The Good Time Club.

Last Wednesday the members of the G. T. C. were delightfully entertained by Miss Mamie Harrison. In addition to the regular members of the club, Miss Tutu Perry was the special guest.

In the guessing contest of "flowers" Miss Gertrude Biemann was the fortunate winner of the prize, a beautiful vase. The color contrast for the afternoon was yellow and white, and was carried out in everything.

A dainty course of sweets was served by Misses Anna Darby and Natalie Nor-Bud Wall Killed by Charlie Jones.

J. J. (Bud) Wall was shot Sunday morning at his home, near Jarrett's Bridge, this county, by Charlie Jones, and languished until 6 o'clock Sunday fireroon, when he died. Wall had been drinking very hard for a week and his wife says that he had threatened her life and the life of her children. In order to have protection she sent one of her children for her nephews (the county of the county) is a county of the co wife says that he had threatened her life and the life of her children. In order to have protection she sent one of her children for her nephews, Charlie and W. Rus Jones. They state that at the time of the fatal encounter Wall said he was going to kill them and was making his way toward Charlie Jones. Whereupon Charlie pulled his pistol and fired upon Wall, one shot taking effect in the right side and one in the breast, the former proving fatal. proving fatal.

Wall was very much grieved at the untimely death of a young son last spring, caused by a tree falling on him, and had been drowning his sorrows in drink since at time. He was about 39 years of the and had a large family of children. He was a farmer by occupation.

Coroner Harbin held an inquest Monday and the jury readered a verdict that the deceased came to his death from a pistol shot wound inflicted by Charlie Jones, with W. Rus Jones as accessory.

The Jones boys were lodged in jail late Monday afternoon by Constable J. N. Hopkins.

Wall was the double-uncle of the Jones boys—Mrs. Wall being a Jones and Mrs.

Jones a Wall.

There is quite a lot of rumor in the Jarrett's bridge section about the kil ing, but we refrain from giving it as news, but will leave it for the State's attorney to sift out.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus With One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and

Diarrhoa semedy Mr. G. W. Fowler, of Hightower, Ala. ing on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Clebonrne county, Ala. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some souse meat and it was meat and some souse ate some fresh meat and some souse meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." A Coming Marriage

A Coming Marriage.

The following invitation has been received in Walhalla by friends of the contracting parties: "Mr. and Mrs. Harry da Ponte invite you to be present at the marriage of their daughter, Ethel Graham, to Mr. J. Addison Steck, on the morning of Tuesday, the third of October, at half after nine o'clock, Saint James' Church, Marietta, Georgia." The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. da Ponte, and is a young lady of charming personality. She is well and charming personality. She is well and most favorably known in Walhalla, having spent several summers here with friends. Mr. Steck is the junior member of The Courier firm and is a model young business man with many splendid traits of character. His many friends in the community and throughout the county congratulate him upon winning the heart and hand of such a lovable young lady. ning the heart and lovable young lady.

The Tent Meeting Closes.

The tent meeting, conducted in West Union, closed last Sunday night, with a large and attentive congregation. Revs. Padgett and Brewington were assisted part of the time by Rev. Mr. Powers, of Spartanburg county, and Rev Eugene Swaney, of West Union. The tent was if first pitched in the Ausel grove, in Walhala, but owing to the inconvenience of the location, after three services, it was moved to Crenshaw's grove in West Union, where the services continued with increased interest and attendance. Powerful and heart-searching sermons were preached and many confessed Christ.

On Sunday afternoon a collection was at the Sunday night service. We feel that this meeting has been a great benefit to this community—sinners being saved and believers edified and strengthened—and hope the effects will last throughout eternity.
