Beautiful Shoes

add the charm to an exquisite toilette

To the American woman is conceded first place in the matter of beauty and taste in dress—to her discrimination also is due the fact that of all women's shoes in the world by far the largest sale is enjoyed by

“Queen Quality.”

If you have experienced difficulty in obtaining moderately priced shoes combining graceful outlines and correct fashion with the firm, easy tread so essential to the well-poised figure, you will appreciate the elegance and comfort of the “Queen Quality” Shoe. It is the “glass of fashion and the mold of form” as applied to women's footwear—the perfect finishing touch to your Easter toilette.

NEWS FROM WESTMINSTER.

Westminster, April 25.—Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Garrison left on Thursday of last week for Atlanta. During their stay in Westminster of about eighteen months they made many warm friends who deeply regret their departure. Mrs. Garrison's health has been failing for some months past and they are contemplating a trip to New Mexico with the hope that the climate will be beneficial to her.

Miss Beulah Poore returned home Wednesday from a week's visit to Easley and Pickens.

Misses Ila and Cordelia Bearden, the accomplished daughters of J. W. Bearden, of Oakway, boarded No. 39 one day last week for a month's visit with friends in Texas.

To look in the garden at the Methodist parsonage one would think that the prospects for Bro. Spinks to get fat are good. He is up-to-date on gardening.

The Westminster Graded School closes on May 19.

Our “city fathers” have recently done some good work on the sidewalks and streets.

Mrs. J. C. Bearden, of Atlanta, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McLin, of West End.

Mrs. Thomas Clinkscales, of Atlanta, arrived Saturday to spend some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Simpson.

Julius Martin, of the Southern Railway, spent Sunday in Westminster. He is now agent at Belton, Ga.

Hugh Bibb, of Atlanta, was here Saturday.

J. J. Pickens informs us that his son, Coke, will get married to-day. Mr. Pickens has been in Pennsylvania some time working for the Long Distance Telephone Co.

Mrs. M. S. Stribling and children and Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Marett visited relatives in Fair Play Sunday and attended the dedicatory services held in the Presbyterian church.

Good Health to the Children

Children especially are fond of dainties, and the housekeeper must look carefully to their food.

As good cake can be made only with good eggs, so also a cake that is healthful as well as dainty must be raised with a pure and perfect baking powder.

Royal Baking Powder is indispensable in the preparation of the highest quality of food. It imparts that peculiar lightness, sweetness and flavor noticed in the finest cake, biscuit, doughnuts, crusts, etc., and what is more important, renders the food wholesome and agreeable to young and old.

Eternal Sleep for Joe Jefferson.

West Palm Beach, Fla., April 23.—Joseph Jefferson died at his home, “The Reef,” at Palm Beach, Fla., at 6.15 o'clock this evening. The end came after a day of unconsciousness and after a heroic struggle of days which had exhausted his vitality. At his deathbed were his wife, his sons, Charles B. and Frank Jefferson; his nurse, Miss Mabel Bingham; Dr. R. B. Potter and his faithful old servant, Carl Kettler.

The end was not a surprise to his family. Ever since his last sinking spell which came after a rally on Thursday morning and which was followed by an apparent improvement until Friday, the family has been waiting for the end. The sickness of Mr. Jefferson, which ended in his death, was contracted, it is believed, while on a recent visit to his son, Charles B. Jefferson, at Hobe Sound, a few miles above Palm Beach, where he went to meet his friend, former President Cleveland. It is believed that from a slight indiscretion in his eating he suffered an attack of indigestion.

Since his return to his home his condition grew steadily worse, with slight rallies until the end.

The body of Mr. Jefferson will be taken to Buzzard's Bay on a special train leaving here to-morrow evening, accompanied by all the members of his family who are here. It will reach New York Wednesday and the family hope to reach Buzzard's Bay the evening of that day.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best and Most Popular.

“Mothers buy it for croupy children, railroad men buy it for severe coughs and elderly people buy it for la grippe,” say Moore Bros., Eldon, Iowa. “We sell more of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than any other kind. It seems to have taken the lead over several other good brands.” There is no question but that this medicine is the best that can be procured for coughs and colds, whether it be a child or an adult that is afflicted. It always cures and cures quickly. Sold by J. W. Bell, Walhalla; W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

The Pruitts Acquitted.

Greenville, April 22.—The jury in the Pruitt peonage case from Anderson county this morning returned a verdict of not guilty as to all the defendants—R. W. Pruitt, Forrest Pruitt and John Neese. The verdict was not unexpected; in fact the attorneys for the prosecution had abandoned hope of securing a conviction before the case went to the jury. The case was given to the jury at 12.20 and the jury deliberated not more than ten minutes.

Poorest Colleges Will Get $250,000.

Chicago, April 21.—Gifts amounting in all to $250,000 will be made this year to small colleges in the rural districts of Tennessee, Kentucky, North Carolina and West Virginia by D. D. K. Pearsons, retired capitalist and benefactor of many small colleges in the United States.

Floyd Watson and L. L. Jarrard, of Fair Play, were in town Monday.

Mrs. T. Y. Hunnicutt and Katie Abbott visited the Misses Moore on Saturday.

The new Presbyterian church at Fair Play was formally dedicated on last Sabbath, April 23. This church was organized in 1903 with twenty members. They have recently completed a beautiful edifice costing about $1,000. Rev. T. C. Ligon, of Townville, is serving the church as stated supply. The ruling elders are: S. P. Stribling, J. D. Sheldon and A. T. Thompson; deacons: J. T. Crumpton and T. R. Harris. The dedicatory sermon preached by Rev. S. L. Morris, of Atlanta, was very inspiring and edifying. The Presbyterians around Fair Play have pushed forward the work and their pretty church is quite an ornament to the town. They have much to feel thankful for.

There were several egg hunts in town Saturday afternoon.

The Westminster Oil and Fertilizer Company closed their ginney for the season on last Saturday. They have ginned over 2,000 bales since September.

Rev. J. J. Harrell returned from South Carolina Presbytery on April 18. Before delivering his sermon on Sunday he gave an account of the proceedings of Presbytery.

A. L. GOSSETT.

About Rheumatism.

There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rheumatism and there is probably no disease for which such a varied and useless lot of remedies have been suggested. To say that it can be cured is, therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys an extensive sale, has met with great success in the treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm will relieve the pain, and hundreds of sufferers have testified to permanent cures by its use. Why suffer when Pain Balm affords such quick relief and costs but a trifle? For sale by J. W. Bell, Walhalla; W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

Our assistant teacher, Miss Rena Hunsinger, has returned to her home at Conners.

Quite a number of our young people attended the Easter egg hunt given by Miss Maude Marett, of Fair Play, Saturday afternoon.

Notes from Speed's Creek.

Speed's Creek, April 23.—The school at this place closed last Friday. The children made speeches and had dialogues and songs. Owing to the busy time not many of the patrons were present. The teacher, Mrs. S. L. Brown, returned to her home Friday. Her many friends here wish for her a happy vacation.

Mrs. W. T. McLees returned to her home last Sunday, after spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. James E. Ewing, of Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hopkins spent Saturday and Sunday with the latter's cousin, Mrs. Walter Sanders, of Tokeena.

Miss Mittie Vaughn, of Pell City, Ala., has been spending the past month with relatives in this community.

Andy Cox visited near New Hope recently.

Miss Lillie Campbell, of Townville, is at the home of E. E. Sheriff, teaching music.

The farmers here have their lands nicely prepared for planting and all have decided to reduce the cotton acreage.

Dr. W. K. Sharp, of Pendleton, was in town last week.

The Townville Oil Mill closed last week after a very prosperous season.

Annie G. Dickson.

At the Farm.

The late frost was a set-back to the early crops that had begun to show up. Some of the corn had to be replanted.

Messrs. Cobb and Kelley have the farm in fine shape.

The whoopingcough has made its appearance in this section.

A Sunday school has been organized at Zion.

Preaching at Pleasant Hill on the first Sunday in May.

GOOD, PURE BLOOD

is health's best insurance. It is the blood that carries the life-giving elements to every atom of your body. If it is impure it needs no prophet to foretell the result. Springtime is the season of blood disorders. If you have any trouble at all it will be most likely to manifest itself now. Boils, pimples, headaches and that “all gone” feeling, called spring fever, are all evidences of blood impurity. These troubles and many others will rapidly disappear after you commence using our Hot Strings Blood Remedy. It purifies and builds up the blood, stimulates the digestion, brings back health and energy.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR.

New York and London Drug Co.

FOR SALE BY W. J. LUNNEY, SENECA.

Major J. F. Hart Dead.

Yorkville, April 21.—Major James F. Hart, a prominent lawyer, the gallant commander of the famous “Hart's Battery” during the war between the States, a leader in the Hampton movement of 1876 and a highly esteemed Christian gentleman of Yorkville, died at his residence at 3.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Major Hart had been a great sufferer for some months with cancer of the stomach, which caused his death. All the best medical skill and attention of loving relatives and friends could do for this fearless Confederate soldier was of no avail.

Major Hart graduated from the Citadel with distinction, fought with marked gallantry through the war between the sections and was severely wounded, being crippled through after life, having lost a leg.

He was one of the most successful lawyers of the upper part of the State and had a large practice. He is survived by the widow of his second marriage, by three sons and two daughters. He was a member of the Presbyterian church and had been an elder for many years.

Frightful Suffering Relieved.

Suffering frightfully from the virulent poisons of undigested food, C. G. Grayson, of Lula, Miss., took Dr. King's New Life Pills, “with the result,” he writes, “that I was cured.” All stomach and bowel disorders give way to their tonic, laxative properties. 25c. at all druggists. Guaranteed.

Sully May Be Solvent.

New York, April 24.—MacGrane Coxo, referee in bankruptcy in the Sully case, has sent to Judge Holt, of the United States Court, an opinion, which, if approved by the court, will reopen the Sully case and bring up for adjudication many important points. The questions raised are whether the one million dollars paid Saturday, March 18, 1904, was preference, and if so, was it illegal; second, whether Friday's prices or Saturday's prices should determine the amount the Sully estate owes; third, whether the transaction on the Cotton Exchange are gambling. If it is decided that exchange transactions are gambling, Sully will be solvent and will not owe a cent.

Acquittal of Assault by Jury of White Men.

Jackson, Miss., April 22.—For the first time in the history of Mississippi a negro charged with assault has been acquitted by a jury of white men. Stewart Johnson, a negro, was yesterday tried on the charge of assaulting Miss Mamie Marsh, a young white woman, in the heart of Jackson two months ago, and although Jake Turnbull, another negro, swore that he saw Johnson commit the deed, the jury did not believe him and at midnight returned a verdict of acquittal. Judge Miller was called up, discharged the prisoner with the injunction to get out of town, which he did, on the first train.
