Local and Personal.

—Call on T. E. Alexander when you want a buggy cheap for cash or on time.
 —W. A. Bowen and son, General, spent a few hours in Walhalla yesterday attending to business.
 —Mr. S. G. Smith, of Seneca, spent last Friday and Saturday in Walhalla, visiting the family of Mr. C. E. Gallardo.
 —Mr. and Mrs. Walter Barton, of Anderson, have been visiting Rev. J. G. Schald and family.
 —Miss Rotta Sitton, of Pendleton, is visiting her esteemed friend, Miss Emma Morrill, of Midway.
 —Dr. W. Frank Ashmore, of Newry, was in Walhalla yesterday for a short while on business.
 —Capt. W. G. Smith and wife, of Anderson, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. N. L. Fant, and family, in Midway.
 —We want every egg, chicken, hen, rooster, duck, guinea, turkey, goose this side the Mississippi river.
 —John F. Craig.
 —Rev. Masia Cobb will conduct services at Neville's school house next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Public cordially invited.
 —Miss Emma Wicklife, of West Union, returned home last Friday, after an absence of two months, visiting her brother and family in Savannah, Ga.
 —Mr. F. S. Holloman, of Seneca, spent Sunday in Walhalla visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Holloman, and among his friends.
 —Rev. J. M. Sanders will preach the funeral of Mrs. Emma McClelland at New Hope Baptist church on the fourth Sunday in April at 11 o'clock a. m.
 —First-class pastorage to rent.—See J. H. Hunicutt, Walhalla, S. C., or W. O. Hamilton, Seneca, S. C.
 —The motion pictures should be well broken and harrowed. Plant April 15th to 20th and again May 10th to 20th. A June planting often makes a fine late crop.
 —Capt. W. G. Smith, since coming to Walhalla, has been quite sick. Dr. J. H. Crawford has been giving him the necessary medical attention and he is now improving.
 —Miss Annie Vernon's expression pupils will give an informal recital at the Court House Friday afternoon at four o'clock. Those who are interested are cordially invited to be present.
 —Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Bulwinkle, of Jefferson, Wis., arrived in Walhalla last Thursday afternoon, and will spend several weeks with the family of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Fretwell.
 —Remember, beginning with this evening, all the stores in Walhalla will close at 8:30 sharp. This rule will apply until September 15th—every day except Saturdays and pay-days at the cotton mill.
 —Col. Joseph N. Brown, one of Anderson county's distinguished sows, was in Walhalla on last Monday on professional business. The Courier office was honored by a brief visit from him.
 —Madras, gingham, chambrays, piques, embroideries and lace, &c. See Craig.
 —Mr. L. L. Barr, of Greenville, was on a visit last Saturday and Sunday to Major S. P. Denny and family. He also came to meet his wife and children, who are at her parents. Mr. Barr is always a welcome visitor to our city.
 —Married, at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. J. I. Spinks, West Union, S. C., April 8th, 1903, Mr. George W. Watson, of Newry, S. C., and Miss Nancy Morgan, of Walhalla, S. C. May peace and plenty go with them.
 —For Sale—My dwelling house and lot in Walhalla, S. C., on corner of Tugalo and South Broad streets, convenient to depot. Also my old office and lot, fronting on Court House square. I mean business. Terms liberal.
 —H. A. H. Gibson.
 —It certainly did rain Sunday night and Monday morning, accompanied by vivid lightning and continuous thunder. In consequence of the down pour of rain creeks and rivers have become much swollen and several bridges are reported washed away or badly damaged.

The Burial of Col. D. A. Ledbetter.
 Mountain Rest Notes.
 Mountain Rest, April 12.—Easter morn dawned very fair, bringing with it joyous recollections of that Easter morn long ago.
 The farmers of this section are very busy, some planting and some getting ready to plant corn. Owing to so much bad weather they are getting behind with their work.
 Mr. John Freeman is now running a saw mill by water power on his place near Mountain Rest.
 Rev. J. M. Sanders filled his usual appointment at home Sunday.
 The Sunday school at this place will be organized on the third Sunday.
 Messrs. Fred and Ernest Fretwell and Clint Phillips left on March 29th for Kansas.
 Owing to the recent cold spell the farmers predict a light fruit crop.

A Thoughtful Man.
 M. M. Austin, of Winchester, Ind., knows what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr. King's New Life Pills and she was cured. Her health was finally cured. Only 25c. at all drug stores.
 Adlai E. Stevenson, ex-president of the United States, is trying to extinguish a fire in his house at Bloomington, Ill., had his moustache and hair burned off and his face badly burned.
