive of the limited which was thundering along at the rate of 40 miles an hour. When the lights of the town of Attica appeared the old engineer gave a start and shouted to Burt Frick, his fireman: "Jump for your life, Burt, the switch is turned !"

The sentence was not finished, for in an instant Sible had applied the safety brake, reversed the lever and had jumped to escape the specter his harassed nerves had conjured up The fireman followed, but was not injured. The train came to a stop and Frick went back to find his engineer. The latter lay on the roadbed horribly injured. His skull had been crushed, an arm and leg broken, his ribs fractured and his spine injured. He was carried aboard the train. Meanwhile an investigation showed that there had been no danger to the train. The signal lights of the switch showed an unobstructed path.

Prince Henry Will Tender Banquet.

New York, January 17 .- Prince Henry, with the consent of Emperor William, will give a magnificent banquet at New York on the Hohenzollern, to which the President and the highest officials of the United States will be invited, cables the Berlin correspondent of The World.

The Kaiser has selected some splendid silver treasures of the palace to decorate the vessel on the occasion. The silver sets and decorations are of the most costly workmanship, dating from the Renaissance period.

Constipation and health never go to gether. DeWitt's Little Early Risers promote easy action of the bowels with out distress. "I have been troubled with costiveness nine years," says J. O. Depauw, Ind, "I have tried many remedies, but Little Early Risers give best results."

Fatal High Kick.

Vincennes, Indiana, January 17 .-Elsa Condon, head waitress at the New Grand Hotel, is dying as the result of injuries to her spine received in a fall caused by trying to kick a tray of dishes, held by one of the waitresses, under her. Miss Condon attempted to make the kick in order to win a friendly wager, and, losing her balance, fell backward, her spine striking against an overturned chair. The three doctors who have been with her pronounce her case hopeless.

"Ex-Corn King" Caught.

Chicago, January 17 .- A notice was posted at the opening of the board of trade to-day calling for the closing of all open deals with Geo. H. Phillips, the former "corn king." A heavy call for extra margins is said to have been the cause of the posting of the notice. The call was lips and his staff worked all night over the firm's books. The trouble is said to have been due to 31 cent break in rye yesterday. Phillips is credited with holding a line of 1,500,000 bushels of this cereal, mostly in May options. The break yesterday was caused by a sale of only 50,000 bushels.

A RunAway Accident. One day last week our venerable friend, Mr. John Hendrix, of the Fair Play section, came down to visit his grand-daughter, Mrs. J. W. Bailey, at the McLure parsonage in Centerville Township. After spending a day and night there he started next morning for Pelzer to visit some more grand children. When he reached some distance this side of Taylor's Creek, his horse became frightened, darted off suddenly and threw Mr. Hendrix out of the buggy, fracturing one rib on his left side and severely hurting his right hand, nearly all the skin and flesh on top being torn off. He was soon discovered by friends, who gently carried him back to the parsonage, and summoned Dr. Pepper to dress the wounds. Mr. Hendrix has reached the ripe old age of 91 years, is remarkably hale and hearty, walks as erect as a young man, has no ase for eye-glasses, and will, we hope soon be up and out again .- Anderon Intelligencer, January 15.

$3,500 CASH PRIZE CONTEST.

The Atlanta Constitution's Great Offer for 1902-Clubbing Proposition.

The Cotton Receipts at Savannah, Ga from September to April $2,000—$1,500 Cash Prizes to Agents for the First Quarter of 1902—Full Statistics Given Your Guidance-An Unparalleled for Your Guidance—A Offer for our Readers.

The Atlanta Constitution offers two ash prize contests from January 1st to $1,500 in cash prizes for agents. These prizes range from $400 for the highest to $5 for the lowest list from any agent during the period, in addition $250 will be divided pro rata among all agents who made yesterday afternoon and Phil- fail to get any other prize. This is a sent you by applying to the Atlanta Consent you by applying to a stitution, Atlanta, Ga.

The $2,000 upon the Savannah, Ga., cotton receipts will be given as follows:
To the person sending a yearly subscription to the Atlanta Constitution (weekly) together with the correct esti-mate on the cotton receipts of Savannah Ga., from September 1st, 1901, to Apri

$1,000 if the estimate is received dur-

March or up to April 10th.

The above are for the exact estimates. There are besides these the following prizes that will be paid out for the nearest estimates to the Savannah cotton re ceipts received at any time during the contest: $250, $100, $75, $50, $25, for the next nearest estimates in their order.

There is also a great consolation offer.
$500 will be distributed among those who fail to secure one of the larger prizes and whose estimates come within 500 bales either way of the exact figure. This allows a margin of 1,000 bales within which all estimates are sure to receive part of the prize money offered. The point is to strike the estimate exactly during January. This is a possibility. In a contest similar to this the Constitution has had the number hit exactly and paid out $1,000 for the estimate. In another similar contest the estimate has come within one of the exact figure, and all the prizes offered have been paid out upon estimates that were not fifty re-

The Constitution's long and honorable business course, keeping faith with the people in all its contracts, contests and engagements, as well as in its consistent and conspicuous editorial fairness, places it among those reliable institutions of our country upon which the people may depend.

The Sunny South has been brought under a close subscription alliance with the Atlanta Constitution. It is now weekly literary paper conducted in the interest of Southern readers. One of its avowed purposes is the exploitation of the Southern field of literature and the encouragement of Southern talent. Dur ing the year contests for the best com-petitive stories by Southern writers will be announced. During the past year a competition of this character resulted in some 500 stories being submitted, all o which are well worth reproduction, and the majority of them have appeared and will continue in the Sunny South's inter esting columns.

The Woman's Department of the Sunny South has been placed under the direction of Mrs. Mary E. Bryan. Her name has been connected with the Sunny South for nearly a generation. She has brought to her work a ripened experi-ence gained in the service of the same clientele. The charm of her own per-sonality shines in all the writings of this ing January.

Methodist Responsibility

Dr. Carlisle in a recent issue of he Advocate savs

"Cold figures tell us that one-ninth of the white persons in this State are Methodists. The rough rales applied in such cases, multiply by three or four, at least, to indicate vaguely, the probable influence, direct and indirect, on the public. Perhaps, then, from one-third to one-half of our people may be impressed, in some degree, by the Methodist constituency. These coarse calculations may be dismissed at once, if they have prepared a thoughtful reader for an assertion and a question, which may have serious, if not solemn, meaning.

Methodists have a full share of responsibility for the ignorance, vice and winkedness found in South Carolina to-day. What can they do. throughout the incoming year, to lessen the dark aggregate?"

A Victim of Retribution.

There is something pathetic about the inglorious climax that has come to the three or four men were shot down in career of Franklin J. Moses is an illustration of the retribu tion that moves with the certainty and nexorableness of divine justice.

"The mills of the gods grind slowly, But they grind exceeding fine!" And he is the latest, if not the last of all, to come as a mangled, broken, helpess and hopeless grist from the wheel of that awful machinery. Scores of his colleagues in the disgraceful history of that era of Southern humiliation and spoliation have preceded him in ruin and peen consigned to the oblivion of the While their season of ribald power, luxurious riot and shameless ras calities was brief, gorgeous and amazing they were finally forced to flee from their feastings and take refuge in such safety as the places that had spawned them would afford. Even there they mostly ound ostracism and suspicion and shrunk nto pauperism, vagabondage and shifty criminalism. If it were worth the while we might here recall the names, once despicably familiar in Southern affairs of such as have fallen upon such miseraole conclusions. It is enough "to point a moral and adorn the 'tale" to say that nearly all these fellows met their full measures of the South, where they had earned their infamy, but among the people from whom they sprung and who once thought them most fit and desirable masters for the Southern people, upon whom they were foisted by radicalism and fastened in power by regiments of troops. It is a sufficient vindication of their repudiation and banishment by the South that they could not find welcomes and honors at

There were some of the leaders of that epoch who were not evil at heart. They were mistaken, but not malignant. When they realized the true characters and purposes of their coparceners they pulled out from the association and many have since become useful and honored factors of purer regimes. But Moses remains the ultimate type and illustration of the wen who sowed hate and have reaped self-havoc wherever they went.-Atlanta Constitution.
