CLOTHING CLOTHING

WE HAVE A BIG STOCK OF MEN'S, YOUTHS' and BOY'S CLOTHING. We are now making a specialty of Clothing, and we have a line we are going to make a fuss with. You will hear from it all around. Come and let us show you through. IT PAYS TO BUY FOR CASH.

We bought some short lots while in New York, and we can sell you Good Suits for less than the wholesale cost on them—NICE, NEW, NOBBY SUITS—only they had but a dozen or two of them, and we closed out the lot. We have all sizes and styles—and the prices are lower than you ever saw. We bought this lot of Pants so we can sell them at less than the other fellow paid for them, and yet make money on them. Come around to see us and we will show you that IT PAYS TO BUY FOR CASH. That is how we got them so cheap—buying WOOL GOODS IN SUMMER AND PAYING CASH FOR THEM.

C. W. & J. E. BAUKNIGHT, MERCHANTS.

Establishing a Colony of Negroes. We'll Live and Die in Dixie. Selling Peach Seeds. Former Congressman White, colored, of North Carolina, is settling a colony of negroes on a tract of 3,500 acres of land in the lower end of Cape May county, New Jersey. A dispatch to the Baltimore Sun says that already many negro families from Virginia and North Carolina have settled there, and that "several canning factories will be built and thousands of dollars will be spent in making the new colony a success." We wish it all possible success, and the establishment of just as many more colonies in New Jersey and other Northern States as there is vacant land available for such a purpose. If these colonies should be as successful as their projectors expect, and, if living by themselves and controlling their own affairs, as they will do when thus segregated from white communities, they shall develop any special aptitude at government, the training and experience which they will thus obtain may be turned to good account in the establishment of other and larger colonies in other and distant lands, where they could develop their own civilization in the largest manner.—News and Courier.

A Dozen Times a Night. Owen Dunn, of Benton Ferry, W. Va., writes: "I have had kidney and bladder trouble for years, and it became so bad that I was obliged to get up at least a dozen times a night. I never received any permanent benefit from any medicine until I tried Foley's Kidney Cure. After using two bottles, I am cured." For sale by J. W. Bell, Walhalla.

Wilson S. Bissell, former Postmaster General, died at his home in Buffalo, N. Y., on October 6th. He had been sick for some time. The end came easily and peacefully, surrounded by the members of his family.

Jeff Davis's Youth. Contrary to the belief still somewhat prevalent, Jefferson Davis was not descended from a line of aristocratic progenitors, but sprang from the ranks of that great middle class which has produced most of the great men of the world. About the year 1716 three brothers came to this country from Wales, and located in Philadelphia. The younger, Evan Davis, eventually went to the colony of Georgia and there married a widow by the name of Williams. The only child of that union, Samuel Davis, enlisted at the age of seventeen as a private soldier in the War of the Revolution. Later he organized a company of mounted men and at its head participated in most of the battles of the campaign that forced Lord Cornwallis out of the Carolinas. At the close of the war he married Jane Cook, a girl of Scotch-Irish descent, of humble station, but noted for strength of character and great personal beauty, and they settled on a farm near Augusta, Ga. In 1804 Samuel Davis removed with his family to southwestern Kentucky to engage in stock raising and tobacco planting, and there, in a modest farm house, which was then in Christian county and not many miles from the cabin where a few months later Abraham Lincoln opened his eyes upon the light of the world, Jefferson Davis was born, June 3, 1808. The spot is now in Todd county, and upon it stands the Baptist church at Fairview. While he was still an infant, the hope of there better providing for a numerous family caused his father to seek a new home on Bayou Teche in Louisiana. The country, however, proved unhealthy, and he remained there but a few months. He finally bought a farm near Woodville, in Wilkinson county, Miss., where he spent the remainder of his long life, poor, but respected and esteemed as a man of fine sense and sterling character.

Jefferson Davis's first tuition was at a log school-house, near his home, but the educational advantages of that time and place was so meager that when seven years old he was sent to a Catholic institution known as St. Thomas' College, and there, under the guidance of that truly good man and priest, Father Wallace, afterward Bishop of Nashville, his education really began. After some years in this school he entered Transylvania University, at Lexington, Ky., then the principal collegiate institution west of the Alleghenies and famous many years thereafter as the alma mater of a distinguished array of soldiers and statesmen. In November, 1823, when in his senior year at Transylvania, through the efforts of his brother, Joseph Davis, he was appointed by President Monroe cadet at West Point. The following year he entered that institution and after pursuing the customary course of four years, was graduated in July, 1828, with a very low class standing.—The Pilgrim.

Col. Evan P. Howell, mayor of Atlanta, tells a story of one "Uncle Billy," the anteroat and knowall of the country settlement in which he lived. Uncle Billy had to live up to the reputation of never having been stumped by a question. One day at the country store, where Uncle Billy and his clan were wont to gather, the question was sprung as to the meaning of "electrolytary," the word being encountered in a newspaper one of the men was reading. Uncle Billy was finally appealed to. The old man took the paper, scrutinized the word, reflected a full minute and then said, with his usual sententiousness: "Wall, boys, I can't say adzackly what this word means, but it's some part of the innards of a hog."

Spokane, October 6.—The LaPorte (Ind.) Daily Herald gives the announcement as coming from the sons of Mrs. Jane E. Boyesen, deceased, whose name figured prominently with the recent White Stone Springs jewelry robbery, and whose trunks were searched in Spartanburg and none of the missing jewelry found, that all proceedings relative to the sad affair will be dropped. The sons of the deceased have no desire, according to the LaPorte Herald, to incur the notoriety that the pushing of the suit against Mr. Harris and Dr. Morgan would occasion. So the $50,000 litigation for damages is dropped.

Proprietor J. T. Harris, of the White Stone Springs Hotel, who was in the city to-day, authorized the statement that none of the missing jewelry had been recovered.

Concessors, October 7.—Our Sunday school is still good and in a flourishing condition. It meets at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. We are sorry to note that Rev. J. M. Sanders, of Poplar, is still on the sick list. We hope for his speedy recovery. Rev. M. G. Holland will preach at Concessors church next Sunday evening at four o'clock.

Spent More Than $1,000. W. W. Baker, of Plainview, Neb., writes: "My wife suffered from lung trouble for fifteen years. She tried a number of doctors and spent over $1,000 without relief. She became very low and lost all hope. A friend recommended Foley's Honey and Tar and thanks to this great remedy, it saved her life. She enjoys better health than she has known in ten years." Refuse substitutes. For sale by J. W. Bell, Walhalla.

The Beautiful Jocassee Valley. The junior editor spent some days during the latter part of August in the beautiful valley of Jocassee, the guest of Mr. W. M. Brown. For the worn and tired in body and brain there is not a more delightful retreat in Upper South Carolina. A number of charming fellow-guests added much to the pleasure of the outing, among whom were Mrs. R. S. Hill and Misses Eunice, Lois and Mattie Hill of Anderson, Dr. Emerson and family of Atlanta, Col. J. S. Newman and wife of Clemson, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Baker of Anderson, Rev. C. D. Mann, wife and daughter of Graniteville, Prof. James L. Mann of Florence, and Dr. Junius Mann of Branchville.—Rev. M. B. Kelly in 'The Missioner' for September.

Emporia, Kansas, October 8.—Three persons killed outright, two fatally injured and fourteen others more or less seriously hurt, with enormous property loss, is the net result of tornadoes that prevailed near Hamilton, Greenwood county, and near Aliceville, Coffey county, Kansas, last night. The town of Aliceville, which has 200 inhabitants, was practically demolished. Wires were prostrated and the extent of the storm was not learned until late to-day. The list of casualties may yet be incomplete.

100 REWARD $100. The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have had so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 70c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

In Jail Eighteen Years Waiting Trial. Oakland, Cal., October 9.—George Jones, who had been in the county jail for eighteen years, awaiting trial, has just died there, aged 92 years. He had been incarcerated since January 18, 1885, for the murder of Lorenzo Sutilo. He was convicted June 5, 1885, of the murder and sentenced to be hanged on July 11. He succeeded in gaining a new trial. About the time the trial was to begin Jones was taken with a stroke of paralysis and has never been able to leave his bed. Time and again the case was set for trial, but a continuance was always granted.

Mr. Croft and Mr. Kohn. Last Friday August Kohn was placed on the witness stand, in the trial of James H. Tillman for murder at Lexington Court House. He was there in response to the mandate of the State, not of his own choice, and he was entitled to the fullest protection of the State in the discharge of the duty imposed upon him. It is true, as Judge Gary said, "considerable latitude is allowed on cross examination" of a witness for the State in a case like this, but, under the most generous construction of the rule the Court was finally compelled to protest against George W. Croft's treatment of this witness. We cannot recall an instance in the history of legal proceeding in South Carolina in which there was so gross a violation of all the proprieties. We are the more surprised because Mr. Croft, for whom we have always entertained great respect, was the occasion of this most unpleasant incident in the trial at Lexington, and we do not believe that he will permit the court to adjourn without expressing regret for a demonstration on his part that was unnatural as it was outrageous. It is greatly to his credit that Mr. Kohn did not for one moment forget his self-respect, and that when he was reviled he reviled not again. We have known him for a good many years and have never known him to do an unworthy act. His gentleness, his courtesy, his truthfulness, are perfectly matched by his courage. Not all the "latitude" of the courts or all the denunciation of an attorney, however desperate the necessities of his case, could ever disturb the confidence of those who know August Kohn.—News and Courier, October 5th.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It. How To Find Out. Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also deranger out of order. What To Do. There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Home of Swamp-Root, Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name—Swamp-Root—Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address—Binghamton, N. Y.—on every bottle.

THE OLD RELIABLE

Absolutely Pure. THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

Ellenburg-Redmond.

Married, at the residence of the bride's mother on Crow Creek, on September 30th, 1903, Miss Laura E. Ellenburg to Robert L. Redmond, son of the far-famed Major Redmond, who once struck terror to the hearts of many of Uncle Sam's deputy marshals. He, though, unlike his father, is a quiet, unassuming, Christian boy and has the confidence and respect of all who know him. May happiness ever attend him and his lovely bride as they glide down the stream of life, the wish of their many friends. The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. F. Murphree.—Easley Progress.
