WALHALLA, S. C. WEDNESDAY, JULY 12, 1903.

THE COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS.

Disposition of Cases During Last Week's Session—Grand Jury Presentment.

The work of the Court of General Sessions for Oconee occupied all of last week, though comparatively few cases were tried.

The State vs. H. C. South, assault and battery with intent to kill. Guilty of assault and battery of a high and aggravated nature.

The State vs. W. B. Browning, disposing of property under lien. Not guilty.

The State vs. Jas. T. Singleton, violating dispensary law. This was an indictment on four counts.

The State vs. John Priestly, murder. Guilty of manslaughter. Sentenced to imprisonment in the State penitentiary at hard labor for a term of fifteen years.

The State vs. Joe Rothel and Thomas Crumpton, burglary. Guilty as to Joe Rothel, with recommendation to mercy.

The State vs. Miller Davis, disorderly conduct in Court House. Sentenced to pay a fine of $5 or be imprisoned in the county jail 24 hours.

The following cases were called and transferred to the contingent docket: The State vs. Thos. Bright, violating dispensary law.

The State vs. Henry Smith, disposing of property under lien.

The State vs. Leo Scott, assault and battery with intent to kill and carrying concealed weapons.

The State vs. Wm. Watkins, breach of trust and larceny.

The State vs. F. F. W. Meldau, breach of trust. A compromise was entered into in this case and a settlement agreed upon out of court.

The State vs. Thos. Bennett, carrying concealed weapons.

In the following cases the indictments were acted upon by the grand jury, who reported "no bill": The State vs. J. R. Kay, misconduct in office.

The State vs. Tom Scott, resisting an officer.

Grand Jury Presentment.

State of South Carolina, County of Oconee.—To His Honor, James Aldrich, Judge presiding at the July term of court: We, the Grand Jury, respectfully ask to submit the following:

We have passed on all bills given us by the Solicitor.

We have visited by committee the Poor Farm. We find there fifteen (15) inmates, thirteen (13) white and two (2) colored.

We find that they are well cared for and contented. We find no complaint of neglect or abuse.

We think one of these inmates, namely, Bell Keith, colored, a fit subject for the asylum, and recommend that this be looked after at once.

We find that the Poor Farm has been very well managed, and the crop thereon as good as could be expected under the circumstances.

We find that John Hudson, Money Hudson and Jack Sentell, being charged with murder, are out on bond, and one of their bondsmen being dead, we do not think the bond sufficient.

We present J. P. Ellis for practicing medicine without license, and give as witnesses to prove the same, J. E. Mason, J. T. Connally, J. J. Stoddard and Simon Gaines.

Thanking Your Honor and the Solicitor for kindness shown us, we ask that we now be discharged from further attendance at this term of Court.

Y. C. Langston, Foreman. July 9, 1903.

Very Remarkable Cure of Diarrhoea.

NEWS IN AND AROUND WESTMINSTER.

Westminster, July 10.—Miss Lorine Dickerson, a pretty young lady of Hartwell, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dickerson and Miss Rosa McConnell last week.

Mrs. Rebecca Sewell, of Lavonia, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. S. Haley. Anthony B. Stewart and T. P. Moore made a brief visit to Franklin county, Ga., this week.

Jesse F. Mitchell, of Belton, is spending a couple of weeks with his brothers, C. E. O. and Dr. Burt Mitchell. He is accompanied by his daughter, Miss Cordelia Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe McJunkin and son went to Atlanta Saturday to attend the marriage of Miss Lottie New and Geo. O'Neal, which occurred yesterday.

George P. Slipp and family moved on Monday to Bessemer City, N. C. Mr. Slipp will fill the position of superintendent in the Bessemer City Cotton Mills.

Editor A. H. Mecklin, of the Toccoa Record, was in town Monday. We were pleased to form his acquaintance.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Turner left last Monday for Salisbury, Ga., to spend a while with the family of J. C. Miller.

W. H. Mason, lawyer and banker, was in Westminster last week. Walter has many warm friends here, who are always glad to see him.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Loggins, of Houston, Ga., returned home Monday, after spending a few days with the family of W. S. Haley.

Miss Sallie Dickson and her friend, Miss Messer, have returned from a visit to the Toccoa Record office.

Mrs. S. M. Hunsinger, of Comerco, returned yesterday from a brief visit to Atlanta.

Married, on Sunday, July 12, at 10 a. m., Ephraim F. Davis to Miss Ella G. Norris, Jr., of W. T. McAllister officiating. The marriage occurred at the home of the groom.

Mrs. R. E. Mason stopped over in Westminster a few days last week as she was returning from a visit of several weeks at Atlanta, Fairburn and Lavonia. Her many friends were glad to welcome her here on a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lesley entertained at a "house party" the past week five charming young ladies from the States: Daisy Foster, of Retreat; Mayfield Stribley, of Canton, Ga.; Jennie Rae Auld, of Elberton, Ga.; Mabel Rowan and Virginia Mitchell, of Martin, Ga.

They gave in honor of these fair visitors a lawn party last Thursday evening and invited to the affair the members of the fair, girls and handsome boys.

Games, music and recitations were indulged in, after which there was a "nut concert." Miss Margie Stribley and Hazel Carter won the prize, a gold stick pin.

Miss Auld favored us with some of her classic music. She also played the piano. The delightful refreshments, ices, cake and fruits were served and all expressed themselves as having spent a pleasant evening.

Dr. J. R. Wilkinson, the returned missionary, gave an interesting talk to the ladies of the Presbyterian church. What a grand and noble work he is doing! Truly he is the upbuilding of Christ's kingdom on earth.

Miss Odie Parker, of Atlanta, made a trip down to Florida last week on an excursion. She visited the ancient city of St. Augustine, the warm springs, Jacksonville and other places of interest. She enjoyed the trip greatly.

Misses Ella McWhorter and Jessa Foster, of Bessemer, visited here on Tuesday at the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon.

W. M. Irvin, Jr., of Elberton, came over Friday. Mrs. Irvin returned home with him, after a visit of several weeks to relatives in Oconee.

Miss Hattie Stewart, a pretty and accomplished young lady of Greenville, visited her sister, Miss Nannie Stewart, in Westminster last week.

Mrs. M. McCallanah visited Mrs. Will Lesley last week.

Mrs. G. W. Leathers is at the bedside of her husband, Fred Auld, of Bessemer, who is very ill.

Rev. R. L. Walkup, of Waxhara, N. C., was in town last week soliciting subscriptions for the Presbyterian church at Waxhara.

Photographer John M. Findley has returned to Westminster, after a stay of six weeks at the seaside at Surfside, at Gainesville, his former home. Mr. Findley brought with him a considerable number of views of the storm-stricken city, which he will be glad to show his friends.

The returned missionary, Dr. J. R. Wilkinson, visited here on Friday, and gave a lecture at the Methodist church last Friday evening, which was very interesting.

Rev. J. C. Shive from Saturday till Monday, is a native of Marion and was partly educated in Wallhalla. He labored as a missionary in China and was in Elizabeth Blake Hospital at Sou Choo, China, for eight years.

Missessie Dolbins among the visitors to our town community. She has been staying with an aunt in Greenville and attending the graded schools of that city.

More than one hundred people heard the lectures of Misses Adams and Able, in the Methodist church last Friday afternoon, which were very interesting.

The sentiment of every one in saying the church was greatly benefited and strengthened in their duties to the audience and their country by hearing the addresses of these young ladies on the important subject of temperance. For our source these sweet-spirited young ladies received rapt attention as they spoke of temperance in all its purity and sobriety. They are enthusiastic workers and are in love with the work to which they have been providentially called.

They are State organizers of the W. C. T. U., and on Saturday morning, after a brief explanatory remarks, they organized a Union here. The meeting was held in the Baptist church, and was conducted by Miss Adams. The following officers were elected: Mrs. C. E. Anderson, president; Mrs. J. P. McDonald, vice-president; Mrs. Mary Bibb, secretary; Miss Cora Duffie, treasurer. The meetings will be held on Friday after each second and fourth Sabbath at the above hour. It is hoped that as many ladies as possible will come to the exercises the invited speaker, Dr. J. R. Wilkinson, delivered a very interesting address gathered by his stay in the foreign field. Much of his remarks were illustrated and explained on maps, which he procured in China. The collection, including the children's mite box contributions, amounted to $14.77. Sunday night Dr. Wilkinson lectured again, giving an account of his work in the Elizabeth, N. C. The first meeting will come off at the home of the president, Mrs. Anderson on next Friday afternoon at the above hour. It is hoped that as many ladies as possible will come to the exercises the invited speaker, Dr. J. R. Wilkinson, delivered a very interesting address gathered by his stay in the foreign field.

THE NEWS FROM SENECA.

Seneca, July 14.—The heart of the house-keeper is made glad, now that reasonable rains have visited the garden and everything that heart could wish in the way of fruit and vegetables is placed at her disposal.

Obs. Linseed has had the finest peaches and figs we have seen this season. The board of trustees of the Seneca Graded Schools met and elected the following teachers for the next year: Principal, Prof. H. P. Boggs; assistants, Mary Taylor, Thompson and Sallie Mcintosh, of Mayesville, S. C.

W. L. Verrier spent a few hours in Seneca yesterday. H. P. Boggs, Mrs. H. J. Gignilliat and Miss Lola Gignilliat visited Walhalla last Saturday and heard the address before the summer school by Dr. J. W. Bell, Walhalla; W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

The Postal Telegraph Co. has established an office here, which is in charge of Frank Hopkins, of Pendora, Pa. The office is located in the Doyle building, in the room with the local telephone.

Misses Sadie Jones and Marguerite Ramey, who are to their homes at Fort Madison yesterday after a visit to relatives here.

Mrs. E. E. Mason, of Charlotte, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Lunney. W. E. Touchstone, superintendent of the Seneca Cotton Mills, is stopping permanently at the Keowee Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stribley, of Roswell, Ga., is at Red Hill, Ga., with her sister, Hill. They are to their homes at Fort Madison yesterday after a visit to relatives here.

Mrs. W. R. Davis and children and Miss May Cherry are visiting relatives in Seneca.

Miss Doris Dumas will arrive in Seneca the first of August and will make her home permanently with her sister, Mrs. Bessie Anderson. This will be pleasant news to her friends here.

A party of young people of Seneca will picnic at the Keowee Hotel on Saturday evening, but if the signs be true, Seneca is on the eve of a big business boom. With plenty of hotels and rooming houses and new store rooms in progress, and the prospect of a mill, business signs are most encouraging.

E. E. Richardson, a rising young attorney of Greenville, spent several days last week with his father's family here. He is a very bright and promising young man and is expected to be a member of the bar for some time.

It is rumored that Seneca is to have another cotton mill, the rumor at least having the merit of being founded seriously. It is said that a party of young people of Seneca are organizing a company to build a cotton mill. It is said that the company has already secured the site and is making arrangements to build the mill. It is said that the mill will be built on the site of the old cotton gin, and will be a very large and modern mill.

Madame W. C. Floyd and — Wright, popularly known here as Misses Mattie and Sadie Huffman, will arrive in Seneca this afternoon. They are expected to stop over for a week or ten days on their way to the mountains.

We suppose the dear pastors here consider the summer a necessary adjournment of their ministrations. They are expected to be absent for some time. It is said that the pastors are planning to spend the summer months at the mountains.

The friends of Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Hinton sympathize of a large number of friends. The loss of their baby daughter, Ellen Sloan, on last Thursday, July 9, at 8:30 o'clock a. m., was a great loss to the family.

Carried Away by Largo Fish. Penacola, Fla., July 11.—Last Wednesday night while a number of boys were gathered on Perido wharf fishing for shark, one of them, Carl Johnson, tied his line about his waist and threw the hook in the water. In a few moments a big fish took the bait and finding itself caught, lunged for the bottom, dragging the little fellow from the wharf. He disappeared beneath the surface and was never seen again.

A terrible case of a person being placed in a coffin alive occurred at Alfona, Germany, last Thursday. In a coffin, containing the supposed remains of a 14-year-old girl, being delivered at the cemetery, the attendants heard cries emanating from the coffin. The lid was removed and the girl was found to be still alive. She died, two hours later.

DEATH OF WEBB CAMPBELL. On last Saturday, July 11th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Campbell, their only son, a "big" boy of 18 years, after a painful illness from fever. The sympathy of the writer, with that of Sam Smith, building bridge on the stricken family in the dark hour of distress. The affliction is doubly sad inasmuch as the young man had finished a course of study at the University of Alabama, and was about to enter a business college at Macon, Georgia, when he was called to return home.

William Bede and Mrs. Ruby Samples, of Kokah were tarred and feathered by a mob of thirty indignant citizens of that town last week and escorted to the city limits and threatened with death if they again appeared in Kokah. The man and woman had been warned to quit the town, but refused. They were taken from the home of the woman last night by the mob which broke down the doors to get them. They were stripped before a hundred people and tarred and feathered and forced to run the gauntlet through jeering lines of farmers to the outskirts.
