Year

-Bu a Buck's stove for your wife's Christmas present. Seneca Hdw. Co.

—After a temporary suspension of business for the holidays, the stores of Walhalla are own in full biast to-day. The merchants bave enjoyed a heavy Christmas trade.

-Olly Weaver, of Newport, Tenu., has been spending the holidaye with friends in Walhalla. He was a guest at the home of Capt. Wm. Perry.

-Miss Fannie Robins left last Friday for Cedar Springs to visit her nieces, Misses Annie Crisp and Katie Robins, o are attending the Cedar Springs In-

A. Brock, at Seneca, when you as, butter and eggs to sell. paid. CASH.

f Greenville, editor of cllow, official organ States of North and Georgia, business.

have had

A SACRIFICE SALE.

FOUR THOUSAND DOLLARS OF MERCHANDISE AT A SACRIFICE.

In order to make a change in our business January 1st, 1905, we offer our entire stock of Dry Goods, Notions, Shoes, Hats, Caps, &c., at a slaughter sale. No old, shelf-worn stuff, but nice, fresh, new goods. Come to see us. These goods must go by January 1st.

The prices we make the for cash only. On and after December will sell for cash only to be goods charged after that date.

All parties on the state of the state o

& CO., = =

Soc.:

John Triples Spell, T. Grubby

T. Grubby

J. Gru