Following is a list of unclaimed letters remaining in the Walhalla post office for the week ending October 14, 1905: Miss Lily Ammons, C. Adams, A. S. Boren, Frank Prathy, Collin Whitten. Persons calling for any of the above will please say that they are advertised. J. M. Merrick, P. M.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY. Take LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our friends for the sympathy and kindness shown us during the last illness and death of our dear husband and father. May heaven's richest blessings be showered upon you all for your earnest prayer. Mrs. S. E. Belotte and Children.

A Bull Fight in Oconee Next Tuesday.

"If an ox gore a man or woman to death, then the ox shall be surely stoned, and his flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox shall be quit. But if the ox were wont to push with his horns in time past, and it hath been testified to his owner, and he hath not kept him in, but that he hath killed a man or a woman, the ox shall be stoned, and his owner also shall be put to death." Exodus 21: 28.

The liquor traffic is the ox. It has gored its hundreds to death. It was wont to gore in time past. Its owners know that it is a gorer, and pusheth with its horn. Then the duty is plain—stone this ox next Tuesday. Keep him in that he gore not. It will be noticed that the ox is to be stoned in every instance. The ballots are stones. Next Tuesday which way you will throw these stones, at the ox of the liquor traffic, the dispensaries, or at the poor, unfortunate women and children? C. Wardlaw.

Insomnia and Indigestion Cured.

"Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. I was troubled this way for about three months, when I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and received immediate relief," says John Dixon, Tullamore, Ontario, Canada. For sale by J. W. Bell, Walhalla; W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

A Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to neighbors, friends and good colored people for kindness shown us in the death of our father, Elias Crooks. May God reward them with his richest blessings. His Children.

Sermon on Odd Fellowship.

On the fifth Sunday in this month, at 11 o'clock, Rev. S. A. McDaniel will preach a sermon on Odd Fellowship at South Union. All Odd Fellows are invited to attend. S. L. R.

Sick headache is caused by a disordered condition of the stomach and is quickly cured by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by J. W. Bell, Walhalla, and W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

The Good-Ernest Marriage.

The home of John L. Smith, in Walhalla, was the scene of a beautiful marriage last Sunday night, October 15, at 8 p. m., when John H. Ernest, brother-in-law of Mr. Smith, and Miss Effie Good, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. Good, of Walhalla, were united in the holy bonds of wedlock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. White, pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist church. The ritual of that church was used, which was short, but which was very impressively rendered. Miss Good has resided here with her parents about ten years, they having come to this county from Indiana. She has many friends in Walhalla and vicinity who wish for her a long and happy life. Mr. Ernest is a son of Rev. and Mrs. A. Ernest, who have resided in and near town for a number of years, but are natives of Indiana. He was for a number of years an employee of the Keowee Courier and is well and favorably known throughout the country. This union will prove a valuable acquisition to our community, in which they expect to make their home. Congratulations!

A GUARANTEED CURE FOR PILES

First application gives ease and rest. 50c. If your druggist hasn't it send 50c. in stamps and it will be forwarded post-paid by Paris Medicines Co., St. Louis, Mo.

Death of Rev. John R. Riley.

The Rev. John R. Riley, a venerable minister of the Presbyterian church, who lived for several years in Walhalla, and was a Professor in Adger College, at this place, died on Monday, October 9, at Brevard, North Carolina, at the age of 70 years. The funeral and interment took place in Brevard on Tuesday following his death.

Graduating in 1860 from the South Carolina College, Mr. Riley married Miss Anna Donnelly, of Greenwood. She died about two years ago. Most of his ministerial career of forty years was spent as pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Laurens, and he also did good work in the service of the old Laurensville Herald. His children are Mrs. A. E. Brown, of Greenville, A. B. Riley and Misses Lila and Frances Riley, of Greenwood.

Mr. Riley was greatly loved and honored by all who knew him. A good man has gone to his reward. Many people in Walhalla and community will join us in extending condolence to the bereaved family.

Some Seasonable Advice.

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by J. W. Bell, Walhalla, W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

THE LOCAL COTTON MARKET.

At 10.30 this (Wednesday) morning local cotton was selling as follows: Walhalla, 9 1/2; Seneca, 9 9-16; Westminster, 9 1/2 to 9 1/4; West Union, 9 1/4.

Death of Elias Crooks.

After a week of severe suffering, the immortal spirit of Elias Crooks passed into the "great unknown" at 1.35 p. m. on October 11, 1905. He was in his 68th year, having been born February 8, 1839. He was one of Oconee's most respected citizens, and was loved and appreciated by all who knew him. All that loving hearts and willing hands could do was done to stay the monster, death, but when God calls we must go.

He was a member of Friendship church. He was a loving father, an honest and upright citizen, a good neighbor and sympathetic friend. After appropriate funeral services, conducted by Rev. M. R. Kirkpatrick, his remains were laid to rest in Friendship cemetery.

The last home tie is severed, And another vacant chair; The dear voice is stilled forever, And our father is no more there. L. G. C.

Don't Borrow Trouble.

It is a bad habit to borrow anything, but the worst thing you can possibly borrow is trouble. When sick, sore, heavy, weary and worn-out by the pains and poisons of dyspepsia, biliousness, Bright's disease, and similar internal disorders, don't sit down and brood over your symptoms, but fly for relief to Electric Bitters. Here you will find sure and permanent forgetfulness of all your troubles, and your body will not be burdened by a load of debt disease. At all drug stores. Price 50c. Guaranteed.

Meteorological Matters.

The following is the record of temperature and rainfall as recorded at the U. S. Station, at J. D. Isbell's, near Walhalla, for week ending October 13th, as recorded by Miss Laura Isbell, observer:

Table with 5 columns: Month and Day, Condition of the Weather, Max. Temperature, Min. Temperature, Mean Temperature, and Rainfall in Inches. Data for October 7-13, 1905.

Death of Mrs. Jas. Lee, Sr.

Died, on Saturday night, October 14, 1905, after a protracted illness, from the infirmities of old age, Mrs. James Lee, Sr. Her maiden name was Calhoun, a sister of the late J. M. Calhoun. She was about 70 years of age and was a woman of excellent character and many virtues and numbered her friends by the score. She leaves a husband and one son to mourn her death. Her body was buried at Pleasant Ridge Baptist cemetery on Monday, Rev. M. G. Hild conducting the funeral services. Peace to her ashes.

How to Cure Corns and Bunions.

First, soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it; then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily, rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn a few days to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled. For sale by J. W. Bell, Walhalla, and W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

The Good Time Club.

On Friday, October 13th, the G. T. C. met with Miss Bertha Schumacher. After a short business meeting, in which the club decided to meet with Misses Sallie and Anna Stribling next Friday, the social part of the evening was taken up. Red and white colors of the evening, were beautifully carried out. Each member was provided with a card and pencil and was told to draw a certain animal and when all had finished it was very interesting to guess what the different drawings represented. A good many cut for the prize, Miss Gertrude Biemann, the fortune-favored one, winning a beautiful cake plate. After this Miss Katie Schumacher rendered some beautiful music on the piano. Delicious refreshments of cake, chocolate and fruit were daintily served by Misses Bertha and Katie Schumacher.

New Cure for Cancer.

All surface cancers are now known to be curable by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Jas. Walters, of Duffield, Va., writes: "I had a cancer on my lip for years, that seemed incurable till Bucklen's Arnica Salve healed it, and now it is perfectly well." Guaranteed cure for cuts and burns. 25c at all drug stores.

Death of a Good Woman.

Mrs. Caroline R. Stucke died at her residence, near West Union, on Saturday, October 14, 1905, aged 65 years, 6 months and 2 days. Mrs. Stucke was born in Hanover, Germany, and came to this country in her youth. She was twice married, her first husband being Carl Linstedt. Of this union one son survived. Her second husband was Henry Stucke, who preceded her by death eighteen years. To them were born two sons and three daughters, of whom two sons and two daughters are living. She was a devoted and consistent member of the Evangelical Lutheran church from infancy until death. Her funeral services were conducted on Sunday at 4 p. m. in St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church, by her pastor, Rev. H. C. Grossman, Rev. E. S. Jones offering prayer, in the presence of a concourse that filled the spacious church. Besides the children many relatives and a large circle of friends mourn the death of this devoted lady, one sister from Charleston being present. The large throng of people present to pay their tribute of respect to the memory of this faithful woman is the highest eulogy that can be paid to a life consecrated to faithful and loving ministrations, whose secret power was her faith in God and that Divine life in the soul that carried her through all her troubles and sufferings, fruitful in all good works, to her eternal rest. Rest in peace!

Death of Miss Lucile Earle.

The many friends in Walhalla of Miss Lucile Earle will regret exceedingly to learn of her untimely death, which occurred at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Earle, in the city of Anderson, last Saturday night. A few months ago she spent several days here as the guest of her cousin, Miss Lula Earle, and became quite popular with our young people. She was a member of the First Baptist church of Anderson and lived a beautiful Christian life. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of many friends in the sorrow caused by the cutting off of this promising young life of only 16 years.

Why Refer to Doctors

Because we make medicines for them. We give them the formula for Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and they prescribe it for coughs, colds, bronchitis, consumption. They trust it. Then you can afford to trust it. Sold for over 60 years.

"Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is a remedy that should be in every home. I have used a great deal of it for hard coughs and colds, and I know what a splendid medicine it is. I can not recommend it too highly."—MARK E. COHRS, Hyde Park, Mass.

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. Also manufacturers of Sarsaparilla Pills, Hair Vigor.

Ayer's Pills greatly aid the Cherry Pectoral in breaking up a cold.
