Election Returns.

We would be pleased if the managers or some person at each precinct in the county would go to the nearest telephone station and send to Walhalla or Seneca he result of the election on the 26th. If they desire to learn the result they can remain at the telephone station and will be given the result of the different boxes as fast as they come in. Pre-cincts not having telephone facilities are urged to get in the results at their boxes as early on the morning of the 27th as possible. Everybody will be auxious.

Instructions to Managers.

The managers of the primary election are requested to prepare two separate boxes at each precinct. In one of these boxes the voters must place their votes for Congressman and county officers and in the other their votes for United States Senator and State officers. When the election closes the managers will make two tally sheets. On one tabulate the vote for Congressman and county officers and on the other United States Senator and State officers. J. W. most unusual and artistic, however, is that furnished by the Cincinnati Type Founders Company—a large type or cut, which appears at the head of this notice, so arranged as to be serviceable for printing purposes or as a watch chain pendant. The dates 1852-1902 represent the years in which Cincinnati has entertained the Typographical delegates. The convention in 1852 framed and adopted the constitution of the international body. This and other souvenirs and numerous artistic cards presented by in-dividual members from local unions are highly prized by Mr. G. A. Steck, who returned to Walhalla Tuesday morning. To him one of the most pleasant features of, the social side of the convention was the meeting with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. B. Thompson at their hospitable home. Both Mr. and Mrs. Thompson took a leading part in the arrangements for entertaining the delegates and visitors. Seneca, August 19.—It is said that "great minds run in the same channel," and considering this fact we are not surprised, since our article a few weeks ago touching upon the decline of the "gentleman of the old school" in the South, to see a general revival of the subject. In the North even, we see accounts of "Aphonse and Gaston" clubs, the object of which, as tl. 3 subject indicates, is to encourage a polite and gentlemanly bearing toward everybody. The Atlanta Journal contained an excellent article on the subject a few days since.

Look Pleasant, Please.

Photographer C. C. Harlan, of Eaton, O., can do so now, though for years he couldn't because he suffered utold agony from the worst form of indigestion. All physicians and medicines failed to help him till he tried Electric Bitters, which worked such wonders for him that he declares they are a godsend to sufferers from dyspepsia and stomach troubles. Unrivaled for diseases of the stomach, liver and kidneys, they build up and give new life to the whole system. Try them. Only 50c. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Dots from Tamassee

Tamassee, August 19.—Good rain last week and fodder not burning up like it was. Fodder pulling will soon be here, and cane will be ripe at an early date, so farmers will be busy for a while.

Mr. Wm. Sloan and wife, of Newry, are on a visit to his mother.

Our school is flourishing. About fifty have been enrolled, and more to come.

We attended the Sunday school picnic on the 16th instant. It was a day long to be remembered. A large crowd was present and all had a nice time. Miss Nan Sloan played the organ and there was good singing. Opened with music, then prayer by Rev. Mr. Query. Address of welcome by Mr. J. D. Cowan. The school read the 5th chapter of St.

Matthew; address by E. E. Cowan; the Lord's Prayer in prose; recitation by a him again.

Mr. Burt Mitchell, son of Mr. C. E. O.
Mitchell, is now with Stewart & Cannon.
Mr. J. S. Hailey, of Georgia, is with
