NEXT TUESDAY.

THE ELECTION.

Its result means happiness or misery to hundreds of mothers, wives and little ones in Oconee. Be sure to go to the polls and vote for Mother, Home and Heaven.

Yours truly,
Wm. P. Anderson, Pres.

Local and Personal.

—You can get everything at Norman's.
—Clifton Adams and J. M. Durham, of Westminster, were in town yesterday.
—Big line of perfumes and talcum powders at the Walhalla Drug Co.'s.
—Be sure your ticket has written or printed on it the words "No Dispensary."
—See the International Harvesting Co.'s all steel hay press. For sale by Seneca Hardware Co.
—For Sale—A corn mill in complete order. Esopus stones. Mrs. J. D. Shaullin, Westminster, R. F. D. No. 4.
—Look up your registration certificate and tax receipt, so you can vote next Tuesday.
—Standard granulated sugar, twenty pounds, only $1.
—Craig-Verner Mercantile Co.
—Married, October 12, 1905, by Rev. D. T. Hayes, George Fowler and Miss Josephine M. Jilden, both of Oconee.
—See our buggies, wagons, harness, mowers and rakes if you want bargains. J. & J. S. Carter, Westminster, S. C.
—Next Tuesday is the day on which the dispensaries are to be voted out of Oconee county.
—Rev. J. W. Head will preach at Cheochee Baptist church on next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.
—Shoes, shoes! shoes!—anything in shoes—cheaper at Norman's store.
—Mrs. J. P. Keese left Monday for Atlanta, Ga., where she will spend a week visiting her brother, W. J. Reeder, and other relatives.
—An all steel hay press at a low price, that will pack commercial bales, is the latest thing at the Seneca Hardware Co.'s vast hardware emporium.
—Buggies, harness, White Hickory wagons. T. E. Alexander, Walhalla.
—Oconee county's tax books were opened last Monday morning. W. J. Schroder, treasurer, informs us that his collections up to this morning amount to about $200.
—Wanted—Lady or gentleman of fair education to travel for firm of $250,000 capital. Salary $1,072 per year, payable weekly. Expenses advanced. Address Geo. G. Clows, Walhalla, S. C.
—Hon. Martin F. Ansel, of Greenville, was circulating among his many friends in Oconee county at court at Walhalla last Friday. He is the same pleasant, jolly good fellow as in the days of yore, when he was the able prosecuting attorney for the State.

—Seed wheat, rye, barley, at Norman's.
—John Rose leaves this afternoon for Ensley, Ala.
—German services and the Lord's supper in the Lutheran church next Sunday.
—Second-hand school books at greatly reduced prices. Walhalla Drug Co.
—$50,000 saved to the people of Oconee county next year, by voting the dispensaries out, means that much property.
—The best line of cough and cold preparations to be had at the Walhalla Drug Co.'s.
—Attention is directed to the advertisement of Campbell Courtney, of Newry, in this issue. He is offering for sale a shingle mill and boiler and engine at a bargain.
—Lost—Bay horse mule, about 10 years old. Got away at Ravenell's bridge, on Oconee side. Return T. M. Lowery, Seneca; W. M. Brown, Jocassee, or G. T. Reid, Calhoun, and receive reward.
—Mrs. Kate Moss, the qualified administratrix of the estate of L. A. B. Moss, publishes an important notice this week to debtors and creditors in said estate. Read and heed.
—We have to arrive in a few days one car load of salt in 100 pound cotton sacks. For next 15 days only 50 cents per sack.
—Craig-Verner Mercantile Co.
—Harper, Boyd & Hunt, of Seneca, announces a number of specials in dry goods and notions this week. They are recognized as "top notchers" in their lines and have always something to interest and attract the public. Read their advertisement and be sure to call on them.
—Miss Annie Henrietta Biemann has issued invitations to the marriage of her sister, Miss Katharine Anna Biemann, to Sidney Adams, the marriage to take place at her home on Faculty Hill, Walhalla, S. C., on Wednesday evening, October 31st, 1905, at 8.30 o'clock. The marriage of this popular young couple will be the most brilliant society event of the season.
—Something new at the Walhalla Drug Co.'s—Cherry Phosphate Punch.
—Dr. J. K. McWhorter, of Calhoun, S. C., has recently gone to Washington, D. C., where he will continue the practice of his profession. He will reside with his son, Dr. A. W. McWhorter, who has been elected to the Chair of Latin and Greek in the George Washington University, formally the Columbia University, Washington, D. C. Congress changed the name about a year ago.
—The Seneca Hardware Co. are offering for sale the only successful low-priced, all steel hay press ever sold in this county.
—Ruskin Anderson, of Seneca, S. C., spreads his sails to the tune of a two-page advertisement this week. It speaks for itself in large type and in a convincing manner. Mr. Anderson studies to please and win customers by presenting an endless array of values in every department of his immense business. His bill of fare is really tempting this week. Read it and then go and purchase some of his choice bargains.
—Norman's bargain store is the most popular store for anything necessary.
—Special attention is directed to the advertisement of The James L. Tapp Co., Columbia, S. C. These gentlemen are offering great bargains in everything carried in their immense emporium of fashion. Those of our people who attend the State Fair should pay this popular dry goods establishment a visit and get some of the nice and valuable articles there to be found at prices in competition with any city or town in the South.
—A large assortment of souvenir post cards at Bell's drug store.
—We are indebted to A. W. Love, Secretary of the State Agricultural and Mechanical Society of South Carolina for a copy of the premium list of the thirty-seventh annual fair, to be held at Columbia, beginning Tuesday morning, October 24th, and ending Friday evening, October 27th. Great preparations are being made to make this one of the best fairs for many years. The railroads are offering cheap excursion rates and the entertainment of the crowds of visitors is being carefully looked after. Let everybody go who can and enjoy the annual gathering of our agricultural hosts.

—Mrs. J. P. McCarey is now clerking for C. W. Pitchford Co.
—In Greenville yesterday J. R. Earle, Esq., of Walhalla, was admitted to practice in the Federal Courts.
—Largest and prettiest variety of lamps and chinaware, cheap at Norman's.
—Haven't you a friend whom you would like to help by putting temptation out of his way? If so, vote "No Dispensary."
—We are in a position to save you some money on your hardware.
—Craig-Verner Mercantile Co.
—Prayer meeting at the Walhalla Methodist church this (Wednesday) evening at 7 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to be present.
—Miss Carrie Perry, who has spent six weeks with relatives and friends at Spartanburg and Asheville, returned to Walhalla last Monday.
—The women and children of this county expect every man to do his duty on next Tuesday in voting, a ticket with the words "No Dispensary" on it.
—The three little Misses Motz gave a very interesting performance last Friday evening at Bell's Hall. It was very good and the crowd present enjoyed the entertainment very much.
—J. C. Wallazz, of Philadelphia, Pa., is expected to arrive in Walhalla this afternoon, to be the guest of Judge D. A. Smith and family. This is Mr. Wallazz's first visit to South Carolina and we hope it will be a delightful one.
—The Walhalla Ladies' Missionary Society and the Parsonage Aid Society will meet at the residence of Mrs. D. A. Smith to-morrow (Thursday) afternoon at 4 o'clock. A full attendance of the ladies of these societies earnestly desired.

—Preaching at the Seneca Methodist church next Sunday morning and night at the usual hours, by the pastor, Rev. E. S. Jones.
—Dynamite only 10 cents per stick.
—Craig-Verner Mercantile Co.
—J. E. Burnside, of New York, after spending four years in the United States Navy, is visiting relatives and friends in Oconee.
—J. E. Knox and family have moved to Seneca. We regret to lose this family from our community, but wish them much success in their new home.
—Mrs. R. L. Rogers and children returned last week from Fountain Inn, where they had been visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Rogers. Mrs. Rogers has recently purchased Dr. G. C. Probst's residence on Faculty Hill. She will occupy it after November 1st.
—An event of more than usual interest in local social circles will occur today at high noon, when Chas. W. Bauknight and Miss Lillian Verner will be united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Verner. We extend in advance our hearty congratulations to the groom and best wishes to the happy young couple.
—James T. Wilson has recently made a sale of all his real estate on Main street in Walhalla to W. M. Brown, of Jocassee, the price paid being $1,700. Mr. Wilson, it is said, will go to Pell City, Ala., on a visit to his son, and from there to his old home in Charleston, where he will take up his residence again in several years. We regret to lose Mr. Wilson and his good wife from our town, but wish for them much happiness wherever their lot may be cast.

Important Notice to Homeseekers.

I will be at Oakway, Oconee County, South Carolina, on October 25th to 28th, instant inclusive, for the purpose of closing out all lands optioned to me, as well as the lands I have bought in that section.

These lands are well improved farms, comparatively level, and the most of them have new houses, barns, etc.

I will pay all expenses while I am there, of bona fide homeseekers, who purchase lands from me, including all railroad fare from all points in Greenville, Pickens and Oconee Counties, provided you notify me in time to provide proper accommodations for you.

I expect to have twenty to forty desirable tracts of land to offer, all of which are to be closed out at private sale and at the right kind of prices.

Parties who want me to offer their lands at this sale must send me full descriptions of same at once, so I can have them examined, and know that the prices are right, before offering them to bidders.

I shall reject all lands in this sale that are optioned to me at a price above that prevailing for like quality of lands in the location where they are offered.

TERMS: One-third cash. Balance in three equal annual installments, with interest at eight per cent per annum, with mortgage on premises to secure balance of purchase money.

Now if you mean business this is your chance to secure a home in the best country on earth.

Address me at Anderson, S. C.

It's a Big Mistake

to pay too little for Clothes—it's a bigger mistake to pay too much—why make either? Clothes that bear the "S. M. & S." label are the "happy medium"—they are "MADE RIGHT AT THE RIGHT PRICE"—in fact, they are right all round.
They retain their shape—give satisfactory wear—embody style—are moderately priced.
Come in and let us show you.

HUNTER, DENDY & COMPANY,
Seneca, S. C.

It Costs You Nothing!

TO LOOK AT OUR LINE AND GET OUR PRICES.

We take great pleasure in showing you our stock. In these modern times it will pay you to compare goods and prices. Don't take just anybody's advice about buying goods from cash bargain stores. Business is business. If we can save you money on your purchases, it stands you in hand to trade with us. If we can't save you some money we don't want to sell you. The reason we can sell you goods for less money is because we pay cash for every dollar's worth we buy. We get the cash for every dollar's worth we sell. Having two advantages, we save in buying and we save in selling. When you trade with us you pay only your own bills. When you trade with the credit merchants you have to pay the advance. Some one has to pay for the losses. It might be you.

We have en route a lot of Fine White Salt, as clean as a pin, which we will offer, when it arrives, at only 50c. per sack.
Three cars of Flour, to arrive in a few days, at only $5 per barrel. Every barrel guaranteed.
Granulated Sugar, 20 pounds for $1.
We have many other bargains which will interest you.

The special prices on Flour and Salt will last only ten days after goods arrive. If you want a bargain don't be too late.
We are in the market for a lot of Country Produce, Chickens, Eggs, Butter, Syrup, Peas, Cane Seed, Etc.
If you have anything to sell be sure to see us.
