

MISS SHELOR MAKES A REPLY.

SOME EXTRACTS THAT SHOW THAT HER WORK HAS BEEN APPRECIATED.

If you will read school law, 1906, page 12, Section 1138, you will see that you are not an ideal superintendent. Why not have above section printed in the Keowee Courier?

Have you ever had Section 1244 (Arbor Day) observed?

You said when you went in office there were only eight libraries, and during your administration of seventeen months ten were established. Read Mr. Martin's report, 1904, page 88. When Mr. Craig was in office there were ten libraries. Page 162, in 1905, seventeen—ten of seventeen before counted. White Rock, Seneca and Bear Swamp school libraries were started over five years ago. Be careful, Mr. Colley, for I read the superintendent's reports, and have had them sent me for six years.

You must be quite guilty of saying Clemson was the place for aristocrats, for I said "one superintendent" said so. Now you say you did not say it.

You said I did not know anything more about Florence, Marion and Richard than a "last year's bird's nest." I think you measured me by your own narrow-minded observation. I have heard these men talk at State Teachers' Associations and educational rallies, but I have never seen or heard you there.

I have no apology to make for the "Lady or Tiger."

Yes, I say there are men, women and children in Oconee who cannot read or write.

I will let my work stand the test. It is endorsed by leading educators. The citizens of Oconee know what I have done.

I trust you will take a Bible course, for you need it. You say God made man "crooked." God made man, both male and female, after His own image, but being left to the freedom of their will, sinned and fell.

Measure my fidelity to the schools in the future by the six years of the past.

My prayer is:
"God give us men;
A time like this demands
Strong minds, great hearts and ready hands;

Men whom the lust of office does not kill;
Men whom the spoils of office cannot buy;
Men who possess opinions and a will;
Men who have honor;
Men who will not lie."

I remain, sincere for development in rural schools, homes and churches.

Marye R. Shelor.

Endorsing Miss Shelor's Work.
Gov. Charles Aycock, N. C.: "Glad to hear of your work for Southern Education Board. Wish you greater success." President Robert Ogden, Southern Education Board: "I am very much interested in your work, from your report. I am glad of your sympathy for diseased and defective children, and your wish for a home school for them."

Miss Effie Martin, Return Library: "Any advice you can give, don't hesitate to give it. We shall appreciate it."

Misses Lizzie Bruce, Lilly Doyle, Helen Moss, Jodie Haley, Mamie Ansel, Emily Compton, Sue Blackwell, and Prof. Boggs, Nicholson and Singleton sent letters of thanks and appreciation for pictures and books for schools.

Prof. J. S. Jennings, Oakway (1902): "Glad you accepted our invitation to talk on 'The Audubon Society.' Our children are now bird-lovers."

Mrs. Alden, President International Sunshine Society: "I appointed you Sunshine organizer because you have done faithful work for Southern Board of Education. The South Carolina Sunshiners write that they greatly appreciate your writing the Sunshine Column for the Columbia State."

Rev. J. C. Shive, once Miss Shelor's pastor, said to Miss Nance: "Miss Marye is a most excellent young woman; in love mind and soul in her work."

Prof. Dendy, Walker-McElmoyle Consolidated Rural Graded School: "Miss Shelor has done more for the rural schools than any one else in Oconee. I wanted her to be present to-day (memorial) because I knew she would charm the children and arouse interest. I wish you great success in your rural school work, and in establishing the school for defectives."

Benjamin Sloan, Dr. D. B. Johnson, Winthrop College, to Miss Olive Newton: "Miss Shelor is a wide-awake young woman. Perhaps we should have sent her to some of the lower counties, where there is more money, to develop her valuable ideas, but we sent her to Pickens and Oconee, where she is most needed."

Dr. Charles Melver, of North Carolina, of Southern Education Board: "You have worked faithfully."

"Miss Shelor has been instrumental in donating for us flags and pictures as prizes for rural school improvement in Oconee and Pickens counties."—J. B. Upham, Youths' Companion.

"Miss Marye R. Shelor, Westminster, S. C., has, for six years, donated books (eight boxes) to libraries and poor children in Oconee county, South Carolina, from us."—Miss Sara Brigham, Lead-Hand Society, Boston.

Miss Mamie Ansel: "Accept this gift from Bear Swamp school. We appreciate what you have done for our school. Christmas, 1902."

Governor D. C. Heyward: "I wish you great success. I know you will meet it, for you deserve it."

Governor Heyward, at Educational Conference: "I wish Miss Shelor's work to grow until it reaches over South Carolina. I wish there was a woman on every hill in South Carolina who is in love with school development as Miss Shelor."

Dr. A. L. Phillips, superintendent of Sunda schools of Southern Presbyterian church: "It does me good to come in contact with Southern women who are freeing the young lives and making things come to pass. I love to think of you as one of the number. May God abundantly bless you."

Superintendent John J. McMahan: "Your association (O. R. S. I. A.) is a pioneer in the South. You deserve great credit for the work you have commenced. With best wishes."

Superintendent J. L. Mann, Florence: "Let me congratulate you. Never give up. Go ahead."

Col. R. A. Thompson, address at The Block (1903): Miss She or has taken great interest in furthering the cause of education. Superintendent R. T. Hallum, of Pickens, paid her a very high compliment for her zeal and ability in their behalf, while a school visitor. Let us hold up her hands."

Miss Louise Poppenheim, at Woman's Rural School Improvement Association meeting, December, 1905: "My friends, Mrs. Coleman and Miss Shelor, were instrumental in starting this great movement in Oconee six years ago. Miss Shelor starts a work and finishes it, regardless of opposition, which has been great in her county."

Prof. Daniel, of Clemson College, Prof. Tate, of Charleston, Hon. O. B. Martin and A. G. Rembert, of the State Board, told Miss Shelor, at Clemson, last summer, that they greatly appreciated her work.

Cured of Bright's Disease.
Geo. A. Sherman, Lisbon Red Mills, Lawrence county, New York, writes: "I had kidney disease for many years and had been treated by physicians for twelve years; had taken a well-known kidney medicine and other remedies that were recommended, but got no relief until I began using Foley's Kidney Cure. The first half bottle relieved me and four bottles have cured me of this terrible disease. Before I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure I had to make water about every fifteen minutes, day and night, and passed a brick-dust substance, and sometimes a slimy substance. I believe I would have died if I had not taken Foley's Kidney Cure." J. W. Bell.

Death of D. A. Dickson.

Ramsay's Creek, June 15.—David Alonzo Dickson died June 11, 1906, aged 34 years and 3 months. He was a consistent member of the Baptist church, and lived a moral Christian life. While his disease was of long standing, yet he bore his pains with meekness and fortitude, and fully expressed his willingness to go to that blessed home where sickness, sorrow and trouble are known no more.

He leaves a wife, one little girl, eight sisters and a brother, and a host of relatives and friends to mourn his death. We feel sure our loss is his eternal gain.

On the day following his death, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends, his remains were laid to rest in Holly Springs cemetery to await the coming of the resurrection, when the dead in Christ shall rise. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. L. D. Chambers.

Farewell, brother; farewell, brother!
We must say our last farewell
Till we meet beyond the river,
Happy there with thee to dwell.
—A Friend.

A Thousand Dollars' Worth of Good.
"I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel or stones with excruciating pain," says A. H. Thurnes, a well known coal operator of Buffalo, Ohio. "I got no relief from medicine until I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure, then the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick-dust-like substance and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. It has done me $1,000 worth of good." Foley's Kidney Cure will cure every form of kidney or bladder disease.

Revival Stops Work in Mill.

The Huntsville (Ala.) Cotton Mill is in trouble again as a result of another religious revival in that place. A few weeks ago, when the Culpeper-Connelly revivals were in progress there, the entire mill was compelled to close down one day on account of a religious enthusiasm that pervaded the mill hands, and one day last week the hands walked out in order to attend the Starkey-Rice revival, and the mill was forced to shut down again.

No use his trying—Hammar is put together to stick when it's once applied. It was bad luck for him to go under that ladder, anyway—but nothing to the bad luck a paint dealer or painter must undergo with ordinary paints. Hammar paint is not ordinary. It is not a ready mixed paint. It is a product of its own class and character entirely. Long use and experimenting has proved beyond possible doubt that a combination of zinc with lead makes the finest paint on earth. Many ready mixed paints have that virtue, but they are too "finished—the oil is in them. That should not be put in until the very day the paint is going to be applied. Every painter will tell you so and the only way to get the life of the oil from start to finish—is to put it into the paint yourself when you are ready to spread it. If you want the finest, freshest, strongest, farthest-spreading and longest-sticking paint on earth, you have to get Hammar Paint—the paint that stops at the right point—with the pigments and driers scientifically ground by machinery, and the oil left for you to put in. Gallon of paint to gallon of oil, no more, no less—that's the whole story of paint satisfaction.

Hammar paint is guaranteed to stick and look well for five years; your money back if it don't. Drop in some day and let me show you how you can save 25% on the next bill of paint you buy.

SENECA HARDWARE COMPANY

Lawyer Patriok Gets Another Stay.

Canton, Ohio, June 14.—United States Supreme Court Justice, Wm. R. Day, has granted to Ex-Senator Wm. Lindsay, of Kentucky, and A. C. Shenstone, of New York City, on behalf of their client, Albert T. Patriok, a New York lawyer, who was convicted and sentenced to death for the murder of Wm. M. Rice, a writ of error and stay of execution. This gives counsel the privilege of carrying the case before the United States Supreme Court in October. Day's decision again delays the carrying out of the death sentence on Patriok, who is now in the death house at Sing Sing. It makes the fifth postponement for Patriok.
