a dressing for old chronic sores fere is nothing so good as Chamberlain's Salve. While it is not advisable to heal old sores entirely, they should be kept in good condition for which this salve is especially valuable. For sale by Dr. J. W. Bell, Walhalls; W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

Killed by Train in Walhalfa.

Killed by Train in Walhalia. Last Thursday Ervin Crain, of Pine Mountain, Ga, was run over by a freight train in the railroad yards and so seri-ing. His right leg was crushed, his body badly bruised, and he sustained internal injuries. Young Crain was about 18 years of age, and for several wears had been engaged in hauling freight from Walhalia to Highlands. N. C. Thursday one of his horses was sick and he could not return to High-lands at once. He was watching the freight train shift in the yard. A num-ber of cars were shoved down the main track, and as they passed the switch was thrown so as to allow the engine, paying no attention to the cars, which knocked him down and ran over him, with the result stated above. Witnesses is the accident say it was due to his of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Jacobs, where he was taken immediately after he was hurt, He was a son of Levi Crain, of Pine of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. ### Bowel Complaint in Children.

During the summer months children are subject to disorders of the bowels which should receive careful attention as soon as the first unnatural looseness of the bowels appears. The best medicine in use for bowel complaint is Chamber-lain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoze Rem-edy as it promptly controls any unnatural looseness of the bowels. For sale by Dr. J. W. Bell, Walhalla; W. J. Lunney, Sen-eca. eca.

Oconee Cotton Mill Valuations.

The State Board of Equalization has fixed the value for the cotton mills in South Carolina. The total average is slightly higher than that of 1905, though but few changes have been made. It will be observed that the following figures are what are known as full or 100 per cent valuations. Last year a 60 per cent basis was used and taxes were paid on 60 per cent of the 100 per cent value. The 100 per cent of the 100 per cent value. The 100 per cent value has to be first agreed upon and then the assessed valuation is agreed upon. It is, therefore, to be re-membered in figuring on the various as-sessments that the figures given in the following statement are on the 100 per cent valuation and that the basis for as-sessment has not yet been fixed. It may be 60 per cent as heretofore, or it may be less. The 100 per cent valuations in Oco-nee county are as follows: Cheswell Cot-ton Mill Co., $129,300; Courtenay Manu-facturing Co., $300,000; Oconee Knitting Mills, $15,000; Seneca Cotton Mills, $202,500; Walhalla Cotton Mills, $121,003. (The Westminster Knitting Mill is not in the list.) The total value of cotton manufacturing enterprises in South Carolina is $46,229,770.

The Picnic at Hunnicutt's Bridge.

About 800 people gathered at Hunni-out's Bridge on July 4th to hear Hon. J. E. Boggs soar off on the wings of ora-tory, like an eagal in the aerial world. his melodious voice echoing from the cold regions of the North to the magno-lia breezes on the South. The longer he spoke he seemed to grow deeper and more eloquent. His eloquence and seif-magnetiam seemed to captivate the en-tire andieuce. At the close of Mr. Boggs' speech ex-Sheriff W. W. Moss complimented the ladies and aunounced dinner. The good women spread a delicious repast, which was eujoyed by all.

New Hope Happenings.

New Hope Happenings. New Hope, July 16.—On July 10th the New Hope Sunday school met at the home of their aged and faithful superin tendent, Hon. J. C. Alexander, to honor and make his 60th birthday anuiversary a memorable one. The day was an ideal one and the children and older ones be-gan to gather at the superintendent's preity country home about 9 o'clock in the morning, and one family after ano-ther appeared until 11 o'clock, when the orowd numbered sbout 70. The chil-dren played games under the great oaks until too tired for other amusement, while the older ones indulged in pleas-ant conversation. It was pleasant in-deed to speed the day with our superin-tendent, who has been so faithful and punctual in the New Hope Sunday school for over fifteen years. At 12 o'clock a sumptuous dinner was spread in the inviting shades of the oak trees, which was enjoyed beyond measure. In the afternoon the crowd was a treat indeed. Then the superintendent pleasantly sur-prised the children by a treat of cardy, which delighted the little ones. As the shadows began to lengthen the crowd said good-bye to each other and returned to their respective homes, sfter spending a pleasant day and one long to be remem-bered.
