—The Sumter Herald, of last week, pertinently remarks: "Under the vigorous efforts of Comptroller General Jones, ably seconed in most counties by the local Auditors, the lists of the income tax: "yers are surely growing. In the opinion of all of us poor folks this is a very just tax and its collection in large quantities each year is a testimonial to the improved condition of the State and the improved condition of some consciences and an improvement in vigor of the tax department." Wonder if Oconee county hasn't got some tax-pavers who are liable to this income tax? If your salary or income is over $2,000 net you are liable to this tax.

—"North Walhalla," according to the main spring and pendulum of the settlement, Fielding A. Lewis, is the coming residence portion of Walhalla. In fact, it can scarcely be called the coming portion, for, according to Mr. Lewis, it has already come. It is "the hub and axle," and Walhalla, the spokes, rim and tire, revolves around it and with it, but can do nothing without it. New houses are going up, others are to follow, and everybody in North Walhalla is busy. It's a good sign and we hope to see the other parts of town get in proper running order, so that the whole wheel can move smoothly and hold up the entire load that is coming our way.

On the eighth page of this issue will be found the advertisement of Ruskin Anderson, of Seneca, the ploneer of the big cut-price sales for Oconee county. His great sacrifice sale advertised two weeks ago proved a greater success than he had anticipated. In one day over 3,000 customers visited his store, and his sales surpassed all records. In anticipation of this great rush he had large shipments of new goods arriving, and as pation of this great rush he had large shipments of new goods arriving, and as the stock ran low the shelves were re-filled and everybody was able to supply his wants at the big reduction made in the price of goods. On November 10th the prizes offered will be awarded. Read his advertisement carefully and call on him. He is always ready to make good every statement contained in his adver-

—The results of the big fire at Seneca are still making themselves apparent.

J. H. Adams, the "Poor Man's Friend," is out with a big fire sale that will save money for his customers. The reduction in price amounts to about 40 percent, and the cut is on in every department. His advertisement appears on the third page of this issue, and the prices quoted are given merely as an eye-opener or index to the cut made on the whole stock. Those who are familiar with Mr. Adams's stock and his big sales in the past know what this means. It is a past know what this means. It is a chance to save money with every purchase. The sale begins Friday, November 2d, and you will do well to call on him early and secure your full share of the bargains. Read his advertisement and call on him.

—Everything going cheap at Norman's —Just at this time considerable attention is being directed to home-building and home-securing in Walballa, and in a business way and in other respects the town has brighter prospects than it has had for years. In view of these facts the advertisement of T. E. Alexander, real estate dealer, is of more than ordinary interest. It will be found on the fourth page this week. Mr. Alexander has 51 pieces of property for sale—town lots, residences and farms. Investors and home-seekers will do well to examine his list of proper'y and write or call on him. There are more homes being bought and built in Walhalla now than ever before. There is plenty of room for more homes and plenty of good building sites for those who wish to build their homes new. Good farms can be had near town, convenient to schools and churches. Consult T. E. Alexander if you are looking for a home. -Everything going cheap at Norman's

Get Out and Vote.

Columbia, S. C., October 29.—General Wilie Jones, State Chairman of the Democratic party, has issued an address to the Democratic voters, urging them to vote at the general election next Tuesday, November 6th. General Jones warns the Democrats against apathy and says: "Our State ticket is safe, as the Republicans have put up no opposition at all-"Our State ticket is safe, as the Republicans have put up no opposition at all. Our candidates for Congress in the Second, Fourth and Seventh Districts have active Republican opposition, and it is especially necessary in those districts that a full Democratic vote be cast. My information is that in some of the counties Socialist candidates for the Legislature will be run. If you do not come out and vote you certainly run the risk of being misrepresented in Congress by negroes or white Republicans. It is conceded by all that the next House will be very close, and the past victory of the Republican party proves that they will stop at nothing to count in a working majority. There is no reason why our Congressional ticket should not receive every Democratic vote in the State, as we are absolutely united on national issues." General Jones declares that reduction of representation is threatened because of the small vote in the Southern States.

Rawlings Murder Case.

Atlanta, October 26.—Pending the decision of the United States Supreme Court on the appeal of J. G. Rawlings, the State prison commission to-day deferred action on the petition of his sons, Jesse and Milton Rawlings, for a commutation of their death sentence to life imprisonment. Subsequently the prison commission sent Governor Terrell a recommendation for a further respite of 30 days in the execution of the boys' sentence, which was set for November 2. The hearing of the appeal of J. G. Rawling has been set for next Monday by the ing has been set for next Monday by the Supreme Court. The father and sons were convicted for the murder of the two Carter children near Valdosta, Ga., more than a year ago.

The State will be asked to make an appropriation for the next Confederate reunion, and a bill to that end will be introduced in the Legislature in January.

Shot Dead at Cards.

Laurens, Oct. 27.—As the result of a row over cards between a party of negroes, Phil Anderson was shot dead and Henderson Fuller was probably fatally wounded by John Dennis this afternoon about 5 o'clock. The tragedy occurred at Mt. Carmel, three miles from Gray Court, where the negroes were holding their annual stock show to-day. Anderson and Fuller lived at Gray Court. Dennis, who was acquitted of murder at a recent term of court in Greenville, lives at Barksdale, Deputy Sheriff Sullivan has gone to the scene and Dennis will probably be arrested to-night.

You Know the Studebaker Wagon

I'or more than fifty years its reputation has grown better every year. This reputation is due to the good quality that has always been a part of the Studebaker Wagons. Each part is made from the lumber that is best fitted for that part. New England black birch makes the best hubs—the Studebaker hubs are made of it. Butt cut, second growth black hickory is the best for axles—Studebaker axles are made of it. Selected white oak is best for spokes and running gears—that is what is used in the Studebaker Wagon. The Studebaker Wagon

Is Perfect in Every Detail

That is why we sell it. Come in and let us talk it over. We have some interesting wagon books for every one.
