Mahaffey is visiting relatives and friends at Hopewell, Anderson Miss Grace Thompson, who has been teaching school at Fountain Inn, Green-ville county, is at home.

There is unusual regret felt here over the change of residence of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Doyle. Mr. Doyle has accepted the depot agency at Calhoun, and will remove with his family there the first of Mr. — Crawford, who has held the position of telegraph operator at Central for several years, is now located in Seneca, and has the position of day operator here.

Other improvements will be made on the square soon—new wells, with fresh paint, shade trees, etc., while the park will receive a share of attention.
The alarm of fire was given last Friday night, and the home of Mr. J. J. McCarley was discovered to be on fire. The house and contents were destroyed before help could reach the scene, only a fore help could reach the scene, only a small portion of the furniture being saved. The sympathies of the whole community are felt for Mr. McCarley in his misfortune. The house was insured. Messrs. Claude Myors and Charlie Gaines are being congratulated upon the advent of little strangers at their homes.

C. Welborn, of this city, yesterday his father, Col. W. E. Welborn, which occurred about three o'clock Thursday morning at the home of his daughter, hirs. W. W. McWhorter, about two miles east of Pickens Court House. The deceased was a native of Ander son county and was reared near Pelzer. On December 28th, 1857, he moved to Pickens and lived there until November, 1881, when he moved to his late home in Oconee county on Tugaloo river. He was born July 8, 1817, and therefore lacked two months of being 85 years old. lacked two months of being 85 years old.

Mr. Welborn was opposed to secession and advocated his belief before the breaking out of the war. He was opposed to fighting the North with arms, but favored remaining in the Union and fighting the North on industrial grounds by building up her manufactories and natural resources. However, when secession went into effect and the war began Mr. Welborn was one of the first to volunteer his services as a soldier. He Mr. Welborn was one of the first to vol-unteer his services as a soldier. He served in the Confederate army for four years, during which time he held the positions of adjutant, colonel and major respectively. He also took an active part in the militia before and after the war and was well posted on military tactics. After reviewing Col. Welborn' Miss Nan Earle, of Greenville, is visiting Mrs. Wm. A. Lowery. Miss Earle's friends here are always charmed to see her.

There was no service in the Baptist church last Sabbath on account of the absence of the pastor, who was attending the Southern Baptist Convention at Asheville.

Mr. J. W. Stribling represented the Seneca church at the convention at Asheville.

Mrs. O. R. Doyle and Miss May Cherry left last Thursday for the exposition, and will also visit friends in Columbia before returning home.
