

WALHALLA, S. C.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 9, 1902.

RARA AVIS.

The description of the demagogue by Graves was superb. But even he could scarcely comprehend the rarer avis of these parts. Under the cloak of an "eminent divine" there is an attempted theft of "the ivory of heaven."

Whose hand has been helping the editor of the Oconee News in his effusions of late? "The voice is the voice of Jacob, but the hand is the hand of Esau."

Talk about competition! The Courier knows none in the Oconee News under its present management. The boasted efforts of the editor are as harmless and futile as could be imagined. On the contrary, we are furnished the amusement every two or three weeks of hoisting him with his petard.

CAPT. J. M. PATRICK, of Anderson, has been announced as a candidate for Adjutant and Inspector General. We know no man in the State better fitted for the place, nor one more deserving. Capt. Patrick is a son of the late Col. John B. Patrick, and is a graduate of Furman University of the class of 1883. Since leaving college he has been continuously connected with the militia of the State. He taught in the Patrick Military Institute up to the time of his father's death, and since that time has been at the head of the military company at Anderson. We would indeed be pleased to see Oconee give him a solid vote.

This editor of the Oconee News attempts the facitior over the misprint of "1901" for "1902" which appeared in "The Courier" two weeks ago, and says he is not able to prophesy so far ahead. In his issue of April 3, 1902, he announces that the Democratic Executive Committee met on April 21, 1902. Is this a prophecy? Is he a prophet, or the son of a prophet—or just a plain, every-day son-of-a-gun? We are human, and lay no claim of "eminent divinity"; hence mistakes pass us occasionally. But if we published a paper with one-fourth the errors of that of our contemporary we would certainly call it "The Typographical Error."

To the young hopeful the old man said: "Dickie, how did you get through college?" "Well, I went in at the front door and walked out at the back door." "Did you see the room with books, and tables and chairs, where the people read?" "Yes, I stopped there, and saw something about Dickens, and the 'Pickwick Papers.'" "Didn't you see Blackstone, and read what he said about law and order?" "No; but I can tell Courts, lawyers and juries what they ought to do—and newspapers, too; why, I can tell others how to run them. Nevertheless mine runs in the ground once in awhile and the Sheriff has to hammer it out." If anything else you want to know inquire of the editor of the Oconee News.

In his efforts to display "feathers in the nest" of one of the members of The Courier firm, the editor of the Oconee News uncovered a quantity of "down" from the gosling in his own nest, and the old goose quacks on. In the blatant, "better-than-thou" style of the canting hypocrite he has charged The Courier with overcharging the county for advertising, only to find that his own accounts were in excess of ours, and then he explains it by saying "his foreman did it." He (not his foreman) took an oath, in solemn form, that these accounts were "just and true, not overcharged," etc.—and yet he says "his foreman did it." Evidently he esteems his oath very lightly, and, like himself, it will wear watching. But—hold your breath! His latest attempt is to palm himself off as an "eminent divine." May the saint preserve us, and will this would-be "eminent divine" from the south side of Midway please lead us in prayer for the souls of those who "feather their nests," swear to false accounts, etc., and etc., of whom he is chief?

THE CLOCK'S THREE HANDS.

"Come, hurry up!" said the second hand of a clock to the minute hand. "You'll never get around in time if you don't. See how fast I am going!" continued the noisy little monitor, as it trotted round on its pivot. "Come, hurry up!" said the minute hand to the hour hand, utterly oblivious of the noise addressed by the second hand. "If you don't be quick, you'll never be in at the stroke of one." "Well, that's just what your young friend here has been saying to you. At this point the clock pealed forth the hour, as the hour hand continued: "You are we're in time, not one of us behind. You take my advice, do your own work in your own way, and leave others alone." Moral: Mind your own business.—The Sunday School Visitor.

A Valuable Medicine for Coughs and Colds in Children.

"I have not the slightest hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to all who are suffering from coughs or colds," says Chas. M. Cramer, Esq., a well known watch maker of Columbia, S. C. "It has been some two years since the City Dispensary first called my attention to this valuable medicine, and I have repeatedly used it, and it has always been beneficial. It has cured me quickly of all chest colds. It is especially effective for children and so much more than one bottle to a case of hoarseness. I have persuaded many to try this valuable medicine, and they are all as well pleased as myself over the results. For sale by J. W. Bell.

Seranton's Strikers Win.

Seranton, Pa., April 6.—Seranton's six months' strike is at an end and the men will return to work tomorrow morning. The bar men are given an increase of 7 per cent. The new schedule of the car men changes the maximum from 14 cents to 17 cents an hour, the maximum from 10 to 14 cents an hour and makes three years instead of five years the period in which the maximum rate may be earned.

DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Making Ready for the Political Campaign this Summer.

The State Democratic Executive Committee met in Columbia on Thursday night and fixed the date for the meeting of the State Convention. An order was made to have the convention meet in Charleston, but some of the members thought they caught the odor of a "big fight" in the "white" and the proposition was voted down. Twenty-six of the forty counties were represented. Senator Tillman was present by virtue of his position as member of the National Committee. Col. Willie Jones, chairman of the committee, presided, and Mr. U. X. Gunter, Jr., the secretary, was in his place.

The members present were: A. W. Jones, Abbeville; W. W. Williams, Aiken; J. Perry Glenn, Anderson; S. G. Mayfield, Bamberg; J. H. Williams, Edgefield; T. H. Kitchener, Fairfield; D. H. Trazier, Florence; M. L. Donaldson, Greenville; D. H. Magill, Greenwood; M. B. Hampton, Hampton; J. A. Dermott, Horry; D. C. Richards, Kershaw; J. H. Wharton, Laurens; D. J. Griffith, Lexington; W. D. Evans, Marlboro; W. H. Hunter, Marion; J. E. Stribling, Oconee; W. O. Tatum, Orangeburg; Willie Jones, Richland; R. B. Watson, Saluda; Altamont Moses, Sumter; Walter York, York; U. X. Gunter, Jr., secretary; B. K. Tillman, member of the National Democratic Executive Committee.

There was considerable discussion caused by the introduction of a resolution by Mr. Magill that no member be allowed to vote unless that member had been regularly elected. This was supported by W. D. Evans and C. L. Bleasie, J. H. Wharton and Altamont Moses opposed the motion. Senator Tillman spoke in reply to the resolution, and stated that the case that members of the National Democratic Committee are represented by proxy. It was decided to allow members present or proxy to vote, participate in the proceedings and in the votes.

When this matter was settled, Col. Jones announced that the committee had received a request that the meeting of the State Convention be held in Charleston. He read a telegram from Major C. C. Hemphill, manager of the department of promotion and publicity, offering the convention the use of an auditorium and the use of the hall for a warm welcome. There was also a telegram from Capt. F. W. Wagner, president of the Exposition, in which he asked Senator Oglethorpe and Mr. J. C. White to use their influence to have the convention meet in Charleston.

In accordance with these invitations, Col. Wharton announced that the semi-annual election of officers was held, resulting as follows: Mrs. W. O. Hamilton, president; Mrs. T. E. Stribling, vice president; Mrs. W. S. Hunter, secretary and treasurer. The following resolution was adopted and directed to be sent to The Courier for publication: "The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Seneca Presbyterian church, desire to extend our hearty and sincere thanks to each and every member of the Seneca Presbyterian church, for their generous and liberal contributions to the 'Deestrick Skule' and otherwise lent their aid in making the entertainment a success." (Signed) Mrs. O. R. Hamilton, President; Mrs. W. S. Hunter, Sec'y-Treas.

A large number of visitors were in town Friday night in attendance upon the convention to meet in Charleston. Misses Eloise Sloan and Janie Gant, two of Pendleton's charming young women, spent two days last week with Mr. T. Stribling.

Prof. Clinkscales, of Pendleton, was among the visitors of note to Seneca last week. A large body from the Seneca Lodge K. of P. will go over to Easley to-night for the purpose of organizing a lodge there.

The millinery opening of Mrs. Ribbon Phillips-Cochran this week will attract the attention of the icamaine contingent of our town. Extensive preparations are in progress, and a most attractive and stylish display will be the result. Miss Dana Moore's friends will regret to learn that ill health prevented her continuing stay in the North and that she was compelled to return home.

Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones, of Greenville, visited the family of Mr. O. R. Doye last week.

Mrs. Julia M. Johnson continues critically ill. Her brother, Mr. Sam Johnson, of Kansas City, was called by telegram on last Sabbath, her condition being so serious.

Mrs. W. P. Reid is confined to her bed. Mrs. Reid's naturally delicate constitution succumbed to the attack upon her during the past few weeks on account of the distressing illness of her sister, Mrs. Johnson, and she has been in bed some days.

Miss Addie Tatham, of Greenwood, arrived last Saturday and is nursing Mrs. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Barber Shanklin and children, of Anderson, are visiting relatives near here.

Mr. Thomas Harper, who has been seriously ill for some weeks at his home here, is not improving.

Parker Pardoned. A pardon has been granted W. R. Parker, convicted of forgery in Anderson county and sentenced to two years. A pardon was refused Parker some time ago, but lately Parker discovered a conspiracy between three negro prisoners in which it was planned to kill jailer Dillingham and escape. Parker overheard the plot and promptly informed the authorities, thereby saving Mr. Dillingham's life. As a result he was pardoned.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble. Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased. Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon to find a man or woman afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Serravallo's Kidney Pills is realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free. A pamphlet telling a case of Serravallo's Kidney Pills, including many thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

THE NEWS FROM SENECA.

Seneca, April 8.—The presentation of the "Deestrick Skule" at the Lowry-Bryd Hall last Friday evening is conceded to be the biggest affair in the way of entertainments ever given in Seneca. The large crowd showed its appreciation of the fact by repeated and vociferous applause.

The farmers are generally behind with their work. Some few are planting corn; not many. Mr. Mary E. Holden is visiting her son, William Holden, and family, of Newry.

Mr. F. L. Alexander has opened up a stock of goods in Salem and invites the public to trade with him. Salem is now coming—just watch her grow.

Mr. E. B. Hagarty has moved his family into this section. Miss Florence Whitmore has gone to the Walhalla Cotton Mills.

Mr. J. S. Holden has been visiting at Fort Hill recently. Mr. W. H. Talley lost a good work horse last week.

Mr. R. T. Whitmore, who has been down sick for some time, has a severe attack of grip and is suffering intensely at this time. We hope to see him out in the near future.

Our school has closed. Miss Hattie Duffie made many friends while she taught at Salem, who regret her departure very much.

Mr. B. S. Childers, of this place, met with a serious accident while out hunting recently. He shot a rabbit, and while reloading his gun it was discharged, the full load striking him in the right foot. One ounce of No. 7 shot struck him, tearing a hole about one inch in size in the top part of his foot, coming out with a rugged gash about three inches long on the bottom part.

Mr. Childers was doing very well at the last report. We hope for his speedy recovery.

Mrs. N. A. Alexander, who has been seriously ill with fever, is some better at this time. We hope to see her up again soon.

Mr. Singleton Beatty was thrown from a horse and killed some time in March near his home, in the upper part of Oconee. The unfortunate man was Better than Pills.

The question has been asked, "In what way are Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets superior to pills?" Our answer is: They are easier and more pleasant to take, more mild and gentle in effect and more reliable, as they can always be depended upon. They cleanse and invigorate the stomach and leave the bowels in a natural condition; while pills are more harsh in effect and their use is often followed by constipation. For sale by J. W. Bell.

Ernest A. Habernicht, 62 years old, a contractor, fell from a scaffold on Trinity church, Charleston, shortly after four o'clock Saturday afternoon and was instantly killed. He landed on his head and left shoulder, and his skull was horribly crushed.

"A neighbor ran in with a bottle of Chamberlain's Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy when my son was suffering with severe cramps and was given up as beyond hope by my regular physician, who stands high in his profession. After administering three doses of it, my son regained consciousness and recovered entirely within twenty-four hours," says Mrs. Mary Haller, of Mt. Crawford, Va. This remedy is for sale by Dr. J. W. Bell, Walhalla.
