MILLINERY, DRY GOODS AND SHOES.

Furniture, Coffins and Caskets.

Our 5 and 10-Cent Department has many good things for you and others.

Come and see us. You will be pleased with our goods.

C. G. JAYNES.

TWo have had quite a number of young men to open Savings Accounts with us during the last two monthsthus laying the foundation for independence.

There are hundreds of others in Oconee county who ought to do likewise.

TCome in and let us talk the matter over. It is a matter of vital importance TO YOU. Yours truly,

The Peden @ Anderson Banking Co.

Westminster, S. C., June 17th, 1905.

Wocal and Personal.

—Buggies, harness, White Hickory wagons. T. E. Alexander, Walhalla. —John F. Tatham, of Columbia, is vis-iting relatives and friends in Walhalla.

—Blackberries wanted.—2,000 gallons; will pay ten cents per gallon for fresh berries. J. H. Barnett Canning Co.

Lost—Two small, white, bob-tailed dogs, with black heads. Return to G. C. Benedict, Seneca, S. C., and receive re-—Miss Vina Patrick, after spending ten days pleasartly among friends in Walhalla, returned to her home in An-derson last Thursday.

—Harold and Eugene Craig, sons of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Craig, of Charleston, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Craig, on Faculty Hill.

—Alabastine for inside walls. Ask at the Walhalla Drug Co.

—J. Fulton Hunnicutt, of New Hope, is in Atlanta for a short business trip. He will spend several days in the city among relatives and friends.

—Read what the Peden & Anderson Banking Co., of Westminster, have to say this week. It is of especial interest to the young men of Oconee.

-M. S. Stribling, of Westminster, is offering a special reduction in prices of two-piece suits and straw hats. Read his advertisement and call and see him.

-Mrs. L. D. Brennecke and daughter. Miss Marguerite, returned to Walhalia Monday evening, after spending several months with relatives at Greenwood.

—Beautiful line of enameled ware at Seneca Hardware Co.

—Lost, on Monday, June 12th, ladies' watch, with velvet pocket fob, between Walhalla Hotel and Pitchford's store. Reward if returned to Courier office.

-Miss Katie Biemann will leave to morrow morning for Atlanta, where she will spend a week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Garwood, on Capital

Misses Sallie and Hattie Shelor returned to Walhalla last Sunday, after a pleasant visit of several weeks to relatives and friends in various parts of

.—C. L. Ginn, of Carnesville, Ga., was in Waihalia for a short while last week, in company with his uncle, J. J. Haley, of Oakway, with whom he is stopping —Misses Daisy Strong, Mary Stribling and Hattie Legare are on a pleasure trip in the mountains. They will spend two weeks camping at Dr. Gremshaw's, in Whiteside Cove.

—All members of Oconee Lodge, No. 64, I. O. O. F., are urged to attend the regular meeting on Tuesday evening, June 27th. The semi-annual election of officers will be held.

—W. A. Kay and family, of Birmingham, A'a, are visiting Mrs. J. T. Kay and family. Mr. Kay will return to Birmingham this week. Mrs. Kay and children will remain a month.

-$1,500 worth of men's suits and extra pants that must go in the next three weeks regardless of cost.

C. W. & J. E. Bauknight.

—Read Carter Hardware Co.'s new advertisement. They are prepared to serve their patrons promptly and furnish everything in the hardware line. Call and examine their large stock.

—Misses Georgia Burns and Georgia Elford, of Charleston, arrived in Wal-halla last week and will spend the sum-mer here at their home in West End. Their friends are pleased to meet them again Merrick.

—John Carter, of Gainesville, Ga., was in Walhalla for a short while on Tuesday on business.

—C. R. Houchins returned Monday afternoon from a brief business trip to Washington and New York.

—Blackberries wanted.—2.000 gains visit
Miss Hattie Darby, accompanied by Miss Anna Darby, returned last Wednesday afternoon from Fort Motte, where they had spent several months among relatives and friends. They are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Harrison, on Faculty Hill.

—The Court of General convene at W. T. General convene at W. T.

—The Court of General Sessions will convene at Walhalla next Monday. June 26th. We will be glad to see our friends from over the county. No place is cooler, no water colder or freer than that in The Courier office, Come in and see us. Welcome to all.

—A. L. Wecke, who spont several months here, stopping at the Waihalla Hotel, left last Monday for Chicago. Mr. Weeks made many friends while here, who will be glad to welcome him to our midst again. He is an expert civil angineer and surveyor. engineer and surveyor.

—Have your walls made new with Alabastine—a cold water paint almost as cheap as white-wash; any color.

Walhalla Drug Co.

—Ruskin Anderson's big slaughter sale continues through this week, closing next Saturday night. He has sold lots of goods during last Saturday and this week, but he has stacks of bargains yet. Be sure to call on him during this week and get your share of his great offerings.

-Master George Wilkie, who is stopping at the Walhalla Hotel with his parents, had the misfortune of breaking his arm last Sunday. While out playing with some little friends he climbed a tree, from which he fell, breaking both bones of his left arm between the wrist and elbow. He is being cared for by Dr. J. W. Bell and is getting along nicely, though the confinement and quiet are somewhat galling to his jovial nature.

-Lime for sale at Seneca Hardware Co. —J. H. Renney is now employed at the City Meat Market.

Miss Maud Kay, of Belton, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. J. T. Kay.
 Miss Pearl King, f Anderson, was in Walhalla for a short while yesterday.

—H. Pennington has been quite sick at his home for several days. His friends wish for him a speedy recovery. —Col. and Mrs. G. Shanklin and little daughter, of Clemson College, are visit-ing at the home of Capt. John C. Neville, in West Union.

—The Taber Singing Association will meet next Su day, June 25, at Chauga church. Remember song books and the dinner and bring plenty of each.

—Miss Lucy Evans, of Calhoun, is visiting her friend, Miss Laura Isbell, at Mountain Side, near Walhalla. She will spend a week or ten days.

—Hugh P. Holleman has been confined to his room for several days past with bilious fever. He is reported some bet-ter this morning, but is still quite sick.

-Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Corbin returned recently from Texas and are making their home at Tamassee. Their Oconee friends are pleased to welcome them —Judge D. A. Smith left yesterday afternoon for Washington, D. C., where he will apend a week visiting his son, Walter V. Smith. He will also visit relatives and friends in Philadelphia.

—All kinds of carpenters' tools at Seneca Hardware Co.
—Miss Sophia Wanner, after a pleasant visit of several months to Mrs. C. R.
Stucke and other relatives and friends in West Union and Walhalla, returned last week to her home at Tallapoosa, Ga.

-Miss Mamie Ansel returned last week from a pleasant visit to relatives and friends in Charleston. She left this morning for Clemson, where she will at-tend the State summer school for Wanted—Every gentleman attending Court, either on business or pleasure, to know that polite waiters will serve them first-class meals at all hours at Baldwin's boarding house. The best place in town to get your money's worth.

—On last Thursday Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Grossman celebrated their silver wedding, that day being the 25th anniversary of their marriage. Their friends congratulate them and wish them yet many gratulate them and wish them yet many years of pleasure and prosperity.

—Prof. and Mrs. James L. Mann, of Florence, spent several days last week with Rev. and Mrs. C. D. Mann and family in West Union. They are at Clemson at present, Prof. Mann being one of the instructors in the State summer school. school.

—Thos, Sloan and Alfred Craig were sent to the county chain gang for 30 days week last by Magistrate T. E. Stribling. They were convicted for taking a boat from Keowee river. The boat belonged to N. B. Cary, Esq. Both the convicts are colored.

—There will be special services in the Walhalla Baptist church next Thursday evening at 8.30 o'clock. The ordinance of baptism will be administered. There will be eight candidates for membership in this church, and the services will be impressive and beautiful.

impressive and beautiful.

—Mrs. Henrietta Davis, wife of Rev.
J. C. Davis, a member of the South Carolina Conference, died at their home in Darlington last Friday. Mrs. Davis leaves a family of eight children, four of whom are little ones, which makes her death doubly sad. Mr. Davis was pastor of the Walhalla circuit several years ago.

of the Walhalla circuit several years ago.

—Rev. Father N. A. Murphy, of Greenville, is spending a few days among friends in Walhalla. He has just returned from a trip in the mountains, where he has been visiting among his parishioners. He is a plesant gentleman, and has many friends through the county where he has visited. He will be at the home of Capt. Wm. Perry during this week.

week.

—W. O. Alexander, Jr., and family, of Rowland, N. C., have been visiting the family of Theodore D. Alexander, on Conneross. Mr. Alexander returned to North Carolina last Friday, but his family will remain, owing to Mrs. Alexander's ill health. We understand they will build a residence on Conneross and make that their home permanently.

Miss Anna Marett in Westminster.

Mrs. W. J. Stribli is visiting her da Barton, this week.

A party of our y Charleston last we will build a residence on Conneross and make that their home permanently. make that their home permanently.

—Mrs. Rev. A. P. Anderson left this morning for her home in Anderson, after spending a short while with relatives here and at Tamassee. She came up two weeks ago to attend the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Eliza Rankin. Mrs. Anderson was accompanied on her return by Mrs. John Beatty, who will be among relatives in Anderson county for a week or two.

or two.

—The seashore excursion, whice will be run by the Southern Railway. On Thursday, June 29th, will be one of the best of the season. There will be no crowding, as the Southern is determined to give its patrons a pleasant trip in every respect. Rates will be found in another column. Charleston and the Isle of Palms afford much in the way of sight-seeing and pleasure for visitors.

—Many people are being attracted to the Woodside Cotton Mills, Greenville, S. C., on account of the good wages, easy running work, pure water, excellent school and churches, good houses, pastures and gardens and the extremely high and healthful location. The mill has now 34,000 spindles and 900 looms. The electric car line runs through the center of the village. The management takes particular pains to select good, moral people.

people.

The hospitality of High Falls is proverbial. On the Fourth of July there will be a great gathering at that place. Arrangements are being made, and a day of pleasure and profit is expected. There will be speaking by Prof. James M. Moss, Major Wm. J. Stribling, Judge D. A. Smith and others. All are cordially invited and urged to be present and mingle together. It is an ideal spot for the gathering together of the people of Oconee and Pickens counties, and the people of Pickens are invited to join with their Oconee friends in making the gathering at High Falls on the coming "glorious Fourth" the most pleasant ever held. Let everybody go and enjoy the day.

Mrs. Nancy Jane Chandler died at

Let everybody go and enjoy the day.

-Mrs. Nancy Jane Chandler died at the home of her son, J. C. Chandler, at the Flat Rock muster ground, on last Thursday, June 15th, at the age of 76 years, having been born May 17th, 1829. She leaves five children, three sons and two daughters, all of whom were present at the funeral services, which were conducted at Wolf Stake cometery by Rev. J. H. Stone on Thursday afternoon. She was a member of Washington Baptist church, Greenville county, with which she had been connected for many years. Her maiden name was Thomas, Her busband, J. F. Chandler, died November 22, 1904. The bereaved family have the sympathy of many friends in their hour of sorrow. Mrs. Chandler was an excellent woman, and her life was that of an humble Christian.

SUMMER HARDWARE.

Keep Cool!

White Mountain and Arctic Freezers for Frozen Dainties.

PAINTS that stand the test of time.

Binder Twine.

Blue Flame Oil Stoves

For Hot Weather.

Bicycle Repairs. Base Ball Goods.

Gauze Wire. Doors and Windows. Fruit Jars.

SENECA. S. C.

—Miss Olive Hay, of Hayville, S. C., who has been visiting the family of Major W. J. Stribling, left this morning for Clemson College to attend the State Sum-mer School mer School.

-Mrs. Rosa Fahnestock left last week —Mrs. Rosa Fahnestock left last week for New York, from which point she sailed, in company with her brother, for the old country. She will visit many points of interest in England and Ireland before her return to America. Her friends here wish her a pleasant trip and Sprained Ankle, Stiff Neck Lame Shoulder.

These are three common ailment for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm is especially valuable. If promptly applied it will save you time, money and suffering when troubled with any one of these ailments. For sale by J. W. Bell, Walhalla; W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

Fair Play Pointers.

Fair Play, June 19 .- Owing to the illness of Rev. Herron, Rev. A. P. Marett, of Westminster, preached for him here Sunday.

A series of meetings will be held at the Beaverdam Baptist church beginning on Saturday before the third Sunday in August.

Martin Marett, of Birmingham, Ala., is visiting his brother, R. H. Marett. D. H. Marett is still confined to his bed.

Robert E. Leathers, while loading freight in Westminster last Friday, got too hot, wnich caused him to faint. He fell from the wagon and was badly hurt. Mrs. S. C. Knox and Miss Elton Harrison, of Lavonia, spent Saturday and Sunday with D. V. Wright's family. Miss Anna Marett is spending a while

Mrs. W. J. Stribling, of Westminster, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. M. C.

A party of our young people visited Charleston last week. They express themselves as being charmed with the 'oceanic" town.

D. V. Wright was called to the bed-side of his sick brother, T. C. Wright, of Miss Mary Sheldon has returned home from a visit to Due West and Anderson. Miss Cornelia Marett returned home last week after spending a while with relatives at this place.

Crayton and Lola Callaham spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Calla-

Several of the young ladies of this community will attend the State Summer School at Clemson this week.

Prof. R. W. Grubbs returned me last Saturday after teaching a singing school at Seneca.

Miss Maude Marett entertained a number of her friends with a singing Sunday.

ber of her friends with a singing Sunday afternoon.

Miss Hattie Wright is spending a while in Lavonia with relatives and while in Lavonia with relatives and friends.

Miss Janie Wiley returned home Saturday after spending quite a while with her aunt, Mrs. S. P. Stribling.

Miss Etta Whitfield, of Townville, visited friends near here Sunday.

Curtis Barton was around to see us last week.

J. G. C.

Buy Hair at Auction?

At any rate, you seem to be getting rid of it on auction-sale principles: "going, going, g-o-n-e!" Stop the auction with Ayer's Hair Vigor. It checks falling hair, and always restores color to gray hair. A splendid dressing also. Sold for over sixty years.

"My hair came out so badly I nearly lost it all. I had heard so much about Ayer's Hair Vigor I thought I would give it a trial. I did so and it completely stopped the falling, and made my hair grow very rapidly."—MARY H. FIELD, Northfield, Mass.

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mas Also manufacturers of ers SARSAPARILLA.
PILLS.
CHERRY PECTORAL

NORMAN'S BARGAIN STORE

Specially Low Prices on Shoes, Hats, Pants, Shirts, Trunks, Valises, Lamps.

Wall Paper, Window Shades, Crockery, Tin. ALL KINDS SEEDS. 5 AND 10-CENT COUNTERS.

SUMMER PRESCRIPTION WORK

Having completely replenished our prescription shelves with all the drugs prescribed during warm weather, we are now very well prepared to compound any prescription your physician may write. Careful, accurate work—always. Right prices charged.

HUYLER'S CANDIES.

The Seneca Pharmacy, HOTEL BLOCK.

$1,000 Worth of Sample Clothing in Spring and Summer Weights, at New York Wholesale Cost.

This Entire Lot

made up of the Newest and Latest Patterns and Styles in Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits

Also, a big lot of Factory Jobs that we are offering at 25 to 40 per cent off regular prices. In this lot are some of the greatest values that we have ever been able to offer for the money.

Notions

$1,000 Worth of Sample Notions at New York wholesale cost. This lot includes great values in Men's Shirts at 25c. to $1.50 each. Boys' Shirts at 20c. to 75c. each. Men's Pants at 50c. to $5 per pair. Boys' Pants at 20c, to $1.50 per pair. Men's and Boys' Overalls at 20c. to $1. Ladies' Skirts at 75c. to $7.50. Men's, Ladies' and Children's Ties at 5c. to 75c. each. Hosiery and Suspenders.

A full and complete stock of Lawns, Muslins, India Linens, Organdies, Batiste Silks—all at Lowest Prices. Also a full and complete line of Embroideries and Laces.

Don't fail to try a pair of our Royal, Shamrock and Red Raven Shoes—the greatest values for the money. SHOES

We are headquarters for High Grade Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Doors, Sash, Blinds, Lime and Cement. Come and see us and get our prices on any and everything that you may want. We've got it.

SENECA, S. C.

No More

Scrubbing