Death of Mrs. John B. Morton.

Mrs. Mary Ann Morton, wife of Dr John B. Morton, died on Tuesday morn ing last at her home, near Toll Gate this county, from the effects of a stroke of paralysis. On Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock she was stricken with paralysis, and from that time was entirely unconscious until relieved from her suffering by the hand of death. Mrs. Morton was about 80 years of age and was a native of Oconee county. She leaves a husband and a family of seven children to mourn her death. She was not a member of any church, but was a humble Christian woman, and her life was well spent. She had recently expressed herself as that only a few short days were to be allotted to her on earth. The family have the sympathy of many friends in the hour of their bereavement. The funeral services will be conducted this at Cherry Hill Baptist church at 4 o'clock.

Georgia Official Arrested. Tuesday morning Mr. Jas. D. Massey Secretary of the Railroad Commission of Georgia, drove to Walhalla to take the train for Charleston, but was left by reason of a change of ten minutes in the schedule time of leaving. It was thought that he could drive to West Union and catch the train at that point, and Mr. Massey accordingly began to "speed" his horse with this object in view. He arrived at the West Union depot just in time to see the train pull out. On his way back to Walballa he was arrested by the marshal of West Huston or the charge the marshal of West Union on the charge of reckless driving and taken before Inof reckless driving and taken before Intendant J. C. Shockley, who, on hearing Mr. Massey's reasons for driving so rapidly, dismissed the case and said he would have done the same thing under similar circumstances. The whole trouble is the result of the failure on the part of the management of the Blue Ridge Railway to furnish promptly cor-rections for their schedules to the papers. This is only one of many instances going to show that railway schedules in the newspapers are consulted and should be carefully attended to by the officials of

In a recent article a prominent physician says, "It is next to impossible for the physician to get his patients to carry out flay prescribed course of hygiene or diet to the smallest extent; he has but one resort left, namely, the drug treatment." When medicines are used for chronic constipation, the most mild and gentle obtainable, such as Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, should be employed. Their use is not followed by constipation, as they leave the bowels in a natural and healthy condition. For sale by Dr. J. W. Bell, Walhalla. Won't Follow Advice After Paying for it.
