—W. G. Perry, of Greenville, is on a visit to his father, Capt. Wm. Perry, on Faculty Hill.
—See professional card of Dr. F. F. Collins. He has been in Walhalla several years and is well and favorably known in this section and needs no recommenda- tion at our hands.
—John R. Kaufmann, of Anderson, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Kaufmann, the first of this week. John has many friends, who are always glad to see him in his native town.
—Dr. W. K. Sharp, wife and two chil- dren, of Rivoli, are visiting at the home of Judge and Mrs. J. W. Holleman this week. We are always glad to welcome these good people in our midst.
—L. O. Russell, of Greenville, passed through Walhalla last Saturday on his way to Russell, where he will spend a short while with his parents, Capt. and Mrs. W. G. Russell, and family.
—Roy C. Kay, of Birmingham, Ala., is on a visit to his mother, Mrs. J. T. Kay, of East End, and other relatives in Wal- halla. Roy is looking well and his many friends are always glad to see him.
—Mrs. R. C. Wilhelm and her two children, Fred and Mary Lee, of Atlanta, Ga., are visiting her brother, C. W. Pitchford, and other relatives in Wal- halla. Her many friends here will be pleased to meet her.
—Norman's New Drug Store sells one- pound boxes Delmonico's fine chocolates at 50 cents. All kinds of box candies.
—The young people of Walhalla en- joyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Crisp last Friday evening. They all reported having a good time, as is gen- erally the rule when Misses Fannie and Annie Crisp entertain.
—W. E. and B. D. Gaillard have pur- chased the Jackson County Journal, pub- lished at Webster, N. C. They are sons of the late A. DuPre Gaillard, formerly of Oconee county. We welcome them to the field of Southern journalism, and bespeak for them much success, which we are sure they will merit.
—Charles D. Jaynes and his son, W. Barton Jaynes, of Valley Mills, Texas, are visiting in Oconee county. They arrived at Westminster the early part of last week. They have spent several days with relatives and friends at Walhalla and will remain in the county several days before returning home. They left this county in the fall of 1866, and this is their first visit to their old home. Their many friends are delighted to see them again.
—The town authorities have been hav- ing some good and lasting work done on Tugalo and College streets during the past two weeks. The sidewalks have been built and broadened and the streets otherwise improved. We say let the good work go on until all cross streets are put in as good condition as these two. J. M. Kelley has oversight of the work, and what Joe don't know about working streets and roads is not worth telling. "Forward" is the word.
—An invitation to inspect the hand- some fall and winter patterns of high class custom tailoring materials and to have your measure taken by an expert cutter representing Strouse & Bros., Bal- timore, the well-known makers of high art clothing. Orders will be taken at our store on Wednesday and Thursday, Au- gust 15 and 16. C. W. Pitchford Co. 33
—Wm. L. Dalton, a former Oconee boy, who has been a member of the 12th Company, United States Coast Artillery, stationed at Delaware City, Del., for four years, has declined to re-enlist in the service of Uncle Sam, although he was in the line of promotion, having been raised from private to corporal, and then to sergeant. Mr. Dalton has ac- cepted a position with the Pennsylvania State police force, and is stationed at Greensburg, that State. We wish him much success in his new position.
—We are indebted to our friend, E. M. Morgan, of the Fairview section, for a fine watermelon. We are always glad to be remembered by our country friends in so substantial a manner and to know that the efforts of the hard-worked prin- ter are appreciated. The latch string to the office door hangs on the outside dur- ing the winter months, but during the vegetable and fruit season the door stands wide open, and it is double-door, too, and there is no need to fear that the package will be too large. All are wel- come, fruit or no fruit. Come.
