You Should Know ALUM'S WORST WORK

Some Mothers, unconscious of the injurious effects of Alum, are daily giving it to their Children by the use of so-called Cheap Baking Powder.

What Mother would do so if she only knew?

Alum's Worst Work is its early harmful influence on the child's digestive organs. Positively Never, should Children of tender years be required to eat it in their food.

Secure your Children against Alum in their food.

AVOID ALUM

Say plainly—

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

ROYAL is made from Pure Refined Grape Cream of Tartar—Aids Digestion.

Unusual Spices.

I supply grades of Spices that are seldom handled. Goods that are not only pure, but of unusual strength and flavor. These Spices cost you little if any more than the common varieties, and are far more economical to use while giving better results. Test them during the Canning and Pickling Season. Allspice, Mixed Spices, Black and Red Pepper, Cinnamon, Cloves, Ginger, Celery and White Mustard Seed, Turmeric, Mace, etc.

WESTMINSTER.

Westminster, Nov. 6.—Mrs. Mary J. Gaston, widow of Hamilton R. Gaston, died at her home here on Tuesday morning, October 30, after an illness lasting nine days. She was nearly eighty-five years old, having been born in Greenville county December 11, 1821. Her maiden name was Goodlett, and she was the youngest child of a very large family, all of whom lived to a ripe age. For about fifty-seven years Mrs. Gaston had resided in this immediate vicinity and she remarked a short time ago that there were only two of the old settlers now living in this section who were here when she and her husband came. They are D. S. Hull and Mrs. Ara Phillips. Her husband died at the old homestead on March 12, 1891. The following are the living children: Mrs. B. H. Cross, Mrs. T. N. Hall, Miss Henrietta Gaston, Luther G. Gaston, Westminster; Elliott T. Gaston, San Francisco, California; Walter S. Gaston, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Elwood F. Gaston, Wichita Falls, Texas; and Mrs. J. L. Hudgins, of near Decatur, Ga. She leaves eight grandchildren and one great-grand child. Two sons died during the civil war. William, the oldest son, was mortally wounded at the battle of Second Manassas. Joel, another son, died in a hospital at Salisbury, N. C. None of the children who live out of the State were at home when their mother died, except Mrs. Hudgins. Mrs. Gaston was a benediction and a joy in her home and she will be sadly missed by those left behind. She was prepared for death, her long life having been spent in serving and trusting in the Master, which is worthy of emulation by the young people of this day and time. She connected herself with the Presbyterian church early in life and held her membership at Richland until the church at Westminster was built. Her pastor, Rev. J. J. Harrell, stated at the funeral service that it was not his purpose to pass an eulogy on the life of Mrs. Gaston, for she was too well-known to everybody in this community. Her body was laid to rest in the town cemetery at noon on Wednesday by the side of her husband who preceded her to her Father's house about fifteen years.

John W. Cruett, of Baltimore, delivered a fine address at a public meeting of the Heptasoph held last night. John B. Sloan, District Supreme Organizer, of Atlanta, was present. The Odd Fellows' Cornet Band furnished excellent music for the occasion.

Henry Duff, who has been visiting at the home of his father-in-law, W. F. Hancock, returned to Spencer, N. C., a few days ago to resume work in the shops of the Southern Railway.

Ninety dollars was received for foreign missions at the Baptist church last Sunday. They will make it $100 before sending it away. At the missionary collection last fall $110 was raised for the support of the work in foreign fields.

R. A. C. Golden was called to Groer one day last week to the bedside of his mother, Mrs. A. M. Golden, who is seriously sick.

John S. Vandiver and family are moving back to Westminster and are occupying their home on Main street. Mr. Vandiver moved from here about twelve years ago and his friends gladly welcome his return to our midst.

Mrs. W. J. Stribling attended a woman's missionary meeting held at Edgefield last week. On her return home she stopped a while with her daughter, Mrs. M. C. Barton, of Piedmont.

The Old Homestead Quartette was greeted by a large audience last Tuesday evening and their selections were much enjoyed, as evidenced by the repeated applause. Their voices are perfectly blended. James C. Hoey, the second tenor, rendered some humorous selections and was enthusiastically encored. Josef Bestline, baritone and violinist, rendered some splendid violin music.

J. & J. S. Carter announce a big sale beginning on November 15th and lasting ten days. This well-known and wide-awake firm carry a big stock of general merchandise and no doubt a big crowd will be here to pick up the bargains they are offering.

Last Sabbath was communion day at the Baptist church. A large congregation was present and the eloquent sermon by Pastor Moore was helpful to all. Miss Ethel Leathers accompanied her uncle, Newton Alexander, to his home at Greenwood last week.

C. E. Anderson is now selling goods for W. S. Haley, where he would be pleased to see all his friends.

J. O. B. Haley has moved his family here for the purpose of educating his children.

An infant babe of Mr. and Mrs. John B. McCrary died in the cotton mill village last Tuesday. Its remains were interred in the Old Westminster cemetery.

Dr. W. A. Sheldon and family, of Liberty, have been on a visit to the families of S. P. Stribling and J. D. Sheldon, at Fair Play, and M. S. Stribling, of Westminster. They returned home yesterday.

There will be no preaching in the Methodist church next Sabbath owing to the quarterly meeting which convenes at Center on November 10 and 11.

Thad Elrod, of Madison, was in Westminster Sunday.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed in the Presbyterian church next Sabbath at the morning service.

Newton Alexander, of Greenwood, visited the family of G. W. Leathers last week. Mr. Alexander is the youngest son of the late Thomas Alexander, formerly of this county, and has many relatives in this section.

Rev. William Wily, of Georgetown, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wily, near Westminster.

There was some very bad behavior at the Lyceum attraction on the evening of October 30th.

Born, unto Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Cannon, on October 28, a son.

Frank Norris, who is working at Iva, in Anderson county, came home Saturday evening.

Misses Mary Messer and Bessie Crawford spent a few hours in Seneca Saturday.

N. W. Macaulay, the new carrier on R. F. D. No. 2, commenced work on November 1. He is for the present boarding with Rev. A. P. Marett, until he can get a vacant house to move into.

There will be services in the Presbyterian church Thursday and Friday evenings, preparatory to the communion services on Sunday.

The work of laying the concrete blocks for T. M. Lowery's big sales stables has been completed and the roof is now being put on.

John W. Cruett, of Baltimore, and John B. Sloan, of Atlanta, are here to-day. The voters are coming in very slowly this morning.

A. L. Gossett.

Made Happy for Life.

Great happiness came into the home of S. C. Blair, school superintendent, of St. Albans, W. Va., when his little daughter was restored from the dreadful complaint he names. He says: "My little daughter had St. Vitus' dance, which yielded to no treatment, but grew steadily worse, until, as a last resort, we tried Electric Bitters, and I rejoice to say three bottles effected a complete cure." Quick, sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weaknesses, impoverished blood and malaria. Guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50c.

SENECA.

Seneca, Nov. 5.—The Ladies' Aid and Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church met with Mrs. W. S. Hunter on Monday afternoon, the meeting being one of the most delightful in the history of the society. Interesting papers were read and an unusual enthusiasm prevailed. The hostess served delicious hot chocolate with whipped cream and small cakes. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. C. V. McCarey.

The pastors of the churches here are making earnest appeals to our people to attend the prayer meetings on Wednesday evenings. It will be remembered that a short time ago the resident pastors decided to hold the prayer meetings all on Wednesday nights, thereby giving the other nights heretofore used for prayer services to the public. The following pertinent remark was made by one of the pastors last Sabbath in a forceful discourse: "The three pastors cannot do the work necessary here, it will take every man, woman and child who is a Christian to keep the work up to what it ought to be."

A wee bird has told your correspondent that wedding bells will ring in Seneca before another moon. In this connection we are reminded of hearing a good man say once that he "never saw a man whom he considered good enough for any woman." We are positively certain that we never saw one whom we considered half good enough for the sweet young woman whom rumor says will soon be snatched from our midst, (with all due regard for the gude mon who happens to be the other party in this instance).

A meeting of the book committee at the library on Tuesday morning, at which a conference was held for the purpose of discussing the merits and demerits of the books on the shelves of the library, is a most healthy sign. That the character of the literature laid before our readers should receive the earnest, thoughtful and intelligent attention of the committee appointed for this purpose is nothing more than our sober and intelligent membership have a right to demand. The members of the committee are Messdames E. A. Hines, Elias Earle, T. E. Stribling, and Revs. C. S. Blackburn and O. M. Abney.

Mrs. E. A. Hines, the president of the Civic Improvement Association, has called a meeting of the executive committee for Wednesday morning. Important issues are before the committee and the president earnestly desires that the committee meetings be full, so that intelligent action can be taken in the business which comes before them from time to time. The officers and chairman of the sections constitute the executive committee, whose names are as follows: Messdames E. A. Hines, J. W. Byrd, W. S. Hunter, T. E. Stribling, S. K. Denny, J. H. Adams, C. V. McCarey and Miss Mary Cherry.

Miss Verna Stribling had a few friends with her on Halloween, and a right jolly time was enjoyed from 8 until 11 o'clock. There were ghosts and hobgoblins everywhere, pumpkin heads used for lanterns and miniature pumpkins as favors. The inevitable contest was a bright feature of the evening's entertainment, in which Master Gordon Todd received the prize. The presentation speech was made by Master Charles V. Stribling, which was a jewel, combining wit and wisdom in a most astounding degree. Small cakes and chocolate with whipped cream were served by two dainty little maidens, Misses Alice Niell and Clara V. McCarey.

Miss Ethel Kirkpatrick leaves on Thursday next for a visit of several weeks to Davidson College, N. C.

Cliff Fincannon spent last Sunday in Seneca.

Miss Lillian Caldwell's friends are delighted to see her out again after a serious illness of several weeks.

It is rumored that the Presbyterian Comedy Company is to come before the footlights again soon.

Misses Pearl and Eunice Ballenger were in Seneca shopping on Monday.

T. E. Stribling had a fine milch cow killed by the Blue Ridge passenger train on Monday morning. "This is one case in which," Mr. Stribling declares, "a fellow is justified in crying over split milk."

Biliousness and Constipation.

For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Only preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I would have been to-day had I not tried Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, helping the system to do its work naturally.—Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala. These tablets are for sale by Dr. J. W. Bell, Walhalla; W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

Fair Play News.

Fair Play, Nov. 6.—Married, at the residence of J. Reese Fant, of Townville, on October 28th, 1906, Miss Maude Marett, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Marett, and Joseph Glymph, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Glymph, both families residing near Fair Play. The many friends of these young people extend congratulations and wish them a life of unalloyed happiness and prosperity.

Miss Bertie Smith, accompanied by her brother, Lowell, returned to her home at Bounty Land, after a very pleasant visit to relatives here. Miss Bertie expects to resume her work in the school-room at an early day.

Miss Olivia Heller, one of Alpine's charming daughters, is on a visit to the family of Dr. J. R. Heller.

Dr. Will Sheldon and family, of Liberty, have been visiting the families of S. P. Stribling and J. D. Sheldon.

Prof. Ray L. Bowen, of Townville, and Dr. L. A. Klein, State Veterinarian, of Clemson College, visited in our town recently.

J. Lawrence Burris, of Anderson county, was among relatives here last week.

Rev. T. C. Ligon, of Townville, visited the family of T. R. Harris last week. Mr. Ligon has many friends here who are always glad to have him visit them.

Rev. D. A. Lewis filled his regular appointment at the Methodist church last Sunday.

J. J. Lee, Sr., is contemplating a visit to his sons in Birmingham, Ala., in the near future.

N. Fritz Watson, of Anderson, son of Hon. J. B. Watson, was up on business last week.

A Mr. Davis, living on Mrs. Richey's farm, near here, lost his house and contents by fire on last Thursday night. There were three bales of seed cotton stored in the house, and by the untiring efforts of kind neighbors they succeeded in saving about two-thirds of it. The loss falls heavily on Mr. Davis and Mrs. Richey. The burning was purely accidental.
