

NEGRO LYNCHED NEAR ST. GEORGE.

THE NEGRO TRIED TO ENTER A WHITE MAN'S HOUSE—BODY SHOT TO PIECES.

Columbia, August 23.—Willie Spain, a North Carolina negro, 21 years old, was shot to death by a mob near St. George, Dorchester county, this afternoon. This is the third lynching in South Carolina within ten days.

S. L. Connor, manager of the Dorchester Lumber Company's stores, at Badham, was notified by a negro that he saw another negro attempting to enter a window of his home, and then ran away into a nearby cane patch. Connor immediately started for his home, going through the cane field. He suddenly came upon Spain. He grappled with the negro, striking him a severe blow, breaking several bones in his hand. The negro finally freed himself and ran into nearby woods. Connor notified his neighbors and a search was begun.

About two hours later Spain was captured in a negro cabin not far distant. He was brought to St. George and turned over to Sheriff Linchhouse, who looked him up in jail. Shortly afterwards a posse of forty or fifty men went to the sheriff and demanded the keys of the jail. Securing the keys, the jail was unlocked and the negro taken to the house of Connor, where his 11-year-old daughter, who was alone in the house, positively identified the negro as the one who tried to climb through the window, but was frightened away by her screams.

The negro did not protest his innocence, but admitted that he had gone to the residence with the intention of entering it, but for what purpose he did not say.

The mob then took the negro to a nearby oak tree, strung him up to a limb and shot about 500 holes in his body. The negro's head and body were shot literally to pieces.

After the sheriff had surrendered to the mob he telegraphed Governor Heyward of what had happened. The Governor at once wired the officer to use all means to prevent a lynching, but it was too late, as the mob lost no time in dispatching the negro. After finishing its work the mob quietly dispersed.

Cured Hay Fever and Summer Cold. A. J. Nusbaum, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach me, and I took several medicines which seemed to only aggravate my case. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar and it quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success."

Hoke Smith for Georgia's Governor.

[Atlanta Constitution, August 24.] Practically complete returns from all counties in the State received yesterday show that Hoke Smith has carried 118 counties for Governor, Judge R. B. Russell 11, Clark Howell 9, J. H. Estill 4, and James M. Smith 3.

This will give each in the State convention, which meets in Macon on September 4, the following vote, insuring the nomination of Hoke Smith on the first ballot by an overwhelming vote:

Hoke Smith 304, Russell 26, Howell 18, Estill 12, J. M. Smith 6. There are necessary to a choice on the first ballot 184 votes, the total number being 366. Mr. Smith, therefore, has 120 votes more than enough to give him the nomination.

The vote for Governor in Franklin county was as follows: Hoke Smith 1,032, Dick Russell 302, Jim Smith 256, Howell 8, Estill 7.—Lavonia Times.

The vote in Stephens county was: Estill 6, Howell 17, Russell 577, Hoke Smith 293, Jim Smith 37.

LATER RETURNS.

Later returns from Wednesday's primary show an increase for Hoke Smith and the number of counties carried by him has been increased to 122. The table of counties carried by the candidates is as follows:

Hoke Smith 122, Russell 9, Howell 7, Estill 4, James Smith 3.

Hoke Smith will go into the convention with 314 delegates.

Another Good Man Gone Wrong.

He neglected to take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first signs of kidney trouble, hoping it would wear away, and he was soon a victim of Bright's disease. There is danger in delay, but if Foley's Kidney Cure is taken at once the symptoms will disappear, the kidneys are strengthened and you are soon sound and well. A. R. Bass of Morgantown, Ind., had to get up ten or twelve times in the night, and had a severe backache and pains in the kidneys, and was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure.

Death of John Hendricks.

John Hendricks died yesterday at the home of his granddaughter, Mrs. H. G. Harrell, at Pelzer, at the advanced age of 96 years. The interment will take place at Pelzer to-day.

Mr. Hendricks lived at Fair Play, in Oconee county, until a few years ago, and was a well known citizen. He leaves no children, and but three grandchildren, one of whom is Mrs. J. W. Bailey, wife of the Methodist minister at Starr.

Mr. Hendricks was a very vigorous man all of his life. During the past few years he has made several visits to one of his grandsons, who lives in Alabama. He was ill only about a week, and just an hour or so he got out of bed and wanted to walk around the room, but was not able to do so. He died simply of old age.

Mr. Hendricks was a good citizen and a good neighbor, and was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him. It is said that he assisted at the digging of every grave that was dug in the graveyard at Fair Play for fifty years. He removed from his old home there only a few years ago to live with his grandchildren.—Anderson Mail, August 22.

Given Up to Die.

B. Spiegel, 1204 N. Virginia St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder affections which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was all run down, and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had three of the best physicians who did me no good and I was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second bottle I was entirely cured."

Ely Doyle McCrary Killed on Track.

Columbia, August 18.—Ely Doyle McCrary, a flagman on a Southern Railway freight train, was killed at Shelton yesterday afternoon at 6:35 o'clock. He was found lying on the track with his head across the rail, where he had evidently fallen asleep.

An inquest was held at Shelton and the body was brought to Columbia this afternoon for burial. He leaves a wife, two sisters and a brother.

[Mr. McCrary was a nephew of W. H. Doyle, Mrs. Laura Dodd and Mrs. Amanda Rutledge, of near Walhalla.]

A GREAT AMERICAN SOLDIER.

voice upon the action of such a noble soul is hushed. A careful survey of his character and life must lead the student of men and affairs to see that the course he took was from his point of view and judged by his inexorable and pure conscience the path of duty to which a high sense of honor called him. Could we share the thoughts of that high-minded man as he paced the broad pillared veranda of his noble Arlington house, his eyes glancing across the river at the flag of his country, waving above the dome of the Capitol and then resting on the soil of his native Virginia, we should be willing now to recognize in him one of the finest products of American life. For surely as the years go on we shall see that such a life can be judged by no partisan measure, and we shall come to look upon him as the English of our day regard Washington, whom little more than a century ago they delighted to call a rebel. Indeed in all essential characteristics Lee resembled Washington, and had the great work of his life been crowned with success, or had he chosen the winning side, the world would have acknowledged that Virginia could in a century produce two men who were the embodiment of public and private virtue.

"The avenging pen of history" has placed the name of Lee side by side with Washington. So writes the historian of to-day and so will the future historian prolong the noble record. The fame of Robert Lee is secure in that last appeal to: Time the benefactor of the dead, Time the corrector where our judgments err, The test of Truth.

A hundred years ago the best physician would give you a medicine for your heart without stopping to consider what effect it might have on the liver. Even to this good day cough and cold medicines invariably bind the bowels. This is wrong. Bee's Laxative Cough Syrup with Honey and Tar acts on the bowels—drives out the cold—clears the head, relieves all coughs, cleanses and strengthens the mucous membranes of the throat, chest, lungs and bronchial tubes. Sold by Dr. J. W. Bell, Walhalla, and W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

Girls Attacked by Dozen Men.

St. Louis, August 23.—Hazel Jackson, eighteen years old, and Mamie Cross, nineteen, are both ill at the Jackson home as the result of having been attacked by a dozen men in a desolate place in Broadway, south of the city limits. The girls were bound, gagged and carried forcibly into a grove. Nine men have been arrested in connection with the case, and warrants charging assault were issued yesterday against six of them. Miss Cross, still pale and haggard from a recent illness, told the story of the attack.

How to Avoid Appendicitis.

Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels and restores the natural action of the bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes.

Lynching Made Him a Lunatic.

Charleston, S. C., August 20.—A special from Greenwood to-night tells of the arrest and placing in jail of Bob Faust, colored, 30 years of age, who this afternoon went crazy thinking over the recent lynchings and announced that he would assault every woman he met. Three times he attacked colored women and was driven away without doing them injury, and at last he entered the premises of Benjamin King, a white farmer, living in the Coronaca section, loudly proclaiming that he meant to assault the women of the place. He had a gun, but King succeeded in disarming him and later, securely bound, he was taken to Greenwood, apparently a raving lunatic.

Rheumatism.

When pains or irritation exist on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Liniment gives prompt relief. E. W. Sullivan, proprietor of the Sullivan House, El Reno, O. T., writes, June 6, 1902: "I take pleasure in recommending Ballard's Snow Liniment to all who are afflicted with rheumatism. It is the only remedy I have found that gives immediate relief." 25c., 50c. and $1. Walhalla Drug Co.; W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

War Waging in Cuba.

Havana, August 23.—Two bloody battles were fought to-day between insurgents and rural guards. In one Gen. Quentin Bandera, the negro leader, was killed and the other resulted in the capture of San Juan de Marbinez by the rebel forces.

The revolutionists are now occupying two important cities on the island.

A force of rural guards and volunteers has left Cienfuegos, province of Santa Clara, to engage 300 insurgents who left Las Lajas under the command of Col. Guseman, mayor of that town.

A force of 200 mounted rural guards, which had been for three days seeking the insurgent force commanded by Bandera, finally succeeded after the veteran commander had pitched his camp for the night.

In addition to Bandera, two of his followers were killed, but none was captured. Bandera greatly distinguished himself in the Cuban war for independence.

You can see the Poison Pine-ules clears out of the kidneys and bladder. A single dose at bed-time will show you more poison upon rising the next morning than can be expelled from the system in any other way. Pine-ules dissolve the impurities, lubricate the kidneys, cleanse the bladder, relieve pain and do away with backache speedily, pleasantly, permanently. Sold by Dr. J. W. Bell, Walhalla, and W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

Cutting Case in Columbia.

Columbia, August 23.—Wyatt Ellison was dangerously cut by Bob Sphinx in the throat and back Monday night at 10 o'clock, between Gregg and Washington streets. Disparaging remarks regarding each other's wives caused the difficulty. Wyatt drew his knife and stabbed Sphinx in the throat, arm and back. A long cut, extending from his left ear to his chin, an ugly gash deeply penetrating the back, and the muscles of the left arm being ripped open.

Premium on Marriage.

New York, August 17.—It became known to-day that Swift & Co. had issued a letter from their headquarters in Chicago offering $50 in gold to every clerk in their employ who marries.

Manager Cooper received the letter in Jersey City and immediately gave out the glad tidings to the dozen or so employees. Immediately Cupid began to work overtime with the result that Chief Clerk McBride, of the receiving department, has won not only a wife, but the $50 in gold as well.

As there are 500 branches of the company scattered over the United States, it is expected that considerable sums will be paid out within the next month or so to the marrying employees.
