Capt. Hitch Dismissed, Mell Suspended.

The verdict of the courtmartial, which was empanelled to try the officers who were in charge of the State troops at Statesboro upon the occasion of the recent lynching of Reed and Cato, the two negroes who had been convicted of murder and sentenced, was opened by Governor Terrell Friday afternoon. The findings follow: Capt. R. M. Hitch, who was in charge of the troops, is discharged from the service. Lieut. L. A. Mell, who was in charge of the camp while Capt. Hitch was at the Court House, is suspended for one year and publicly reprimanded. Lieut. Griner, who was in command of the reserves and who left his post of duty without authority, is to be publicly reprimanded. Lieutenants Cone and Morrison are acquitted. Upon reading the verdict of the court, Governor Terrell affixed his signature of approval. The soldiers were charged with conduct unbecoming officers, in that they failed to exercise proper precaution to protect the prisoners, who had just been convicted. After the lynching of the negroes, Governor Terrell appointed a court of inquiry, and his body recommended that the above mentioned officers be tried by courtmartial. The courtmartial was ordered and, after a lengthy hearing, the above verdict was reached.—Atlanta Journal.

Confessions of a Priest

Rev. John S. Cox, of Wake, Ark., writes, "For 12 years I suffered from yellow jaundice. I consulted a number of physicians and tried all sorts of medicines, but got no relief. Then I began the use of Electric Bitters and feel that I am now cured of a disease that had me in its grasp for twelve years." If you want a reliable medicine for liver and kidney trouble, stomach disorder or general debility, get Electric Bitters. It's guaranteed by all druggists. Only 50c.

Announced His Acceptance.

Yorkville, S. C., October 24.—After the morning service at the First Presbyterian church yesterday, Rev. W. G. Neville, the pastor, announced that he had accepted the Presidency of the Presbyterian College at Clinton. He did not state when he would leave for his new home, but the probability is that it will be in the near future. Dr. Neville has been pastor of the church at this place for nine or ten years and is highly esteemed here, and it is with regret that his congregation gives him up. He has the best wishes of the community for his success and happiness in his new home and field of duty.

NEWS FROM WESTMINSTER.

Westminster, October 26.—Westminster entertained the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Greenville District in annual session on October 21 to 23. The meeting was a very enjoyable one and was an inspiration to all. Miss Clara Osborne, the district secretary, presided over the meetings with grace and dignity. The presence of Mrs. J. W. Humbert, of Ridgeville, who is the conference corresponding secretary, was a source of great pleasure and profit to the society and all who attended the meetings. She is filled with the missionary spirit and is truly in love with her work. The society elected Mrs. H. F. Smith, of Anderson, secretary of this session. We feel that it was good to have had these consecrated women among us. There are 19 adult missionary societies in the Greenville district. Eight adult and three juvenile societies were represented as follows:

Anderson—Mrs. H. F. Smith, Williamston—Mrs. A. W. Attaway, Belton—Miss Antonia Smith, Bethesda—Mrs. J. A. Cely, Greers—Miss Elsie Few, Rock Springs—Mrs. Julia D. Shanklin, Walhalla—Mrs. J. J. Ansel, Westminster—Mrs. J. P. McDonald, Juvenile Societies: Williamston—Lewis Cauthen; Bethesda—Miss Ida Elrod; Pendleton—Miss Birdie Lay.

Programme Friday, 8 p. m.: Devotional exercises by the pastor, Rev. R. M. DuBose. The address of welcome was made by Rev. DuBose. Address of welcome on behalf of the missionary society by Mrs. E. A. Dobbs. Response by Mrs. H. F. Smith. Miss Osborne read a historical account of the work of the society. Mrs. Humbert made an earnest appeal for foreign missions.

SATURDAY 10 A. M.

Devotional exercises by Rev. DuBose. The Scripture lesson was read by Mrs. Humbert. After the roll was called, committees were appointed as follows: Platform courtesies, Rev. DuBose, Miss Annie Taylor, Miss Rosa McDonald; committee on resolutions, Misses Few and Smith.

The following were appointed to write proceedings of meeting to the various papers: Mrs. H. F. Smith, Southern Christian Advocate; Mrs. J. A. Cely, Woman's Missionary Advocate; Miss Birdie Lay, Little Worker.

Miss Osborne gave an encouraging report of the society in the district for the fiscal year, after which there were discussions as to the importance of holding the district meetings and the different ways of raising money, such as birthday and thank offerings.

Reports were read from 11 adult and 5 juvenile societies. All were favorable and showed advancement.

Mrs. C. E. Anderson, president of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church, was presented and expressed herself as encouraged as to what she had learned at this meeting. An interesting letter was read from Mrs. Jean Sanders Bowen, of China.

Miss Few read a beautiful paper on "Golden Links," by K. D. Senn, of Anderson. Mrs. Humbert read report of Committee on Golden Links and paper was read by Mrs. Attaway on "Our Work in Mexico." Mrs. Humbert read letter prepared by Miss Annie Churchhill.

A paper on tithing, prepared by Mrs. Goodlett, of Greenville, was read by Mrs. Smith.

A club of ten subscribers was made up for the "Little Worker."

On Saturday evening Mrs. Humbert conducted the exercises and made a talk on the Scarritt Bible and Training School.

Sunday morning Mrs. Humbert conducted the services again. She spoke of the work of the society in the foreign fields and read some papers "fat" for thinking people on missions. Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock Mrs. Humbert addressed the children on China. A juvenile society was organized with 26 members. The meeting closed Sunday evening with an able sermon by Rev. E. S. Jones, of Walhalla.

On the morning of October 2 Paul Gantt stole a bale of cotton from the depot platform and carried it to Seneca and sold it to W. P. Nimmons. Having got along so nicely and thinking no one would catch up with him, he decided to tumble another bale into his wagon on the morning of the 19th, and try the Seneca market again. In this he was mistaken, for Detective Hanie had very little trouble in locating the thief and sending him to jail. Mr. Hanie secured all the money the last bale brought but 4 cents. The negro had the money concealed in his sock. Nothing was received for the first bale stolen. Gantt had "blowed it." He is a young looking fellow, and lived near Retreat, four miles from here. He claims to have stolen the cotton about 4 o'clock a. m.

John G. L. Anderson, at one time a wealthy Englishman, died at Westminster Inn on last Saturday morning at 10 o'clock from a brief attack of typhoid fever. His age was 52 years. He was born in England and resided at London, until last May, when he came to America, arriving at New York. He came to Westminster about the first of last August, having accepted a position with the Cheswell Cotton Mill Company. He was a faithful worker and a clever gentleman. Though he had been in the midst only a few months he made many warm friends and his kindly spirit will live long in memory. Mr. Anderson was a loyal Mason and was cared for by the members of the Craft in his last illness. His nearest living relatives are his two daughters, both of whom reside near London. As there was no settled determination as to the last resting place of the body his remains were put in a metallic casket and interred in the town cemetery with the understanding that as soon as the sad news reaches the daughters the final resting place will be wherever they say. The body was interred on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock after the arrival of H. C. Fleitman, of New York. Services were conducted at the grave by Rev. A. P. Marett, Capt. Cheswell endeavored to get a trained nurse

Home Made

Have your cake, muffins, and tea biscuit home-made. They will be fresher, cleaner, more tasty and wholesome.

Royal Baking Powder helps the house wife to produce at home, quickly and economically, fine and tasty cake, the raised hot-biscuit, puddings, the frosted layer-cake, crisp cookies, crullers, crusts and muffins, with which the ready-made food found at the bake-shop or grocery does not compare.

during Mr. Anderson's illness, but none could be secured.

The following resolutions were adopted by the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society at the close of their session held in the Methodist church:

"On behalf of Greenville District Conference of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, met for the second time at Westminster, this committee would express great delight for the privilege and pleasure of coming to this pleasant village; therefore be it resolved:

"1. That we thank the pastor and members of this church for the use of this building, the doors of which were so freely opened to us.

"2. That we appreciate the kindness of the ladies which prompted them to use their beautiful plants to make the church more cheerful for us and that we are grateful to the organist and the choir for their faithfulness.

"3. That special thanks are due the reception committee who so kindly met us at the trains, assigned us to our homes and arranged for our entertainment while in the village.

"4. That we appreciate the cordial greeting contained in the formal addresses of welcome from the pastor, Rev. R. M. DuBose, and from Mrs. E. A. Dobbs, of the missionary society at this place.

"5. That the conference feels inexpressible gratitude for the presence and the inspiring talks of our conference secretary, Mrs. J. W. Humbert, and that we are indebted to the president of the conference and district secretary and to the secretary for their faithful work during this session. Signed: Miss Elsie Few, Miss Antonia Smith, committee."

Communion services will be held in the Baptist church on the first Sunday in November, and in the Presbyterian church on the second Sabbath, November 13. Both services will be at 11 a. m. and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

Rev. E. S. Jones, of Walhalla, spent last Sunday night with Rev. R. M. DuBose and family. He is a clever and entertaining gentleman and it certainly affords one a great deal of pleasure to be in his presence. We were very much pleased to meet him and hope to see and know more of him in the future.

Westminster had two fires last Sunday morning. At 3 o'clock the citizens residing in East End were awakened by the sound of the cotton mill whistle, which gave the alarm of fire. The house of John Calhoun colored, situated on Mrs. W. G. Smithson's lot, was found to be burning. The flames were quick in doing their work and there was scarcely time to save anything of value. About sunrise the cotton house on Mrs. Clara Dickson's premises was discovered to be on fire. Between seven and eight bales of cotton, belonging to Mrs. Dickson and J. D. Webb, a colored tenant, were in the building. The cotton was in the seed and a good portion of it was saved by prompt action after the building had burned down. Besides the loss of cotton, something over 100 bushels of cotton seed were destroyed. The origin of the fires is unknown.

Owing to the sickness of Prof. T. M. Holland, the superintendent of the Graded Schools, Prof. D. Conger is now filling the position of principal of the school. Prof. Holland is rapidly gaining strength and it is thought that he will be able to be at his post of duty in a short time.

Joe Bowers, of Cannon, Ga., was in town last Sunday.

H. C. Fleitman, of New York, was here last Sunday. His visit was occasioned by the sad death of his friend, John G. L. Anderson, who expired at the Westminster Inn last Saturday.

M. L. Williams, clerk of Pleasant Hill colored folks church, has handed us the following item for publication in regard to the work in his church: "We are glad to ask for space enough to say that we the members of Pleasant Hill colored Baptist church, near Westminster, are workers. The young men and women of this church are taking a lively interest in church work. Rev. R. D. Glenn, of Anderson county, is our pastor, and he is doing a great work in the community. On last Sunday, October 23, we raised $110 in a short time. We pray that all young men and women will do more honest work for God."

Fannie Pugh, an old colored woman, died in Westminster at 3 o'clock last Sunday morning after a long illness. She was the wife of Ben Pugh and was highly esteemed among both white and colored people. Her body was buried at St. Matthew's cemetery Monday afternoon.

Miss Rula Singleton, of the county, visited relatives and friends in Westminster the first of week.

Miss Eva Adams has accepted a position in the store of L. A. Tannery. Lucy Maxwell, a blind colored girl, met her death by burning on Monday last. Her grandmother had left her sitting in the sunshine while she went to pick some cotton. She instructed the little girl to remain there until she returned, but she went in the house and the supposition is that she was in the act of kindling a fire when her clothes ignited. In running about in the house to smother the flames she set fire to the household goods and almost everything in the building was burned. The little girl was a granddaughter of Luke Maxwell, who is one of J. E. Phillips's tenants. She lived only an hour or two after being burned.

H. B. Zimmerman was highly pleased with his trip to the World's Fair. In speaking of the fair he says it is grand beyond description. While there he attended a communion service in which it required 20 gallons of wine to serve to the communicants. Mr. Zimmerman feels repaid for his visit to St. Louis.

County Chairman M. S. Stribling has received a letter from Willie Jones, State Chairman, in which he asks Oconee to raise $100 in support of the National Democratic ticket. South Carolina has been requested to raise $5,000. Any one wishing to help raise the $100 can leave the money with Mr. Stribling, who will forward it to Mr. Jones. While the request is not at all obligatory there may be some who are willing to aid financially in support of the National Democratic ticket in the election of Judge Parker. The money will be used for the expenses of the national campaign.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Zimmerman left last Monday for a two weeks' visit to the St. Louis Exposition.

Rev. R. M. DuBose will preach at Rock Springs next Sabbath, October 30, at 3:30 p. m. He did not get to fill his regular appointment last Sunday.

Cotton is selling at about 95c. This is rather discouraging, considering the short crop that is being made in this section.

S. P. Thornton, of Aiken, is now day telegraph operator at Westminster.

The weather continues dry, but it is hard for the farmers to get through gathering their crops and sowing grain. It seems to be a busy time with everybody.

The dust! the dust! the dust! It looks like everybody is wearing tanned shoes.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

No one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectually and permanently, but prevents these diseases from resulting in pneumonia. It is also a certain cure for croup. Whooping-cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration it is not surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it. For sale by J. W. Bell, Walhalla; W. J. Lunnery and Seneca Pharmacy, Seneca.

Mary Harris, one of the few remaining full-blooded Catawba Indians, died at her home in the Indian reservation in York county, this State, recently, and was buried Tuesday afternoon. The Rev. A. S. Rogers conducted the services. All of the members of the tribe were in attendance, and the ceremonies and scene are said to have been very impressive. The dead woman was an earnest and consistent member of the Presbyterian church, having allied herself with it years ago.

Soap Caution.

It is needless, perhaps, to caution people against using impure Toilet and Bath Soaps. No one uses harmful soaps willingly, but many use them unwittingly. You are most apt to get right soaps at a reliable drug store—for instance, you never in your life saw a bit of genuine Castile soap sold anywhere but at drug stores.

I am something of a crank in this matter of purity, and guarantee the quality of every soap I sell. The price you will find right, too.
