The dispatches tell of an unusual incident that occurred at the Portland, Oregon, exposition a few days ago. Uncle Joe Cannon was to deliver the speech of the occasion. It was very warm, and while waiting to begin, Uncle Joe took a piece of ice out of the water pitcher and began to rub his head with it. Mrs. H. W. Goodie, wife of the president of the exposition, did not like this and through one of the gentlemen present asked Uncle Joe to desist. But Uncle Joe did not take the suggestion kindly and threatened to go back to his hotel. It was some time before peacemakers could get the matter smoothed over. The dispatches do not say whether or not Uncle Joe put his chunk of ice back in the pitcher.

The President informed one of his callers today that unless he again changes his mind there will be no extra session. If there is one it will be held after the 10th of November.

News from New Hope.

New Hope, June 12.—John McClellan died at his home, near Seneca, on Thursday, June 8th. He had been in feeble health for over a year and took worse about a week before his death. He was in his 60th year, and his long life was well spent and a continual blessing to those about him. He was a consistent, humble Baptist, a Christian worker, an affectionate husband and a devoted father. He leaves a wife, six sons and three daughters. To these, in their hour of sorrow, is extended the sympathy of a host of friends. His remains were laid to rest in New Hope Baptist cemetery on the following day at 4 o'clock.

Huge Task.

It was a huge task to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease as that of C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Ia., but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone I could not sit on a chair without a cushion and suffered from dreadful backache, headache and depression. In Electric Bitters, however, I found a cure, and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend this great tonic medicine to all with weak kidneys, liver or stomach. Guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50c."

Mrs. Rogers Must Hang.

Albany, June 9.—Judge Peckham, of the United States Supreme Court, declined to grant a writ of error which would allow the case of Mrs. Mary Rogers, of Vermont, now under sentence for the murder of her husband, to go to the United States Court.

The decision of Judge Peckham, in the Rogers murder case is taken as meaning that the last hope of saving the woman's life has been exhausted. Gov. Bell, of Vermont, has announced that he will not grant a pardon or commute the sentence.

NEWS FROM WESTMINSTER.

Westminster, June 14.—We understand that about twenty from this section went to Charleston yesterday.

With the services Sunday night the series of meetings which began in the Presbyterian church on June 5 were concluded. At the communion services on Sunday there was one addition on profession of faith. Owing to Rev. Castledge's inability to be present the pastor, Rev. J. J. Harrell, held only one service a day after Tuesday.

Traylor and daughter, Miss Minnie, left on Tuesday for Louisville to attend the old soldiers' reunion. From there they will go to Jasper, Indiana, to visit relatives. They will be away about three weeks.

Miss Maude visited friends in Greenville and attended the closing exercises of Greenville Female College and Furman University before returning to her home in Westminster.

Mrs. Dr. C. M. Walker visited Athens last week and attended commencement of Lucy Cobb Institute.

On the evening of June 6 Westminster Conclave, No. 830, Improved Order Heptasophs, had a delightful meeting. Their officers were installed by Deputy Supreme Organizer John B. Sloan, of Atlanta. About twenty members of Ocoee Conclave, No. 827, of Walhalla, were present. Also a few visiting members from Seneca. Ten new members were initiated into the order. Speeches were made by C. G. Jaynes, F. E. H. Schroder, Dr. C. M. Walker, James Thompson and John B. Sloan. J. G. White, of Anderson, has been laboring faithfully in his efforts to build up the Conclave at this place. The officers installed Tuesday evening were as follows: W. E. Rhyne, archon; Dr. C. M. Walker, past archon; D. F. Mabry, provost; F. M. Cross, secretary; W. S. Haley, treasurer; J. G. Breazeale, financier; J. S. Haley, sentinel; S. Y. Powell, warder. Meetings are held on first and third Monday evenings of each month in the Odd Fellows' Hall.

The Westminster Heptasophs were pleased to welcome the visiting brethren and have them take part in the services.

Valley Virginian, Waynesboro, Va., June 9: "A beautiful marriage ceremony, which was largely attended by friends of the bride, took place at the Presbyterian church Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The occasion was the celebration of the solemn vows united in sacred wedlock Miss Norma Elizabeth Bell, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bell, of this city, and David Leland Norris, of Westminster, S. C."

"The sacred edifice was beautifully decorated with evergreens, potted plants and electric lights and filled with interested spectators. The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's beautiful wedding march skillfully executed by Miss Mary Haines. The bride, leaning on the arm of her father, was preceded by her maid of honor, Miss Margaret Lambert. The groom advanced up the right aisle, accompanied by his best man, Andrew Norris, of Westminster. The ushers were J. McKim Bell and J. L. Barksdale, of Waynesboro, and Finley Mann, of Lynchburg, and George Thrift, of Madison. The ceremony was impressively performed by the pastor, Rev. C. R. Stribling.

"The bride was gowned in a handsome brocaded silk traveling costume and carried a crush bouquet of bride's roses. The maid of honor wore white with pink flowers.

"Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party drove to Basic City and took No. 4 for Washington, and a tour of the Northern cities. They will be at home at Westminster, S. C., after June 14th. Tuesday evening the bride entertained the wedding party to an elaborate dinner at the home of her parents in South Waynesboro. The wedding gifts were many and extremely handsome.

"The bride is one of our most accomplished and popular young ladies. She was prominent in social, church, and musical circles and will be greatly missed from these and her home circle where she is greatly beloved. Besides being a talented and cultured vocalist she has from time to time contributed to magazines and periodicals and recently won several cash prizes for literary articles.

"The groom is a prominent young business man of Westminster, and is superintendent of a large shuttle and bobbin factory at that place.

"Among those from a distance who attended the nuptials were: Mrs. J. L. Mann, of Lynchburg; E. M. McCue and Miss Jennie Bell, of Fort Defiance; Mrs. James Boccock, of Charlottesville; Misses Lizzie and Sallie Price, of West Virginia, and Miss Maggie Crawford, Lock-bridge."

"Mr. Norris is one of our rising young men and possesses a wide circle of friends who congratulate him on winning the heart and hand of such a precious 'jewel' from the 'Old Dominion' State. In addition to being connected with the Southern Shuttle and Bobbin Company as superintendent, he is one of the directors of the Westminster Investment, Savings and Trust Company. For several years he has been a devoted deacon of the Presbyterian church and is esteemed alike for his excellent qualities of both mind and heart. Mrs. Norris as Miss Bell is pleasantly remembered here as the much admitted guest of Miss Katie Harris a few summers ago.

Miss Anna Maret, of Fair Play, is visiting Miss Ada Maret.

The Misses Jameson, of Atlanta, are visiting at the homes of W. J. Stribling and William Bibb.

We received a letter from B. B. Garrison yesterday in which he sends regards to all his friends at Westminster. Mr. Garrison is at Flagler, Colorado, and says his wife is getting on nicely. Mr. Garrison says Flagler is a prairie town,

Many people were interested in a lecture delivered by a Japanese minister in the Presbyterian church on last Tuesday evening. He spoke on the habits, customs and religion of his native land. Also gave some information concerning the contending forces connected with the war in the far East. While he does not speak English perfectly he talks understandingly. He is a minister of the Baptist denomination and has spent six years in the seminary at Louisville, Ky., in order to prepare himself for usefulness in the Master's service. He is now delivering lectures chiefly to procure funds to return to Japan. We are without the name of the Oriental visitor.

There will be preaching in the Methodist church next Sunday evening at 8:30 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. J. I. Spinks.

Miss Mitchell, of Toocoo, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Terrell last week.

Cuban Diarrhoea.

U. S. soldiers who served in Cuba during the Spanish war know that this disease, and that ordinary remedies have little or more effect than so much as water. Cuban diarrhoea is almost as severe and dangerous as a mild attack of cholera. There is one remedy, however, that can always be depended upon as will be seen by the following certificate from Mrs. Minnie Jacobs, of Houston, Texas: "I hereby certify that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured my husband of a severe attack of Cuban diarrhoea, which he brought home from Cuba. We had several doctors, but they did him no good. One bottle of this remedy cured him, as our neighbors will testify. I thank God for so valuable a medicine." For sale by J. W. Bell, Walhalla; W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

Czar Thanks Rojstevsky.

St. Petersburg, June 10.—Emperor Nicholas has cabled the following message to Admiral Rojstevsky: "From my heart I thank you and all the officers of the squadron who have so honorably done their duty for your unselfish work for Russia and for me. By the will of the Almighty success was not destined to crown your endeavors, but your boundless bravery will always be a source of pride to the country. I wish your speedy recovery. May God console you all. Nicholas."

The peculiar wording of the message is attracting attention. The restriction of the Emperor's thanks to those honorably doing their duty is fanning the ugly talk regarding the surrender and the conduct of some of the crews. The Chagin, of the Russian cruiser, Almaz, did not contain any intimation of misbehavior on the part of the officers or crew.

Three Drowned.

Chicago, June 10.—Three persons were drowned and two others narrowly escaped a like fate to-night, when an automobile, in which five were riding, plunged into the Chicago river through the open draw of the Rush street bridge. The rescued were: W. H. Hoops, Jr., manager of an automobile company, and Mrs. Jeremiah Runyon, New York City. Both Mrs. Runyon and Mr. Hoops were unconscious for half an hour after being taken from the water, but are expected to recover.

THE NEWS FROM SENECA.

Seneca, June 13.—Miss Gussie Keith, of Chattanooga, is visiting Mrs. S. K. Dandy. Miss Keith is an accomplished vocalist, and Seneca people anticipate hearing her sing with great pleasure.

J. E. Sitton left this morning for Louisville, where he will attend the Confederate Veterans' Reunion.

The family of Mrs. T. E. Sitton, who have been living in Seneca during the school session, returned to their country home yesterday.

The opera is the order of the day now, the Woods Sisters being here for a week's engagement.

Prof. Grubbs is here for the purpose of teaching a singing class. There are two sessions daily and this splendid opportunity to learn something of the rudiments of music should be taken advantage of as it doubtless will. There is a crying need with us for more and better singers, particularly among our church-going people. The sessions are held in the school house.

Mrs. W. J. Luanney, who has been in Charlotte for several weeks, returns home on Wednesday and will be accompanied by the little Misses Lucile and Dorothy Mason.

The family of Pomey Brown arrived in Seneca last Saturday and have rooms with Maj. B. F. Sloan. We welcome most heartily this estimable family to our town.

Mrs. B. F. Sloan is in the mountains for the summer.

Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Stribling will return to Seneca to-day and will be at home to their friends at the Palmetto House.

It is rumored that another hotel is a probability here in the near future.

The excursion to Charleston to-day carried a good number from this place. Moonlight picnics, fishing parties, etc., are receiving the attention of our young society people now.

Ogilvie Todd's friends are extending him a hearty welcome home after an absence of a year to school at Clinton.

The entertainment given for the benefit of the Library last Friday afternoon and evening was a pronounced success. The delightful and varied program of entertainment was enjoyed by many friends of the library and a neat sum was realized for its benefit.

The public will please bear in mind that ice cream will again be sold at the park on Wednesday afternoon by the ladies of the Presbyterian church. The ladies who had charge last week were gratified with the success of the affair.

On last Sabbath Rev. C. Wardlaw, pastor of the Baptist church here, preached a fine sermon in the Baptist church upon the subject, "Church Music." At this day of paid choir, so-called lip song service, etc., the discourse was most timely, the speaker taking a decided and emphatic stand against the so-called "all-day singings," which are nothing more nor less than all-day picnics. Mr. Wardlaw being a hearty co-worker with the choir of his church, and an ardent believer in good church music, whether instrumental or otherwise, his remarks may be taken seriously, charitably and appreciatively. The history of music, its uses and abuses, were clearly and concisely dealt with and altogether the sermon was one of the pastor's very best.

Miss Verna Stribling was at home on last Saturday afternoon to a large number of her young lady and young gentleman friends, the occasion being the celebration of her birthday. Games were played after which the gay party repaired to the park where refreshments were served. At the close of the party votes were taken on the prettiest girl and handsomest boy present, resulting in a tie for the former and the election of Master Harry Sligh as the handsomest young gent.

Young ladies who tied were: Misses Jeanette Holland, Edna Elrod and Nellie Hines, whose names were submitted to judges, who decided in favor of Miss Jeanette Holland.

We are in the midst of the driest and hottest weather of the season. Need of rain is getting to be a serious question with us. M. V. S.

Dying of Famine

is, in its torments, like dying of consumption. The progress of consumption, from the beginning to the very end, is a long torture, both to victim and friends. "When I had consumption in its first stage," writes Wm. Myers, of Cearfoss, Md., "after trying different medicines and a good doctor, in vain, I at last took Dr. King's New Discovery, which quickly and perfectly cured me." Prompt relief and sure cure for coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, etc. Positively prevents pneumonia. Guaranteed at all drug stores. Price 50c. and $1 a bottle. Trial bottle free.

At the County Farm.

Walhalla, R. F. D., No. 1.—The crops at this place are looking fine since the grass has been worked out.

Our Swedish convict will leave us this week.

The writer had the pleasure of "kicking up the dust" and attending the children's day exercises at the Baptist church at Conners last Sunday. There was a large crowd in attendance and the best of order maintained during the rendition of the program, which was gotten up for the occasion. Each number was well rendered and those who took part deserve great credit for their patience and perseverance. The entertainment was a success throughout and was well enjoyed by the large crowd present. At the conclusion of the exercises dinner was announced and the tables fairly groaned with the good things prepared by the ladies of the community and every one was satisfied that the ladies around that portion of the county are well up in the culinary art. The young people were largely represented and it was one of the most interesting crowds that it has ever been my pleasure to see together at one time. Speeches were made by a professor from Clemson College, C. R. D. Burns and Prof. J. F. Reynolds, after which a song service was enjoyed for some time. The crowd dispersed.
