Sabbath Observance.

Rev. W. H. McMaster, of the "American Sabbath Union", will give a lecture in the Presbyterian Church at Seneca, on Thursday night, March 29th, at 8 o'clock, on "Sabbath Observance". The public is invited to attend and hear a good address.

Auction Sale of Land.

I will sell, to the highest bidder, on Monday, April 2d, 1906, thirty-nine acres of land within the corporate limits of Walhalla. Desirable for building lots. Terms: One-half cash. J. O. Hicks.

Isbell-Murphy.

Anderson Mall, March 24th: Invitations have been issued to the marriage of L. M. Murphy, chief of police, to Miss Laura Isbell, of Walhalla, the marriage to take place at the bride's home on Thursday, April 6th, 1906. Miss Isbell is quite well known in Anderson, having been a frequent visitor to the city. She is a pretty and accomplished young lady, and Chief Murphy's friends will congratulate him on his good fortune.

Came to Death by Burning.

An inquest was held by Coroner W. L. Harbin on Saturday, March 24th, near Stone church, on the Rochester farm, over the dead body of Plouncy Cherry, colored, aged seventeen years. The evidence showed that she came in a few days before from Georgia and stopped with a negro in a cabin, which was discovered on fire late in the evening. It was forced open and the fire extinguished.

A jury was empaneled and an inquest held, the jury rendering the following verdict: We find that deceased, Plouncy Cherry, came to her death by misadventure or accident, resulting from burns received on the 23d instant. J. Bale Whitten, foreman.

Dr. E. A. Hines conducted the post mortem examination.

The Coroner had to arrange for the interment of body, as she had no means, and no relatives or friends.

Torture by Savages.

"Speaking of the torture to which some of the savage tribes in the Philippines subject their captives, reminds me of the intense suffering I endured for three months from inflammation of the kidneys," says W. M. Sherman, of Cushing, Mo. "Nothing helped me until I tried Electric Bitters, three bottles of which completely cured me." Cures liver complaint, dyspepsia, blood disorders and malaria, and restores the weak and nervous to robust health. Guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50c.

Death of Mrs. H. E. Thompson.

Barnwell People, March 22d: "After a brief illness on the morning of the 15th instant Mrs. Lamb Buist Thompson departed this life at her home in Columbia, aged 33 years. Her body was brought to Blackville, where the beautiful morning of her happy life was passed, and after touching funeral services, conducted by Rev. C. M. Billings, laid to the last long rest by gentle, loving hands in the God's Acre, where the remains of her parents wait the coming of the eternal spring time.

"She was the youngest child of the late Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Buist. A devoted husband, three little sons, an infant daughter, two sisters, four brothers and a host of friends survive to bear in their hearts the sorrow of the mysterious Providence that has taken her in the best summer of her life and happiness and usefulness into the rest and reward that crown such pure and faithful souls in the better world. They will cherish until they meet her again the sweetness of her smile, the music of her voice, the goodness of the heart, the gentleness of the hand now treasured for aye in the city of God's saints above."

A Card of Thanks.

Editors Courier: We wish to thank our many friends of Cross Roads for their kind acts and sympathy during the illness and death of our dear sister, Levannah Gibson. May God bless and reward each and all of them. The Family.

Afflicted With Rheumatism.

"I was and am yet afflicted with rheumatism," says J. C. Bayne, editor of The Herald, Addington, Indian Territory, "but thanks to Chamberlain's Pain Balm am able once more to attend to business. It is the best of liniments." If troubled with rheumatism give Pain Balm a trial and you are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords. One application relieves the pain. For sale by J. W. Bell, Walhalla; W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

Unclaimed Letters.

Following is a list of unclaimed letters remaining in the Walhalla post office for the week ending March 24, 1906:
 Miss Effie Alexander, Miss Virginia DeMore, Miss Landy Gamay, Miss Hulda Huckby, Miss Mary Stagers, Mrs. John Wakefield, Miss Nellie Winston, George Martin, Williamsburg Insurance and Bonding Agency (package).
 Persons calling for any of the above will please say that they are advertised.
 J. M. Merrick, P. M.

Papers say the peach crop is damaged over one million dollars, result of the most severe cold wave ever known at this time of the year.

As to the Ten Cent Incident Fee.

To the Patrons of the Walhalla Graded School: At a recent meeting of our board an incidental fee of ten cents was authorized to be charged each pupil to pay, in part, the incidental expenses of the school—chalk, ink, fuel, janitor hire, etc. The superintendent was instructed to collect the same and report at the next meeting of the board. At a special meeting the superintendent reported that a few patrons had not yet paid and asked for further instructions. He was directed by us to extend the time four days and allow the privileges of the school only to those who complied with the rule of the board before the expiration of the four days above mentioned. We believed that the patrons would respond to the call for this small amount at a time when the school was passing through a crisis, on account of the voting out of the county dispensary. Our sole purpose was to decrease as much as possible the debt of our district, the sum of one thousand dollars having been borrowed to maintain the school four months after the public money was exhausted.
 S. P. Denny, Chairman,
 C. E. Gaillard,
 J. H. Moore, Sec. and Treas.

Sleeplessness.

Disorders of the stomach produce a nervous condition and often prevent sleep. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets stimulate the digestive organs, restore the system to a healthy condition and make sleep possible. For sale by J. W. Bell, Walhalla; W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to thank my friends who so nobly aided me by their help and sympathy during the sickness and death of my dear husband. Mere words cannot express my appreciation of every little deed of kindness or word of sympathy; but my earnest prayer is that the richest blessings of heaven may be showered in great abundance upon them every one.
 Mrs. Jemima Riley.

In Memory of Mrs. Levannah Gibson.

On March 16th God, in His wisdom and mercy, saw fit to call to rest his beloved child, Mrs. Levannah Gibson, after a lingering illness of consumption. Mrs. Gibson was the daughter of the late C. B. and Nancy Sullivan. She was born and reared near where she died—Cross Roads.

In 1890 she was married to E. A. Gibson, of this county. While young she gave her heart to God, and following her religious convictions, connected herself with the Beaverdam Baptist church at Fair Play of which she was ever afterwards a consistent member, following always, as best she could, the straight and narrow path. She was a true, loving and tender wife, a devoted and self-sacrificing mother, discharging her duty to each a like, with a sweet, gentle obedience, with the assurance of a Father's promise to his faithful children, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, enter thou into the kingdom of heaven." She leaves a husband and five children, (a babe just two weeks old), three sisters and two brothers—Mrs. J. B. Herring, Mrs. B. H. Glymph, Mrs. W. R. Ables, J. C. Sullivan, M. V. Sullivan, and a host of friends and relatives to mourn her loss and cherish her memory. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. James Mason from the Baptist church at Cross Roads on March 18th.
 A Niece and Friend.

Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Itch, Ring Worm, Herpes, Barbers' Itch.
 All of these diseases are attended by intense itching, which is almost instantly relieved by applying Chamberlain's Salve and by its continued use a permanent cure may be effected. It has, in fact, cured many cases that had resisted all other treatment. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by J. W. Bell, Walhalla; W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

Farmers' Mutual Insurance Association.

The directors of the Oconee County Farmers' Mutual Insurance Association will please meet at the Court House, in Walhalla, on Monday, April 2d, at 11 o'clock, to transact very important business.
 J. B. Pickett, President.
 W. M. Lemmons, Secretary.

Oconee County Farmers' Union.

Oconee County Farmers' Union will meet at Oakway on Friday, April 6, at 10 o'clock, a. m. All local unions are requested to send a full delegation and all brethren are urged to be present. Brother B. F. Earle, State organizer, and others from a distance will be with us. The secretaries of local unions are requested to collect all dues for the first and second quarters, which will be 30 cents each for those who have not paid the first quarter. Local secretaries will retain one-third and turn the remainder over to the county secretary and treasurer on day of meeting. All come, as there will be some important business to transact, also delegates to elect to State meeting, which will meet at Anderson Court House on May 31, 1906.
 J. B. Pickett, President.
 A. H. Ellison, Secretary and Treasurer.

Death of Mrs. J. H. Cowan.

On the night of March 22, 1906, just before 11 o'clock, Mrs. James H. Cowan, of near Westminster, departed this life. She was a noble good woman, and our loss is heaven's gain. She leaves a loving husband and five dear children. Surviving her also are a mother, a sister and one brother. The bereaved have the sympathy of a host of friends in their sad hour of sorrow and pain. Weep not, dear ones, she is gone, but not forgotten.
 A Friend.

Card of Thanks.

Editors Courier: I wish through your columns to thank the people who were so kind to us during the sickness and death of my wife.
 E. A. Gibson.

It is stated that the English spinners are endeavoring to purchase one hundred and forty-five thousand acres of land in Georgia on which to grow cotton for their own mills.

The Columbia correspondent of the News and Courier says: There are 8,804 pensioners on the lists of the State on account of the Confederate fund. It is a noteworthy fact that one-tenth of all of the pensioners in South Carolina are in Spartanburg district.

Old Pickens, March 26.—Our pastor, Rev. W. F. Strickland, filed his regular appointment here Sunday. He preached an instructive sermon.
 Mrs. Rachael White has been quite ill with la grippe. It is hoped by her many friends that she may be restored to her health again soon.
 J. S. Craig made a business trip to Greenville Friday.

J. B. and B. H. Powers went to New Hope Sunday. We wonder what carried them that way?
 Ark Humcutt, from Stamp Creek, made a pleasant call at John Manley's Sunday afternoon.
 Ed White, from near New Hope, attended Sunday school here last second Sunday. Come again, Ed, you are always welcome.

Mrs. Sallie Cannon and daughter, Bessie, visited her brother, Carlos Gault, at Norris, last second Saturday and Sunday. Archie White, from Wolf Stake, attended preaching at this place Sunday.
 J. B. Hill, from Walhalla, was at his old home here one day last week attending to business.
 Mrs. Elizabeth Moser, of near West Union, moved to Greenville. We are sorry to lose her from our county.

It has been predicted by the farmers here that it would be the 20th of April before cotton could be planted, on account of cold weather. Blue Ey es.

Indians Massacre Seven.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 24.—News has reached this city of the murder of five members of the family of Pedro Meza, president of Ladura, in Sonora, Mexico, and two others, who were massacred by Indians within a few miles of their home.
 The bodies were left in the roadway until a sufficient number of troops could be sent to overawe the raiding outlaws and bring in the victims.
