NEWS FROM WESTMINSTER.

Westminster, September 21.—The marriage of Miss Hattie Reynolds Lee, of Fair Play, to Joseph P. Anderson, of Roberts, Anderson county, will be solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Harris this evening at 7.30.

Prof. J. A. Durham paid a brief visit to homefolks this week after an absence of several months. He has been singing for Rev. R. A. Sublett, the well-known Baptist evangelist who has been conducting religious services in different parts of the State this summer.

Scuppernon grapes are ripe. There is said to be a full crop at Gilmer's vineyard.

The marriage of Miss Effie Young Strubling and Morris Chandler Barton occurred at the home of the bride's parents, in Westminster, yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, Rev. S. Y. Jameson, of Atlanta, uncle of the bride, officiating.

The most enjoyable "candy pulling" of the season was given by Miss Mamie Hesse, of Conners, on last Saturday evening. Besides all the pretty girls and handsome young men around Conners, Walhalla, Pickens, Westminster and Clayton were represented.

Haskell Holmes and D. F. Mabry have settled themselves in Miss Ida Jones's store room, recently vacated by Mrs. Icie McGee.

Married at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mattison, on Wednesday afternoon, September 14, at 3 o'clock, Miss Bessie Mattison to Jesse C. Petty, of Columbia, Rev. J. R. Moore, of the Baptist church, officiating.

Anderson was elected president and treasurer; J. P. Strubling, vice president, and J. M. Norris, secretary and manager. Building of plant will be started at once, and it is the plan of the directors to have the mill in operation by March 1, 1905.

The pupils of the graded school went home rejoicing Friday night. Miss Gusie Martin was victorious at the "spelling bee." Miss Maud Strubling also made a fine record and was the last one to sit down on the town side.

The Westminster Oil and Fertilizer Co. began ginning cotton last week. They will operate both ginneries this season, having recently purchased the plant of the Anderson Oil and Fertilizer Co.

Harry O. Epting, of Athens, Ga., was here last week. Miss Ada Griffin, one of Easley's accomplished young ladies, returned home a few days ago after a visit with Miss Minnie Finley.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Garrison visited Atlanta last week.

W. P. Anderson spent several days in North Carolina last week on business. Mrs. J. W. Munson and children have returned to Charlotte. They were accompanied home by Mrs. E. L. Johnson.

Miss May Moon, of Comer, Ga., is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. H. Stonecypher. Cotton 10.25 to 10.31 yesterday.

John LaFayette Dorn and Miss Rosa Moore were married in Seneca on Sunday, September 11. Mr. Dorn is overseer of the spinning and carding department of the Cheswell Cotton Mill Co.

Mr. and Mrs. "Tug" Whaley and four children returned to Dalton, Ga., last week, after spending a month with relatives in this section.

W. D. Guthrie, Mrs. Zeek Durham and Miss Pearl Durham, of Pelzer, visited relatives here last week. C. C. Simpson is in Atlanta.

Mrs. H. M. Leach went to Fairview Saturday to visit relatives and attend the stock show.

Last year the first bale of new cotton was sold here on September 10—three days earlier than the first one this year, but the total receipts up to this time are greatly in excess of the same time last year.

On Saturday our buyers were kept busy weighing and handling the staple. W. S. Haley, W. E. Mason, J. & J. S. Carter and I. S. Pitts are our buyers.

It is their aim to pay the highest market prices at all times. Misses Maude and Alice Strubling went to Rock Hill this morning to resume their studies in Winthrop College.

Miss Rosa McDonald is saleslady in the store of Willis S. Haley. Mrs. M. E. Eubanks has moved from Oakway to Westminster to educate her children.

The many friends of Mrs. Mary F. Puckett will regret to learn that she is quite sick.

Miss Ida Bearden, an attractive young lady of Oakway, is visiting friends in town.

Rev. J. T. Cary, of Pickens county, visited his sister, Mrs. W. L. Poore, this week. A. L. Gossett.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"Allow me to give you a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says John Hamlett, of Eagle Pass, Texas. "I suffered one week with bowel trouble and took all kinds of medicine without getting any relief, when my friend, C. Johnson, a merchant here, advised me to take this remedy. After taking one dose I felt greatly relieved and when I had taken the third dose was entirely cured. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for putting this great remedy in the hands of mankind."

For sale by J. W. Bell, Walhalla; Seneca Pharmacy and W. J. Lunney, Seneca. A West Indian hurricane swept up the Atlantic coast last Wednesday, doing immense damage in the lower part of the State. The town of Florence suffered not less than $10,000 damage and the town of Georgetown lost something like $10,000. The rice planters in the lower part of the State suffered severely and no less than a dozen fishermen were drowned along the coast.

REV. COLUMBUS WARLAW

Wants Prayer for a Special Blessing on Seneca Baptist Church.

Safford, Arizona, September 10, 1904.—Dear Courier: I expect to begin my work in Seneca, South Carolina, on the second Sunday in October. I write to ask through your columns the Christians of Oconee county to pray for a special blessing on the work at Seneca, that I may be prepared for the work, and that the hearts of the church members at Seneca may be filled with love and ruled by the Holy Spirit.

I especially desire that the pastors of Oconee county and all Christians shall, on the morning of the second Sunday in October, make special prayer for the service at Seneca, that the relation of pastor and people may be mutually helpful and prove a blessing to the entire community. Fraternally, (Rev.) C. Warlaw.

Has Sold a Pile of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for more than twenty years and it has given entire satisfaction. I have sold a pile of it and can recommend it highly.—Joseph McElhiney, Luton, Iowa. You will find this remedy a good friend when troubled with a cough or cold. It always affords quick relief and is pleasant to take. For sale by J. W. Bell, Walhalla; Seneca Pharmacy and W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

Prichard-Boggs.

On Sunday afternoon, September 4, 1904, at 2 o'clock, Miss Dohna Myers was seated at the organ and rendered a beautiful march, while A. N. Prichard and Miss Annie Dilworth, C. C. Myers and Miss Lula Boggs led the way into the parlor followed by the bride and groom, Miss Sallie Prichard and Calhoun Boggs, who were united in holy bonds of matrimony, Rev. S. A. McDaniel officiating.

The bride was attired in a gown of blue silk, trimmed in white silk and applique, and is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Prichard and one of Tokeena's fairest and loveliest belles, possessing many sterling qualities. The groom is a son of John Boggs, and is one of Townville's most promising young farmers.

The parlor was prettily decorated with vines, ferns and flowers with an arch and letters made of cedar and white petunias hanging overhead. The room was darkened and then lighted with Japanese lanterns which added very much to the beauty of the occasion. After congratulations were bestowed upon them many nice and useful presents were presented to them. Then the guests were led into the dining room where refreshments were served.

The wedding was a quiet home affair, only a few near relatives and friends being present. We congratulate Mr. Boggs on winning such a fair and pleasant lady for his companion through life. May God ever bless them and be their guide and director through life.

BUSINESS CHANGES AND IMPROVEMENTS.

Harper, Boyd & Hunt have opened up a beautiful line of dry goods, notions and general merchandise. They have in stock most everything anyone can call for. They are new merchants in the city and deserve a portion of your trade.

Earl and Charles Harper, R. H. Boyd and D. Hunt are the members of the new firm, which has opened up in the new hotel building.

The Seneca Pharmacy has removed to the new hotel building and now have one of the prettiest store rooms in the city. The interior is a beautiful piece of work and is one of prettiest finished rooms for a first class drugstore in the upper part of South Carolina.

In their new quarters they will have a drawing place for new trade. Leslie Strubling is in charge and will be ever ready to serve his customers.

W. J. Lunney has also made a number of changes in his drug store in the last few months. He has had the front fitted up with plate glass and the inside has been remodeled and has a very neat and attractive appearance.

New shelving and other improvements have been made, which is in line with the upbuilding of our little city.

The work of tearing down the brick building on the corner was commenced Monday morning, where the new bank will be in course of a few months and open for business. This will be one of the finest buildings in the upper part of South Carolina, equipped with the latest up-to-date fixtures for a banking institution.

The building will be 30x90 feet, 2 stories high, with plate glass front, and will be an octagon shape on the a very attractive piece of work when completed and will be the finest building in Oconee.

The bank will be open for business about January 1, 1905. Next door above the bank will be a store room the same size as the bank, which will be one of the best stands in the city for a merchant. It is hoped that the second floor will be fitted up for an opera house, which would fill a long-felt want. It would be a pleasant announcement to our citizens to hear of this intention. Let us make an effort to secure it.

L. H. C. —Phone No. 12 for your drugs, or let us call your doctor for you. The Seneca Pharmacy, Seneca.
