South to invite a valorous Union officer The Rock Island people say the robbers to write the introduction to the biography of a dead advorsary.

The opening words of General Sickles' High Tido," happily silence all criticism: "If it be thought strange that I should write a preface to the memoir of a conspicuous advorsary, I reply that the Civil War is only a memory, its asperities are forgotton, both armies were American, old army friendships have been formed among the combatants, the truth of history is dear to all of us and the amenities of chivalrous manhood are oherished alike by the North and South, when justice to either is involved."

Gen. Sickles is one of the most famous of the surviving Union officers of the Civil War. He has been prominent in Democratic politics in New York since the war, and has suffored much in consoquence.

The South will not fall out with Mrs. Longstreet for defending the great name she bears, now that the stout warrior is dead and cannot answer his accusers; a magnanimous people will honor her for it.-Exchange.

How We Catch a Cold.

Julius Brown, son of the Inte Joseph E. Brown, Georgia's war Governor, is out with a card which proposes that electors of all Southern States vote for Roosevelt and make the election unaui-mous. He makes the proposition be-cause, he says, Roosevelt has been un-justly attacked on the negro question, about the Philippines, and, in fact, on all public questions. He concludes his card thus: "He is a good man and half Southern, and we of the South ought to be able to trust him."

linmigrant Labor for Cotton Mill.

Greenville, November 21 .- Thirteen Germans and Poles with families reached the city last week to work in local cotton mills. None of the immigrants could speak English. They found a method, however, of expressing their delight with conditions here. Johnny Biers, a native Germon who has lived here many years, acted as interpreter. These are a healthy lot, and attracted quite a good deal of attention at the depot. Imme-How We Catch a Cold. A cold is sometimes contracted while remaining inactive for a while in an un-comfortable room or a cold draft and by falling to sleep under like conditions. But most colds are caught while sleep-ing too cold at night. Deep sleep causes sluggish circulation which renders the system susceptible to change of tempera-ture. To prevent colds, sleep under plonty of cover. To cure colds use Ry-dale's Elixir. It lessens the severity and shortens the duration of a cold and pre-vents pneumonia, bronchitis and con-sumption. Reduction of Representation.

The Washington Star is one of the few Amorican newspapers that always sides with the "powers that be" at Washington. It now appears to be in sympathy with the proposed reduction of the South's representation in Congress.

The Washington Post, always calm and fair even to the point of friendliness if the question is decided at all it must be by the Supreme Court. And in the doubtless be fairly treated.

Under this plan of reduction, formerly proposed by the Republicans, the result would be:

Arkansas, 6 now, 5 then. Florida, 3 now, 2 then. Georgia, 11 now, 6 then. Kontucky, 11 now, 11 then. Louisiana, 7 now, 4 then. Mississippi, 8 now, 4 then. North Carolina, 10 now, 7 then. South Carolina, 7 now, 3 then. Tennessee, 10 now, 7 then. Texas, 16 now, 13 then. Virginia, 10 now, 7 then. That would mean a reduction of 33 members.

Killed Himself in Court Room.

Held before Police Justice O'Donoghue in the West Chicago police court, for abusing his wife, Charles Shyck, in the presence of the Court and surrounded by policemen, shot twice at his wife and then found instant death when he sent a bullet into his own brain. Mrs. Shyck was sitting with her sister, Mrs. Sanborn, ten feet from her husband, with her 17months-old baby cooing in her arms. The first shot aimed at the mother struch the baby on the right arm and grazed its right side. This deflection of the bullet saved the mother's life. Mrs. Sanborn was not hit, but the second bullet went through another woman's hat and grazed a policeman's car. Three policemen attempted to seize Shyck, but before they could he put the muzzle of his weapon in his own mouth and fired. Surgeons say the baby will recover, although it lost much blood. Shyek was 35 and his wife 30 years of age.
