Dear Sir: Let's have a little private talk by ourselves on business; nobody else, please, read.

You want to know how to do a cheap job of painting, and have it look good. Here it is: The cheapest thing there is in the way of a good-looking job—say nothing about its being good—is Devoe: the regular thing in Devoe.

The reason is: Devoe goes further than anything else. Lead-and-oil is good-looking; don't go so far and costs more. The other paints are more or less short in one way or another; don't go so far and costs more than Devoe.

Devoe costs least of all; you don't mind it lasting longer, do you? We can't help it; a paint that goes further lasts longer; we can't help it.

Yours truly,

F. W. Devoe & Co.

John G. Wham will be tried in Laurens next week for the killing of LaFayette Ramage. It will be remembered that Wham shot and killed Ramage in the former's yard, July 9, last. The tragedy created a big sensation by reason of the circumstances leading to the homicide and on account of prominence of all parties. Wham has been at his home in the vicinity of Clinton since a few days after the killing, having been granted bail shortly after his surrender. The case was continued from the July term of court on account of the illness of Mrs. Wham, wife of the defendant, and This condition is due to the fact that the 3½ mills levy for "ordinary" purposes, which begins to apply October 16, has already been pledged to one of the banks for the payment of notes. There is not a cent in cash in the county treasury with which to pay the Tillman trial witnesses, and there is nothing coming in to provide for the expenses of the court opening here October 26. The county commissioners' office refuse to make a statement at this time, saying it will be best to wait for a full and complete statement of the county's finances from the grand jury, which will report exhaustively on the matter at the coming term of court. The commissioners do not appear perturbed over the situation, saying that some way will be found to pay witnesses and provide for the Mrs. Wham, wife of the defendant, and the only eye witness to the shooting. FOLEYSHONEYARD TAR the village will soon be a thing of the past.

In the older countries of the world it is common to hear of deserted villages and cities, but not in the South, or even in the United States. Once upon a time, and within the memory of many citizens of Augusta now living, Hamburg was a place of importance, boasted of several thousand inhabitants, did a large business and vied with Augusta for commercial supremacy. There were schools, banks, large stores, warehouses and other thriving industries. It is now a deserted village and the remaining houses are rapidly crumbling to the ground. Its day is past—it is believed forever. LUNNEY, THE DRUGGIST. SENECA, S. C.

Columbia, October 9.—Governor Heyward has pardoned J. W. Bodiford, convicted in Williamsburg county of manslaughter at the April term of court and sentenced to five years. The case is a peculiar one and deserves mention because there has probably never been one like it in the courts. Bodiford, in a shooting scrape, in which several were involved, shot and killed his own son. At the time this was thought to have been done intentionally, but the suffering of the man since his imprisonment has been intense and the solicitor on this account recommended favorable action. Besides this, the man has incurable heart disease and is liable to die at any time. In the petition presented to the Governor the names of all the county officers and the county delegation appear as well as those of many citizens.

Horse Swappers' Convention.

Arrangements are being made to hold one of the largest horse swappers' conventions in Walhalia during court week in November, ever held in Oconee. Its sessions will extend over three days—Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, November 9, 10 and 11. Remember the time and have your swapping stock on hand. A great time is expected.

The Angusta Unronicie says: The unused streets of Hamburg, S. C., will in all probability be closed and the land sold by the State. Yesterday morning Claim Agent McLauren, representing the State Land Commissioners, in company with Magistrate Getzen, went over the deserted streets of the village for the purpose of reporting relative to the closing of the streets to the commission board, which meets in Columbia on the 14th. He will render his report at once. His report will be practically to the effect that Hamburg is a deserted and forsaken village. However, he will recommend that the streets still being used as roads, or on which there are occupied houses, be not closed up. All others he will recommend for closing and selling. This means that a number of the streets about the commons and other parts of the village will soon be a thing of the past.
