Died suddenly, while attending to her nousehold duties, on last Saturday morning, February 20th, 1904, Mrs. Elizabeth Mongold, wife of W. H. Mongold, at her home, near Whetstone. She was the eldest daughter of the late Capt. Abe Robins, and was a woman of many excellent traits of character and greatly beloved and respected by her friends and neighbors. She was in the 72d year of her age, and for quite a while had been in declining health. Like her brother, D. P. Robins, she was called away suddenly, without a moment's notice. She was making up her bed and had nearly finished, when she fell over and was dead. John H. Klaren died at his home Walhalla on Sunday morning, 21st instant, at 10.30 o'clock, after an illness of only a few days. Mr. Klaren was born in Neunkirchen, Kingdom of Hanover, Germany, on November 13th, 1866. He, with his only brother, G. F. W. Klaren, now of Beaufort, S. C., came to America in 1884, landing in New York, where they staved several months, afterwards coming to Charleston. In 1885 Mr. Klaren came to Walhalla and began clerking in the store of O. H. Schumacher, then went to Port Royal, S. C., where he was in business for several years. About two years ago he returned to Walhalla, or the past eighteen months had been an efficient salesman in the store of C. W. & J. E. Bauknight. John Klaren (or John Germany, as he was familiarly known,) had a turn to make friends wherever he went, and his death will be learned with sorrow by many people throughout Oconee county. He always had a kind word and treated every one politely, and was liked by all. In his early youth he united with the Lutheran church and was ever faithful in attendance upon the services thereof. On November 27th, 1895, Mr. Klaren and Miss Bertha Busch, daughter of the late Jacob Busch, were happily married. To this union four children were born, like ours. We mean by that, that it is who, with his wife, survive him. He is also survived by his aged mother and one sister, who live in Germany, and G.

Walter Barton Seriously Hurt.

Fireman Walter Barton, who has been running as fireman on the fast mail, No. 97, on the Southern Railway, was seriously and probably fatally hurt near Central last Thursday night. The engineer noticed that Mr. Barton was lying me more good than all the medicines I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says that Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, on his seat and not doing his work. He Try through the darkness and was struck on the side of the head by an iron mail crane, used to swing mail sacks into the train as it is moving. He was taken on to Atlanta that night, and is now in the Grady Hospital.

Word received from Atlanta this morn getting along nicely, and an early recov ery is expected.

Richard M. Dawson, an Escaped Convict. On Tuesday afternoon W. A. Garner, Clerk Indiana State Prison, of Michigan City, Indiana, arrived in Walhalla, armed with requisition papers for Richard M. Dawson, the expert forger who gave G. W. Gignilliat and the Seneca Bank an evidence of his slight-of-hand performance last December. performance last December. It appears that his true name is Robert M. Dicker-son. His home is at Angolia, Indiana. He was convicted there about three years He was convicted there about three years ago of forgery and sentenced to fourteen years at hard labor in the pentitentiary. He escaped last November and his whereabouts was recently discovered through correspondence of his attorney with a party living at Angolia, Indiana. Gov. Heyward has honored the requisition papers and Mr. Garnar is making tion papers, and Mr. Garner is making arrangements for the release of his man from jail, so he can extend his kind offices in accompanying him back to his former home and occupation inside the prison walls.

Perfect Confidence. Where there used to be a feeling of uneasiness and worry in the household when a child showed symptoms of croup, there is now perfect confidence. This is owing to the uniform success of Chamberain's Cough Remedy in the treatment of that disease. Mrs. M. I. Basford, of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of her experience in the use of that remedy, says: "I have a world of confidence in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, for I have used it with perfect success. My child Garland is subject to severe attacks of croup and it always gives him prompt relief." For sale by J. W. Bell, Walhalla, W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to thank the many friends or the kindness and sympathy shown us during the sad death of our beloved son and brother, Claude. May God's richest plessings rest on them all.

On Friday evening the school building was again the resort of pleasure seekers, the occasion being the appearance of the Chicago Schiller Quartet. Of the several lyceum attractions here, this is conceded to be the best, not reflecting in the least upon the very excellent ones preceding. One very pertinent fact that cannot fail to impress an audience is the perfect preparation shown in all the programs rendered by the lyceum entertainments. The material being excellent, the training the very best, it remains to be clearly seen that these splendid shows are just a little beyond the reach of a small place only through strenuous effort, with personal responsibility, that our school management is able to procure these F.
