The following invitation was sent out last week by Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hunter:

Miss Carrie Lewis Hunter
At Home
Monday Evening, December 26, 1904,
8.30 o'clock.

Miss Newman.
Miss Carpenter.
Miss Farmer.

In response to the invitation the young people of the city spent a most enjoyable evening of amusement and pleasure at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hunter, given in honor of Miss Hunter's guests, Misses Newman, Carpenter and Farmer. Several of the late games were in progress, which the young people enjoyed very much. Darning was also indulged in. Later in the evening delicious courses of salad and refreshments were served.

Among those present were: Miss Newman, Virginia; Miss Carpenter, Greenville; Miss Farmer, Anderson; Misses Elouise and Mae Hamilton, Edith Morgan, Willie Cherry, Ella Richardson, Margie Holland, Maude Hopkins, Sue Gignilliat, Carrie Hunter and Mrs. W. S. Hunter; Charles Gignilliat, Schneectady, N. Y.; John Linley and Frank Farmer, Anderson; Johnson Reid, Clemson College; Wilton Earle, George Holland, Chas. Ballenger, Lawrence Nimmons and Louis Cary, Seneca.

A Certain Cure for Croup.

When a child shows symptoms of croup there is no time to experiment with new remedies, no matter how highly they may be recommended. There is one preparation that can always be depended upon. It has been in use for many years and has never been known to fail, viz: Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. M. F. Crompton, of Market, Texas, says of it: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in severe cases of croup with my children, and can truthfully say it always gives prompt relief." For sale by J. W. Bull, Walhalla, and W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

A. V. Leathers will occupy Bub Dukes' residence after January 1. Billy Boy.

The Key that Unlocks the Door to Long Living.

The men of eighty-five or ninety years of age are not the rotund well fed, but thin, spare men who live on a slender diet. Be as careful as he will, however, a man past middle age, will occasionally eat too much or of some article of food not suited to his constitution, and will need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to cleanse and invigorate his stomach and regulate his liver and bowels. When this is done there is no reason why the average man should not live to old age. For sale by J. W. Bell, Walhalla, and W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

A defective electric light wire caused a conflagration in the business section of Cleveland, Ohio, last Thursday morning, entailing a loss approximating $800,000. The fire started in a carpet store on North High street. Several firemen were injured.
