Strength in Repose.

There is great force in those words of the prophet, "In quietness and in confidence shall be your strength," and also in the words of the Psalmist, "Be still and know that I am God."

"Lost My Opportunity."

Opportunity comes to us when least expected often, and the next moment it is gone. Happy the one who recognizes it and uses it to the best advantage. Dr. Bates Shaw, of the West End Presbyterian Church, New York, closed a recent address on "Soul Winning" with the following personal experience:

I am going to tell you the story of "Old Harvey," as he was called. He had driven me for hundreds of miles over the mountain roads; and the next morning he was gone. I had been with him for several days, and I had bronched the subject of religion, and he sometimes say, in an indirect way, I had gone away around the barn to talk about these things to him, but I had never until the week before his death got right to the point of trying to grip his soul with my own personal touch, and I talked to him in a low voice as I sat on the front seat, next to him, all that afternoon, about becoming a Christian. I didn't make very much progress. I said, "I am going to preach down in the mountain church next Sunday night." Dr. Smith, whom you all know in Northfield, and I had the habit then, as we have this summer, of preaching alternately Sunday nights just to the grades on the mountain people--just trying to get hold of those among whom we summer. It was my turn to preach the next Sunday night, and I said, "I am going to preach next Sunday night. Won't you come and hear me?"

"Well," he said, "if you put it that way--and one never likes to put that way, and yet we are willing to be all things to all men, and even to put down our modesty and pride--if you put it that way, I will come."

The very next morning one of my neighbors in the mountains said, "Did you hear that Harvey was very sick?"

I said, "No; I will go and see him." I went straight to his house, and the son said, "You cannot see him this morning. He is critically ill, and the doctor said no one must go in but the nurse." I went the next day, and he was worse, and still they wouldn't let me in. The third day I went, and the little grand-daughter came with her ring down hill. This would involve an expense to the planter, but if the stalks are cut down and sold for paper manufacture the mother home is destroyed, while at the same time the planter profits thereby.

It is no longer doubted that a splendid quality of white paper can be made from cotton stalks, and the raw material is in such an abundance that it is impossible for a trust to control it. The only thing to be done is to bring the industry into general notice and it will build itself. Mr. Howard has been active on the matter because he realized the advantage it would bring to the cotton planters of his State and section.

Chronic Bronchitis Cured. "For ten years I had chronic bronchitis and I could not speak above a whisper," writes Mr. Joseph Coffman, of Montmorenci, Ind. "I tried all remedies available, but with no success. Fortunately my employer suggested that I try Foley's Honey and Tar. Its effect was almost miraculous, and I was cured in a few days. In my recommendation many people have used Foley's Honey and Tar, and always with satisfaction." Sold by J. W. Bell, Walhalla, and W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

A Texas jury has given a verdict for $1,500 against J. J. Faulkner, a barkeeper, for selling three drinks of whiskey to the husband of a protesting wife. Mrs. Beulah Cassidy was the plaintiff. She had warned Faulkner and it was proved that he had disregarded her warning. This woman would have had absolutely no relief in South Carolina. She would not even have been permitted to sue.

Frank comes into the house in a sorry plight. "Meroy on us!" exclaims his father. "How you look! You are soaked!" "Please, papa, I fell into the canal." "What?" asked the father, "with your new trousers on?" "Yes, papa. I didn't have time to take them off."

I notice in your issue of February 1 an inquiry for a remedy for hog cholera. I will give you my remedy: Pour one tablespoonful of spirits of turpentine across the hog's loins, then take one pint of fresh turpentine and heat as hot as can be borne without burning, then spread on a cloth six or eight inches square, place it on the hog's loins, then put the hog in a pen; put one teaspoonful of spirits of turpentine in the water, and give one teaspoonful twice a day in one quart of corn for two days; if they don't like to eat it, mix a little slops with it.

I will give my preventive for hog cholera: Take one-half bushel of corn, put it in a pot with potash, fill with water, then boil; give one quart twice a day. I do this once a month and my hogs never have cholera. Also give spirits of turpentine in shelled corn once a month.

To destroy lice on hogs or cattle: One gallon of black oil, one pound of sulphur, 5 cents' worth of mercurial ointment. Put it in a tin bucket and mix it thoroughly; take a mop and grease them all over once every two months. This remedy will also bring the off of cattle or horses--Conrad Harrell, in Home and Farm.

Widow Wants Bryan Fined. New Haven, Conn., April 12--Counsel for Mrs. Grace Imogene Bennett appeared before Judge Cleveland today with a petition that W. J. Bryan be moved as executor of the estate of the late P. S. Bennett, the chief allegation being that he is dissipating the funds of the estate in his legal actions in attempting to secure the probating of the "sealed letter," as a part of the will. The "sealed letter" gives Mr. Bryan $50,000. The court will set a date for a hearing.

Mrs. Wyatt Aiken Dead. Washington, April 14--Mrs. Wyatt Aiken, wife of Congressman Aiken, died here this morning from peritonitis. She had been ill only a few days and her death was a great shock to the South Carolina colony here. She leaves four little children. The remains were taken to Abbeville to-night on the Seaboard Air Line railway. Mrs. Aiken was a daughter of Col. and Benjamin Barnwell and a sister of Wm. Foster Barnwell.

A Letter from R. A. Hudson.

Callowhee High School, Painter, N. C., April 11--Editors Courier: Please grant me space in your valuable columns, as this is my first letter to the Courier. We have a fine school here; young people, who are not in school, would do well to visit our school and see the progress that young men and young ladies are making. We have a building that cost $7,000. It is a pebble-dash and very attractive.

Our commencement will be on the 11th and 12th of May. Everybody is invited to come and bring their sister, aunt and cousin; and they will find that the mountain people are not so near the back side of the world as they have been represented.

We noticed an article in our last Courier concerning our church at "Old Harvey." We are glad to know that some of the brethren are so deeply interested in the Master's work. The brother mentioned some-thing concerning the bad order and the drink habit, and also said some-thing concerning the trustees, and the brethren, not the trustees only, but the church members and church officers would not befriend the block-aders. Now, brethren, the idea of a man claiming religion and going to the church house with that devilish thing called alcohol! What is alcohol? What does it do to the brain? From the time it enters the system it is a deadly poison, and it demoralizes everybody that touches it, from its source to where it ends. I do not believe anybody can contemplate the subject without becoming prejudiced against the liquor traffic. All we have to do, brethren, is to think of the wrecks on the banks of the stream of death; of the suicides, of the insanity, of the poverty, of the ignorance, of the destitution, of the little children asking for bread, of the talented men of genius it has wrecked, men struggling with imaginary serpents, produced by this devilish thing; and when you think of the jails, the almshouses, of the asylums, of the prisons, of the scaffolds upon either bank, I do not wonder that every thoughtful man is prejudiced against this stuff called alcohol.

Intemperance cuts down youth in its vigor, mangles its strength and age in its weakness. It breaks the father's heart, bereaves the doting mother, and brings down mourning age in sorrow to the grave. It produces death, not life; it makes wives widows; children orphans; fathers beggars. It covers the land with widows, mangled and maimed. It fosters quarrels and cherishes riots. It crowds your penitentiaries and furnishes victims to the scaffolds. It is the lifeblood of the gamblers, the element of the burglar, the prop of the highwayman and the support of the midnight incendiary. It countenances the liar, respects the thief, honors the scoundrel and slanders the honest. It helps the husband to massacre his wife. It curses God and despises heaven. It does all this and more--it murders the soul. It is the father of all crimes, the mother of abominations, the devil's best friend and God's worst enemy. We hear so-called church members say, "It does no harm in a dram. Brethren, I am afraid if you were a better agent; he would not have a better thing tolerated. Keep your- self unspotted from the world, James 1:27.

But when a member is engaged in dram drinking or disturbing, or when a member is upholding disturbance, he is certainly spitting himself into the face of his brethren, how many of you have admonished these young members as you should, spoken of by the brother?

Lost sheep Luke 15:4-10. And furthermore, how often have the deacons read their charge given them by Timothy? Brethren, I think the thing for us to do is to put our talent to work. Do what is required of us. Now, brethren, I am afraid if some of us could see religion as it is, we would be excited. Now, brethren, if any of us have hid our Lord's money, let us unfold that glorious treasury. Else the case will be with us as it was with the man who hid his Lord's money.

Wishing you all much success, I remain, cordially yours, R. A. Hudson.

Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates, and will not constipate like many of the remedies for the cure of the same. Sold by J. W. Bell, Walhalla, and W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

A reputable medical journal makes the statement that any one who eats fresh lettuce daily will be made absolutely immune from smallpox.

SOFT CORE

Like the running brook, the red blood that flows through the veins has to come from somewhere. The springs of red blood are found in the soft core of the bones called the marrow and some say red blood also comes from the spleen. Healthy bone marrow and healthy spleen are full of fat. Scott's Emulsion makes new blood by feeding the bone marrow and the spleen with the richest of all fats, the pure cod liver oil.

For pale school girls and invalids and for all whose blood is thin and pale, Scott's Emulsion is a pleasant and rich blood food. It not only feeds the blood-making organs but gives them strength to do their proper work.

Three in Fight--All Got Bullets.

Greenville, April 13--In a bloody duel last night between Police officers Tucker and Brown, of the Greenville force, and Watchman Sanders, of the Southern railroad station here, the three men were wounded, Tucker and Sanders probably mortally and Brown but slightly. The trouble is the result of an arrest made by Officer Brown on the street. A negro woman, who Sanders claims was his cousin, Officer Tucker, who was seen by Sanders twice in the street, and Brown met the watchman on the street near the station. Sanders immediately began cursing them and Tucker and Brown tried to take him by the arm, telling him he must stop. Sanders drew his pistol and began shooting, one of the bullets taking effect on Tucker's abdomen and another in Brown's leg. Tucker, as soon as he could recover from the shock, shot Sanders twice in the chest, near the heart, and in the stomach. Both men were taken to a sanitarium. At a point near Tucker was operated on, but with no success. Police Officer Tucker died from his wounds at 5:15 this afternoon.

Weds Six Times in Nine Years. Marion, Ind., April 13--Miss Lizzie McCarty, of this place, has the distinction of having been married six times in nine years. The first husband was Jesse Ballata whom she married when she was 20 years old at Okemo. She was divorced from him three months later, and two months afterward she married him again, a second divorce following in less than four months. Her next husband, Lammie Moore, was sent to prison, and she obtained a divorce from him. She moved to Tipton and there married Levi Jack, from whom in less than a year she obtained a divorce. The trouble with this husband, it is said, was that he killed his wife's dog. Then the young woman married Eli Coats at Tipton and lived with him two years, but she was given a divorce on account of cruelty. She came to Marion and married Ed Hunt, from whom she obtained a divorce after six months. She has resumed her maiden name.

After Wild Cat Concerns. Columbia, April 15--There have been so many complaints recently to the Commercial Club, of Dallas, Texas, has prepared a set of rules for making a town grow. He guarantees their efficacy. Here they are:

1. Join no organization looking to the upbuilding of your town. This will prove an encouragement to those who give their time and money to sustain such organizations. 2. Impugn the motives of these... advise themselves. This is a patriotic man to work all the harder for the public good. 3. Your cold water on every new home enterprise, predict its early failure, and contribute to that end by patronizing its rivals in other towns. This will encourage others to put their money in home enterprises. 4. When a committee calls on you for a contribution to an good cause, act like a sore-headed bear, and yield up what you do give as begrudgingly as possible. This lightens the burdens of the committee and sends them on their way rejoicing in their work of love. 5. When strangers visit your town let them wander around until they are tired themselves by reading the signs and pumping the professional loafer. They will carry away a false impression of the town and will not advertise the town wherever they go. 6. "Cuss out" your public officials (to their backs, of course) and accuse them of everything from petty larceny to high treason, no matter whether you can substantiate your charges or not. This will prove a keen incentive to the complete fulfillment of their official obligations. 7. Oppose any enterprise which is not in the slightest degree a public policy, declare that it has been bought up and promptly cut off your patronage. The editor will turn until it shall will redouble his efforts in behalf of the town and its "good people." 8. Oppose any enterprise which is not in exact accordance with your own ideas. This will be conducive to that spirit of concession and unity which is necessary to progress. 9. Give sparingly, if at all, to movements for the general good of the town, and if you do give the largest property owner in it. This will spur on to greater exertions the public spirited citizens your town has and induce the coming of others. 10. Observe these rules closely and there can be no doubt about the growth and prosperity of your town. It will grow and continue to grow--up in wealth--until it shall ultimately become a fit habitation alone for cats and owls. We believe that some of our people already understand and employ the principles here formulated, but they are not enough to make the system completely effective. A wider employment of the rules will accomplish something definite. Now is the time to organize.--Charleston Evening Post.

Dreadful Attack of Whooping Cough. Mrs. Ellen Harrison, of 300 Park, Ave., Kansas City, Mo., writes as follows: "Our two children had a severe attack of whooping cough. One of them, in the paroxysm of coughing would often choke and bleed at the nose. We tried every remedy we heard of without getting relief. We then called in our family doctor, who prescribed Foley's Honey and Tar. With the very first dose they began to cough less. The second day they were able to eat and sleep.
