Notice to Knights of Pythias.
All members of the Walhalla Lodge, No. 57, K. of P., are requested to meet at their Castle Hall next Monday evening promptly at 7.30 o'clock. Work in degrees and business of importance to be attended to.

Lecture in Baptist Church To-morrow Night.
Rev. J. D. Chapman, of Anderson, will lecture in the Walhalla Baptist church to-morrow night at 7.45 o'clock. His remarks will be mainly in the interest of the Baptist Young People's Union. The public is cordially invited. Mr. Chapman will have something to interest Christians of all denominations.

Fine Potatoes and Turnips.
W. M. Gossett, of Westminster, brought us last Monday a number of specimens of his sweet potato and turnip crops. The turnips are the largest we have seen. The dozen left with us averaging about five pounds each. The potatoes are of the new variety of "Fashioned" "Jugger choker" varieties. They are excellent in flavor, large and sound. Mr. Gossett is one of Oconee's most successful farmers and makes a specialty of growing the supplies, but a quantity of produce for the market. Thanks for our treat!

Honor Roll of Graded School.
The following is the honor roll of the Walhalla Graded Schools for the second month: Millville School—First grade, Fred Fowler.
Town School—First grade, Mary Ellen Wilson; second grade, Sue Shick, John Irone, Irene White, Annie Roberts, Lela Buech; 3d grade, Lewis Rowland; 5th grade, Corbin, John, and John. Fannie Mae Miekler; 6th grade, Law Kaufmann; 7th grade, Dora Kaufmann, Frances Stribling; 8th grade, Anna Alexander, D. E. Nicholson, Alexander.

"Dante's Inferno" To-morrow Night.
To-morrow (Thursday) night a company will present "Dante's Inferno" at Bell's Hall. The company comes highly endorsed. Combined in this production are the best of dramatic, "A Vision of Heaven," "A Vision of Hell." A good presentation of "Dante's Inferno" is one of the most awe-inspiring and soul-stirring plays before the public. It has been popular for years, is popular to-day, and will be so for years to come. See the program at Bell's Hall. Admission 20 cents; pupils 10 cents; reserved seats, 30 cents.

Death of Mrs. Mary Howe.
The news of the death of Mrs. Mary Howe, which occurred at Cashier's Valley, N. C., last Sunday morning, was the source of much sorrow in Walhalla when received here Monday morning. Mrs. Howe was a daughter of the late Rev. J. H. Moore, of Walhalla, and was about 35 years of age. She had been in the hospital for some time, and her death was a great loss to her family and to the community.

Strength and Vigor come of good food, duly digested. "FOUR," a ready-to-serve wheat and barley food, adds no fat, but sustains, nourishes, invigorates.

Union Meeting—Second Division.
Program of the Second Division Beaversdam Association to be held with the West Baptist Church on Saturday and Sunday, November 28th and 29th, 1903. Devotional exercises will begin on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock a. m., and continue through the afternoon.

Terminated with an ugly cut on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill. It developed a stubborn ulcer yielding to doctored and remedied for four years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured it. It's just as good for burns, scalds, skin eruptions and piles. 25c at all drug stores.

Special Communication, Courtenay Lodge.
There will be a special communication of Courtenay Lodge, No. 240, F. M., at Newberry, on Saturday, November 21st. Five candidates for Master's Degree. Brethren from sister lodges cordially invited to be present.

Stores Will Close on Thanksgiving.
We, the undersigned merchants of Walhalla, agree to close our stores, both front and back doors, on Thursday, November 26, 1903—Thanksgiving. Crisp, Busch, C. W. Pritchard, C. W. W. & J. E. Banknight, Seborn Bros., J. Craig, R. A. McLees, Norman Co., C. G. Jaynes, O. H. Schumacher, Carter & Co.

Big Reduction Sale.
Ruskin Anderson, of Seneca, calls attention this week to great reductions in prices on his stock of goods. He has a large stock of goods, and is offering them at a big discount. This is a good opportunity to get your goods at a low price. Call and see him.

Notice to Associates.
With the opening of the 1904 season of the Bear Swamp school, Miss Mary Stuart will be in charge of the school. She has a large stock of goods, and is offering them at a big discount. This is a good opportunity to get your goods at a low price. Call and see her.

Doesn't Respect Old Age.
It's shameful when youth fails to show proper respect for old age, but just the contrary in the case of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They cut off malady, no matter how severe and irrespective of old age. Dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation all yield to this perfect pill. 25c at all drug stores.

The Special Courts.
Special terms of court and special judges will this year visit the State about $4,000 in addition to the regular contingent fund of $2,500 appropriated for this purpose. Of the latter fund only about $300 remains and very few of the judges appointed during the past three months have been paid. There are still several counties which desire special terms.—The State, November 17.

Union Thanksgiving Service.
There will be a union Thanksgiving service at the Walhalla Baptist church on Thursday, November 26, at 11 o'clock a. m. Rev. J. H. Moore, of Westminster, will be in charge. The service will be held in the evening at 7.30 o'clock. The committee will go to work at once and will doubtless meet with success, as the members are a unit on the necessity for a new building.

Entertainment at Seneca Next Wednesday.
Prof. Henry B. Borge, principal of the Seneca High School has arranged for "The Montauk Quartette" at Seneca next Wednesday, November 25th, at 8.15 p. m. The quartette consists of highly recommended, their entertainment being rated as first-class in every respect. The proceeds of the entertainment will be used to improve the Seneca school property, and by attending those who feel an interest in school work will be able to help in that line, and at the same time avail themselves of an opportunity to witness a good entertainment. Package from the Seneca greatly desired. Admission, 25 and 50 cents.

Fort Madison, Nov. 17.—Editors Keowee Courier: A few weeks ago I read a certain portion of your paper, written by "L. J." of Tugalo, in which he said: "If Jake Cook is still in existence he is urgently requested to come down and investigate the condition of the public roads, and give a description of them to the Courier, for there is no other man in the county that can give the subject justice." You can say to my friend "L. J." that I am still in existence, but like the Dutchman was by going to heaven, I am here by a darned tight squeeze.

To the Heart of Africa.
Rev. S. Phillips Verner Starts on Expedition for the World's Fair.
(Tuscaloosa, Ala.) Times-Gazette, November 12th.

Rev. S. P. Verner, of the Stillman Institute, will leave to-day for New York to embark at the head of an expedition to Africa, and to secure an exhibit for the ethnological department of the World's Fair. Mr. Verner was a missionary to Africa for several years, and his varied experience, his knowledge of the people, their language and customs make him an admirable man for this work, and there is little doubt of his being able to return with a wonderfully interesting exhibit. It is desired that he secure a number of the race of dwarfs, of which so much has been heard, to return with him.
