Soap Caution.

It is needless, perhaps, to caution people against using impure Toilet and Bath Soaps. No one uses harmful soaps willingly, but many use them unwittingly. You are most apt to get right soaps at a reliable drug store—for instance, you never in your life saw a bit of genuine Castile soap sold anywhere but at drug stores.

I am something of a crank in this matter of purity, and guarantee the quality of every soap I sell. The price you will find right, too.

LUNNEY, The Druggist,

SENECA, S. C.

The Yellow Front.

Cortelyou will succeed Mr. Payne as Postmaster General. Robbers dynamited the bank at Freedland, Ind., early last Saturday morning, and secured $20,000. The safe was blown open and looted and the entire side of the bank building blown out.

The State Association of Rural Free Delivery Carriers, formed in Columbia several months ago, will hold another meeting in the State House about the last week in November. Officers for the ensuing year will be elected and there will be addresses made by several postmasters.

Bounty Land Locals.

Bounty Land, October 10.—Miss Ida Dendy, after spending two weeks with relatives, has returned to Whitewater, where she is teaching the Bear Pen school.

Miss Julia Davis has gone to Anderson, where she has accepted a position in Lesser's store.

Miss Cornelia Pickett is visiting her sister, Mrs. Milam, of Sandy Springs.

D. A. Perritt is buying cotton in West Union this fall.

J. J. Davis has recently lengthened and broadened his piazza and is painting his house, and will also add other improvements.

C. D. Corbin, of Whitewater, visited friends in the community on his way to Alabama.

W. A. Stephens, of Williamston, sometimes visits a friend in the community.

Jasper Doyle has made some needed improvements on his dwelling.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Woolbright, of Townville, are visiting the family of B. Bagwell.

The new school building here is completed except the painting, which will be done soon. New desks have also been ordered.

Grover Davis has gone to Anderson to work in the machine shops.

H. F. Alexander has purchased Mr. Elrod's farm near Bounty Land school house.

Many Mothers of a Like Opinion.

Mrs. Pilmer, of Cordova, Iowa, says: "One of my children was subject to croup of a severe type, and the giving of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly always brought relief. Many mothers in this neighborhood think the same as I do about this remedy and want no other kind for their children." For sale by J. W. Bell, Walhalla; W. J. Lunney and Seneca Pharmacy, Seneca.

For the first time since the war a negro has been put up as a Congressional candidate in the Augusta, Ga., district, opposing Tom Hardwick.

THE NEWS FROM SENECA.

Seneca, October 11.—There will be preaching at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning.

Prayer meeting this evening at the Baptist church; to-morrow (Thursday) evening at the Presbyterian church. Everybody invited.

Misses Grace and Ethel Benson, two attractive young ladies of Hartwell, Ga., were the guests of Mrs. J. H. Adams the first of this week.

Miss Sarah Livingston spent several days in Anderson last week.

Mrs. W. S. Hunter spent several days in Anderson with relatives last week.

Miss Carrie Shelor, of Charlotte, spent several days here last week with relatives.

Miss Talsie Holland, of Westminster, spent Saturday and Sunday here with relatives.

Mrs. Hugh and Nan Terrell, of Westminster, were shopping here Monday.

Rev. C. Wardlaw and family arrived last week from Safford, Arizona. Mr. Wardlaw comes to Seneca to accept the call as pastor of the Baptist church here.

Mr. Wardlaw and family have numerous friends throughout the county who will be pleased to learn that they have returned to Seneca to make their future home.

T. J. Hopkins spent Sunday here with his parents, returning to Greenville in the evening.

Eugene Lewis, of Union, was here Sunday with relatives and friends.

H. L. Clayton, of Liberty, was here Sunday.

Harry Poe, of Greenville, spent several days here last week with relatives and friends.

Leland Maret, Lawrence Nimmons and Glenn Shirley spent last Sabbath in Walhalla.

Col. Henry T. Thompson, of Columbia, is here on business for a few days.

In the course of a few weeks the foundation will be laid for the new bank building. The foreman, of Atlanta, is here to superintend the work. Most of the material is in readiness, awaiting the removal of the remaining rubbish and trash.

Will Lewis is spending a few days in the city with relatives and friends.

Wanted—The name of every visitor in Seneca every Tuesday morning. It will be highly appreciated if you will kindly phone No. 28 any local news that occurs each week. The correspondent will be very grateful for any assistance that can be rendered.

Mrs. Mary Elrod, wife of A. W. Elrod, died at their home, near Seneca, on Monday morning, October 3d, after an illness of only two weeks, of pneumonia. She leaves a number of relatives in the county and scores of friends in the community who mourn her death. She is survived by the following children: Mrs. J. A. Brock, Mrs. Ida Timms, Mrs. Eva Hopkins and W. C. Elrod.

Marshal Jordan left Monday evening for Union, where he goes to be present at the Foster-Jordan nuptials which occurs on Wednesday, the 12th.

J. M. Phillips, editor and publisher of Farm and Factory, has just installed in his office a new press and gasoline engine. He says that in a few days he will get out a sheet that will be a credit to the town and county and upper South Carolina. The paper will be increased in size.

FREE TO MOTHERS.—A box of Dr. Mallett's "Teethina" (teething powders) will be sent without charge to any mother writing Dr. C. J. Mallett, St. Louis, Mo., giving the name of her druggist not keeping it. "Teethina" aids digestion, regulates the bowels, overcomes and counteracts the effects of summer's heat, and makes teething easy.

David Maret Loses by Fire.

South Union, October 11.—Last Friday morning David Maret lost his barn and cotton house and their contents by fire, which was discovered between 2 and 3 o'clock by an aged colored man who happened to be sleeping in the cotton house about 40 feet from the barn. The alarm was promptly given and Mr. Maret barely had time to get out his horses and cattle, and in doing this was blistered about his hands and neck.

It will be remembered that the wind was high, and everything being so dry it was with difficulty that his dwelling was saved, it having caught repeatedly, and being to the windward, its escape is considered almost miraculous. The woods, perhaps 200 yards beyond the house, took fire and were extinguished with difficulty.

Mr. Maret, a year ago, purchased the old D. H. Glenn homestead, the dwelling of which was burned several years ago, the barn, an excellent building, erected by S. S. McJunkin in 1876, escaping to mark the spot and remind friends of former days that here the happy Glenn family—father and son—were once domiciled. But Friday morning's conflagration has wiped out the last landmark, verifying the sentiment of holy writ, the places that now know us will soon know us no more forever.

Mr. Maret deserves the sympathy of his friends. His loss is the following: 150 bushels cotton seed, 10 bushels wheat, 50 gallons syrup, 5 bushels cane seed, $50 in farming tools, 5,700 pounds seed cotton, 5,000 bundles fodder, 13,000 pounds hay, $500 in buildings, 30 gallons canned fruit. Origin of fire unknown.

Neill Macaulay.

A Matter of Health

There is a quality in Royal Baking Powder which makes the food more digestible and wholesome. This peculiarity of Royal has been noted by physicians, and they accordingly endorse and recommend it.

NEWS FROM WESTMINSTER.

Westminster, October 12.—Miss Sallie Meredith, of Hartwell, was visiting in Westminster this week as the guest of Miss Ada Maret and others.

J. H. Barnett was in Anderson one day last week on business.

Miss Irene Miller has returned from a pleasant visit to her relatives near Jarrett's bridge.

The following is the honor roll of the Westminster Graded School for the month of September:

Eighth Grade—Daisy Foster, Sarah Anderson, Mayette Brown, Maude Simpson, Mary Carter, Lucille Zimmerman.

Seventh Grade—Edward Pike, Lila Reeder, Willie Dickson, Mary Reeder.

Sixth Grade—Rena Harrell, Frank Anderson, Kletner Tannery, Bessie Simpson.

Fifth Grade—Ada Simpson, Augusta Smithson.

Third Grade—William Anderson, Preston Barron, Carrie Hall, Coleman Moore, Robbie Simpson, Alice Stribling.

Second Grade—Lillie Parker, Cora Lee Davis, Blonde Leathers, Bewley Mitchell.

First Grade—Bertha Waldrip, Norman DuBose, Marie Lesley, Cora Holmes, Ida Phillips, Agnes Orr, Gus Smithson, Robert DuBose.

Prof. David Conger, of Carnesville, Ga., was in town this week.

Mrs. Sloan and Miss Annie Sloan, of Pendleton, visited Mrs. Dr. Burt Mitchell last week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Barton, of Fair Play, were in Westminster last Sunday.

The relatives and acquaintances of Ira McLin were grieved to learn of his death, which occurred at the Johns-Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, on last Saturday.

He had been there since last April for treatment. Mr. McLin was a son of J. L. McLin, of Oakway, and was born in the section of Anderson county known as the Dark Corner, about 33 years ago. He lived on the Island of Jamaica for some eight or ten years and was superintendent of a large orange and fruit packing industry with headquarters at Kingston.

Mr. McLin visited his homefolks in 1902. He was then in poor health. Soon after his return to his adopted home he grew worse and finally returned to the States and put himself under the care of the most skilled physicians in the Johns-Hopkins Hospital. Besides his father, he leaves one brother, C. L. McLin, of New Orleans, and one sister, Mrs. J. C. Bearden, of Oakway. Two of his aunts, Mesdames E. A. Norris and H. B. Zimmerman, and one uncle, David McLin, reside in Westminster. The remains will be brought back to South Carolina and buried in her soil. They will reach Westminster on No. 39 this afternoon and his body will be interred in the town cemetery immediately after its arrival.

Services will be conducted at the grave by Rev. J. J. Harroll. Clarence L. McLin, of New Orleans, a brother of the deceased, arrived yesterday to attend the burial.

A. L. Dillard arrested a negro by the name of Jeff Keese, or Keesler, on Tugaloo river last Sunday. On Saturday night Town Marshal Cox attempted to arrest the negro for disorderly conduct and the negro struck him on the head twice with what was supposed to be a pair of knucks, and then made his escape in the dark. Mr. Dillard has proven to be a good officer in locating and capturing evil-doers.

Paul and Monroe Earle, colored, picked 431 and 400 pounds of cotton respectively for William Bibb one day last week. We have no need of the cotton-picking machine these record-breaking times.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Simpson are spending a few days at Piedmont this week.

Dr. and Mrs. F. F. Collins and Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Carter, of Walhalla, were here last Sunday.

Last Monday evening a good-sized audience greeted the Walter Bentley Ball & Co., the first attraction of the Westminster Lyceum Club. The program of music, songs and recitations was carried out with pleasing effect. Walter Bentley Ball, the baritone, has attended the best music schools in Cincinnati, Boston and New York. Hallam Hickman, as a violinist, has few equals. The selections by Miss Beulah Timblin were much enjoyed, especially the "Scene from Herod" and "The Widow." She was greatly applauded.

Rev. C. D. Mann, of West Union, occupied the pulpit at the Methodist church last Sunday and preached an able and edifying sermon. Mr. Mann was pastor of this church some twenty-odd years ago and it was a great privilege to some to hear him again. He chose for his subject Sunday, "Saul on his way to Damascus."

Miss Irene Miller has accepted a position with Mrs. Nannie Barron.

Cotton has gone beyond 10 cents again. Rev. Columbus Wardlaw, of Seneca, was in town Tuesday to the delight of his many friends. Rev. Wardlaw has recently returned from Arizona to take charge of the Baptist church at Seneca. His many friends are glad to see him looking so well.

Misses Pearle and Annie Maret, of Fair Play, visited the family of Rev. A. P. Maret this week and attended the entertainment Monday evening.

Misses Mariah, Sue and Emily Dendy, of Richland, were here on Monday shopping.

Guy Simpson, who works in the cloth room at the cotton mill, accidentally cut a deep gash in his arm while using a knife on Monday. Dr. H. E. Rosser was called immediately and dressed the wound. It will take several days for the wound to heal sufficiently for Mr. Simpson to resume work.

Rev. M. B. Kelley, of Anderson, was the guest of Rev. R. M. DuBose last week.

Mrs. Nannie Barron has realized good sales of her pattern and ready-to-wear hats, ribbons, etc., this season. While in Atlanta she purchased a full line of all kinds of millinery.

The Cheswell Cotton Mill Co. is engaged in filling an order of 2,500 bales of cloth for the export trade. It will be shipped to China.

Mrs. M. P. Puckett is still in feeble health.

J. H. Barnett has a few acres of cotton of the "Peelie" variety which he thinks will yield a 500-pound bale per acre. This cotton has a long lint and a small, light seed. At one time when other grades of cotton were quoted at 8 cents this variety sold at 15 cents.

We are having beautiful Indian Summer weather.

J. L. Jennings, of Glendale, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jennings, last week.

A. L. Gossett.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

No one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectually and permanently, but prevents these diseases from resulting in pneumonia. It is also a certain cure for croup, Whoopingcough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration it is not surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it. For sale by J. W. Bell, Walhalla; W. J. Lunney and Seneca Pharmacy, Seneca.
